1. The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6411

Hank immediately said: "Okay sir, I will track down his whereabouts! I guess there is a high probability that he will return to Anjia's general aviation company first, and I will take someone there to investigate!"

"Okay!" Howard gritted his teeth and said, "If there is evidence that the An family is connected to this matter, I must ask them to give me an explanation!"

Hank immediately agreed, and after hanging up the phone, he quickly mobilized several helicopters on standby and headed to Anjia's general aviation company.

At this time, one of the helicopter hangars of the General Aviation Company.

After Chen Zhimin saw on the flight software that the business jet he had booked took off smoothly and started flying towards Eastcliff, he pulled out the fuel supply pipe specially designed to fill the small helicopter with aviation gasoline from the side of the hangar.

After pulling the fuel supply pipe to the side of the helicopter, he opened the cabin door and directly dragged the fuel supply pipe into the cockpit of the helicopter.

When Chen Zhimin sat down, he placed the fuel supply pipe under his feet and fixed it.

Then he lifted up Seanbo's body and let him sit on the seat. Then he picked up Seanbo's head and put it on his severed neck again.

Then, he took an exquisite Dunhill lighter from his pocket, held the lighter in one hand, and touched the fuel supply switch of the fuel supply pipe with the other hand. He remained motionless, as if waiting for something.

Ten minutes later, the roar of helicopters could be heard all around.

When Chen Zhimin heard the sound, he immediately turned on the switch of the fuel supply pipe. A large amount of aviation gasoline suddenly poured into the cabin in an instant, soaking the cabin interior, Chen Zhimin himself and Zhong Yongbo's body.

At this time, the hangar door was pushed open from the outside. Hank led people to rush in, pointed a gun at the cabin of the helicopter, and shouted: "Chen Zhimin, Zhou Peter! I have seen you! Raise your hand immediately." Put up your hands and come down, otherwise, I will shoot!"

Chen Zhimin opened the cabin door to a gap, and a large amount of aviation gasoline flowed down the gap to the ground. Chen Zhimin shouted with a sneer: "If you have the guts, just shoot. It's all aviation gasoline. Shoot, and let's do it together." Finished!"

Only then did Hank and the people around him realize that the liquid flowing out of the cabin was actually flammable and explosive aviation gasoline.

Everyone's expressions changed drastically, and they immediately took a few steps back. Hank shouted loudly: "Chen Zhimin, you are the son-in-law of the An family, and your status is considered noble. You can't afford to kill yourself for an antique dealer, right?"

Chen Zhimin said disdainfully: "Anjia? Do you think I am working hard for Anjia?"

Hank followed the script assigned to him by Charlie Wade and asked in surprise: "You are the son-in-law of the An family. If you don't work hard for the An family, who else can you work for?"

Chen Zhimin said contemptuously: "You, a dog slave like you, follow Howard Rothschild and don't seem to know any core secrets. Go back and ask your dog master if he has heard of the Qing Dynasty Meeting!"

"Broken Qinghui?!" Hank had never heard of this name, and asked in surprise: "What does the Qingqinghui do?"

Chen Zhimin sneered and said: "You don't know, but your dog owner should have heard of it, go and ask him! I will take Peter Zhou to return to the British Lord first!"

After that, Chen Zhimin opened the Dunhill lighter in his hand, rubbed his fingers lightly, and a flame spurted out from the lighter.

This was Charlie Wade's last order to him, which was to let him set fire to himself and Sean's body with missing parts.

The reason why Charlie Wade gave him this order was because he didn't want to leave his and Uncle Sean's bodies to Sara.

With Sara's cultivation and skills, Charlie Wade was worried that she could find out some clues from the two bodies.

Especially Chen Zhimin, he used spiritual energy to give him a psychological suggestion. If Sara was allowed to come into contact with the corpse, she might be able to see it.

Therefore, the best way is to directly destroy the corpse and eliminate traces.

As the flames spurted out from the lighter, the oil and gas in the entire cabin was completely ignited in an instant.

With a bang, a burst of flames spurted out from the cabin door, instantly igniting the fuel flowing to the ground.

Hank and the men around him were horrified and quickly exited the hangar. Within seconds, the entire hangar was instantly engulfed in a sea of flames.

The hangar's fire extinguishing system was activated instantly, but it had no effect at all on such a ferocious fire.

The high temperature of thousands of degrees directly carbonized the dismembered bodies of Chen Zhimin and Sean.

Hank, who was hiding outside the hangar, saw this and backed away while quickly calling Howard.

As soon as Howard answered the phone, he asked coldly: "Have you found that Chen Zhimin?"

Hank said awkwardly: "Sir, Chen Zhimin found it...but..."

Howard asked sharply: "But what!? I tell you, if anything goes wrong again in this matter, I will never forgive you!"

Hank stuttered and said, "But...but this guy lit himself on fire before we could catch him..."

"Lighted up?" Howard asked in surprise, "What do you mean?"

Hank explained: "Like a lunatic, he filled the cabin with fuel, stayed inside and lit the entire helicopter and the entire hangar on fire... In addition, I also saw a fire in the cabin. The figure, maybe it's that Peter Zhou... Both of them must have been burned to death now, maybe they've all been burned to charcoal..."

Howard was stunned and asked subconsciously: "Are you kidding me? He's just Peter Zhou. His dignified son-in-law of Anjia is so respected by An Qishan that he would burn himself to death?"

"I can't figure it out either..." Hank said, remembering something, and said hurriedly: "By the way, boss, that Chen Zhimin said that he didn't work for the An family."

"What do you mean?" Howard felt like his brain was about to crash and asked, "Then who is he working for?"

Hank then said: "He said it was a group called Po Qinghui, which I have never heard of. Moreover, he also said that he would take Peter Zhou to return his life to the British Lord or something. After that, he ordered himself... .."

Howard on the other end of the phone felt as if he was struck by lightning. He murmured: "You...what did you say? Breaking the Qing Dynasty? Are you sure you heard correctly?"

Hank assured: "Sir, don't worry, I definitely heard it right! That's exactly what he said, and other people are also with me, they can testify for me..."

Howard's sphincter tightened and he blurted out: "What did you say? Is there anyone else?"

"Yes..." Hank said: "They are all my subordinates. They come with me to carry out the tasks you ordered..."

Howard felt that someone had opened the Tianling cover outdoors on a cold winter day, and the cold wind blew straight in. He was so frightened that he quickly said: "Quickly, get everyone back, no one is left! In addition, they must be removed.” All their cell phones have also been put away and they will never be allowed to contact anyone!”

No data found.

1. The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6414

Before that, charlie Wade had told his grandfather about his plan, and Li Yalin also knew about charlie Wade’s plan.

At the moment, Li Yalin, together with charlie Wade’s two uncles, accompanied the old man to a signing banquet held by a domestic aircraft manufacturer.

After receiving the message from charlie Wade, he came to the old man and whispered in his ear: “Uncle An, there’s a fire. Ronaldinho may call you.”

An Qishan was stunned for a moment, then nodded slightly and said, “I understand.”

charlie Wade’s guess was not wrong.

The panic-stricken Howard had just called everyone back before he picked up his cell phone and called An Qishan who was far away in China.

Originally, although he and An Qishan had little interaction, as the leaders of the two largest families in the United States, they also had contact information with each other.

When An Qishan saw that it was Howard who called, he knew that everything had been guessed by his grandson again. This time, his grandson deliberately wanted to drag the Rothschild family into trouble and let them divert the attention of the Qing Dynasty. Now it seems that this The purpose has been achieved.

So, he went to the lounge provided by the organizer and answered the call from Howard.

As soon as the call came through, Howard couldn’t hide his nervousness and asked: “Brother An, have you been in China recently?”

“Yes.” An Qishan said: “I have been in Eastcliff recently. Brother, do you have anything to do with me?”

Howard asked tentatively: “Brother An, do you know about the Qing Dynasty meeting?”

An Qishan admitted openly: “Of course I know that my eldest daughter and son-in-law were killed by them back then. Our family was almost wiped out by them in New York some time ago. The reason why I came to China is because I am afraid of them. , the An family will not return to the United States for a long time to come.”

After saying that, An Qishan pretended to be curious and asked him: “Brother, why did you suddenly ask about Po Qinghui?”

Howard sighed and said, “I don’t know why, but I suddenly got involved with them.”

As he said that, he suddenly remembered something and said quickly: “By the way, brother, your son-in-law! Chen Zhimin! He is actually a member of the Po Qinghui, did you know?”

An Qishan hummed: “I know, my youngest daughter-in-law is also a member of Poqinghui, and these two people were not instigated by them to rebel halfway. They were both trained by Poqinghui from childhood, and they were trained by Poqinghui more than ten or twenty years ago. , the Po Qing Association will conduct tailor-made special training for my youngest son and daughter, which is really hard to prevent.”

When Howard heard this, he was so frightened that his back went cold, and he blurted out: “Brother, when your child gets married, don’t you do a thorough background check?”

An Qishan said casually: “I checked, but the key point is that eight generations of our ancestors have checked, and nothing has been found. Since they decided to send undercover agents, they can naturally withstand the investigation. The strength of the Qingqing Society is beyond our imagination.” , it’s hard for us to avoid being targeted by them.”

“Oh my God...” Howard blurted out: “Are these people devils? They have spent so many years and put so much effort into sending two undercover agents to your home, and they are still the pillows of your son and daughter. This is too much. It's terrible..."

"Yeah." An Qishan sighed and asked him, "Brother, how do you know this?"

Howard said depressedly: "Forget it, an antique was lost at home some time ago. In order to find it, I made a big fuss. Today, my men tracked down the antique dealer who dropped the antique and found out that it was actually your son-in-law Chen Zhimin. Taken away..."

An Qishan sighed: "Brother, you are so confused! You, the Rothschild family, have lost an antique and engaged in such a big fight. Everyone can guess that the thing must have an extraordinary origin, and what will happen to it?" The century-old mysterious organization may have a deep connection with what you lost, so it's normal for them to target you."

When Howard heard this, his heart collapsed even more, and he blurted out with some emotion: "The key is that your son-in-law doesn't play by the rules. I have no other purpose in leading people to chase him. I just want to find that Peter Zhou. In the end, He just set himself on fire, is this necessary?"
