Cheng Ying and Lu Wushuang died alone, weren't they mistaken by Yang Guo? And Gongsun Lu'e, who was born in Jueqing Valley and died in Jueqing Valley, She was misunderstood by Yang Guo and died tragically in front of Yang Guo. Although Wanyanping finally married someone else and had a destiny, was she really happy in this life?"

At this point, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) asked with regret. "By the way, does Sister Sun still remember Deana?"

Sister Sun quickly bowed and said: "Back to Madam, of course I remember that the eldest daughter of the Thorne Family was obsessed with Young Master bruce Wade. In the circle of Eastcliff, no one can say that. I don't know, no one knows..."

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) sighed with a somewhat sad expression: "She looked very much like Guo Xiang thirty years ago. After I married bruce Wade, she married like Wanyanping, and now , but like bruce Wade, she returned to the old house where bruce Wade lived alone to live in seclusion. Her life was not easy, let alone satisfactory. Fortunately, it was charlie who saved her in the Aurous Hill Forbidden Mountain Tunnel. With her daughter, otherwise her life would be too miserable." Sister Sun couldn't help but sigh: "Hey... as Madam, you said, the life of the eldest daughter of the Thorne Family is indeed not easy." As she said that

, she quickly added: "But now she should be able to find joy after suffering all the hardships."

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) shook his head, his eyes were reddish and shining a little brightly and said softly: "If you always love someone deeply but can't always love it, then... Life is all about the end of suffering and no joy. The day she bought the old house where bruce Wade and I lived at the auction should have been the moment when her suffering was over. But although the suffering is over, there is no joy in the future,"

When my son gave her the old house at the auction, I was happy for her for a long time. If there is a chance in the future, I even want to visit her, shake hands with her, and have a long talk with her..."

Speaking of this, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) paused for a moment, and then said: "I want to tell her that at some point before bruce Wade met me, she was moved by her persistence and infatuation for many years, and she also thought about having a relationship with her. She walked through this life hand in hand;"

"It was only at the moment when bruce Wade was about to make a decision that fate made him meet me. As a result, all her years of hard work came to nothing, but she had no idea that she had been infinitely close to that person. The most desired result..."

Sister Sun asked her: "Madam, if that day comes, will Deana misunderstand your intention, think that you are showing off to her or something else? "

"Won't. Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) said: "I think she will be very happy and reconcile with her past self and the Bruce Wade who turned a blind eye to her and was ruthless to the end in her memory. We may become very good friends. Then I can look for a house in Aurous Hill, I can go to her to reminisce about the past and become old best friends in my free time.

After saying that, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) quickly waved his hand, changed the subject and asked, "Is Jing Qing here? "

Sister Sun said hurriedly: "Still on the helicopter, almost there. " "

As he spoke, the roar of the helicopter engine and the sound of the rotor breaking the wind could already be heard in the valley.

Sister Sun said: "Madam, it's Jingqing who has arrived. "

"good. Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) nodded: "Let him come directly to see me." "

A few minutes later, the helicopter landed in the open space outside the courtyard. A monk wearing monk's robes and cassocks strode towards the gate of the courtyard.

The door opened just at this time. Sister Sun looked at the monk and said with a smile: "Jingqing, Madam has been waiting for you for a long time. "

This monk is Master Jingqing, who has become very famous in recent years.

Master Jingqing is less than fifty years old, and has been a monk for less than twenty years. However, with his profound understanding and unique insights into Buddhism, Master Jingqing has become what he is today. A highly recognized and sought-after eminent monk.

He has lectured everywhere over the years, not for any utilitarianism, but hoping to use the philosophy of Buddhism to teach people to be optimistic about life.

He has always been concerned about depression groups, and has also He does his best to preach Buddhism to people who are depressed or prone to depression all over the country, in exchange for their nostalgia for the world. Invisibly, he saves countless lost people from desperate situations. He is a great benevolent person.

And the reason why he can In addition to his own understanding, there is another extremely important reason for his rapid progress in Buddhism, that is, he is also a monk to a certain extent.

He can sense spiritual energy and can also refine spiritual energy through the movement in his own body. , making the spiritual energy more profound, but his talent is insufficient. After enlightenment, the spiritual energy is all in the sea of consciousness, so he does not have the terrifying strength and exaggerated magical powers like Charlie Wade, but the sea of consciousness has been greatly expanded. and promotion, so that he could have a deeper interpretation and understanding when studying Buddhism. At this time, Master Jingqing put his hands together in front of Sister Sun, said Amitabha, and then walked quickly into the other courtyard. In front of Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom).

Seeing Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom), Master Jingqing clasped his hands and bowed, and said with full respect in his tone: "Jingqing has met Madam! An Lydia (Ava) said seriously: "Jingqing, you are now an eminent monk. You don't have to be so reserved and polite in front of me."

Master Jingqing said firmly: "Madam, Jingqing's great enlightenment today is all due to your guidance. Without you, there would be no Jingqing today. At any time, you are the existence in Jingqing's heart second only to the Buddha." An Lydia (Ava) smiled and nodded, saying: "You have your own ideas and persistence, I won't force you." "

With that said, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) said again: "Let's get straight to the point. I invited you here in a hurry this time because I heard that you were preaching Buddhism at Lingyin Temple recently, which happened to be not far from here, so I asked you to come and give me some guidance. A little girl, help her enlighten. Master Jingqing was slightly startled and asked subconsciously: “Madam, the enlightenment you are talking about is the kind of enlightenment you helped Jing Qing do back then?” “

”Yes!” Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) nodded: “She has the same potential for enlightenment through the sea of consciousness as you did back then. I want you to tell her everything I told you back then, exactly as it is, and help her realize it.”

Master Jingqing said respectfully without thinking: “Okay madam, Jingqing obeys your order!”

On the way to Qixia Temple, Ito Nanako took advantage of several stops at red lights to carefully check the background of Master Jingqing.

After this investigation, it turned out that Master Jingqing was not only famous in China, but his influence even began to affect Buddhist believers in East and Southeast Asia.

Everyone’s evaluation of Master Jingqing is that he has great talent and great kindness, has a mind for the world, and is open to all rivers. He is an unparalleled genius in the field of Buddhism.

What surprised her even more was that many temples in Japan, South Korea, Thailand, Bhutan and other countries had sent devout invitations to Master Jingqing, hoping that Master Jingqing could go to preach Buddhism to believers in the country. All the lectures given in 2017 are in China, so there is no response yet.

In addition, Ito Nanako also saw the evaluation of Master Jingqing by many well-known Buddhist masters at home and abroad. Without exception, everyone felt that Master Jingqing’s understanding of Buddhism was the most profound in today’s society.

His preaching of many scriptures even made many old masters who had studied all their lives feel enlightened and enlightened.

The more she learned about Master Jingqing’s background, the more pleasantly surprised Nanako was.

She didn’t expect that she would have such an opportunity on this ordinary morning.

However, what she cared about was not how proficient Master Jingqing was in Buddhism. What she cared about was that she wanted to get an amulet for Charlie Wade that he had blessed.

When she drove to Qixia Temple, many early-rising pilgrims had already begun to go up the mountain to offer incense.

However, these pilgrims did not know that the famous Master Jingqing was already here.

Ito Nanako bypassed the main hall and went straight to the legal logistics office, only to find that it was not open yet.

The notice at the door shows that the opening hours of the French Logistics Circulation Department are from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Ito Nanako couldn't help but be a little confused, thinking to herself: "The lady told me to come here, but it's not open yet, could it be a prank?"

Thinking of this, Ito Nanako quickly shook her head: "It's a sin, I shouldn't make unreasonable speculations and Do you doubt the goodwill of others? Maybe there is some deviation in timing?"

Just when Nanako Ito was wondering, one of the wooden doors of the Dharma Circulation Department opened, and a monk came out, clasped his hands and said: "Amitabha, may I ask this question? What does the donor do for you?"

Ito Nanako hurriedly bowed deeply, and then said: "Hello, Master, I'm sorry to disturb you. I would like to ask, are you registering here to pay your respects to Master Jingqing?"

The monk was stunned, then looked around and saw There was no one else around, so he whispered: "Sorry, sorry, Master Jingqing just arrived at the temple this morning. The temple has not yet made preparations for the open lectures, so it cannot be disclosed to the outside world for the time being. Since the donor has the chance to know, please come with me. Right."

After listening to the first half of the monk's words, Ito Nanako thought the other party had declined her. After hearing the rest, she finally breathed a sigh of relief, clasped her hands together gratefully and said, "Thank you, Master!"

The monk nodded and asked her again: "Has the donor prepared the dharma objects? If you need Master Jingqing's consecration and blessing, you need to prepare the dharma objects in advance."

Nanako Ito said hurriedly: "I came in a hurry and didn't bring the dharma objects with me. I wonder if I can invite one from here. A piece?"

The monk smiled and said: "Donor, most of the amulets in our temple are "Prajna Paramita Heart Sutra" in brocade bags, but they are all printed products customized from the factory. If the donor wants better results, he can handwrite a copy of "Prajna Paramita Heart Sutra" Put "The Heart Sutra" into it, and then ask Master Jingqing to consecrate it for you."

After that, he reminded: “The full text of “The Prajna Paramita Heart Sutra” only has two hundred and sixty words, so it is not difficult to write.” Gale Novel

Ito Nanako He hurriedly asked: “Excuse me, can you lend me a pen and paper? In addition, I wonder if Master Jingqing can wait for me to finish writing before going to see him?”

The monk smiled and said: “I can borrow it Give the donor paper and pen, and the donor can take it directly to Master Jingqing and copy the scriptures in front of him. He will recite the scriptures, bless you, and consecrate you at the same time. The best effect will be the best.”

Nanako Ito said excitedly: “That’s really awesome. Thank you so much!”

After saying that, he bowed deeply again.

The monk said “Amitabha Buddha”, then turned around and entered the dharma circulation area. After a while, he took a yellow brocade bag, as well as paper, pen and ink, and walked out of the door of the dharma circulation area. He turned around carefully and closed the door. Then I took Nanako Ito to the backyard of the temple.

Then, he said to Nanako: “Donor, please come with me.”

Nanako nodded quickly and followed him to the back of the temple.

Passing through a mottled red brick wall is the backyard of the temple, which is rarely open to the public. Except for the monks in the temple, only lay people with a deep relationship with the temple are allowed to enter.

Here, there is a Buddhist hall dedicated to teaching the Dharma to lay people. Some lay people who are pious enough and talented enough lead the practice here. They will go to the mountain to study the Dharma regularly. When the Buddhist fate is met, they will officially become ordained and become monks.

At this time, Master Jingqing was sitting in front of the lecture platform in the Buddhist hall, closing his eyes and chanting sutras.

The young monk opened the door of the Buddhist hall and said respectfully: “Master Jingqing, there is a female donor who wants to see you.”

Master Jingqing opened his eyes, nodded and said: "Bring her in!"

The young monk nodded respectfully: "Disciple I obey!"

After saying that, he turned around and walked out, leaving the doorway, and said to Ito Nanako: "Donor, Master Jingqing invites you." Ito Nanako once again clasped his hands to thank, and then stepped into the Buddha with excitement and apprehension. Hall.

When he saw Nanako Ito for the first time, Master Jingqing couldn't help but sigh in his heart: "This girl is really as madam said, she has the wisdom to enlighten the Tao. She is even better than I was back then. Some people are like this. From the looks of it, you can tell that you have a genius!"

1. The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6475

I feel that others have wisdom roots, and they are a kind of enlightened people with unique intuition about similar juniors.

Just like in martial arts novels, when a top master sees a child with top talent, he can tell at a glance that the child has excellent bones, but in the eyes of those who don't understand, he only thinks it is ordinary.

As soon as he thought of this, he immediately stood up and said to Ito Nanako: "Amitabha, the donor came to see the poor monk, I wonder what you are doing?"

Ito Nanako bowed deeply and said respectfully: "Disciple Ito Nanako, from Kyoto, Japan, my mother was alive. I believe deeply in Buddhism. My disciple is influenced by her and is also a believer in Buddhism. Today I accidentally heard that Master Jingqing came to Aurous Hill, so I took the liberty to ask for a visit. I want to ask the master to consecrate and bless an amulet for my disciple. I want to give it to my beloved. ."

"The person in my heart..." Master Jingqing suddenly became a little embarrassed, hesitated for a moment, and said: "The donor has all things in his eyes and a glow in his body. This is what the poor monk has seen in his life. He is the person with the deepest connection with Buddhism. If the donor converts to Buddhism, It will be a blessing for all sentient beings to devote themselves to the study of Buddhism. I wonder if the donor has any thoughts of converting to Buddhism?"

At this time, in the mountain courtyard, Sister Sun watched everything happening in the Buddhist hall through the monitor, and said angrily: “Madam, this Jingqing actually wants to persuade Miss Ito to become a monk. Isn’t this a serious deviation? “

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) smiled and said: “Don’t worry. After Jingqing became enlightened, he had a Buddha mind. In the whole world, what he cares about most is the Buddha, the Dharma, and all living beings. And Ito Nanako is already very understanding and wise. Don’t say It’s Jingqing. If she were a Taoist master, I’d probably want to accept her as my disciple. Otherwise, why do you think I want her to enlighten me? If such a genius is always lingering outside the door, it will be a waste of natural resources, but with my respect for Nanako Understand, even if Jingqing uses seven billion people in the world to kidnap her morally, she will never agree, and you don’t have to worry.”

Sure enough.

Ito Nanako subconsciously took a half step back and said apologetically: “I...I already have someone I love, how can I convert to Buddhism...”

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) in front of the monitor smiled and said: “Sister Sun, have you noticed the details? Nanako Before, I called myself a disciple in front of Jing Qing, but now I directly changed it to ‘I’, and I immediately drew a clear line with Jing Qing.”

Sister Sun nodded and said with a smile: “If she hadn’t asked for Jing Qing, Miss Ito would have taken over the door. Escaped.”

At this time, Master Jingqing also realized that Nanako Ito was very wary of converting to Buddhism, so he said seriously: “Donor, love is important, but wouldn’t it be more valuable if it could save all sentient beings? The Buddha said to give up the ego. To achieve the great self, to give up small loves to achieve great love, to save the suffering, and to save all sentient beings, this is the highest realm that eminent monks and great virtues have pursued for thousands of years! Moreover, the donor also said that he is a Buddhist believer, don’t you want to Do you want to do something for all sentient beings?”

Ito Nanako pursed her lips and said timidly: “All sentient beings have their own destiny. I am just a female, and I have no lofty ambition to save all sentient beings. I just want to take good care of my relatives and my sweetheart. , if this can be done well, it will be perfect.”
