

The Amazing son in law (charlie wade) - The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6334

In Howard's view, the Sifang Baomaan is the backbone of the Rothschild family.

With it, the Rothschild family can make money from all directions.

You can get returns in any field of investment. Even in troubled times, you can always seize the fleeting opportunity.

Without the Sifang Palace, with the current ability and courage of the Rothschild family members, it would be difficult for this centuries-old family to continue to maintain its glory.

Therefore, in his heart, no matter what the price, he must bring the Sifang Treasure Building back to the Rothschild family.

And he also knew very well that most of his descendants felt that Eastern Feng Shui fortune was just superstitious metaphysics. Therefore, from beginning to end, they did not have much motivation to find the Sifang Baozhuang. They always felt that it was just a matter of luck. Howard's own affairs have nothing to do with them.

Howard saw that the detention of Zhou Liangyun and his abuse of lynching had been exposed, and he couldn't wait to get the Sifang Baozhuang back. Once the Sifang Baozhuang left the United States, there would be no possibility of retrieving it.

And once the fortunes of the Rothschild family begin to decline, it may not take more than one or two generations to knock the Rothschild family off the altar. In order to avoid this result, he had to use his ultimate killer weapon and use the huge temptation of the family heir to drive the entire Rothschild family to unite. , go all out to find the Sifang Treasure Building.

And these descendants who originally didn't care about the Sifang Baozhuang seemed to be hit with adrenaline in an instant, and almost everyone started gearing up and eager to try.

They don't want to care about the metaphysical use of the Sifang Baozhuang. They only know that this is the only direct ticket to become the heir of the family.

As a result, the entire Rothschild family took action quickly, putting all their original work on hold and devoting all their energy to the task of finding the Sifang Treasure Building.

After everyone left, Howard sat alone at his desk. Before that, I picked up my cell phone and made a call.

After the call was connected, he asked coldly, "Are there any clues yet?"

The other party said respectfully, "Not yet, Mr. Rothschild. The entire Zhou family has moved to London. These days, except for the postman delivering letters, No one has been here."

Howard immediately asked, "Has the postman checked?! Is there anything fishy?!"

The other party quickly said, "We have installed a large number of infrared and thermal imaging equipment around Zhou's house. What small actions did anyone pass by?" , it can be photographed clearly. The postman just put down a batch of letters and did not take anything extra."

Howard snorted coldly and blurted out, "My intuition tells me that the Sifang Baozhuang must still be at Zhou's house, Peter Zhou. It's impossible to move it away so quickly under our noses! You continue to keep an eye on the Zhou family and be on guard 24 hours a day. Not even a fly can fly out of the Zhou family!" The other party said without thinking, "Don't worry, sir. , we are still adding manpower. The entire Zhou family has been completely monitored without any blind spots, and we have arranged multiple drones nearby. Once there is any disturbance, they can track it in all directions and three-dimensionally." After that, the other party said, " By the way, sir, there is one more thing I am about to report to you."

Howard said, "Say it."

The other party whispered, "The FBI came here today. They did not enter Zhou's house, but came to us directly and reminded us not to cross the line too much. , Peter Zhou's matter is a bit sensitive now, and the public is paying attention."

Howard cursed angrily, "The FBI is a bunch of losers! You directly contact the person in charge of the FBI in New York and tell them to stay away from the Zhou family, I don't want them Intervene, and I don't want them to do anything about it.

will bring any adverse effects. If I see someone from the FBI within one kilometer of Zhou's home again, I will stop doing his job! After saying that , he hung up the phone without waiting for a reply.

At this time, there was a knock on the door, and his eldest son, Steve Rothschild, said respectfully outside the door, "Father, can I come in?" Howard was startled for a moment, then closed his eyes and sighed silently, and then said, "Come in." "

Steve pushed the door in and carefully closed the door from the inside. He looked at Howard and said hesitantly, "Father..."

Howard glanced at him and saw that he didn't say anything, so he asked coldly, "Yes? Whatever it is, tell me. "

Steve hesitated for a moment and said, "Father... during the meeting just now, you said that whoever can find the Sifang Baozhuang will become the heir of the family..."

Howard nodded silently and said calmly, "I said that. ,What's wrong? Steve said with full of grievance, "For so many years, the Rothschild family has maintained the tradition of the eldest son succeeding to the throne, and has been arranging the order of succession. If you suddenly announced this decision today, wouldn't it violate the rules of the family?" ..."

Howard snorted coldly, "Rules? If the four-sided treasure building is lost, Rothschild's name will lose its glory! This is the key to the family's survival. In front of it, rules don't even count! "

After saying that, Howard stood up and said angrily, "Whoever can get back the Sifang Treasure Building can continue to ensure the prosperity of the family! He is definitely the number one contributor to the family! It is reasonable and natural for him to be the heir to the family head!

Steve begged, "Father, since you ascended to the throne, I have been the first heir of the Rothschild family for so many years. My eldest son, Royce, your eldest grandson, is the Rothschild. " The second successor of the family Heir, what our father and son have received for so many years are also the training and education of the heir. After so many years of hard work, if some lucky bastard accidentally finds the Sifang Treasure Tower somewhere, wouldn't all the hard work of our father and son for so many years be in vain? This... this is so unfair..."

Howard looked at Steve's aggrieved and painful expression. He was silent for a moment and said, "Steve, in the face of a huge family crisis, you just want to reward the brave man. Besides, I Once the words have been spoken, it feels impossible to take them back. "

Steve hurriedly said, "Father... you..."

Howard stretched out his hand to interrupt Steve's flowers, looked at him and said lightly, "You are my eldest son, I should give you a chance, so I can To give you a thorough explanation, I think there is a high probability that the Sifang Baozhuang is still at Zhou Peter's home. Wherever others go to look for the Sifang Baozhuang, they can follow them. If you want to have a better chance of winning, just focus your energy on Zhou Peter's house. . "

As he spoke, he added, "I have already sent a large number of people to secretly keep an eye on the Zhou family. You can go and keep an eye on it. If they can find the Sifang Baozhuang in Zhou Peter's house, the credit will be on your head. In that case, you can still First in line of succession. Steve

's despairing heart suddenly lit up with hope again.

He asked excitedly, "Father, is everything you said true?" Howard noded slightly and said, "Steve, to be honest, you are my first child and the most beloved child in my heart. I also hope that you can seize this opportunity and inherit my position legitimately." "

As he spoke, Howard squinted his eyes and reminded, "The more times like this, the more important it is for you to take the lead, charge into the battle, make achievements that no one can match, show others, and let everyone have nothing to say about you! Good son, the opportunity to make a meritorious deed has come! Steve was a little affected, clenched his fists and said firmly, "Father, don't worry, I will do my best!" "
