Jadiel said coldly, "Uncle Sean has already flown to New York and will land in New York in two hours. You go to the airport to meet him and wait for the next step of instructions."

When Chen Zhimin heard that Uncle Sean was coming, he couldn't help but feel a little nervous. He thought to himself, "The four great earls asked the mysterious man to kill three of them, and only Uncle Sean is left. Maybe there are still people who want his life. If he Come to New York, won't you help me?"

"Fang" also means to restrain.

Chen Zhimin always felt that the four great earls seemed to be quite weak. They were usually awesome and coaxing, but two died and one disappeared within a few months. If he worked with Uncle Sean, he might be implicated in his misfortune.

However, Jadiel has a very high status in Po Qinghui. If Sara is the ancestor who has never died, then Jadiel is the number one person who helps his ancestor take care of everything. Naturally, he cannot refuse what he orders him to do.

So he could only say respectfully, "Okay, Mr. Wu, my subordinates know!"

Jadiel hummed and warned, "Hurry up and find out the news. The British Master is also waiting. If your reply is too slow, be careful. The British Lord convicts me."

"No, no! I will do it as soon as possible!" Chen Zhimin promised repeatedly. After hanging up the video, he immediately started looking for someone to inquire about the situation.

In fact, it is no longer a secret among the New York police and FBI systems that the Rothschild family is looking for a square mansion.

After all, Howard used so many privileges to seal off the entire New York in order to find the Sifang Treasure Building, so he had to let the people he mobilized know what he was looking for.

So he had already sent the detailed image information of the Sifang Baozhu to all those who cooperated with him in blocking New York.

Find the department of Baozhuang.

However, he was still very shrewd. He did not tell anyone the name of the Sifang Baozhuang. He just told these people that a very precious and significant antique had been stolen from the Rothschild family.

How did the police and the FBI know that behind such an oriental antique, there was actually an important national weapon that could influence the fate of the country? They only knew that the Rothschild family was looking for this thing, so everyone cheered up and took this item. Just find the things and return them to the Rothschild family.

Because the image data of Sifang Baozhuang had already been distributed to tens of thousands of people, Chen Zhimin easily found a copy.

When he saw the image data of the Sifang Baozhu, he didn't think it was anything special. After all, it was from the Tang Dynasty, and it was mainly a magic weapon, so its appearance was not very exquisite, and it was far inferior to the Northern Song Dynasty pearls. The production process of the relic treasure building is extremely exquisite and uses a variety of natural materials and earthly treasures.

In Chen Zhimin's eyes, the thing that the Rothschild family is looking for can be described in four words, that is, it is ordinary. However

, he did not think too much about this matter, but directly sent this information to Jadiel.

Not to mention that Chen Zhimin didn't know Sifang Baozhuang, even Jadiel didn't know him either.

Lin Wan'er (Alani), who has lived for nearly four hundred years, only heard her father mention it once. In the following three hundred years, she only saw non-authoritative records of Sifang Baozhuang from some unofficial histories. At that time, The records are all in words, and the people who wrote those words were all hearsay.

The Amazing son in law (charlie wade) - The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6377

The writers and readers don't know whether the Sifang Baozhuang is real. Even if it is real, they don't know what the Sifang Baozhuang looks like, let alone Jadiel.

However, Jadiel was the first to analyze that this thing was definitely unusual.

Therefore, he did not despise such an ordinary square building, but printed it out as quickly as possible, and finally presented it to Sara.

He presented the printed color photo to Sara with both hands and said respectfully, "Master, Chen Zhimin sent us information. The pagoda in the photo is the antique that the Rothschild family was looking for in New York."

Sara couldn't wait to look over and saw that it was a square pagoda, and its appearance was somewhat similar to the Big Wild Goose Pagoda. Her heart suddenly thumped, her eyes widened, and her body could not help but tremble.

She held the high-definition photo in her hand with great excitement, and couldn't help but exclaimed, "Is this... could this be...Is it the Sifang Baozhu that Master always regarded as a sacred weapon? ! "

Like Aasif (Parker) back then, Sara also heard his master Meng Changsheng talk about the Sifang Baozhu.

After all, Meng Changsheng was from the Linde period of the Tang Dynasty. When he was born, the Big Wild Goose Pagoda had just been built, so he had been He knew about the existence of the Sifang Baozhuang, but he had never had the opportunity to see its elegance.

He once told Aasif (Parker) and Lin Feiyan that the Sifang Baozhuang was a top-notch magic weapon jointly built by a large number of Taoist priests with high cultivation in the Tang Dynasty. It is not only exactly the same as the original Big Wild Goose Pagoda, but also complements and complements each other.

Sara also had doubts about the authenticity of the Sifang Baozhu in the past, but now she sees this picture, combined with the Rothschild family's painstaking efforts and risking the world's reputation. Da Bunai also wanted to find it. She felt in her heart that this thing was most likely the real Sifang Baozhu!

At this moment, Sara felt that the haze of the past period was instantly swept away!

She thought excitedly in her heart, "Even Master The four-square treasure building that I dare not hope for or reach is actually in the hands of the Rothschild family. This is really a blessing from God! If I can get the Sifang Baozhu, my own fortune and that of Po Qinghui will skyrocket! Maybe my chance of living another five hundred years lies in this square treasure building! If you can learn more profound Taoism from the Four Directions Treasure Pillar, maybe your cultivation will also make great progress!

Thinking of this, she blurted to Jadiel without hesitation, "Get the plane ready! " I want to go to New York myself! In addition, you tell Chen Zhimin and Uncle Sean to go all out to investigate the antique dealer and find a way to find out the whereabouts of this antique! "

Jadiel didn't expect that this thing would make Sara decide to go to New York in person without hesitation, so he subconsciously said, "Master Ying, didn't you say that the situation is sensitive recently and the Qing Dynasty will try to remain silent as much as possible? If you still go in person, are there any unforeseen risks? Besides, it's a long way to New York. The plane takes off from Buenos Aires for at least ten hours, which adds up to at least fourteen or five hours. I suggest you leave this matter to Zhongyong. Bo and Chen Zhimin, if they work together and are brave and resourceful, they will definitely be able to complete the task! "

Sara shook her head firmly. “This matter is extremely important to me and even to the entire Qingqing Association. There is no room for failure. Let them do their best first. No matter whether they can succeed or not, I must go there in person.” rest assured! “

After that, she gently shook the photo in her hand, and the photo instantly turned into ashes and scattered on the ground.

Sara looked at Jadiel and ordered, “You come with me, and remember not to tell anyone in the meeting about this. anyone! “

Sara wants to get a lot of things in her life.

Before today, the things she wanted most were the ring on Lin Waner (Alani)’s hand, and the secret of immortality left by her master Meng Changsheng (Willie).

But today, the thing she wanted most became this square treasure tower.

You must know that whether it is the ring or the secret of immortality, they are all Meng Changsheng (Willie)’s things.

And the Sifang Baozhuang is a treasure that even Meng Changsheng (Willie) can only dream of.

Therefore, the value of the Sifang Baozhu is countless times greater than the first two.

The secret of immortality is worthy of Sara going to China and returning to Shiwan Mountain. What’s more, she must go to this four-sided treasure building in person to ensure that it is absolutely perfect.

So Sara embarked on the journey to Buenos Aires as quickly as possible.

On the plane, Sara was always in a very excited mood. After living for four hundred years, she had a rare restless impatience. She was anxious, because she was anxious about why the plane couldn’t go faster.

However, the only way to fly from the island where the Brochure Club is to Buenos Aires is by seaplane. The upper limit of the speed of seaplanes is very low, and the maximum speed is only 500 to 600 kilometers per hour.

At this moment, Sara looked at the sea below the window, thinking to herself, “The ring that the master left for his senior brother must have the function of teleportation, otherwise it would be impossible to send his senior brother thousands of miles away in the blink of an eye, but Lin Waner (Alani) Without cultivation, I cannot activate the true effect of that ring. If I can get that ring, no matter how big the world is, no matter how far the world is, wouldn’t it be within my reach?”

When she thought of this, she couldn't help but feel angry.

Lin Wan'er, who was just a weakling, had been searching for more than three hundred years, and she still didn't know how long it would take to find the secret of immortality.

Because of this, she unexpectedly began to pray silently, praying that she would never miss the Sifang Baozhuang again, let alone that the Sifang Baozhuang would not take her a long time to chase like Lin Wan'er and the secret of immortality.

She had dared before. She said she had plenty of time, but now she knew very well that she only had a hundred years left.

While Sara was flying over the waters near Antarctica, Zhong Yongbo from the Po Qing Society had also taken a plane from North Carolina to New York.

At the same time, Hank had been taken to Manhattan Hospital by helicopter with broken ribs.

Manhattan Hospital, located in the heart of Manhattan, looks like a large office building.

This comprehensive medical building has 21 floors and can provide a full range of medical services including outpatient clinics, emergency departments, surgery, imaging, pathology and inpatient services.

This 21-story building has imaging and radiology departments in the basement. Outpatient, emergency, surgery and administrative office floors are on the 1st to 10th floors. Starting from the 10th floor, there are inpatient wards.

Since this hospital is located in Manhattan, where land is at a premium, the hospital itself is positioned as a relatively high-end hospital. Most of the inpatient wards here are single rooms, and there are even single suites. Being hospitalized here is like staying in a five-star hotel. No difference.

Zhou Liangyun, who was receiving treatment here, has been placed in the comprehensive ward on the 17th floor. The FBI specially asked the hospital to arrange a leading ward, 1701, and also requisitioned the three wards 1702, 1703, and 1704 opposite 1701.

Because Zhou Liangyun was greatly affected by the Rothschild family's abuse of lynching, the FBI attached great importance to his safety, fearing that anything would go wrong again, so it sent a large number of personnel to protect him.

Hank was also placed on this floor. Originally, he wanted to choose a ward as close as possible to 1701, but the FBI had already informed the hospital. Although they had requisitioned four rooms from 1701 to 1704, the patients starting from 1705 were also. They were all moved to other wards in the opposite direction to 1701. According to the requirements of the FBI,

According to the requirements of the FBI,

All rooms must be occupied before wards can be assigned in order, and no-number skipping is allowed.

This means that the current patients are all arranged in more than twenty wards from 1730 to 1709. Hank is admitted to the hospital and can only be arranged to 1708. If another patient is admitted, he will be arranged to 1707. And so on.

After Hank was admitted to the hospital, the doctor checked his injuries. In most cases, rib fractures were not serious injuries, especially when Hank's injured ribs were on the right side. Since the ribs at this location avoid the heart, they are more severe. There won't be much trouble.

The doctor performed simple fixation and pain relief for him, and the rest had to wait for further examination. Hank took advantage of the gap before the examination to report the situation to Charlie first.

Charlie had returned to New York at this time and was about to go to Manhattan Hospital. When he received a call from Hank, he asked, "Hank, have you been admitted to Manhattan Hospital?"

Hank said quickly, "Yes, Charlie." Sir, I have come in and am now living in the ward on the 17th floor. Peter Zhou is also on this floor, but I can't get close to him yet."

Charlie asked him, "Have you contacted Howard?"

"Not yet." Hank said, "I want to report to you first and see what instructions you have."

Charlie said, "I don't have any instructions. You go report to Howard and see what he plans to ask you to do next."

"Okay!" Hank said respectfully, "Then I'll contact him right now."

After saying that, Hank hung up the phone and called Howard.

After the call was connected, he told Howard, "Sir, I am in the hospital now, but I can't get close to Zhou Liangyun. The FBI is heavily guarded here and has set up an isolation zone. Once I get close, it will alert them." "

Howard gritted his teeth and cursed, "It's really unreasonable for these bastards to put up such a big fight to protect a thief!"

Hank asked him, "Mr., what should I do next? Howard thought for a moment and said, "First, you can dispatch a few smart men and go to your place to stand by in the name of visiting. I will communicate with the person in charge of the FBI to see if I can get them to let go." "

"good." Hank said, "Then I'll make arrangements. "

Howard hung up the phone and immediately called the person in charge of the FBI.

But he didn't expect that the other party usually answered his call within seconds. This time the phone rang for a long time and the other party still didn't answer.

In anger, he edited I sent a message to the other party, which read: "Don't refuse my call unless you want to become an enemy of the Rothschild family!"

After the message was sent, he made another phone call. After it rang seven or eight times, the other party finally answered the phone and said helplessly, "Mr. Rothschild, do you have anything to do with me?" "

Howard said coldly, "I have something important to do. I must meet with Peter Zhou. I need you to arrange for your people to make it easier for my people. "

The other party said in embarrassment, "Mr. Rothschild, Peter Zhou's matter has made us very passive now. The eyes of all Americans are staring at us. If I let your people come into contact with Peter Zhou at this time, If another scandal breaks out, not to mention that I won't be able to keep my seat, even Mr. President's approval rating will plummet!"

Howard said, "Don't worry, my people will only ask him questions and won't do anything to him. "

"impossible. "The other party said decisively, "Mr. Rothschild, if you could get the answer just by asking him questions, then you wouldn't imprison him in the underground secret room of Brooklyn Prison and torture him severely. I won't hide it from you. Now a lot of media in the hospital are staring at us. If we engage in any more malpractice for personal gain, the Rothschild family will also be very passive. Howard felt depressed and asked angrily, "Then I will withdraw the complaint to the police and show that everything is a misunderstanding. In that case, will you no longer need to protect Peter Zhou?" "

Withdrawing the lawsuit is Howard’s only option at the moment.

He was the one who sued Zhou Liangyun in the first place. With his social status, as long as he told the police and the court that everything before was just a misunderstanding, that Zhou Liangyun did not steal his own things, or that the things Zhou Liangyun stole were just fakes. It’s not worth a hundred dollars. In that case, Zhou Liangyun will definitely be acquitted.

Once acquitted, he will be free and the FBI will no longer need to strictly monitor and protect him.

However, doing this is another slap in the face for the Rothschild family.

Because this is tantamount to telling the whole society that you have framed Zhou Liangyun or misunderstood Zhou Liangyun on the basis that all previous scandals have been exposed and fermented.

This is f*cking evil upon evil.

However, Howard had no choice.

His intuition told him that he must find the Sifang Baozhu as soon as possible. Once the Sifang Baozhu became irretrievable, Rothschild's two hundred years of excellent fortune would probably come to an abrupt end.

At this time, after hearing what he said, the person in charge of the FBI said calmly, "If you really withdraw the case and the court declares Peter Zhou innocent, then we will stop protecting him." After that , the other person reminded him, "But Mr. Rothschild, I want to remind you that you should not think that after Peter Zhou regains his freedom, you can do whatever you want to him. Once he has any misconduct, the FBI will definitely investigate to the end. The current public opinion of the Rothschild family You are already very passive. I advise you not to act impulsively."

Howard

said coldly, "It's not your turn to tell me how I act!"

After that, he hung up rudely. The phone was disconnected and another call came to the court in New York.

Soon, Sean landed at New York's JFK Airport after a two-hour flight.

As soon as he stepped out of the airport exit, Chen Zhimin, who had been waiting for a long time, greeted him enthusiastically and whispered respectfully, "My subordinate, Chen Zhimin, have met Uncle Sean !"

Uncle Sean didn't look too old, only in his forties. With a tall and straight figure, he looks very much like a middle-aged star in the film and television industry. He has the temperament of a mature and successful person.

When he saw Chen Zhimin, he said with some emotion, "The last time I saw you, you were less than ten years old, but now you look almost the same visual age as me."

Chen Zhimin said with some surprise, "I didn't expect Uncle Sean to still remember his subordinates." !"

"Of course I remember." Uncle Sean said lightly, "Your father and I have some friendship."

As he said, he changed the topic and asked, "Have you investigated the situation of Peter Zhou clearly? The British Lord asked you to What exactly am I looking for?"

Chen Zhimin whispered, "My subordinates have found out some information. After getting in the car, Then slowly explain it to Uncle Sean in detail. "

"good. "

The two of them left the airport and came to Chen Zhimin's limited edition Rolls-Royce Phantom. Chen Zhimin acted as the driver and opened the rear door for Zhong Yongbo. After Zhong Yongbo got in the car, he closed the door and returned to the driver's seat. Indoors.

Returning to the cab, Chen Zhimin handed several printed image data to Uncle Sean and introduced, "Uncle Sean, this is what the British Lord asked you and me to work together to find. Take a look."

Uncle Sean took the information, looked at it briefly, and said doubtfully, "This is just an ordinary gold pagoda. What's so great about it that it deserves the British Lord's personal order? Have you found any other information or materials?"
