

The Amazing son in law (charlie wade) - The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6344

The sudden power outage made three pairs of eyes in the darkness filled with doubtful light for an instant.

Just when Hank was confused in the darkness, an extremely noisy voice came from the intercom.

Some people said, "Why is there a power outage?! All our monitoring equipment is paralyzed!"

Someone echoed, "All detection equipment is also down, nothing can be seen in the central control room, and the Identification Friend or Foe system is deactivated!"

Someone asked, "What's going on? ! Doesn't this villa have two power supply lines?!"

Someone replied, "Two or three lines are of no use? The key now is that the power is out! Where is the person in charge of logistics support?! Why didn't you prepare an emergency power supply?!"

Some people scolded, "No one ever said to arrange for emergency power supply! Even if the FBI goes out to perform tasks, as long as it is not going to the Middle East or Afghanistan, it will not always carry emergency power supply! With so many equipment and such high power, what? Is the emergency power supply sufficient? Cummins diesel generator set? Then should I bring a power supply truck over for you to use?"

Shit! Are you f*cking arrogant?"

" Are you making excuses? Do you know how powerful the various monitoring equipment in the central control room and the roof of the building are? If you have a long mouth, you can just talk nonsense! Come on!"

Because of the sudden power outage, the always professional team was at this moment Somewhat confused.

For villa areas with dual power lines, it is rare to encounter a power outage even once every ten or eight years.

Moreover, this house was originally a private house. The Rothschild family bought it to monitor the Zhou family manor next door. In their view, this kind of behavior is equivalent to a group of tigers waiting to catch a mouse. It is completely illegal. The power of crushing.

Moreover, this is only a few dozen kilometers away from New York, and it is completely in the headquarters of the Rothschild family. Everyone feels extremely safe. What everyone is most worried about is whether the mouse they want to catch will be among them. He sneaked into the Zhou family villa quietly under his nose. No one thought that the mouse would have the courage to sneak into the tiger's den.

This feeling is like the police setting up a dragnet waiting to catch a criminal suspect. The only thing he worries about is that the criminal does not come or runs away. He never worries that the criminal suspect dares to enter their frontline headquarters.

Therefore, when Hank first arrived here to conduct a security assessment, he never thought that this place would be attacked.

Moreover, even though the power was out now, he didn't think anyone was coming to attack them.

On the contrary, he subconsciously felt at this moment that the other party must have deliberately caused a power outage and wanted to take the opportunity to steal the Sifang Treasure Tower!

After all, although the Rothschild family's subordinates have installed a large number of high-tech equipment and can achieve strict defense in all directions, the disadvantages of high-tech equipment are also very obvious. Once this thing runs out of power, it will completely furnishings.

Anyone who has played the game Red Alert has a basic understanding that no matter how many cannons, prism towers, SAM missiles, or air-to-ground defenses you build to the max, as long as you have enough power Without a shortage, all equipment will lose all effectiveness.

If Uncle Jian Gong had understood this and cut off the power supply to the Cyprus copper mines, even if Wan Pojun had set up a hundred close-range defense guns, it would have been in vain.

However, he was too confident at the beginning and had no sense of crisis at all.

But Charlie was different.

He knew that it was impossible to walk by the river without getting his shoes wet, so whenever he got to the river, he had to put on rubber boots. This was called being prepared.

At this time, Hank in the darkness listened to the messy sounds on the walkie-talkie and blurted out, "Stop making noise! Send someone to check the circuit immediately. Everyone else must be 200% alert and keep an eye on the Zhou family! Rat!" Maybe we're going back to the nest! This time we're going to steal the stolen goods alone!" When

Steve Rothschild heard this, he suddenly became excited and blurted out, "Hank is right! The Zhou family must be Come back to get the Sifang Baozhuang! I have said before that Peter Zhou is definitely not telling the truth. He always said that he bought the Sifang Baozhuang by himself and has nothing to do with the rest of the Zhou family. Now it seems that there is a high probability that it is The Zhou family is planning together! Those who come back this time are probably members of the Zhou family!"

After that, he told Hank, "Hank, you must not act rashly! You must wait until they take out the Sifang Baozhuang and then catch them all. ! Remember, no matter what, you can't let them run away! Let alone let them run away with the Sifang Baozhu!"

Hank Xin said, do you still need to teach me about this? But he said respectfully, "That's what the young master ordered! Don't worry, even if the power is temporarily cut off, we still have a large number of people watching the Zhou family, and we will never let them run away!"

Royce was happy on the side. He clapped his hands and said excitedly, "Dad! We can sit back and relax after we find the Sifang Baozhuang!"

Steve was also excited and said with a smile, "We have set up a dragnet here, just because we are afraid that he will not dare to come, and now we finally Wait! It seems that your grandpa's judgment is indeed very accurate!"

After that, he said to Hank, "Hank! It's all up to you this time. If we let them escape, then we will all have to walk around without food! "

Hank nodded heavily and promised, "Don't worry, young master, even if it's a fly today, I'll make sure it never comes back!"

Steve rubbed his hands, suppressed the excitement in his heart, and said, "Please don't If you act rashly, I will keep my eyes on the Zhou family!"

As he spoke, he gritted his teeth, adjusted the collar of his shirt, and said with a ferocious expression, "The Zhou family dares to steal things from our Rothschild family, and do What makes our Rothschild family so passive, the most unacceptable thing to me is that they did this kind of thing, which indirectly threatened my order of first heir. No matter who is caught this time, I will personally do it. Destroy him!!"

Steve's ferocity was not groundless.

He was originally the first heir of the family, but the Sifang Palace was stolen. Howard suddenly said that whoever found the Sifang Palace would be the first heir. This meant that he was indirectly deprived of his status as the crown prince by the Zhou family. If Sifang could be found this time, he would be the first heir. The treasure building can only be regarded as a false alarm. If it cannot be found, it will be an unnecessary disaster.

Therefore, he hates the Zhou family even more than his father Howard.

Royce on the side said, "Dad, if we catch the Zhou family this time, don't hand them over to the police. If we get back the Sifang Treasure Building, I will make them disappear from the world!"

Steve nodded, "Last time. It was Peter Zhou who was too cunning and called the police to arrest him in advance, which made us so passive. We must not make the same mistake again this time. As long as the person who came to take the Sifang Baozhuang today is caught by me, I will make him disappear.!"

As soon as Steve finished speaking, a cold voice suddenly sounded in the room, asking, "How are you going to make me evaporate?"
