

Amazing son in law (charlie wade) - The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6322

For charlie Wade, Gustavo has lost its use value after he successfully approached Bruce Weinstein.

A Mexican drug lord who has lost his power is imprisoned by the Americans, and his son is still thinking about killing him as soon as possible. Such a person really has no practical value.

Unless you take him out of prison, take him back to Mexico, and help him regain control of the Sanchez family.

But this is not cost-effective for charlie Wade.

First of all, Gustavo is a notorious drug dealer. From the bottom of his heart, charlie Wade does not want to have too much involvement with such a person, especially in terms of interests;

secondly, Gustavo is a person who the US government spent a lot of money from Mexico. The effort to extradite a major drug lord is also a major achievement of the U.S. government's anti-drug campaign. For the sake of its own face, the U.S. government must ensure that he remains in a U.S. prison. Once he escapes from prison, it will be a defeat for U.S. justice. The face of the system;

when the time comes, the U.S. government will only become more frantic in trying to capture him. In this case, even if Sanchez returns to Mexico to regain power, he may not be able to survive for a few days, and he will still return to this place when the time comes. .

Therefore, the best way for charlie Wade now is to let Gustavo use his remaining energy. As long as he is willing to kill himself and sell the Rothschild family, he can give the Rothschild family what they just got. That little bit of initiative was lost in an instant.

Moreover, charlie Wade is not simply using Gustavo. As long as Gustavo succeeds in finding a survival gap between the Rothschild family and his son according to what he said, he can live with peace of mind.

In this case, he would not only hit the Rothschild family, but also save his life, and he would also be grateful to Charlie Wade, killing three birds with one stone.

At this time, Gustavo also understood the basic logic of Charlie Wade's plan. In the past, as a major drug lord who acted as a private arm, he didn't like to make such twists and turns when doing things, whether it was dealing with colleagues or with others. When dealing with the government, he basically has two tricks that are used all over the world. One is to take it for his own use, and if he can't take it away, he will kill him directly, so he can't think of such a psychological attack strategy in his mind.

After sorting out Charlie Wade's logic, he was filled with admiration and quickly praised, "Mr. Wade, your method is so wonderful! I never thought of it... Someone once recommended your Chinese book 'The Art of War' to me. ", I haven't taken it seriously yet, but now look, I still have to study and learn these profound Eastern wisdoms." Charlie looked at him, smiled and said, "You don't need to learn these now, anyway, you will be here all your life." It's impossible to get out of this prison. As long as you do what I say, you can stand on your own. In the land of immortality, let's lie down in this prison from now on. "

Gustavo sneered, nodded enthusiastically and agreed, "Mr. Wade, you are right, I will only be able to spend my remaining years in this prison. "

Charlie Wade nodded, waved his hand and said, "Okay, hurry up and record the video. After recording, let me take a look. If there are no problems, you can upload it to the Internet. "

"Good! Gustavo hurriedly said, "I'll record it right now!" "

The online video conference of the Rothschild family finally came to an end.

The investigation team led by the FBI has also arrived at the Brooklyn Prison and found the secret passage in the video in the warden's office.

The secret passage was found, and Zhou Liangyun, who was imprisoned below, was naturally rescued by them. However, Zhou Liangyun was a criminal who had committed the crime of theft after all. After the FBI brought him in, they had no time to question him too much, so they hurriedly He was sent to Manhattan Hospital.

After all, Zhou Liangyun suffered an inhumane lynching to extract a confession. Out of humanitarianism, the FBI had to let the hospital conduct a detailed physical examination of his body before determining whether he was still alive based on his physical condition. He can continue to serve his sentence normally in prison.

And because he is a victim in this scandal, in order to ensure that he does not sue the judicial department, after his physical examination is completed, the judicial department will come to have a closed-door discussion with him. They need to pay compensation or reduce the sentence to satisfy Zhou Liangyun.

From this moment on, Zhou Liangyun has completely taken back the initiative.

As for Bruce Weinstein, who was psychologically suggested by charlie Wade, because He abused his power and was temporarily detained by the FBI. After that, the investigation team will prosecute him after the entire investigation is completed.

Matt Rothschild has also surrendered to the police under family pressure.

Although he is He is a core member of the Rothschild family, but in the face of family interests, his personal interests are no longer worth mentioning. What's more, he was the one who brought the whole thing to light. At this time, he can only stand up and be the one behind the scenes. Pot Man.

However, Hector Sanchez, the son of Gustavo Sanchez, who was far away in Mexico, was a little upset at this time. He did not expect that Joseph's people did not succeed in killing his father today. Originally, he was a little upset

. He said

I don't care too much. After all, just because I don't have a chance today doesn't mean I won't have a chance in the future. Maybe I can get my wish tomorrow.

However, the sudden series of big scandals in the United States instantly made him feel worried. In his opinion, if there was such a big scandal in Brooklyn Prison, the relevant departments in the United States would immediately tighten the management of this prison. Now, if Joseph wants to take action again, it may not be so easy.

He couldn't help but feel annoyed. If Joseph had taken action one day earlier, or if Joseph had seized the opportunity today, wouldn't he have solved all the problems in advance?

However, the current situation is that no matter how upset he is, he can't solve the problem at hand, so he can only hope that Joseph can find a breakthrough point. If that doesn't work, he will send a killer to Brooklyn Prison to look for opportunities to kill his father. .

As for the United States, with the arrest of Bruce Weinstein and the surrender of Matt Rothschild, this matter has seemingly come to an end.

The Rothschild family can finally breathe a sigh of relief.

Especially Howard Rothschild, who was very old and still stayed up so late anxiously. He persisted until he was exhausted both physically and mentally. After seeing the dust settle, he was finally able to relax and lay down in bed to rest. At this time, another video was uploaded to major online platforms.

The protagonist of the video is Gustavo Sanchez, a well-known drug lord in the United States.

When Gustavo was extradited by the United States and put on trial, the U.S. government did a lot of publicity, so almost all Americans knew about Gustavo's deeds. He is definitely one of the most famous prisoners in the United States.

As far as everyone knows, Gustavo has been sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole. This person will be imprisoned in a U.S. prison for the rest of his life until he dies of illness or old age.

But who would have thought that suddenly, late at night after the noise, he would see his own selfie video on the Internet.

A prisoner serving his sentence in prison suddenly posted a self-portrait video online. This illustrates two incredible things. One is that this guy can use a mobile phone in prison, and the other is that this guy can still use a mobile phone in prison. Can access the Internet.

This made American melon-eating netizens extremely interested.

The content in Gustavo's video is even more explosive.

At the beginning of the video, he said to the camera angrily, "Hello everyone, I am Gustavo from Mexico. Sanchez, I am currently in the Brooklyn Prison in New York, USA. I want to accuse the Rothschild family of betrayal and burning bridges because this shameless family broke their promises and stabbed them in the back. Today at noon, I Almost died in Brooklyn jail! "

When the video reached this point, all the viewers felt a burst of mind-exploding surprise and pleasure!

Unexpectedly, another big melon came in the middle of the night! And it was a super big melon!

One of the most powerful drug lords in the world. The biggest family in the world is torn apart in prison. This kind of drama cannot be called annual. It may not be our turn to experience it in three to five years.

It is precisely because of the identity of the person involved that this video has never been seen since ancient times. From the moment Stavo showed his face, the viscosity and retention rate were astonishingly high. Almost no one would close the video at this time. Everyone was in front of the computer or mobile phone screen, watching without blinking. At this moment

, Gustavo said angrily, "When the U.S. government wanted to extradite me from Mexico to the U.S. for trial, I was absolutely unwilling. I even tried to escape from prison in Mexico and seek refuge in other countries several times. I am a member of the Rothschild family." People found me and promised me that as long as I was successfully extradited to the United States by the U.S. government, they would definitely put me in a prison they had full control over and let me enjoy the same living conditions as outside prison. Later, they will help me operate, modify the non-parole sentence, and let me return to Mexico for retirement..." "

It is because of this that I was sent to Brooklyn Prison by the Rothschild family. At first, the Rothschild family did They fulfilled their promise and gave me relatively favorable conditions, but I never imagined that the famous Rothschild family would break their promise so quickly! They hired killers from prison to launch a death attack on me, and I almost died in their hands! “

Speaking of this, Gustavo said with great sadness, “Hector, my good son! You must never fall into the American trap! If your father dies, you must do everything you can to avenge him! And you must remember that from now on, the Sanchez family must never cooperate in any form with the Rothschild family. They are a bunch of treacherous and shameless people!

Immediately, Gustavo said again, “There is more! ” All Sanchez family members must remember that unity and loyalty are the keys to the Sanchez family’s success! Therefore, no one, under any circumstances, must betray the family. This is the high-voltage line of our family! As long as anyone dares to touch this high-voltage line, no matter who he is, the entire Sanchez family will not let him go! “

. Gustavo recalled that when he was almost killed by his son, but still had to educate his son and family members in the video to unite, his There was a burst of sadness and anger in my heart.

If he had followed his original idea, he would have simply told all the members of the Sanchez family that it was his son who wanted to kill him, asking them to avenge him no matter what, and even asking them to oust his son from the position of family patriarch.

But after thinking about it carefully, he realized that charlie Wade’s plan was actually the most suitable.

His son is now in great power. If he tries to expose him at this time and force his men to rebel, it will only make him completely tear off the mask of hypocrisy and openly reveal his identity as a patricide to the world.

Even if other members of the Sanchez family are dissatisfied with him, they have no strength to challenge his position as head of the family. What’s more, now the interests of the entire Sanchez family are no longer tied to themselves, but to their own sons. The Sanchez family The other members of the group, for their own benefit, could not stand up and speak for Gustavo. So the best way now is actually to follow charlie Wade’s instructions and maintain the superficial relationship between father and son with his son. As long as his son’s dignity is not harmed and he is given a way out, he He would definitely not choose to be a parricide.

It was precisely because he had to leave room for his son as a loving father that he felt particularly tormented and unhappy.

Therefore, he could only direct all his anger towards the Rothschild family, grinning at the video and shouting, "I hope people all over the world can remember that Howard Rothschild is the most important person in this world." The most hypocritical person, bar none! He was behind everything that happened in Brooklyn Prison!" "

Whether it was locking me up here, trying to kill me, or locking up the antique dealer named Zhou. In the underground secret room, it was all the will of that bastard Howard! Now that the matter has been exposed, he pushed his grandson out as a shield. Just one fucking word for such a person, damn it! All those who betray their trust should die. !"

When the video played to this point, Gustavo in the camera had murderous intent on his face.

His right hand made a pistol shape and kept tapping on the ground, as if he was enjoying the pleasure of executing Howard with a pistol.

Afterwards, he calmed down a little and ended the video recording.

Everyone who sees this video has no doubt about the authenticity of the content of this video.

Because Gustavo is in BuBrooklyn Prison, and Brooklyn Prison has indeed just been proven to be secretly controlled by the Rothschild family.

It's just that not long ago, the Rothschild family dumped all the blame related to the Brooklyn Prison on Matt.

At first, people believed Howard's words, but they didn't expect to be slapped in the face so quickly by Gustavo's personal statement.

Even super drug lords like Gustavo stood up and accused Howard, which convinced everyone that Howard was the manipulator behind this.

Because Matt Rothschild is just a playboy who likes to sleep with other people's wives. How could such a person have the qualifications and ability to secretly have sex with a murderous drug lord like Gustavo?

Howard spent his life trying to move as far as possible in the cesspit, and he just barely managed to avoid getting excrement on himself by relying on Ramat to enter the cesspool as a stepping stone.

Just when Howard was standing on the edge of the manure pit rejoicing, Gustavo suddenly rushed out from nowhere, hugged Howard without hesitation, jumped into the manure pit, and gave Howard a decisive blow.

In an instant, insults against Howard sprung up on the Internet.

The Rothschild family never dreamed that they would be stabbed in the back by Gustavo, and they panicked for a moment.

Making deals with drug traffickers, giving them prison privileges, and using drug traffickers to obtain benefits in Mexico is simply not a possibility.

It would have been easier to put it in the semi-civilized 19th century during the Opium War. After all, everyone was a drug dealer. Even the British nobility and royal family were drug dealers. It was no big deal that the Rothschild family was involved with drug dealers.

But now is the 21st century of modern civilization. The British royal family has long since whitewashed itself. The Rothschild family is still dealing with drug traffickers. This is an extremely disgusting behavior in today's society. The Rothschilds were almost instantly The family's reputation was at its lowest point.

Howard sat up from the bed angrily, looked at the eldest son who came to report the news and asked angrily, "Who is going to kill Gustavo?! When did I say I was going to kill him?!" The eldest son said awkwardly,

"Father, we have a cooperation agreement with Gustavo. How could we kill him? There is either some misunderstanding or Gustavo has not finished this chapter is just made up. Howard asked, "Gustavo has already reached an agreement with us. What good does it do him to make up nonsense and frame us at this time?" And what I can't figure out is that in Brooklyn Prison, he is enjoying a lot of food and drinks, and gets whatever he wants. Only we can give him this kind of treatment. Now that he has come forward to report and expose us, it does not mean that he has also treated himself badly. Sold? Once the US government starts investigating this matter, he will lose all the privileges we have given him. By then, what good life will he have left? The eldest son said with a confused look on his face, “I don’t understand why this is happening. Reasonable and reasonable, I shouldn’t have come forward to bite us this Gusta.” “

Howard said very seriously, “Let’s think about it carefully, what is the reason that makes Gustavo give up his current privileged life and stand up against us? The eldest son shook his head and said, “

I can’t think of it. For him, the best choice is to cooperate with us. Even if the entire Sanchez family is like this, betraying them at this time will do them a lot of harm but nothing good.” ”

Howard was silent for a moment and said seriously, “Unless Gustavo’s life is really threatened, someone must really want to kill him, so she was forced to do nothing. , to drag us down. The eldest son quickly asked, “

Father, who do you think would want to kill Gustavo?” Gustavo is no longer the same Gustavo as he was back then. No matter how many privileges he enjoys, he is still a prisoner of the U.S. government. At this time, the beach has not only offended the Sanchez family, but also offended the U.S. government. What’s the point? Woolen cloth? Howard said coldly, “Go and investigate this matter. I want to figure out the whole story!” “

At the same time, in Jalisco, Mexico,

the headquarters of the Sanchez family is entrenched in this place famous for its agave.

The mansion where the Sanchez family lives can no longer be described as a manor. They own more than hundreds of Square miles of land, and on this fertile land, a large number of valuable agaves were planted, and multiple extremely luxurious super estates were built. Different from those so-called entrepreneurs with a net worth of tens of billions on the Forbes list What's strange is that the Sanchez family's tens of billions of dollars are worth almost nothing.

Entrepreneurs' worth is mostly due to valuations and shares that cannot be cashed out. For example, his own listed group has a market value of 100 billion U.S. dollars, and the entrepreneur personally owns 51% of the shares. , theoretically speaking, he is indeed worth five hundred100 million US dollars, but these shares cannot be reduced at will. At most, a part of them can be pledged. However, the money obtained from the pledged shares cannot be spent how you want. If one day the business is not good or the market is not good, the company's valuation will be affected. If it plummets, the pledged money must be returned honestly.

The same cannot be said for the Sanchez family.

Their net worth is all real gold and platinum exchanged by drug dealers from the United States and the world, so they can spend money unscrupulously.

In the center of the entire Sanchez family base camp, there is a majestic building complex like an ancient castle. This is where the core members of the Sanchez family live.

Gustavo's son, Héctor Sanchez, lived here.

Since he replaced Gustavo and took charge of this drug empire, he has taken a helicopter every day to inspect the entire Sanchez family's territory, and every inspection has strengthened his determination to continue to develop this empire.

However, now the Sanchez family is being led by the Rothschild family.

The reason is that his father, Gustavo Sanchez, is in the hands of the Rothschild family.

His father was imprisoned in the hands of others, which made Hector particularly passive. However, whenever he wanted to draw a clear line with the Rothschild family, everyone around him would remind him that his father Gustavo It is still in the hands of the Rothschild family, so no matter what, we must maintain a friendly relationship with the Rothschild family and not be too impulsive.

Ector has many plans that he considers to be brilliant and strategic, but during this period, the plans he thought of were basically overturned by the Rothschild family. Whenever he wanted to fall out with the Rothschild family, Gus Tawo will always be the opponent's seven inches to take advantage of him.

This made him deeply feel that the Rothschild family was the stumbling block that hindered the Sanchez family from continuing to develop and create greater glory.

In order to completely get rid of the control of the Rothschild family, he planned to find someone to kill his father in prison, so that Rothschild would no longer be able to control him.

Although Héctor had already fallen asleep at this time, in his dream, he still hoped that Joseph could kill his father as soon as possible and completely cut off his future troubles.

But at this time, his uncle, Gustavo's younger brother Ricardo Sanchez, suddenly called him. The moment the call was connected, his uncle said impatiently on the phone, "Eco Please, watch the news, something happened to your father!"

Amazing son in law (charlie wade) - The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6323

charlie Wade nodded, waved his hand and said, "Okay, hurry up and record the video. After recording, let me take a look. If there are no problems, you can upload it to the Internet. "

At the same time, in Jalisco, Mexico,

the headquarters of the Sanchez family is entrenched in this place famous for its agave.

The mansion where the Sanchez family lives can no longer be described as a manor. They own more than hundreds of Square miles of land, and on this fertile land, a large number of valuable agaves were planted, and multiple extremely luxurious super estates were built. Different from those so-called entrepreneurs with a net worth of tens of billions on the Forbes list What's strange is that the Sanchez family's tens of billions of dollars are worth almost nothing.

Entrepreneurs' worth is mostly due to valuations and shares that cannot be cashed out. For example, his own listed group has a market value of 100 billion U.S. dollars, and the entrepreneur personally owns 51% of the shares. , theoretically speaking, he is indeed worth five hundred100 million US dollars, but these shares cannot be reduced at will. At most, a part of them can be pledged. However, the money obtained from the pledged shares cannot be spent how you want. If one day the business is not good or the market is not good, the company's valuation will be affected. If it plummets, the pledged money must be returned honestly.

The same cannot be said for the Sanchez family.

Their net worth is all real gold and platinum exchanged by drug dealers from the United States and the world, so they can spend money unscrupulously.

In the center of the entire Sanchez family base camp, there is a majestic building complex like an ancient castle. This is where the core members of the Sanchez family live.

Gustavo's son, Héctor Sanchez, lived here.

Since he replaced Gustavo and took charge of this drug empire, he has taken a helicopter every day to inspect the entire Sanchez family's territory, and every inspection has strengthened his determination to continue to develop this empire.

However, now the Sanchez family is being led by the Rothschild family.

The reason is that his father, Gustavo Sanchez, is in the hands of the Rothschild family.

His father was imprisoned in the hands of others, which made Hector particularly passive. However, whenever he wanted to draw a clear line with the Rothschild family, everyone around him would remind him that his father Gustavo It is still in the hands of the Rothschild family, so no matter what, we must maintain a friendly relationship with the Rothschild family and not be too impulsive.

Ector has many plans that he considers to be brilliant and strategic, but during this period, the plans he thought of were basically overturned by the Rothschild family. Whenever he wanted to fall out with the Rothschild family, Gus Tawo will always be the opponent's seven inches to take advantage of him.

This made him deeply feel that the Rothschild family was the stumbling block that hindered the Sanchez family from continuing to develop and create greater glory.

In order to completely get rid of the control of the Rothschild family, he planned to find someone to kill his father in prison, so that Rothschild would no longer be able to control him.

Although Héctor had already fallen asleep at this time, in his dream, he still hoped that Joseph could kill his father as soon as possible and completely cut off his future troubles.

But at this time, his uncle, Gustavo's younger brother Ricardo Sanchez, suddenly called him. The moment the call was connected, his uncle said impatiently on the phone, "Eco Please, watch the news, something happened to your father!"

Amazing son in law (charlie wade) - The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6324

He couldn't help but feel annoyed. If Joseph had taken action one day earlier, or if Joseph had seized the opportunity today, wouldn't he have solved all the problems in advance?

However, the current situation is that no matter how upset he is, he can't solve the problem at hand, so he can only hope that Joseph can find a breakthrough point. If that doesn't work, he will send a killer to Brooklyn Prison to look for opportunities to kill his father. .

As for the United States, with the arrest of Bruce Weinstein and the surrender of Matt Rothschild, this matter has seemingly come to an end.

The Rothschild family can finally breathe a sigh of relief.

Especially Howard Rothschild, who was very old and still stayed up so late anxiously. He persisted until he was exhausted both physically and mentally.

After seeing the dust settle, he was finally able to relax and lay down in bed to rest. At this time, another video was uploaded to major online platforms.

The protagonist of the video is Gustavo Sanchez, a well-known drug lord in the United States.

When Gustavo was extradited by the United States and put on trial, the U.S. government did a lot of publicity, so almost all Americans knew about Gustavo's deeds. He is definitely one of the most famous prisoners in the United States.

As far as everyone knows, Gustavo has been sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole. This person will be imprisoned in a U.S. prison for the rest of his life until he dies of illness or old age.

But who would have thought that suddenly, late at night after the noise, he would see his own selfie video on the Internet.

A prisoner serving his sentence in prison suddenly posted a self-portrait video online. This illustrates two incredible things. One is that this guy can use a mobile phone in prison, and the other is that this guy can still use a mobile phone in prison. Can access the Internet.

This made American melon-eating netizens extremely interested.

The content in Gustavo's video is even more explosive.

At the beginning of the video, he said to the camera angrily, "Hello everyone, I am Gustavo from Mexico. Sanchez, I am currently in the Brooklyn Prison in New York, USA. I want to accuse the Rothschild family of betrayal and burning bridges because this shameless family broke their promises and stabbed them in the back. Today at noon, I Almost died in Brooklyn jail! "

When the video reached this point, all the viewers felt a burst of mind-exploding surprise and pleasure!

Unexpectedly, another big melon came in the middle of the night! And it was a super big melon!

One of the most powerful drug lords in the world. The biggest family in the world is torn apart in prison. This kind of drama cannot be called annual. It may not be our turn to experience it in three to five years.

It is precisely because of the identity of the person involved that this video has never been seen since ancient times. From the moment Stavo showed his face, the viscosity and retention rate were astonishingly high. Almost no one would close the video at this time. Everyone was in front of the computer or mobile phone screen, watching without blinking. At this moment

, Gustavo said angrily, "When the U.S. government wanted to extradite me from Mexico to the U.S. for trial, I was absolutely unwilling. I even tried to escape from prison in Mexico and seek refuge in other countries several times. I am a member of the Rothschild family." People found me and promised me that as long as I was successfully extradited to the United States by the U.S. government, they would definitely put me in a prison they had full control over and let me enjoy the same living conditions as outside prison. Later, they will help me operate, modify the non-parole sentence, and let me return to Mexico for retirement..." "

It is because of this that I was sent to Brooklyn Prison by the Rothschild family. At first, the Rothschild family did. They fulfilled their promise and gave me relatively favorable conditions, but I never imagined that the famous Rothschild family would break their promise so quickly! They hired killers from prison to launch a death attack on me, and I almost died in their hands! "

Speaking of this, Gustavo said with great sadness, "Hector, my good son! You must never fall into the American trap! If your father dies, you must do everything you can to avenge him! And you must remember that from now on, the Sanchez family must never cooperate in any form with the Rothschild family. They are a bunch of treacherous and shameless people!

Immediately, Gustavo said again, "There is more! " All Sanchez family members must remember that unity and loyalty are the keys to the Sanchez family's success! Therefore, no one, under any circumstances, must betray the family. This is the high-voltage line of our family! As long as anyone dares to touch this high-voltage line, no matter who he is, the entire Sanchez family will not let him go! "

. Gustavo recalled that when he was almost killed by his son, but still had to educate his son and family members in the video to unite, his There was a burst of sadness and anger in my heart.

If he had followed his original idea, he would have simply told all the members of the Sanchez family that it was his son who wanted to kill him, asking them to avenge him no matter what, and even asking them to oust his son from the position of family patriarch.

But after thinking about it carefully, he realized that Charlie Wade's plan was actually the most suitable.

His son is now in great power. If he tries to expose him at this time and force his men to rebel, it will only make him completely tear off the mask of hypocrisy and openly reveal his identity as a patricide to the world.

Even if other members of the Sanchez family are dissatisfied with him, they have no strength to challenge his position as head of the family. What's more, now the interests of the entire Sanchez family are no longer tied to themselves, but to their own sons. The Sanchez family The other members of the group, for their own benefit, could not stand up and speak for Gustavo. So the best way now is actually to follow Charlie Wade's instructions and maintain the superficial relationship between father and son with his son. As long as his son's dignity is not harmed and he is given a way out, he He would definitely not choose to be a parricide.

It was precisely because he had to leave room for his son as a loving father that he felt particularly tormented and unhappy.

Therefore, he could only direct all his anger towards the Rothschild family, grinning at the video and shouting, "I hope people all over the world can remember that Howard Rothschild is the most important person in this world." The most hypocritical person, bar none! He was behind everything that happened in Brooklyn Prison!" "

Whether it was locking me up here, trying to kill me, or locking up the antique dealer named Zhou. In the underground secret room, it was all the will of that bastard Howard! Now that the matter has been exposed, he pushed his grandson out as a shield. Just one fucking word for such a person, damn it! All those who betray their trust should die. !"

When the video played to this point, Gustavo in the camera had murderous intent on his face.

His right hand made a pistol shape and kept tapping on the ground, as if he was enjoying the pleasure of executing Howard with a pistol.

Afterwards, he calmed down a little and ended the video recording.

Everyone who sees this video has no doubt about the authenticity of the content of this video.

Because Gustavo is in BuBrooklyn Prison, and Brooklyn Prison has indeed just been proven to be secretly controlled by the Rothschild family.

It's just that not long ago, the Rothschild family dumped all the blame related to the Brooklyn Prison on Matt.

At first, people believed Howard's words, but they didn't expect to be slapped in the face so quickly by Gustavo's personal statement.

Even super drug lords like Gustavo stood up and accused Howard, which convinced everyone that Howard was the manipulator behind this.

Because Matt Rothschild is just a playboy who likes to sleep with other people's wives. How could such a person have the qualifications and ability to secretly have sex with a murderous drug lord like Gustavo?

Howard spent his life trying to move as far as possible in the cesspit, and he just barely managed to avoid getting excrement on himself by relying on Ramat to enter the cesspool as a stepping stone.

Just when Howard was standing on the edge of the manure pit rejoicing, Gustavo suddenly rushed out from nowhere, hugged Howard without hesitation, jumped into the manure pit, and gave Howard a decisive blow.

In an instant, insults against Howard sprung up on the Internet.

The Rothschild family never dreamed that they would be stabbed in the back by Gustavo, and they panicked for a moment.

Making deals with drug traffickers, giving them prison privileges, and using drug traffickers to obtain benefits in Mexico is simply not a possibility.

It would have been easier to put it in the semi-civilized 19th century during the Opium War. After all, everyone was a drug dealer. Even the British nobility and royal family were drug dealers. It was no big deal that the Rothschild family was involved with drug dealers.

But now is the 21st century of modern civilization. The British royal family has long since whitewashed itself. The Rothschild family is still dealing with drug traffickers. This is an extremely disgusting behavior in today's society. The Rothschilds were almost instantly The family's reputation was at its lowest point.

Howard sat up from the bed angrily, looked at the eldest son who came to report the news and asked angrily, "Who is going to kill Gustavo?! When did I say I was going to kill him?!" The eldest son said awkwardly,

" Father, we have a cooperation agreement with Gustavo. How could we kill him? There is either some misunderstanding or Gustavo has not finished this chapter is just made up. Howard asked, "Gustavo has already reached an agreement with us. What good does it do him to make up nonsense and frame us at this time?" And what I can't figure out is that in Brooklyn Prison, he is enjoying a lot of food and drinks, and gets whatever he wants. Only we can give him this kind of treatment. Now that he has come forward to report and expose us, it does not mean that he has also treated himself badly. Sold? Once the US government starts investigating this matter, he will lose all the privileges we have given him. By then, what good life will he have left? The eldest son said with a confused look on his face, "I don't understand why this is happening. Reasonable and reasonable, I shouldn't have come forward to bite us this Gusta." "

Howard said very seriously, "Let's think about it carefully, what is the reason that makes Gustavo give up his current privileged life and stand up against us? The eldest son shook his head and said, "

I can't think of it. For him, the best choice is to cooperate with us. Even if the entire Sanchez family is like this, betraying them at this time will do them a lot of harm but nothing good." "

Howard was silent for a moment and said seriously, “Unless Gustavo’s life is really threatened, someone must really want to kill him, so she was forced to do nothing. , to drag us down. The eldest son quickly asked, “

Father, who do you think would want to kill Gustavo?” Gustavo is no longer the same Gustavo as he was back then. No matter how many privileges he enjoys, he is still a prisoner of the U.S. government. At this time, the beach has not only offended the Sanchez family, but also offended the U.S. government. What’s the point? Woolen cloth? Howard
