

The Amazing son in law (charlie wade) - The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6371

The only task charlie gave them was to safely escort Arman to Aurous Hill and complete the handover with Sun Zhidong (Meir).

They were members of the Wanlong Palace, and they did not know Arman, nor did they know that Arman was going to return to China with the Sifang Baozhu, so their safety was guaranteed.

In addition, charlie can also be sure that Steve and Royce, father and son, will not reveal the news of cooperating with him and helping him transport the Sifang Baozhuang even if they die.

Therefore, the Rothschild family's focus will never shift here, and the security of Arman's return to China with Sifang Baozhu has been further improved.

In addition to arranging these agents to accompany and protect Arman, Wanlong Palace also specially arranged for an American agent to quietly send charlie back to the United States. This person had his own connections at the immigration point on the U.S.-Canada border for many years. In addition, There is also a fake With a well-packed RV, you can easily hide two or three people in the car and take it across the U.S.-Canada border smoothly.

A little after eight in the morning, Arman took the earliest flight and landed at the Montreal Airport.

After charlie met with him, he handed him the wooden box containing the Sifang Baozhuang and said to him, "Uncle Arman, take the Sifang Baozhuang to Aurous Hill first. I have arranged for someone to meet you in Aurous Hill. His name is Sun Zhidong (Meir), and he will bring the Sifang Baozhu to Eastcliff."

Arman asked hurriedly, "Master, are you not leaving?"

"No." charlie said, "Uncle Zhou is still in the hospital, I can't just leave like this. I have to make sure that he is completely safe and will never have any trouble before I can leave."

Arman nodded and said, "Master, please take care of yourself. I will be back as soon as I deliver the Sifang Baozhuang!"

charlie said, "Uncle Arman, please take care of yourself." You don't have to worry about coming back anymore, I will arrange for someone to meet you in Aurous Hill and help you settle in Aurous Hill. From now on, you can work in Aurous Hill during the weekdays, and you can return to Hong Kong Island to be with your family at any time on the weekends. You can use the Wade family's plane at your leisure."

Seeing charlie's firm attitude, Arman nodded slightly and said, "Master, you must take care of yourself!"

Half an hour later, a business jet took off from the Montreal Airport and disappeared from the skyline.

The Sifang Baozhu, which had left China for two hundred years, finally made its way home.

charlie watched the plane disappear little by little, then took the Wanlongdian agent's RV and drove to the US-Canada border checkpoint.

charlie originally wanted to go to Ottawa and meet Helena, but considering that Zhou Liangyun was still in the hospital, and the Chinese official might announce the news of Sifang Baozhu's return to China in at least ten hours, he did not dare to delay. The time must be arranged in advance to protect Zhou Liangyun's safety.

charlie's only worry is that Howard of the Rothschild family will lose his mind and take revenge on Zhou Liangyun.

Helena had a four-day visit to Canada. If she could finish the New York matter within four days, I would go to Canada to meet her and thank her in person for her help.

The Amazing son in law (charlie wade) - The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6372

When charlie returned to New York, the plane Arman was on was flying over the ocean.

At this time, Steve Rothschild was still under Hank's surveillance, and the Rothschild family's men had been frantically searching the Zhou family manor for half of midnight and half of the morning, but still found nothing. .

Howard is now willing to go all out. Before, he didn't want to do anything too blatant in the Zhou family, but now it is possible that the Sifang Baozhuang has been taken out. If he doesn't hurry up and find clues to catch up, he is afraid that the day lily will be cold.

So, he simply stopped doing nothing and asked Hank to step up the search. At the same time, he sent another survey team to the site with large-scale geological exploration equipment.

Several heavy-duty trucks drove to the Zhou Manor and set up various equipment in a grand manner to detect the underground of the entire Zhou Manor. This detection equipment can even clearly scan the ant nests underground. If there is really something for people here. The secret passage in and out will definitely be found.

However, this is the Zhou family manor after all. Zhou Liangyun broke the law and is not as guilty as his family. The Rothschild family so openly entered the Zhou family and dug three feet into the ground. It was as if oil was found in the Zhou family's yard. Such a big Naturally, the news cannot be hidden from the outside world.

Therefore, several media outlets not controlled by the Rothschild family, including short video platforms, immediately reported this unbelievable and even illegal act.

The American people suddenly exploded.

No one expected that the newly exposed Rothschild family would continue to openly defy the law. This time they directly brought an engineering team to the Zhou family manor to dig around. They were simply outlaws, so the Internet The Rothschild family's verbal and verbal attacks reached unprecedented heights throughout the morning.

The FBI was almost furious.

They know they can't control the Rothschild family, so they have always just hoped that the Rothschild family can keep a low profile. In principle, you can break the law, but you have to do it quietly. I'm sorry, otherwise you would let me lose my face.

But at the moment, the eager Howard can no longer care about this. He must determine the clues as soon as possible. If it is determined that there is no secret passage here, then what happened last night is probably a mistake. But if the secret passage is found, he must follow the secret passage to trace it. in the end.

Howard put all his family's face and reputation into it for Sifang Baozhuang. From this, we can see how much he values Sifang Baozhuang.

However, reality is often full of magic.

Howard's exploration team had a clear picture of the situation within five hundred meters below the surface of the Zhou family manor, and they did not find a so-called secret passage.

In other words, the entire weekThe family manor does not have the basic conditions to come quietly and leave quietly.

This immediately puzzled Howard.

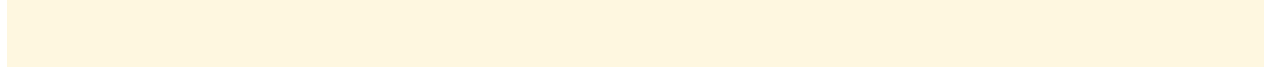

In order to prevent the public opinion of the incident from continuing to escalate, he could only evacuate everyone from the Zhou Manor first. In order to calm down the public anger, the American police and FBI also selectively arrested some of these people, which was partly to give the public a warning. Account.

Howard was puzzled and could only place his hope on Zhou Liangyun again. He felt that regardless of whether Sifang Baozhuang was taken away last night, Zhou Liangyun must know the specific situation and want to find the whereabouts of Sifang Baozhuang. , we still have to start from him.

So, he immediately called Hank and ordered him: “Hank, no matter what method you use, you must bring Peter Zhou out of Manhattan Hospital!”

Hank said, “Sir, Peter Zhou is protected by the police and FBI. , there are many media gathered in the hospital. In this case, I have no other choice but to snatch him out...”

Howard shouted angrily, "Then bring someone to snatch him! Then find the best interrogation expert in the world. Interrogate him! If you can't find out the whereabouts of the Sifang Baozhuang, kill him!"

Hank was slightly startled, and then said, "Okay sir, then I will arrange the manpower to make preparations and remove Zhou Peter from him at all costs. Get out of Manhattan Hospital!"

Howard hesitated for a moment and said quickly, "Forget it..."

After calming down, Howard knew very well that he had already committed a taboo by letting people go to the Zhou Manor to survey and search in broad daylight. If he really sent Hank and his men went to the hospital to rob people with arms, and their nature suddenly became extremely bad.

After all, if you want to snatch people directly from the police and FBI, it will inevitably lead to a firefight. In that case, it is basically equivalent to terrorism. This kind of thing must not be done, otherwise it will definitely be catastrophic.

After thinking for a moment, he could only say angrily, "You first find a way to ambush Manhattan Hospital. When you get to the hospital, find out the situation and report to me. The rest follow my orders."

Hank immediately said, "Okay sir, I'll make preparations right now." !"

Hank hung up the phone and immediately said to Steve Rothschild, "Your father asked me to go to Manhattan Hospital. Do you want to stay here or do you have other plans?"

Steve knew that Hank was already gone. charlie achieved mental control in some way, so he followed his words and said, "Just be busy with your business. Don't worry about me. I

I will go back to rest first. Hank warned him, "Don't forget what Mr. Wade told you. If you dare to betray Mr. Wade, I will be the first to kill you!" Steve said dumbfounded, "I am on the same boat with him now, and he is also the captain. I am an innocent passenger who was kidnapped by him. If you give me a hundred courages, I would not dare to betray him..." "

Hank snorted coldly, "You know what's going on! "

After that, he felt between the ribs on his right side with his right hand. After finding the sixth and seventh ribs on the right side, he smashed the two ribs hard in a circle, and then he heard the sound of rib fracture.

On the side Steve was dumbfounded and thought to himself, "This is such a f*cking cruel person..."

At this time, Hank took out his mobile phone with a nonchalant expression, found a number and called it. As soon as the call came through, he Then he said, "Hey, I have two broken ribs. Please arrange for me to be hospitalized in Manhattan Hospital."

The other end of the phone immediately said, "No problem. When do you want to be admitted to the hospital? " "

Hank said, "The faster, the better. "

The other end of the phone said, "Give me your address and I'll arrange for a medical helicopter to pick you up. By the way, you haven't left New York, have you? If you leave New York, the helicopter cannot get out. "Hank said, "I will send you the location in a moment. Helicopters can come here. "

At this moment, Jadiel, the direct descendant of the Wu family who was far away at the headquarters of the Po Qinghui in Antarctica, also noticed this news that made him a little confused.

The Amazing son in law (charlie wade) - The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6374

So, he quickly came to the door of Sara's retreat room, hesitated again and again, and still clicked the button

After her last desperate escape from China, Sara had hardly gone out. In more than three hundred years, she had never been as insecure as she was now. The sudden blow made her temporarily She was a little decadent.

She knew Jadiel was coming, but she didn't want to see him. But thinking about it carefully, Jadiel acted steadily. If he didn't have to report something important to her, he would definitely not touch her brow at this time.

So, she waved her hand in the air, The heavy stone door opened in response.

Jadiel walked in respectfully, looked at Sara sitting cross-legged on the ground behind the gauze curtain, and whispered, “Master Ying, I have something to report to you...”

Sara nodded and said in a cold tone, “Go ahead. “

Jadiel said, “In the past few days, the Rothschild family has been acting abnormally. I feel like there's something fishy in it. sara snorted softly and said, “The Rothschilds... are just a plutocratic family that only knows how to make money. No matter how much money they have, they are just ants. Why do you pay attention to them?” “

Jadiel said hurriedly, “Master, the Rothschild family arrested an antique dealer some time ago. The abuse of lynching of the antique dealer was exposed. This matter has not subsided. Today, they even risked the disdain of the world and sent a large number of people directly. The men went to the antique dealer's house to dig deep, and even brought a large amount of exploration equipment. This incident had a great and bad impact on the Internet. Wu sara frowned sharply and asked, “You mean, the Rothschilds are looking for something important?” “

“right! “Jadiel said hurriedly, “The most important clue is that the antique dealer specializes in reselling Chinese antiques in Europe and the United States. Rumors say that the Rothschild family had a Chinese antique handed down to him for restoration, but he quietly did it. A fake was lost and discovered by the Rothschild family, so the Rothschild family arrested him, lynched him and tortured him severely. “

After a pause, Jadiel continued, “My subordinates feel that this antique must have an extraordinary origin! Otherwise, judging from the Rothschild family’s trillions of dollars in financial resources, there is no antique in the world that is worth such a big deal. Even if they package up all Leonardo da Vinci’s paintings, they will not take it seriously. “

Sara nodded and analyzed, “Looking at the world’s antique market, no matter whether it is Eastern or Western antiques, the transaction price of a single piece hardly exceeds one billion U.S. dollars. One billion U.S. dollars is definitely not worth the Rothschild family’s big fight over this matter. There must be something fishy! “

With that said, Sara immediately said, “Notify Chen Zhimin and ask him to find a way to find out the news. If this clue leads to any major harvest, I will credit you with the first credit! “

Jadiel knelt down on one knee with excitement, raised his hands and said, “Thank you Lord Ying! Sara said again, “

By the way, where has Uncle Sean been during these recent times?” Jadiel said hurriedly, “

Back to the Lord, before you asked Uncle Sean to stop investigating Blackwater Company and break the silence for three months. At that time, Uncle Sean was in North Carolina, the United States, which is also the headquarters of Blackwater Company. During this period, Time has been silent, but his position has never left there. “

Sara nodded, “Since he is also in the United States, let him find Chen Zhimin. Although Chen Zhimin is brave and resourceful, he is not strong enough after all. If the Rothschild family can’t find something, I guess he will be in trouble. If he has Uncle Sean helps, the chance of winning will be much greater.

Jadiel immediately said respectfully, “Okay, Lord Ying, my subordinates know this, so go down and inform them now!” “

Ever since the An family encountered Willie in China, and Willie blew himself up and died, the An family has never returned to New York.

In the previous phone call between aunt Tablita and her uncle Chen Zhimin, the An family and charlie all realized that there must be something wrong with this uncle.

But because we were far apart, and my aunt's daughter was still living with Chen Zhimin in New York, we all understood each other tacitly and did not break each other's faces.

Chen Zhimin's current public identity is still the son-in-law of the An family.

Moreover, since the An family is not in the United States for the time being, he directly established himself as the only spokesperson for the An family in the United States, which can be regarded as a moment of popularity.

However, Chen Zhimin also knows very well that the An family is currently transferring its own industry and focus, and gradually transferring American assets to China. Even if the two parties do not break up, if they wait another two or three years, they will almost be kicked out of the An family's cauldron. .

What depresses him and Sara the most is that at a critical moment, the An family actually reached a long-term in-depth investment cooperation with Huaxia, and suddenly got official endorsement. Now that the Qing Dynasty is under way, they really don't dare to do anything to the An family. .

Moreover, since Sara escaped from China last time, she has put the entire Poqing Association into a state of silence, and has never thought of causing trouble for the An family again.

At this moment, Chen Zhimin is sitting in the office of An Qishan, the old man of the An family, on the top floor of Anbang Building. He is lying lazily on An Qishan's boss chair, with his legs on the desk and a fine Cuban stick in his mouth. cigar.

While he was enjoying his cigar leisurely, he suddenly received a notification on his mobile phone on the desktop.

It is normal for mobile phones to receive push notifications, but this push notification is unusual.

Because of this news, the push was automatically sent to Qinghui's own communication software.

Receiving its push means that the organization is calling.

During the recent period, Chen Zhimin's mobile phone has not received any messages from the Clearing Committee. After all, everyone is silent, and the headquarters and others will not contact him. Moreover, the three-month silent period has not yet expired, and suddenly he received The news indicates that there must be a very urgent emergency.

So, he immediately clicked on the push button. After entering the software, a prompt box popped up on the software interface with the three words Jadiel displayed on it.

So he hurriedly sat up straight and clicked the OK button in the prompt box. The software immediately popped up a floating window for a video call. Jadiel said on the other end of the video, "Zhimin, the British Master has a task for you."

Chen Zhimin said without thinking, "Mr. Wu , please tell me, I am all ears!"

Jadiel waved his hand and said, "Let me ask you something first, have you heard about what happened between the Rothschild family and that antique dealer?"

"I heard about it." Chen Zhimin blurted out, "This matter has made a big fuss, and everyone in New York and even Europe and the United States knows about it. Mr. Wu, why are you still paying attention to them?"

Jadiel asked him, "Then do you know about them?" Is there any grudge between them? The Rothschild family is most likely looking for something in that antique dealer's house. Do you know what they are looking for?" "

This..." Chen Zhimin shook his head and said, "I won't hide it. You said Mr. Wu, I didn't pay much attention to this matter and I know the specific reasons."

Jadiel said, "Then go and inquire, activate your connections, and find out as many clues as possible!"

Chen Zhimin said respectfully, "Okay Wu Don't worry, boss, I'll find a way to find out right now!"
