1. The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6447

Sara released a large amount of spiritual energy in one breath, covering the entire airport. Immediately afterwards, she couldn't help but frown, and thought to herself: "Why is there no existence related to spiritual energy except my own spiritual energy?"

"The treasure pillar is a magic weapon, and it was jointly built by many monks with great supernatural powers in the Tang Dynasty. There must be a large number of formations in it, and it can be sensed with spiritual energy, and it must be detected immediately.

However, wherever Sara's spiritual energy went, there was deathly silence everywhere, just like flames passing through the scorched earth, unable to find anything that could be ignited.

Sara's heart skipped a beat, and then she began to search everyone in the airport more carefully to see if Chen Zhimin and Zhong Yongbo were here.

However, after a search, Sara found no trace of the two of them.

This made her mood instantly sink to the bottom.

She said with a gloomy expression: "I worked hard to get here, but I didn't expect that it was a trap set by the other party!"

Jadiel on the side felt nervous and asked quickly: "Master Ying, why did you say this?"

Sara clenched her fists and gritted her teeth and said: "What I am looking for is not here, and Chen Zhimin and Uncle Sean are not here either."

As he said that, Sara said angrily: "Since Chen Zhimin is not on this plane, he must have been Dead, the reason why he chartered this plane was definitely not his intention. It was most likely that he was coerced or controlled by others. The reason why the other party did this was to interfere with my judgment and make me jump. Empty!"

Jadiel was shocked after hearing this, and blurted out: "Master Ying, is this a plan to lure the tiger away from the mountain?!"

Sara said with a solemn expression: "Whether it is to lure the tiger away from the mountain, it depends on whether they know that I have come to the United States!"

thought of it ! Here, Sara asked Jadiel: "If you are that mysterious person, and the four great earls have died at your hands, who else in the Po Qing Society will make you afraid?"

Jadiel said: "Back to the Lord, if your subordinate is the mysterious person , all the four great earls were killed by me, and the only one I fear in the Po Qing Society should be you, the British Master." After saying that, Jadiel said again: "As for the three elders, they have been in seclusion for hundreds of years. Last time Although they exited the border, they quickly returned to the base. Moreover, few people in the Poqing Association knew about their situation. The mysterious man may not know the existence of the three elders, and his subordinates felt that with his strength, he should have already started. After passing the Niwan Palace, the three elders are still one step away from opening the Niwan Palace, so the subordinates believe that even if he knows the three elders, he will not be afraid."

Sara's expression became even more ugly, and she gritted her teeth and said: " If the only thing he is afraid of is me, then maybe he already knew that I was coming, so he deliberately made this happen."

Jadiel said respectfully: "Master Ying, I feel that he may not really know that you want to come. Come, let Chen Zhimin charter this plane. It is probably just to interfere with our judgment, and it may not be directed at your behavior."

Sara said coldly: "You have to investigate carefully to see where the leak of my coming to the United States was. If someone leaks the secret, no matter who it is, they will be killed without mercy!"

Jadiel said hurriedly: "Master Ying, when you come to the United States this time, you should only know about your subordinates and crew members, but I feel that the crew members should also know about it. No secrets will be leaked..."

Sara gritted her teeth and said: "No matter what, just kill all the crew members and replace them with a new batch."

Jadiel said without thinking: "I obey your orders!"

After saying that, Jadiel asked her again: "Master Ying, what are you doing? What should we do next?"

1. The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6448

Sara said coldly: "Go back to New York! The Rothschild family has blocked New York so tightly that even I can't avoid their inspection. If that person really takes me to It will only be more difficult for what he is looking for if he leaves New York. Maybe he is still hiding in New York, waiting for an opportunity! This time when I come to New York, I must find that treasure!" As soon as Sara finished speaking, Jadiel's cell phone suddenly closed. to multiple pushes.

He took out his phone and found that the push notifications were basically from Chinese news, social networking and short video apps.

The titles are basically the same.

He couldn't help but whisper softly: "The Tang Dynasty national treasure Sifang Baozhu has returned to China... Does this thing have a big origin? So many media released the news at the same time..."

When Sara heard this, her eyes widened and she blurted out: "What did you say? Sifang Baozhu returned to the country?!"

"Yes." Jadiel handed the phone to Sara and said: "Master Ying, you see, I have received many relevant notifications in succession."

As he said that, he suddenly realized Seeing something, he quickly asked: "Master Ying, could it be the treasure you are looking for?!"

Sara was shocked, snatched the phone away, clicked on one of the push notifications, and immediately entered Toutiao News software, and this news push is a news emergency broadcast by a TV station, so click on it and start playing the video directly.

The host's sonorous and powerful voice came: "The following is an exclusive news of our station. After wandering overseas for nearly two hundred years, the Sifang Baozhuang, a national treasure of the Tang Dynasty, returned to the embrace of the motherland tonight. Relevant experts said that the Sifang Baozhuang is a very important building in the Tang Dynasty.” An important national treasure, it was secretly collected by the Qing Dynasty for more than two hundred years and was lost overseas during the period from the First Opium War to the Second Opium War...” When the host said this, the screen had switched to the Sifang Baozhu. In a close-up, when Sara saw the majestic square tower, her whole body felt like the world was spinning, and her long-suffering mentality completely collapsed at this moment!

She gathered her spiritual energy in her hands and crushed Jadiel’s cell phone into powder with a bang. Jadiel was startled, and just as he was about to persuade him, he saw Sara gritting her teeth and roaring with an ashen complexion: “He did it on purpose! He did it on purpose!!” ! It’s so unreasonable!!! It’s so unreasonable!!!”

Jadiel asked hurriedly: “Master Ying, you said he did it on purpose. Could it be that this mysterious man sent this square treasure building back to China?!”

Sara almost collapsed and said hysterically: “I flew nearly ten thousand kilometers to find the Sifang Baozhuang, and in the process I had to be humiliated by the Rothschild family! But I didn’t expect that that bastard had already sent the Sifang Baozhuang back to China! It’s really unreasonable!” “

This bastard! ” , knew that I would definitely find a way to get the Sifang Baozhu and secretly sent it back to China. It was obviously deliberately humiliating me and destroying my Taoist heart! I didn’t expect that I, Sara, who had a great reputation in my life, would ruin his humiliating schemes many times. It’s really abominable! I Sara swears to God that I won’t cut him into pieces unless I am a human being!!!”

As he said that, Sara felt an unbearable depression in her chest, and an evil fire exploded in her heart.

Immediately afterwards, she felt a nausea in her throat, and the next second, a puff of blood mist popped out!

Sara coughed twice, hurriedly wiped the blood from the corner of her mouth, took out an elixir and threw it into her mouth, and then hurriedly used her mental skills to stabilize the scattered spiritual energy and meridians in her body.

It was the first time that Jadiel saw Sara so angry. At this moment, Sara was already in a state of madness and even hysteria. Because he quickly said: "Master Ying, please don't be angry. The Sifang Baozhu has returned to China. This is not a bad thing." Good thing, we can go to China and snatch it back!"

Sara's eyes were bloodshot and red, as if they were about to bulge out of her sockets. She couldn't control her anger and roared: "That bastard can send the Sifang Baozhuang back to China. I must tell the official the secret of the Sifang Baozhu! Such an important national weapon that can affect the destiny of the country will be regarded as a national treasure and protected by China! I can't afford to offend the New York State National Guard. How do you ask me to go to China? Take back the Sifang Baozhuang? Do you risk your life to take it back?"

1. The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6449

The moment she learned that Sifang Baozhuang had returned to China, Sara knew that she had no chance.

For more than three hundred years, she has always adhered to one purpose, that is, she can be an enemy of anyone, but she can never provoke a country.

Except for a few small countries, most sovereign countries in the world have their own absolute advantages over Poqing.

Because even a small sovereign country has its own territory and airspace. As long as it has a budget, it will definitely be able to buy fighter jets from a big country in the Eastern or Western camps. If it has territorial waters, it can also buy its own warships.

These two points are beyond the reach of Poqing Club.

Although the current Qing Qinghui has strong financial strength and excellent individual strength, it has no advantage at all in the face of heavy weapons and equipment, or even weapons of mass destruction.

Moreover, the Sifang Baozhu is an important weapon of the country, and China will definitely not let it be put at any risk. It must be strictly guarded in a secret location. Even if the Qing Dynasty mobilizes all their troops, there is no chance to snatch it away.

At this moment, Sara was extremely angry!

This time I came to New York, I was really exhausted!

The only remaining count is dead, and so is Chen Zhimin!

She has placed countless scholars all over the world. There are almost only a handful of people who are as important as Chen Zhimin. It took dozens of people and more than ten years to build them up. Now they are also in ashes. At the end of her life in Anjia One chess piece was also lost.

Wu Tianlin saw that her emotions were almost uncontrollable, so he quickly said: "Master Ying, since the matter has come to this, my subordinates suggest that for the sake of safety, we should leave the United States and return to the base first. What do you think?"

Sara said with a cold face: "Uncle Sean and Chen Zhimin died in New York. Starting from Uncle Nakul, the enemy has repeatedly hit us hard. I must get to the bottom of this matter!"

Then she said with a sinister expression: "And that Ross who checked my helicopter. Childe family, I, Sara, have never been angry with me no matter where I go. They must pay the price this time!"

After saying that, Sara shouted coldly: "Go back to New York!"

When Sara returned to New York by helicopter. At that time, the patriarch of the Rothschild family, Howard Rothschild, was lying weakly on the bed. The bags under his eyes were dark and large, and it looked like he had not slept all night.

Howard's mentality has been hit hard recently, and the continuous blow reached its climax early this morning. He never expected that when his subordinate Hank chased Peter Zhou, Chen Zhimin actually set fire to himself.

After learning that he was actually the one who broke the Qing Society, Howard was even more heartbroken.

Although he had followed An Qishan's suggestion and had the evidence at the scene destroyed, he was still uneasy because he had offended not ordinary people this time, but the long-standing and extremely mysterious Po Qing Society.

In the United States, there is actually no shortage of mysterious organizations with a long history, darkness, and ruthlessness, but none of them can compare with the Qing Dynasty Society.

At the moment, he is not sure whether the other party will find out about him. If he does find out, the matter will not be settled so easily.

In order to ensure his own safety, he contacted the heads of the Department of Homeland Security and the CIA after the incident early this morning, and asked them to send their top agents and the most professional equipment to the Rothschild family's estate to ensure that The safety of yourself and your family.
