1. The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6421

charlie Wade asked her, "Is this different from what you said in the last round? "

Helena stuck out her tongue. "At least the order has changed, there is still a difference. "

With that said, Helena added, "Mr. Wade, what you want me to do is nothing more than a simple task for me. If you ask me to collect your money, I really deserve it..."

charlie Wade was helpless . , said seriously, "Listen, now is the final fixed price. When the time comes, you go to see Howard. When we come back, we will split it 50-50. If you are willing, we will happily decide. If you don'tIf you are willing, then I will find someone else to do it for me. "

Helena looked at charlie Wade's masculine appearance and felt a little happy and a little sad.

Needless to say, she was happy because she was not happy because of the money. She was happy because charlie Wade had himself in his heart and thought about himself everywhere; sad, It's not that she's worried that she can't repay her favor debt, because she has long since repaid it. She is mainly worried that all her fantasies about men are not even one-tenth of what charlie Wade himself is. If she falls into this pit, she will never be able to do it again in her life. Don't even think about crawling out.

When she thought of this, she suddenly felt regretful, and she couldn't help but shyly thought to herself, "It would have been better if I had been more decisive last time..."

Thinking back to the scene where she and charlie Wade hugged each other tightly on the bed. , Helena couldn't help but be distracted, and her face couldn't help but blush.

charlie Wade didn't know why, he gently tapped the marble tabletop with his finger, and asked her, "How are you thinking, Her Majesty the Queen?" "

At this time, Helena's mind had drifted back to the bed she was sleeping on, and she had even entered the situation. When she suddenly heard charlie Wade speak, she felt as if she had just taken off her clothes and got into charlie Wade's bed, and charlie Wade Suddenly she woke up and talked to herself, which scared her so much that she couldn't help but scream. Then she realized that she had lost her temper and quickly covered her mouth again.

charlie Wade asked in surprise, "What's wrong with you?" What are you thinking about? Helena shook her head quickly, "No... I didn't think about anything..."

charlie Wade asked again, "What about my proposal just now?" Helena couldn't figure out what Charlie Wade's proposal just now was, so she could only cover it up in a panic, "Huh?" I...I...I don't know...it's whatever Mr. Wade says..."

Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile, "Then it's settled, 50-50 split. Too much money is also a problem. At that time, you can negotiate the total price with Howard, and then ask him to pay in installments over ten years;" "

In addition, the payment methods can also be various, including but not limited to cash, gold, high-quality corporate stocks and high-quality Real estate, etc.;" "

"You can even let them contribute funds to sponsor the Nordic royal family to do some charity activities;" "

In short, this money will help the Nordic royal family in all aspects in the next ten years to enhance your overall strength and influence. Force, you can think about it carefully. Helena nodded slightly and said, "Thank you Mr. Wade, I will consider it carefully!" "

Charlie stretched and said with a smile, "Now we are waiting for Howard's bad news to come. I hope this old man's mental endurance is stronger..."

C 6422

At this time, Howard Rothschild's mentality was on the verge of collapse.

Although the scene had been cleaned up by his people, and Hank and others had been hidden away by him, and he planned to find a suitable opportunity to send all of them overseas to avoid the limelight, he was still extremely depressed.

I spent so much energy and endured so much pressure from public opinion, but still couldn't find the whereabouts of the Sifang Baozhuang.

Forget it if you don't find it.

He also involved the Po Qing Society;

what's even more damning is that he was inexplicably involved in the lives of the core members of the Po Qing Society.

If Po Qinghui can hide the truth and find Sifang Baozhuang, these crimes will not be in vain. If the Sifang Baozhuang cannot be found and Poqinghui comes to seek revenge on me again, then I really want to think about it. I have the desire to die.

The torture over the past few days has caused his blood pressure to continue to rise. After examining him, his personal doctor strongly recommended that he must take antihypertensive drugs and ensure adequate sleep to reduce the burden on his body and reduce the risk of sudden death.

But Howard was afraid that there would be news about Po Qing and Sifang Baozhu. He didn't feel sleepy at all, so he could only take antihypertensive medicine and continue to hold on.

In the early morning, as the red sun gradually rose in New York, Arman's flight finally landed at Aurous Hill Airport in the night on the other side of the world.

At this time, Lin Waner's adopted son Sun Zhidong (Meir) was already sitting in Qiu Yingshan(Curtis)'s special plane, waiting for Arman's arrival.

In order to complete the handover of the Sifang Baozhu as soon as possible, after Sun Zhidong (Meir) learned in advance that Arman's flight would land at the remote stand, he arranged for his men to wait at the remote stand next to it.

After Arman's plane stopped at the stand, they directly took Arman to Sun Zhidong (Meir)'s plane. It was also here that Arman met Sun Zhidong (Meir), who had been waiting for a long time.

In order to dispel all doubts of Arman, Sun Zhidong (Meir) briefly introduced himself and said to Arman: "Mr. Arman, if it is convenient for you, please send a video call to Mr. Wade, and I will synchronize the situation with you two at the same time. "138 Reading Network

"Okay." Arman nodded and sent a video call to Charlie Wade.

Charlie Wade was in Helena's suite at this time. When he received Arman's video, he immediately connected it.

After the video was connected, Charlie Wade asked Arman: "Uncle Zhong, have you arrived in Aurous Hill safely?"

Arman said respectfully: "Back to the young master, my subordinate has arrived."

After saying that, he switched the video to the rear camera, let Sun Zhidong (Meir) appear in the camera, and then said: "Mr. Sun said that there are some situations that I need to synchronize with you."

Charlie Wade said politely on the other end of the phone: "Grandpa Sun, thank you for your hard work this time."

Sun Zhidong (Meir) said hurriedly: "Mr. Wade is very polite. I will share your worries with you and the lady. It's nothing hard."

After saying that, he went straight to the point and said: "Master Wade, let me synchronize the current situation with you. I have already gone through absolutely safe channels to inform you in advance. After notifying Eastcliff, they learned that Sifang Baozhuang was returning to China, and they took this matter very seriously. They even authorized the plane I was flying to land directly at the Eastcliff Military Airport, and at the same time sent troops to protect it. The handover of the Sifang Treasure Building will be completed there. Since it is an important weapon of the country, Eastcliff will definitely take the safest method to properly receive this treasure. Master Wade can rest assured." Charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile

: “When the things arrive in China, I can breathe a sigh of relief. The last step left is for you, Grandpa Laosun, to wait for me to finish it. I have no other request, just don’t expose my identity.” “

This is your request. Don’t worry!” Sun Zhidong (Meir) said firmly: “I have made it clear to them. Although they don’t know your identity, Master wade, they know very well that it is not easy to bring Sifang Baozhuang back from the United States at this time. So they will definitely respect your request.”

”Okay.” charlie Wade was completely relieved and said with a smile: “Then I will wait for the media to report the news of Sifang Baozhuang’s return to China.”

”No problem.” Sun Zhidong (Meir) said with a smile. : “Don’t worry about this matter. Everything has been arranged over there. We will land in Eastcliff in two hours. Military reporters will shoot some materials. At ten o’clock in the evening, some of the processed materials will be handed over to the evening news. You can pay attention to the broadcast.”

”Okay!” charlie Wade said with a smile: “Then I will pay more attention and wait for the news to be released.”

Just as Sun Zhidong (Meir)’s plane took off from Aurous Hill, Sara’s Boeing 777 , finally landed at New York’s JFK Airport.

Sara on the plane felt a little cramped and uneasy.

Although she knew very well in her heart that she must come to the United States for the sake of Sifang Baozhuang.

However, when she thought about her recent decades of low profile and frequent outings, she still felt something was wrong.

Since the Cold War between the United States and the Soviet Union began in the last century, Sara almost never leaves the base.

The reason why she rarely leaves the base is mainly because she witnessed the rapid development of various technologies during the Cold War.

The faster science and technology develops, the more afraid she becomes, and she is especially afraid of the officials of these superpowers.

Because to these superpowers, no matter how strong the Qing Dynasty is, it is just an ant. Once it is targeted by any of these superpowers, it will face disaster.

For example, her Po Qinghui headquarters, which she spent a lot of manpower and material resources to build little by little, may not be able to withstand the saturation attack of a guided missile destroyer. Therefore, when she came to the United States this time, Sara also kept reminding herself that she must try her best. Low profile.

When entering the country, Sara and Jadiel each used a seamless Swedish identity. After successfully entering the country through customs, Sara, who cared about Sifang Baozhuang, said to Jadiel: "Contact Uncle Sean and ask him how his situation is. "

Okay, Master Ying, I will contact Uncle Sean right now!" Jadiel said, without thinking, he took out his cell phone and called Uncle Sean.

But what surprised him was that Sean's phone was turned off!

He couldn't help but whispered: "Master, Uncle Sean's phone is turned off."

"Shut it off?!" Sara frowned: "With Uncle Sean's habit, even if there is something important, he is unlikely to turn off his phone. Turn off the phone, what happened this time?"

Jadiel shook his head: "I don't know, Master Ying, why don't you call Chen Zhimin?"

Sara nodded expressionlessly and said, "Call him. Go!"

Jadiel quickly dialed Chen Zhiming's number again, but the phone still prompted to shut down.

This made Jadiel feel a little weird, and he couldn't help but said: "I don't know what happened to these two people, but they both turned off their mobile phones." Sara's expression instantly became a little nervous and apprehensive, and she subconsciously took out her mobile phone. A software was opened on it.

This software is the positioning software of Qingqinghui.

The core members of the Clearing Society must carry special mobile phones with positioning capabilities when they go out. The mobile phones will continuously upload their own satellite positioning positions to the server. In this way, Sara can grasp the specific movements of each of them.

When Sara checked the real-time location of Sean and Chen Zhimin on the software, she was surprised to find that the coordinate points of these two people had disappeared!

No data found.

C 6424

The disappearance of the coordinate point does not necessarily mean that the corresponding member of the Clearing Society is dead, but it at least means that the other party has lost contact.

The Clearing Society has very strict disciplinary requirements for members like Chen Zhimin who are performing long-term missions abroad, and the punishment for missing contact is very severe.

If it is a malicious and active loss of contact, once caught, it may be executed directly. Even if the other party hides, it will be useless, because the speed attack in the body has a time limit, and the antidote cannot be obtained within the deadline. The person who has lost contact will also die;

if the connection is lost due to your own negligence, such as forgetting to charge a dedicated mobile phone or accidental damage to the equipment, the Clearing Society will not let it go easily, and will send a special envoy to punish you according to the specific situation. If you take Sara's specially prepared poison in front of you, although the poison will not kill you, it will still cause you to suffer from the heart-gnawing pain of thousands of ants.

Therefore, the possibility of accidentally losing their heads among the scholars who are lurking outside the Clearing Society is much greater than that of accidentally losing contact.

Especially Chen Zhimin, he is an extremely important flag of the Po Qing Society. Even Sara himself attaches great importance to it. Chen Zhimin himself is also very self-disciplined. Since the positioning system went online, he has never lost contact once.

As for Uncle Sean, let alone that. Among the four earls, he is the most loyal to Sara. If there had not been any accident, he would never have made such a low-level mistake as losing contact. It was precisely two people who could not lose contact. The person who contacted him lost contact, which made Sara even more uneasy.

She immediately checked the last location of the two people's positioning devices on the software, and found that the two people were missing from Manhattan Hospital.

So, she asked Jadiel beside her: "Has Chen Zhimin reported his plan to you?"

Jadiel quickly said respectfully: "Back to the Lord, Chen Zhimin did report his plan to me, because the antique dealer was receiving treatment at Manhattan Hospital. , so he planned to sneak into Manhattan Hospital with Bo Sean, wait for an opportunity to take away the antique dealer, and then force him to find out the whereabouts of the antique."

Sara's heart thumped, and she said: "Oh no, something happened to the two of them. Accident..."

Jadiel asked in surprise: "Master Ying, are there other masters looking at that antique?!"

Sara shook her head: "I'm not sure, but I don't rule out the possibility.

" Looking at it, Sara said worriedly: "Besides that, there is another worst possibility."

Jadiel hurriedly asked: "Master Ying, are you worried that the disappearance of the two of them has nothing to do with Changsheng (Willie), Jiang Gong Bo, Ding Yuan Bo? Are the three of them the same, all caused by that mysterious master?"

Sara sighed: "Yes, I am indeed worried. If this is the case, it proves that this person has the ability to snipe and kill me all over the world. , first New York rescued An Jia, then Cyprus killed Uncle Nakul, then Aurous Hill killed Uncle Willie and Uncle Ding Yuan, and now he returns to New York... If things continue like this, maybe it won't be long before they can kill him. Argentina, and then locate the location of the headquarters of the Po Qinghui!"

Jadiel said hurriedly: "Master Ying, do we want to go to Manhattan Hospital now to find out?"

"Go! We must go!" Sara said firmly: "This time , I want to see people alive, and I want to see corpses when I die!"

After that, Sara told Jadiel: "Take a taxi to Manhattan Hospital. This time when you come to New York, don't let the Zuo Army Governor's Office know about it."

"Okay!"

New York, Manhattan Hospital.

1. The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6425

At this time, Manhattan Hospital was still as busy as ever.

The medical staff are busy treating illnesses and saving lives, but the security department is as anxious as ants on a hot pot.

The reason why they are anxious is because two very difficult things happened this morning.

The first thing is that the patient in ward 1707 was found dead in the hospital bed early this morning. It was initially determined that the cause of death was acute morphine poisoning. The specific details are still waiting for the autopsy results of the police. The hospital checked the patient's medical records. Due to the car accident, He was admitted to the hospital, so in order to relieve the pain, he was indeed injected with morphine last night, but the recorded dose was very safe and unlikely to cause morphine poisoning, so the possibility of homicide cannot be ruled out;

. The second thing is that there was a death in the hospital. As a result, the staff in charge of the monitoring system this morning found that there were some small loopholes in the system that needed to be repaired, so he chose to automatically repair them. After the repairs were completed, he discovered that all the monitoring records of the hospital were They all disappeared inexplicably.

Someone had just died over there, and the surveillance video here disappeared. Not to mention the police, even the hospital staff felt that this matter was not normal.

But it would be embarrassing to investigate this matter, because no one can confirm whether those surveillance videos disappeared before the system was repaired or during the system repair process.

If it is the former, then it is most likely the murderer;

if it is the latter, then there is a possibility of coincidence.

But in addition, there is another strange thing, that is, two family members of patient 1707 have disappeared, and one of them is the famous Chen Zhimin.

Now even the policeman felt that his head was as big as eight. Chen Zhimin was the son-in-law of the An family and a typical aristocratic class in New York. If there were any shortcomings in this, it would definitely attract national attention.

As a result, the police dispatched a large number of manpower to Manhattan Hospital to conduct investigations and collect various evidences.

Sara and Jadiel had just gotten out of the taxi. Before they entered Manhattan Hospital, Sara had already frowned.

A large amount of spiritual energy separated from her body, and she conducted a quick inspection of the entire building at a very fast speed. Then she frowned and said, "Both of them are not here."

Jadiel said in surprise: "Master Ying , both of them lost contact here, but they are not here, could it be that there really was an accident?"

Sara withdrew her spiritual energy and said with a solemn expression: "I just used my spiritual energy to investigate and found that the person on the 17th floor There are especially many people. After listening to their conversation, it seems that the police are looking for clues. I guess it is related to the two of them. You wait for me here and I will go in and take a look."

Jadiel nodded lightly and said respectfully: " Lord, please be more careful."

Sara ignored him and stepped into the gate of Manhattan Hospital.

As soon as she entered the gate, she saw two policemen on duty guarding the place, so she walked directly in front of them, looked at one of them, and said expressionlessly: "What mission are you performing here?"

That policeman The whole person seemed to have had his soul taken away for an instant, and he said dully: "We are ordered to stand by here and wait for further notification from the commander on site."

Sara asked again: "What happened on the 17th floor? What are your people looking for?" The policeman said truthfully: "

There was a murder on the 17th floor. A patient who was brought here yesterday was found dead of acute morphine poisoning this morning. It cannot be ruled out that someone injected a large amount of morphine into his body before his death." of morphine."

Sara continued to ask: "What is the identity of the deceased?"

The policeman said: "He was the personal assistant of Chen Zhimin, the son-in-law of the An family."
