By _ / February 28, 2024

As expected, Howard raised his head, smiled, and said: “Your Majesty, thank you for taking the time out of your busy schedule to come to New York to attend the internal meeting of the Rothschild family to establish the heir. With your attendance, the Rothschild family has flourished. Hui!”

Helena pretended to be surprised and asked: “Isn’t it going to announce Steve’s succession today? How come the heir has been determined?”

Howard waved his hand and said with a slightly embarrassed smile: “The plan can’t keep up with the changes. , Changes can’t defeat the plan. Before this morning, I never thought that I could recover again, don’t you think?”

Helena smiled slightly: “Part of the reason why you can recover is Steve’s. Filial piety moved God.”

Helena said this, but she couldn’t help thinking in her heart: “Howard really regretted it, which completely confirmed Mr. Wade’s speculation that Mr. Wade always predicts things like a god!”

In fact, it was not charlie is like a god, he just sees through people’s hearts.

Since Howard planned to pass on the position of head of the family to Steve because of his helpless stroke, then as long as his stroke is cured, he will definitely give up this idea.

Sometimes, the logic of human nature is the same as that of chemical reactions.

After water is electrolyzed, oxygen and hydrogen will be generated. This is the formula of the chemical reaction. If the electricity is unplugged, the water will still be water.

Howard was the patriarch of the family, and it was water;

but when he suddenly suffered a stroke, it was electricity;

the oxygen and hydrogen produced by the electrolysis of water were the result of Howard’s plan to give way to his son Steve.

Therefore, only after Howard, the patriarch of the family, suffered a stroke, would the result be that he gave way to Steve.

Now that the key condition of stroke is gone, it is equivalent to unplugging the power. Then the result of Steve succeeding as the patriarch will naturally be gone.

Because of this, in Charlie Wade's opinion, if Howard continues to pass on the throne after recovering from his illness, it is equivalent to a pool of water left to dry and it will decompose into hydrogen and oxygen. That is a ghost.

At this moment, Helena sighed and said to Howard: "Mr. Rothschild, since your plan has changed, I will not participate in the next meeting."

Howard asked puzzledly: "What's wrong with Her Majesty the Queen? " Don't want to participate?

"You're already here, why not stay and guide and witness." Helena shook her head and said, "In addition to making deals with you, Mr. Rothschild, I am here to establish a relationship with the patriarch of the Rothschild family. A basis for future communication. If Steve takes over today, I should naturally witness it on the spot and establish a good communication basis with the new patriarch. However, Mr. Rothschild does not plan to retire now, so I will come to New York this time. All goals have been achieved, and it would be a waste of time to stay."

Howard understood the meaning of her words immediately and said with a smile: "Her Majesty the Queen is indeed a master of negotiation. You are so young and can negotiate well. I have never seen someone with such good rhythm control before! With Her Majesty the Queen at the helm of the Nordic royal family, it will surely skyrocket!"

Helena smiled and said: "Mr. Rothschild thinks too highly of me, I can control it well. The rhythm is entirely because I have a good teacher."

Howard quickly asked: "I wonder who the teacher of Her Majesty the Queen is. If there is a chance, I would also like to meet him!"

Helena said lightly: "My teacher's behavior style He is relatively low-key and doesn't like the vanity of fame, but I believe that Mr. Rothschild will have a chance to meet him in the future."

Howard smiled politely and said: "That would be great!"

Helena said Shi Bian said: "It's getting late, Mr. Rothschild, I'll take my leave first."

Howard nodded, and when he saw Helena turning to leave, he thought of something, and quickly stopped her and said: "By the way, Her Majesty the Queen!"

Helen Na turned around and asked curiously: "What else can Mr. Rothschild do?"

Howard asked with concern: "I wonder if Her Majesty the Queen's magical oriental pills are still available? If so, I want to buy more."

Helena shook her head: "Mr. Rothschild, this kind of miraculous elixir is rare but hard to come by. Each one requires great opportunity. Think about it, one person, in a lifetime, How many times can we have the opportunity to escape death and get a blessing in disguise?"

Howard said with a smile: "People are greedy. Although I had such an opportunity once, I really hope to have a second time, or even a third time. Three times, if Her Majesty the Queen has this opportunity, please don't be stingy, I will definitely give Her Majesty the Queen a satisfactory price!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6502

By / February 28, 2024

"A satisfactory price?" Helena muttered, deliberately smacking her lips, and said with a bit of disgust. : "With all due respect, considering your worth, Mr. Rothschild, you are really not a good buyer. I believe that even if I still have this elixir, I will never trade with you again in the future. "

Howard subconsciously asked: "Why did Her Majesty the Queen say this?"

Helena pursed her lips, shrugged, and said lightly: "Maybe it's because I don't like bargaining. If there is a next time, I will find someone. A more cheerful buyer will save time and feel better at the same time. You are also in business and must have been a seller. When you are a seller, the buyer opposite will always be preoccupied, hesitant, and even doubt you. Integrity and the authenticity of the goods you sell, you will definitely not be happy. "

Howard knew that Helena was mocking his bargaining behavior just now.

At this moment, although he felt a little unhappy, he also realized a big problem.

If what Helena said was not angry, then wouldn't he be missing out? The next chance to renew his life?

Thinking of this, he suddenly felt very regretful about his bargaining behavior just now.

So, he said without hesitation: "Your Majesty, don't be angry. I am a businessman after all, and I am used to bargaining. Even if it's only a dime, and I will try to keep the price down. If Her Majesty the Queen feels uncomfortable, then I won't make a counter-offer at all. I will make up for the 10 billion U.S. dollars for you, right away, so that you is it okay to watch?"
Helena

waved her hand: "No, no, as you said, purchasing the hardware of the AI model also costs money. I would rather suffer a loss myself than let you suffer a loss. After all, Mr. Rothschild, you are so old. I had another stroke. If I suffered a loss, affected my mood, and got sick again in the future, wouldn't I become a sinner?"

No, no, no! "Howard could no longer care about being ridiculed. He hurried to Helena and said very excitedly: "Purchasing hardware for Her Majesty the Queen is what we should do. Her Majesty the Queen must not be polite. "

As he spoke, he said with a look of regret: "Your Majesty the Queen, I am old, and I have many old habits left over from decades in my thinking mode. Bargaining is one of them. But please don't worry, Your Majesty the Queen. In the future, our Ross When the Childe family does business with Her Majesty the Queen, they will never bargain again! "

Experiencing the powerful efficacy of the blood-dispersing and heart-saving pill, Howard keenly realized that this thing must be a life-saving artifact.

Although he has recovered now, he is old after all, and other problems will definitely be inevitable in the future.

And the doctor also said, Stroke is very easy to recur. Almost 20% of stroke patients will have a second stroke within five years. If it happens again, my body may not be able to bear it.

Therefore, if you can buy an extra blood-sparing and heart-saving pill, or pre-order one, you can sit back and relax.

He is not sure whether Helena has a second one now, but he knows that he cannot let Helena leave New York with opinions and dissatisfaction. In that case, if he wants to buy it again in the future, he may really have no chance.

Helena saw Howard's anxious face, which almost contained one sentence: "We can't let her run away." She found it funny and couldn't help but ask: "Mr. Rothschild, will this make you too embarrassed?" Embarrassed? Or forget it. You are so old. If you are unhappy because of money matters, how can I feel good about it? Business is second, and health is first." Howard knew Helena was teasing herself, so she could only bite the bullet and apologize and said with a smile: "No, no! This is the money that should be given to Her Majesty the Queen. If this money was not given to Her Majesty the Queen, I would be unhappy and even have trouble sleeping and eating. Ann! So please don't refuse Her Majesty the Queen!"

Helena thought for a moment and then said helplessly: "Since Mr. Rothschild said so, well, I will be disrespectful."

Howard said Hearing this, he felt more excited than making money. He immediately contacted his financial manager again and blurted out: "Hurry, add another 10 billion US dollars to the account just now!" After saying that, he glanced at Helena, Seeing that Helena's expression was extremely calm, she was worried and said quickly: "No, no, no, send one hundred and fifty...oh no! Send twenty billion!"

As his most trusted confidant, the other party immediately said: "Okay. Sir, please wait a minute, I will make arrangements."

Helena raised her eyebrows slightly, but said nothing. After Howard hung up the phone, she pretended to be surprised and asked: "Mr. Rothschild, what did you just say? Isn't it inappropriate to remit 20 billion?"

Howard also saw through Helena. This woman is also a superb actress. If you really think it's inappropriate, you should have said it earlier. You didn't say it until you hung up the phone. It's too obvious that she's fake. Already?

However, he now understands that Helena, who is in her twenties, is definitely not someone to be trifled with. Since he wants something from her, he must not have any thoughts of bargaining, otherwise he will be the one who suffers in the end.

Now that I'm quite old, it's not a good feeling to lose money and lose people.

So, he hurriedly said: "Your Majesty the Queen, this 10 billion is to make up for your payment, and the other 10 billion is a little bit of my thoughts. I did do something inappropriate just now. Please give me a million dollars." Do not mind!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6503

By / February 28, 2024

After confirming that the 20 billion U.S. dollars had arrived, Helena looked at Howard and said with a smile: "Mr. Rothschild, the money has been received. This time I will let you spend money. Happy cooperation! I will return to Northern Europe in two days. I hope that when I arrive in Northern Europe, your AI team will also arrive at the same time."

Howard blurted out without hesitation: "Don't worry, Her Majesty the Queen! I will ask them to prepare immediately and go over early to do preliminary planning and preparations!"

When Helena succeeded When he sold the Blood-Spreading Pill and a set of AI models for 60 billion US dollars, Steve, twenty meters away from the ward door, and his son Royce, who had just arrived, were anxiously looking at the time.

In his opinion, the old father's meeting with Helena took a little too long. It was not that he had any objections to the meeting between the two, but mainly because he was worried that it would delay the family meeting later.

After all, the meeting officially begins at ten o'clock, and that will be a critical moment for him to reach the highest peak of his life.

At such an important time, why can't we get a wheelchair before half past nine and push the old man to the venue in a hurry?

Today is a great day for me to succeed as the patriarch of the family, and of course I don't want to delay it for a minute.

When I was anxious, the ward door opened.

Helena walked out of the ward.

Seeing this, Steve quickly ran over with Royce.

After all, he was also concerned about whether the old man could persuade Helena to marry into the family.

If he could be convinced, then wouldn't Helena be his future daughter-in-law?

The medical staff behind him also ran over quickly.

They were worried about the old man's health. The old man couldn't speak well and was accompanied by hemiplegia and convulsions. In this case, it was not suitable to talk too much. But they didn't expect to chat with Helena for so long, so they had to go and see the old man's current body. If there is any problem, it will be troublesome.

However, before the two groups of people reached the door of the ward, a scene appeared that made them feel like they were struck by lightning.

Helena turned back to the door and said, "Mr. Rothschild, there is no need to see me off."

Immediately afterwards, old Howard's figure walked out of the door as if nothing happened. As he walked, he was polite to Helena: "It is a great honor for Her Majesty the Queen to come to New York to see me in person. As the head of the Rothschild family, how could I not send it off in person?"

Steve, Royce, and the medical staff almost all standing frozen on the spot.

Everyone is asking themselves a question: What on earth is going on?

Steve was also dumbfounded and thought to himself: “Yeah, what the hell is going on?”

“Wasn’t the old man lying on the bed shivering just now? He was stumbling when he spoke!”

“Why now... Why can’t you suddenly see nothing wrong now?! Are you coming back to your senses?!”

Steve was a little suspicious of the world and rubbed his eyes. After making sure he saw it right, he didn’t bother to think about what was going on. He just took a few steps. He ran up to help Howard and said nervously: “Father! Why did you come out on your own? Your current physical condition can’t bear the torment...”

Before Steve could finish speaking, Howard interrupted happily: “Shi Tiff, let me tell you some good news! My body is fine now! Everything has been cured! The stroke, partiality, stuttering, and shaking are all gone! Surprise or not? This is simply a medical miracle, hahahaha!”

” Wha...what?! So...he’s cured now?!” Steve was horrified, feeling as if his brain’s CPU had been burned by the old man’s words.

He thought to himself: “What’s going on! He’s cured? Can’t he? Didn’t the doctor say it was a stroke? Hemiplegia! Moreover, the speech nerve was seriously affected, making it difficult to fully recover!”

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6504

By _ / February 28, 2024

“And

the doctor also said Having said that, it is basically impossible to recover from neurological damage!” “

Even if you actively participate in the best rehabilitation treatment in the world, it will only be a little better than it is now. If you can return to walking with crutches, that’s already it. God bless you!”

Thinking of this, he turned to look at the attending doctor, with question marks and “F*ck you uncle” written all over his face.

In fact, the attending doctor was even more confused at this time.

Not to mention the CPU, it even burned out the memory and motherboard.

He felt that all these years of medical skills he had learned were in vain.

After practicing medicine for so many years and most of my life, who the hell has ever seen someone who just had a stroke, turned around and walked around numbly?

The key point is that the old man was polite to the Queen. He was dancing, eloquent, and energetic. Even he couldn't compare to him!

He could only push up his glasses, and said in surprise, ignorance and surprise: "Medical miracle! This is the real medical miracle! Anyone who can cure a stroke will be honored by the Nobel Prize!"

Shi When Tiff heard this, he wanted to kick him to the other end of the corridor, and cursed in his heart: "You b*tch, you know miracles with just one mouthful, don't I F*cking know it's a miracle? Do you even need to say that?!"

Howard saw Steve's eyes widened and speechless. He was a little moved and a little ashamed and said: "Steve, good son, thank you for your filial piety. Her Majesty the Queen was moved by your filial piety and sent it to me. After receiving the special medicine to treat stroke, I am now cured!"

Steve looked at Helena with a confused look on his face, and subconsciously asked: "Her Majesty the Queen...this...this...what the hell is going on? Huh?"

Helena smiled slightly, looked at Steve, and said earnestly: "Mr. Rothschild, this is the miracle you prayed to God, and God answered you! The miracle has arrived!"

I Your mother..." Steve's expression was stunned, and his face was even sadder than his dead son. He thought to himself: "I...I didn't really ask God to F*cking ask me!"

Helena saw that his expression was a little painful, and she couldn't control it anymore. I was afraid that Howard would be suspicious of the control, so he said with a serious face: "Sir, don't be too surprised. Remember, Matthew Chapter 7, verse 7, says, 'Ask, and it will be given to you. Seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you.' (Note: ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you) This is God's kindness to believers!" Helena said again

: "Even in the most difficult moments of my life, I still insisted on praying to God every day, and encouraged myself with this verse, telling myself that God would never abandon me!" "

So, I ushered in the opportunity of life, Achieved a reversal in life and became the Queen of Northern Europe!"

"So, please remember that God will not let you walk alone!"

"My mother..." Steve was speechless after hearing these words. He was speechless, but in his heart, he already wanted to kill the god.

He never dreamed that things that had been going very smoothly would suddenly take a turn for the worse at the last step!

And the key to the problem actually lies with God!

Oh no!

It's because of Helena!

Even if eight more big heads were attached to his neck, he would never have expected that Helena, a Nordic queen and a big internet celebrity from a European royal family, could cure the old man's stroke and create a F*cking... Medical miracle.

There is simply no sense of martial ethics!

It's as weird as if you asked a cleaning lady to come home to clean, and she found that your computer's CPU was broken, and used an embroidery needle to cut out a brand new CPU for you.

The point is, the CPU she dug out is a lot better than your original one. How can you argue with this!

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6505

By / February 28, 2024

Steve's heart was broken at this time, but Howard had already heard Helena endorse Steve, and was in a state of emotion and guilt for his son, so he didn't think his son would have any treacherous thoughts.

Seeing that Steve's whole brain was completely short-circuited, he thought his son was too excited, so he quickly stepped forward and hugged him, patted his shoulder and said: "Thank you, good son! Thank you for everything you have done for me!" Steve , who was hugged by Howard, lay on Howard's shoulders and looked at Helena with red eyes, his eyes full of doubts.

Helena smiled slightly and said: "Mr. Rothschild, I still have something to do. Let's take a step forward so that I won't disturb the deep love between your father and son."

Howard said quickly: "Quick, Steve, go and see him off." Her Majesty the Queen!"

When Steve heard this, he said to himself: "I'm just looking for an opportunity to ask Helena what's going on!"

So he quickly said: "Okay father! I'll see Her Majesty the Queen off!"

After that, he suppressed his anger and said to Helena: "Your Majesty the Queen, please!"

Helena nodded and said goodbye to Howard: "Mr. Rothschild, I'm leaving first. I look forward to seeing you again!"

Howard said respectfully Said: "Looking forward to seeing you again, Your Majesty the Queen!"

Steve was trembling with anger and forced himself to lead Helena out of the corridor of the hospital. When he took the elevator to the top floor, he saw that there was no one else around him, so he couldn't bear it. He asked: "Helena! What the hell is going on?! Are you trying to hurt me?!"

Helena smiled slightly and said: “Mr. Steve, I cured your father, but you don’t thank me. How can I harm you when you say I’m harming you?”

Steve growled: “You know that I’m going to take over as the patriarch of the family soon! Why did you come here to cure my father at this time! If you weren’t harming me, what were you doing?! Tell me, what are your intentions?!”

Helena shrugged her shoulders and asked him: “What? I cured your father, but instead harmed you? You pray to God that your father can be cured, and God allows me I came to help you fulfill your wish. Instead of thanking me, you asked me why I harmed you. Isn’t this a bit too contradictory?”

Steve shouted angrily: “To tell you the truth, I didn’t f*cking pray to God at all!”

said As he watched, Steve suddenly murmured: “Oh...I see...”

At this moment, he suddenly understood that Helena had always been working for charlie Wade.

He couldn’t help but secretly thought: “charlie Wade needed to send Sifang Baozhuan to Canada. With one phone call, Helena rushed to Canada in a hurry;” “ charlie Wade needed to send Peter Zhou back to China, and Helena immediately took him to her own house. “I went to beg charlie Wade and asked him to help Helena visit the old man who had suffered a stroke to highlight my ability. Helena rushed over immediately.”

” So... Helena cured the old man... must have been instructed by charlie Wade! It was charlie Wade who harmed me!”

Thinking of this, Steve asked Helena angrily: “Why! Why did charlie Wade do this to me?!”

Helen Na smiled slightly and said: “Mr. Wade saved your father, maybe it was for your sake. After all, you are also Mr. Wade’s friend. Isn’t it normal for him to help his friend’s father when he was sick?”

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6506

By / February 28, 2024

Shi Tiff was almost crying with anger. He scratched with his trembling fingers and said angrily: "If you were someone else, I would believe it, but I definitely don't believe charlie Wade! My father's stroke was designed by him!"

Helen Na smiled and said: "I am looking at this issue objectively as a third party. I don't think there is anything wrong with Mr. Wade. Most of the reason why your father had a stroke was because the Sifang Baozhu suddenly returned to China, but if I didn't remember If I'm wrong, Mr. Steve should have sent the Sifang Baozhuang out of New York, right?"

Steve turned pale with fright, hurriedly moved his hands, and whispered in a panic: "Your Majesty, please don't say this nonsense. Ah!"

Helena pretended to be stupid and said: "Am I right? I remember it seems like this. Aren't the Sifang Baozhuang and Mr. Peter Zhou sent to Canada by your helicopter? What if this matter was reported to Ross? Mr. Child knows..."

"Stop talking!" Steve quickly raised his hands, his tone softened a lot, and blurted out: "Your Majesty, please stop talking about this matter. If it spreads, I'm completely doomed."

As he spoke, he used his panic to finally figure out charlie Wade's path, and thought to himself: "charlie Wade, this bastard, must think that if I continue successfully today, As the new patriarch of the Rothschild family, I will definitely tear up the previous agreement with him. The deterrent effect of Sifang Baozhuang and Peter Zhou on me will also be gradually weakened by me, so he asked Helena to come over and cure him. The old man's illness!"

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but sigh with gritted teeth: "charlie Wade, this bastard, even though he is young and full of bad ideas, he still has a damn good eye for people!"

At this time , Helena on the side comforted him: "Mr. Rothschild, you don't have to be so pessimistic. Maybe the old Mr. Rothschild will pass on the position of patriarch to you as agreed."

Steve smiled bitterly: "Who else in the world knows my father better than me? Unless he becomes the president of the United States today, there is no way he will pass on the position of patriarch to me."

Helena smiled and said: “Even if he doesn’t pass the throne to me, For you, with my endorsement just now, he will definitely clarify your identity as the heir, so that others will lose the chance to compete. As long as you wait quietly, you will one day become the patriarch.”

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6507

By / February 28, 2024

”I...”

Helena’s words made Steve’s liver tremble.

If Helena’s words just now were a warning to herself, then these last words were a naked threat! In just a few words, you can hear the murderous intent!

Steve was not a fool. He could immediately figure out the stakes. He thought to himself: “After this old man’s experience of taking the elixir to recover, he will definitely become extremely dependent. He will be reborn next time.” If he becomes ill or his life is in danger again, he will definitely get a pill to extend his life at all costs.”

”Once the old man enters the state of “at all costs”, he will be able to follow any rules. Broken.” m..cc

”Take the Sifang Baozhu last time as an example. The old man didn’t even discuss it with me, the eldest son, and directly issued a decision. Whoever finds the Sifang Baozhu and brings it back to the Rothschild family , who will be the next heir? Isn’t this just a hooligan?” “

With this precedent, you don’t have to think about it. If the old man needs elixirs next time and can’t get them, he will definitely enact the same It was decided that whoever can get him a magical elixir can inherit the family...” “

At that time, I, the eldest son, will be deprived of the qualification of the first heir at any time. If I really make charlie Wade dissatisfied, If he took a pill to cooperate with his other brothers, wouldn’t I be kicked out directly?!”

Thinking of this, a thought suddenly flashed in his mind: “How about we just seize power with arms!”

But this The thought only flickered for a moment and was immediately thrown out of his mind.

He knew that even if he wanted to seize power with arms, he would have no chance.

The roots of the Rothschild family are in New York. Although the security in the slums here is more chaotic than in Paris, the security in the wealthy areas is simply unparalleled. There are at least three police stations around the Rothschild family estate alone. There are several police helicopters equipped, and the police here are extremely dedicated. If anyone dares to steal a dog in a wealthy area, the police will chase him with helicopters.

Moreover, the old man himself has a private armed force dedicated to protecting his personal safety. This private armed force serves the old man alone. Even his own sons are among the defense targets of these private armed forces.

In addition, the old man has deep connections with various important departments in New York and even the United States. He even established a special fund for these departments. The scale of this fund is not large, only about one billion U.S. dollars, but the only thing this fund has The purpose is that once he dies unexpectedly, these departments will use this fund to investigate his death strictly. No matter who the culprit is, Rothschild's strongest legal team will do their best to ensure that he gets justice. The most severe sentence.

If he seizes power with force, there is a high probability that he will be killed before he succeeds. There is a small probability that although he succeeds, he will soon be punished by the law. Wouldn't he be a bride for his other brothers? Clothes?

Moreover, Steve suddenly thought of a question in his mind: "Actually, even if I become the patriarch of the Rothschild family in the future, I may not be able to do without charlie Wade's help. I am already over fifty years old this year. If I wait any longer, If I can successfully succeed to the throne in a few years, then I will probably be over sixty. By then, I will only be able to sit in the position of clan leader for twenty years at most... But if charlie Wade can also sell me some pills, maybe, I will sit in the position of patriarch for thirty years or even longer in the future..."

"It seems like, no matter what, I can't fall out with charlie Wade!"

After thinking about it, Steve immediately put on a flattering look. With an expression on his face, he said to Helena: "Your Majesty the Queen, please tell Mr. Wade that I may have had other thoughts in the past, but please rest assured that from now on, I, Steve Rothschild, will always be my only one." Mr. Wade is following his lead!"

Helena smiled slightly: "Mr. Wade has returned to China. If you have a chance, you can tell him in person."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6508

By _ / February 28, 2024

"I..." When Steve heard this, he felt aggrieved and useless.

"What the hell, you don't have the right to express your loyalty in the air? Why don't you rush to China and say it in front of Charlie Wade?"

Although Steve was depressed, he didn't dare to say anything more. She could only say with a sorry smile: "Okay, okay, when I finish the things at hand, I will contact Mr. Wade and go to China to visit Mr. Wade in person!"

Helena nodded: "That makes sense."

Steve When they were speechless and choked, the two of them had already walked to the helicopter, so Helena said: "Send Mr. Rothschild here, don't you have a meeting at ten o'clock? It's almost time." Steve said with some respect: "Your Majesty the Queen, I will not send you back to Canada."

Helena nodded slightly and smiled in return. Her every frown and smile were extremely dignified, and her every move showed royal style.

Steve looked at it and his heart trembled. He was not moved by Helena's appearance and temperament, but felt that the more dignified Helena was, the more evil she looked to him.

In his twenties, he speaks with murderous intent. How can this be compared to ordinary people?

However, Steve did not dare to have any dissatisfaction. After watching Helena board the helicopter and watching the helicopter go away, he breathed a sigh of relief, turned around, and was about to go back, when he happened to meet his son Royce who was looking for him. .

As soon as Royce saw him, he said hurriedly: "Dad, grandpa asked you to go directly to the family conference room after seeing off the queen. There is a meeting."

Steve said listlessly: "Okay, I understand, go now Right."

Royce, who was standing by him, saw that his father was a little depressed. He quickly lowered his voice and asked cautiously: "Dad, can you successfully succeed to the throne today?"

Steve shook his head and said dejectedly: "Stop dreaming. Your grandfather will not keep his promise."

"What?!" When Royce heard this, he immediately asked with a look of shock: "Why?! Didn't I agree that we would hold a family meeting today to pass on the position of patriarch to Give it to you?!"

Steve smiled bitterly: "What's the use of agreeing? It's not written in the contract. Isn't it your grandpa who has the final say whether to give it or not?"

Royce didn't sleep last night , He just thought that after his father ascended to the throne today, he would also become the first heir of the family. By then, he did not know how many people would kneel down and lick him. He had even begun to imagine that the Nordic Queen Helena would throw herself into his arms. The picture of hugging.

But I only had this sweet dream for one night, and my father actually said that there was no chance of succeeding to the throne. This... isn't this a lie?

Royce, who had never experienced social beatings, his eyes turned red in an instant, and he asked with a choked voice: "Dad, grandpa won't let you succeed to the throne, then aren't we happy in vain? If you don't succeed, Queen Helena will still be here." Are you willing to marry me?"

Steve said dumbfounded: "Even if I succeed, Helena can't marry you."

"Why?" Royce asked in confusion: "Am I going to become Ross? Even after being the first heir to Childe, he can't stand her eyes?"

Steve thought of charlie Wade and said angrily: "This woman has sold her soul to the devil!"

Royce thought his father meant this. It means that Helena has an evil character, so she subconsciously said: "It doesn't matter, dad, I can do it."

Steve glared at him: "Is this something you can do?"

Royce looked confused: "Helena came to see grandpa in person today. Doesn't she want to get closer to us? Will you still refuse to marry us?"

Steve kicked him and cursed: "Shut up, you! If you ever let me hear you mention the marriage with the Nordic royal family again, don't blame me for slapping you with my big mouth!" ...

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6509

By _ / February 28, 2024

Royce felt extremely aggrieved.

But the grievance was a grievance. Facing his furious father, he did not dare to say even one more word.

So, without saying a word, the father and son came to the family meeting room one after another.

In this conference room that resembles a medieval European palace, almost all family members are already present.

However, the old man has not come yet.

Everyone knows that today must be the day when the old man passes the throne to Steve. After the old man announces it, Steve will officially become the leader of the entire Rothschild family. Therefore, although everyone has ugly expressions, I also thought in my heart that I would try my best to please Steve as much as possible later.

From now on, everyone's resource income, as well as the power of life and death, will be in Steve's hands.

Seeing the arrival of Steve and Royce, everyone, without exception, stood up from their seats. The feeling was very similar to the solemn feeling when generals saw the commander during a military meeting. Solemn.

Steve's younger brothers all gathered around him eagerly and greeted him diligently.

Steve felt unhappy when he saw the false and flattering expressions of several people, but he still nodded to everyone very politely.

David Rothschild, the youngest brother, said very attentively: "Brother, I wanted to visit you last night, but your housekeeper said you would not accept guests behind closed doors. Tonight, you have to give my brother a chance no matter what." , I have prepared some small gifts and want to deliver them to your house personally!"

Steve sneered and said, "David, you are really interested, but how can I have the nerve to ask you to spend money."

David said hurriedly: "Brother, What else can you be polite to me about? We are brothers and sisters. You have loved me the most since we were children."

Seeing David kneeling down and licking him first, the others didn't fall behind for a moment and hurriedly tried to trick Steve. It's almost.

Steve watched these people's performances calmly, feeling increasingly sober.

He knew that once the old man failed to pass on the position of clan leader to him, these people would immediately change their attitude, and they would definitely fight openly and secretly with him again, in order to try their best to win the good impression of the old man and win the opportunity to replace him as the heir.

Therefore, as long as they cannot succeed to the throne today, these younger brothers will still strive to replace themselves. They will regard themselves as their biggest competitors and will never really bow to them.

At this time, the door of the conference room was pushed open. Everyone immediately followed the sound and saw the old butler opening the door of the conference room. Then, the old man Howard walked in with light steps.

CHAPTER LIST

When everyone saw Howard walking in, everyone was stunned.

Most people here have seen the old man suffering from a stroke, so they thought that the old man would have to be in a wheelchair and pushed in when he appeared today. But who would have thought that after not seeing him for one night, the old man would be completely sick. Got it!

However, they were shocked. Seeing that the old man looked as good as ever, these people all breathed a sigh of relief without exception.

In the Rothschild family, except for Steve's family who hope that the old man will die soon, everyone else hopes that the old man will be healthy.

For these family members who are not destined to become heirs, their lives are best when the old man is healthy and in power. Once the old man becomes ill or dies, they will be purged and reduced by the new patriarch.

David Rothschild reacted the fastest. One second, he was surrounding Steve and seizing the closest and best position to Steve. The next second, he had already mentioned the crowd, He ran towards Howard quickly.

"Father!" David took the lead and rushed to Howard. He immediately supported Howard's arm with his arm and said nervously: "Father, why did you come here on your own? There is nothing wrong with your body. Are you there?!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6510

Those sons who were still surrounding Steve suddenly came to their senses, and each of them couldn't help but curse in their hearts that the guy on David's neck who was younger than them was quick to react. They also left Steve in place and quickly gathered in front of Howard. Read the full content on the AiYue Novel app.

Royce, who was standing aside, witnessed with his own eyes what it means to be a textbook-level walleye.

This group of people had just gathered in front of his father, so much so that he, his son, couldn't squeeze through.

But now, this group of people all crowded in front of grandpa, and father stood there alone, which actually seemed a bit lonely.

When Howard saw these sons, they all ran to him with excitement on their faces, and he couldn't help but feel relieved.

When he was still in the medical center just now, he had already been touched by the filial piety of his eldest son Steve. Now that he saw that the other sons cared about him so much, he was moved and felt a little complacent. He felt that he was still a good father. It was quite successful, and the sons were filial to each other.

So, with a fatherly smile on his face, he announced to everyone in a sonorous and powerful voice: "I want to tell you good news. My body has fully recovered." After hearing this, these children and grandchildren, although I don't know why I can recover from a stroke so quickly, but I am so excited that I can't add anything to it.

David couldn't help but ask: "Father, you called us for a meeting here just because you wanted to give us a surprise in person?"

Howard smiled slightly and said: "Absolutely. This time I used some extraordinary means to be able to do it like this. He will recover in a short time."

At this point, Howard's expression gradually became serious and he said sternly: "So you must remember that no one is allowed to mention the stroke to the outside world. Once I know that someone leaks the news, no matter what Whoever he is, I will expel him from the Rothschild family!"

After everyone heard this, their hearts suddenly trembled.

For the Rothschild family, expulsion from the family is the highest and most severe punishment. Although the old man has used cruel words before, this is the first time that he has used the highest level of cruel words indiscriminately.

Except for Steve, everyone realized with joy that the reason why the old man didn't want the outside world to know that he had had a stroke was probably because he wanted to turn this incident into an unknown episode and make the outside world look like Ross. There was no internal upheaval within the Child family.

Since he doesn't want others to see the fluctuations, it proves that the old man definitely wants to continue to serve as the patriarch.

As a result, everyone nodded in surprise and vowed to never reveal this matter, otherwise they were willing to accept all punishments.

Howard nodded slightly with satisfaction, and then he came to the head of the huge conference table and sat down. The other children and grandchildren also hurriedly came to stand next to the seats on his left and right sides.

Howard stretched out his hand and motioned for everyone to sit down, and then everyone carefully moved their seats and sat down.

Although there were dozens of people present, in the entire conference room, apart from the sound of clothes rubbing against each other, there was almost no other movement. Everyone kept their mouths closed and did not dare to make any sound, and they did not even dare to pull up their chairs. Instead, you have to move it carefully, move it to the rear to give the space you need, and then carefully put it back on the woolen carpet.

During the entire process, the chair will not make any sound.

This is a rule that Howard has set in the family long ago, and it is still respected by everyone.

Seeing how meticulous and cautious everyone was, Howard felt very comfortable and satisfied. This was the charm of the position of patriarch to him.

Seeing that everyone sat down carefully and straightened their backs without slacking off, Howard said with great satisfaction:
