By / March 15, 2024

To put it bluntly, Steve said to charlie Wade very seriously: “Mr. Wade, please give me a chance ! Give me a gun, and I will kill these two scums directly now! ”

Walter and his son were terrified, and Walter, kneeling on the ground, begged hard: “Mr. Wade for mercy! ”

Walter’s father also got up again, kneeling and climbing to charlie Wade, crying and saying: “ Mr. Wade, you must not be fooled by Steve, a jerk. If you let him kill us, you will definitely Bring you unnecessary trouble, you just don’t happen today, Let our father and son continue to be imprisoned here! ”

charlie Wade looked funny and said to Steve: “ You want to kill them both. I won’t stop them, but the body will definitely not let you take you back to the United States. ”

“Why! ”Steve is even busy: “ You will let me kill them, and the body will be handed over to me. I have a way to transport the body back to the United States. You don’t have to worry about anything! ”

charlie Wade helplessly shook his head: “ Could you use your brain Steve, they have been missing for a long time, you have killed them now, and then transported the body back, are you sure their family will not find a forensic autopsy to find out the cause of death ? In case you find out that the person has just died a few days, and then you will be in time with you to come to Aurous Hill. At that time, your father will ask you why they died as soon as you arrive at Aurous Hill. How do you explain to your father? ”

Steve also realized that if they were killed, the time of death was indeed a difficult question, so he asked: “Mr. Wade, how do you think it is best to kill them? ”

Walter’s father collapsed, crying and scolding: “ Steve, what the hell is wrong with you ! ? Our father and son haven’t provoked you, even if you don’t save us out, you don’t have to kill us ? What the hell are you looking for? ”

Steve was so stuck that he couldn’t tell the truth to them, and he couldn’t even hang himself.

But just when he dodged the other party's eyes and kept silent, charlie Wade said to the father and son with a smile: " The golden tomb since he was the family's order to find your whereabouts and take you regardless of life or death. If you don't die, how can he go back to the mission? "

Walter's father shivered and said: "Mr. Wade, you give me a chance to send a message to my wife. I let her prepare a billion dollars, not asking you to let us go, just beg you to raise your hand high, Leave us a dog's life! "

Steve was so angry that he had to rush up and kick him again, cursing in his mouth: " Damn you still learn to raise the price at this time! "

charlie Wade stopped him and said: " Don't be so impulsive, billions of dollars are money, you give 100 million, he gives 1 billion, don't I make another 1 billion? "

Steve stunned and looked at charlie Wade and said: " Mr. Wade, how do you want this money ? Did you expose you if you asked for money? " charlie Wade laughed: " Isn't this simple ? Steve, I will give you a trick to make this task an impossible task, and at the same time I have the opportunity to receive money, what do you think. "

Steve asked in surprise: "Mr. Wade, what can you do? "

charlie Wadedao: " Look, I'll let people pull them onto the freighter and send them to the Middle East. After the ship passes Sri Lanka and enters the Arabian Sea, I will directly let them take a video on the freighter in the background of the vast sea. Let them inform their family to prepare one billion dollars, By the time the money is paid directly by their family in virtual currency, and when the money is received, I will spare them both, but only spare them but never let go. When the video is released, everyone knows that they are at sea. Not in Aurous Hill, can you just go home ? And no one thinks that you did not complete the task. "

Steve's eyes shone with excitement in an instant, and he said excitedly: " Mr. Wade, this... this method is also great ! What are we waiting for ? Hurry up! "

Walter and his son heard charlie Wade's words, and the hanging heart was suddenly put down.

Although charlie Wade's idea was very damaged, at least he could save the lives of their father and son. This price is just that the family members spent an extra billion dollars. What is the case now? What is the billion dollars ?

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6593

By _ / March 16, 2024

Steve has long known charlie Wade's true identity and has also investigated charlie Wade's details.

He knew that charlie Wade was already the head of the wade family, and knew that the An family would also fully support him. Although the outside world thought that the wade family was conquered by the Wanlong Palace, Steve had seen charlie Wade's methods. The number one of the Rothschild family and The number two figure was already being manipulated by him, so how could the mere Wanlong Palace make charlie Wade bow his head?

So he also guessed that Wanlong Palace must be charlie Wade's black gloves.

Therefore, combined with the wade family, the An family, and the power cultivated by charlie Wade himself, when combined, he even has the strength to compete with the entire Rothschild family.

What's more, he holds the life-sustaining pill, and the old man's life is also in his hands. If he really competes with Rothschild, his chances of winning will be even greater.

With such strong strength, it would be impossible for anyone to send the father and son Hogwitz to take a trip to the Arabian Sea and come back.

As charlie Wade said, it's not that easy to find a piece of meat in a hot pot, let alone two bastards in the ocean.

Thinking of this, he immediately said to charlie Wade: "Mr. Wade, this method of yours is really great. It does more than one thing with one stone! I think there is no problem!"

charlie Wade smiled and said: "Don't be afraid if there are problems, it's just a Hogwitz. The family? If there is no problem, I will ask them for one billion. If there is a problem, I will ask them for ten billion."

The father and son trembled when they heard this and did not dare to say a word.

Steve expressed his position very simply: "If the Hogwitz family does not know how to praise, you must not be polite to them. If I become the patriarch in the future, if they still exist, I will personally remove them from American society." Erase!"

Walter and his son trembled violently, their hearts sinking to the Mariana Trench.

In the past, they thought that charlie Wade locked them up here, and as long as his family and the Rothschild family knew about it, charlie Wade would die.

Now they suddenly discovered that their master's second-in-command was extremely flattering in front of charlie Wade, and even wanted to kill them both with his own hands. How could this be their strong backing?

So from this point of view, the Hogwitz family can only fight alone in front of charlie Wade. What can a family with a combined asset of only tens of billions of dollars do against charlie Wade? If he really pissed off charlie Wade and ended up bankrupt, then it would be too late.

Therefore, Walter's father quickly expressed his position: "Mr. Wade, don't worry, if you give me a chance to make a video, I will definitely let my family cooperate and give you the money. They will never dare to make mistakes!"

charlie Wade nodded slightly with satisfaction, and Steve also breathed a sigh of relief.

One hundred million US dollars is nothing to him, he just regards it as a tribute to charlie Wade, but this matter can be solved relatively satisfactorily, and the price-performance ratio of one hundred million US dollars is still very high.

Thinking of this, he quickly said to charlie Wade: “Mr. Wade, how do you plan to collect my 100 million U.S. dollars? Direct transfer or remittance, or also exchange it for virtual cryptocurrency?”/ charlie Wade said: “It’s nothing. If you have big money, just exchange it for cryptocurrency. You might need it in the future.”

Steve blurted out: “Okay Mr. Wade! I will arrange this matter later!”

charlie Wade nodded and looked at Walter again. and his father, said coldly: “I will arrange for you two to get on the boat as soon as possible, but you must remember, whoever dares to play tricks, I will have you chopped into pieces and thrown into the sea to feed the fish, understand this Are you done?”

Both of them nodded heavily without thinking, and said repeatedly: “I understand, I understand!”

charlie Wade asked again: “Are you two satisfied with my solution?”

How dare the father and son say half-heartedly? Without saying a word, they all nodded and said in unison: “Satisfied, satisfied, very satisfied!”

”As long as you are satisfied.” charlie Wade nodded slightly, turned to look at Jiro Kobayashi, and said: “Jiro, I will give you a chance to perform meritoriously. .”

Jiro Kobayashi said excitedly: “Mr. Wade, please give me your orders! Jiro will definitely serve you with all his strength!”

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6594

charlie Wade smiled and said: “When the ship is ready, you will get on the ship with the father and son, and your mission will be One, keep an eye on the two of them the whole time and don’t let them make any small moves. After this is done, you will be a free man in this dog farm and enjoy a normal basic monthly salary. When the salary is up, you can have people buy you whatever you like. What, as long as it’s not illegal.”

When Jiro Kobayashi heard this, his whole body trembled with excitement.

Although his current treatment is good, he is still only a semi-free man. He dare not go anywhere on the ground casually. If he can become a free man, he can go outside to enjoy the sunshine at will, and more importantly, from now on, From now on, he will have a salary. Although people can't go out to shop, with the salary, he can be helped to buy many things that were previously out of reach. This is a huge change for his current situation.

Thinking of all the hardships and joys in the future, Kobayashi Jiro couldn't help but burst into tears. He looked at charlie Wade and choked with sobs: "Mr. Wade, your kindness will be unforgettable for Jiro!"

charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "Behave well, you are here Life here will only get easier and easier."

After saying that, charlie Wade said very seriously: "But you have to remember that I can give you moderate freedom, but you must have a clear sense of boundaries in your mind. If You have exceeded the scope I gave you, and I will never forgive you, understand?"

Kobayashi Jiro naturally understood the meaning of charlie Wade's words.

But now, even if he was given a chance to escape, he wouldn't be cold at all. On the one hand, he couldn't escape charlie Wade's pursuit, and on the other hand, where could he go after escaping? Smuggling back to Japan? Let's not talk about whether he can go back. Even if he can, his brother Ichiro Kobayashi will never let him go.

Therefore, the best destination for me is here.

So, he said to charlie Wade very humbly: "Mr. Wade, don't worry, Jiro will never go beyond the scope you have set!"

charlie Wade was very satisfied with his attitude, and then said to Don Albert "Don Albert , you arrange the ship on the Highland Falls side, find the cargo ships going to the Middle East as soon as possible, send them aboard, and notify abbas and ask him to arrange some soldiers from Wanlong Palace in advance, and then they will be fully armed and escort them all the way. "

Don Albert immediately said: "Master Wade, don't worry, I will coordinate and arrange everything as soon as I go out!"

charlie Wade then looked at Steve Rothschild on the side and smiled: "Mr. Rothschild, we have almost visited It's time for us to go back. I wonder which hotel are you staying at tonight?"

Steve said hurriedly: "Back to Mr. Wade, I'm staying at Aurous Hill Intercontinental these days. The Intercontinental Group has shares in our Rothschild family. Our own industry."

"Okay." charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "It will take at least ten days for them to sail to the Middle East, and it will take at least ten days for them to release the message through video. During this time, it may be You have to work hard to show off in Aurous Hill."

Steve said respectfully: "I wonder if Mr. Wade has time during this period, and I would also like to find an opportunity to learn more from Mr. Wade."

charlie Wade smiled and said: "Everyone We are all good friends, so you don't need to be so polite. Peter Zhou and Mr. Zhou will come to Aurous Hill in two days. Then we will get together more. He is very grateful to you for the New York matter."

Steve heard this As he spoke, his expression instantly became a little unnatural.

He dared to contact charlie Wade because he knew that his father did not know charlie Wade's existence, nor did he know what connection charlie Wade had with Sifang Baozhuang.

However, when he heard that Peter Zhou was coming to Aurous Hill, he immediately had a respectful attitude. After all, this man was the culprit who stole the Sifang Baozhuang from the Rothschild family. If he had anything to do with him, , if his father knew about it, why would he still torture himself to death?

charlie Wade also saw the worry in his heart and smiled: "Steve, you don't have to worry so much. Uncle Zhou came to Aurous Hill this time with a new identity and came back through other channels. After he comes, he will use his own Start over with a new identity in Aurous Hill, and your father won't be able to pay attention to him."

After saying that, charlie Wade said again: "By the way, I suggest you change to a more ordinary fake identity, and integrate into the local life in Aurous Hill, and you will be fine. Take a walk and have a look, maybe you will like this city. You, the Rothschild family, are also welcome to come to Aurous Hill to invest!"

Steve quickly agreed and said, "Okay, Mr. Wade! I'll listen. Your!"

When he returned to Heaven Springs, Steve was in a much better mood than when he arrived.

When he came here, he was worried all the way. He didn't know what kind of medicine charlie Wade was selling in his gourd. When he went back, everything cleared up and he no longer had to worry about the mismatched father and son in the Hogwitz family. They need to wait for the video of them at sea to be released before they can return home.

charlie Wade also saw that he was in a much better mood, so he asked with a smile: "Steve, I solved the most important thing as soon as I landed in Aurous Hill. I must be very happy, right?"

Steve said with a smile. : "To tell you the truth, I was still worried before I came here. If I couldn't find anything and went back in despair, I would definitely be ridiculed secretly. Now it's okay. After you release the video, no one can complain. I didn't handle the matter well, and I only blame the Hogwitz family for delaying the opportunity. After all, it's been so long, and it's their own fault that people were transferred to the Middle East." As he said that,

Steve was a little worried again Said: "I just don't know if my father will let me go to the Middle East to find them again..."

charlie Wade smiled and said: "In my opinion, it is impossible for your father to arrange for you to go to the Middle East again. That place is now It's chaos, and people who enter there will be lost. If you go there to look for someone, whether or not they can be found will be hard to guarantee. It's hard to guarantee your own safety. I guess this matter will be over by then."

Shi Steve bowed his hands to charlie Wade and said with a smile: "Then let Mr. Wade give me some good advice!"

When the four of them returned to Heaven Springs, Steve's men did not notice anything unusual.

Since he had to stay in Aurous Hill for about ten days, when he returned to Heaven Springs, charlie Wade asked him to go back to the hotel to rest first. Steve flew to Aurous Hill for more than ten hours, and after getting off the plane, he went to Heaven Springs and the Yangtze River. The dog farm was indeed a little exhausted, so he bid farewell to charlie Wade and left Heaven Springs.

The security personnel of the motorcade breathed a sigh of relief and drove him directly to the hotel where he was staying.

charlie Wade said without hesitation: "Yes, when is convenient for you, give me your address and I will find you."

charlie Wade has always respected hank, not only because he has a good character, but also has real talents and learning. , and because he and his mother were classmates and were old friends in the true sense.

hank said hurriedly: "I just came out of the University for the Elderly. Today is the weekend and there are no classes in the school. Why don't you give me your address and I will go find you."

charlie Wade thought about it. It was now past three o'clock in the afternoon. hank must have already After lunch, there were still a few hours before dinner time. It was really not suitable for him to come to Heaven Springs to talk about things. Considering that hank had lived in the United States for many years, he must have the habit of drinking coffee in the afternoon, so he Then he said: "Okay, Uncle Hank, there is a Starbucks not far south of the University for the Elderly. How about we go there and have a cup of coffee?"

"Great!" hank said with a smile, "I was just thinking about you giving me an address. I'm going to buy a cup of coffee and then go find you. In that case, let's meet at the coffee shop. I'm close. I'll order something for you in advance."

charlie Wade smiled and said, "Would you like a glass of iced Americano? , you go first, I'll go over now."

"Okay, let's see you later!"

charlie Wade didn't know what hank suddenly wanted to do with him, but since the other party wanted to meet and chat with him, he couldn't be on the phone. Rideau asked.

But fortunately, it didn't sound like there was anything difficult, which made him feel more at ease.

Afterwards, he greeted Don Albert and Isaac Cameron, and went to the Starbucks to meet hank.

hank continued: "Last month I went with your Aunt Matilda. After playing in Lucheng for a few days, I bought a ring in advance and proposed to her at the beach. She agreed. We also consulted the wishes of our children. Both Ziva Hank and Paul were very supportive of this matter. Both children were very supportive. Excellent, they don't need us to worry about, they all urge us to get the wedding done quickly. I just want to wait for you to come back and ask about your time. For our wedding, I want to invite you to be the witness."

"Ask me to be the witness. People?" charlie Wade subconsciously asked: "Uncle Hank, I am the junior of you and Aunt Matilda, is it appropriate for me to be a witness?"

hank said seriously: "My parents and your Aunt Matilda's are no longer alive, and they are overseas. For many years, I haven't had any good friends with any elders. After returning to Aurous Hill, I can honestly say that whether it's the school I'm at or the senior college where your Aunt Matilda is at, the friends and colleagues around me are mostly utilitarian and arty people. If you really want to ask any of them to be a witness, we both look down upon you."

After that, he looked at charlie Wade and said very seriously: "But we all recognize you very much, and no matter it is Ziva Hank and Paul both admire you very much. If you hadn't gone to Syria alone to rescue Ziva Hank, it's unknown whether she would still be alive now. So we discussed it over and over again. This witness is your best witness. It's suitable, I hope you won't refuse."

hank said so, and charlie Wade naturally had no objection, so he said very readily: "No problem, Professor He, thanks to your and Aunt Matilda's recognition of me, I will be the witness." hank saw charlie Wade After agreeing, he felt extremely excited and said quickly: "Thank you so much, charlie Wade! You have been abroad before, and I am embarrassed to disturb you, so the wedding date has not been set yet. You see if you have left Aurous Hill recently, if not If you leave, I will quickly set the wedding date and choose the hotel where the wedding will be held."

charlie Wade said: "You don't have to worry about the hotel. The sky garden of Buckingham Palace is ready for you and Aunt Matilda at any time. You can tell me when you choose the wedding date. I will arrange the rest."/

After hank heard this, he hugged charlie Wade and said seriously: "charlie Wade, if you want to thank me, Uncle Hank won't say much more, it's all in my heart!"

charlie Wade said with a smile . "You are welcome to talk to me at any time."

hank added: "As for the wedding date, my personal idea is that the sooner the better. After all, Aunt Matilda and I are not young anymore. You also know the secular environment in the country. It's different from abroad. Your Aunt Matilda is not young anymore. If you stay with me and don't get married, people will always gossip behind your back. So I want to settle this matter as soon as possible, which can be regarded as a blessing to you, Aunt Matilda. A real explanation, I just checked the almanac, next Saturday is a good day, I will communicate with your Aunt Matilda later, if she has no objection, we will work hard on this day." charlie Wade said to He charlie Wade's worries were not groundless.

He had long known that his father-in-law had not completely given up on Matilda just because she and hank got together.

When he came back from the exchange in South Korea, he was more decadent than ever before. When the Willson family went bankrupt, he didn't even blink.

If there is room for recovery when your sweetheart falls in love with someone else, then if your sweetheart marries someone else, it is basically a death sentence.

Moreover, given Matilda and Hank's intellectual background and their age and experience, since they decided to get married at this age, they must have planned to stay together for a long time.

Therefore, Jacob has no chance.

At this time, Jacob didn't know the bad news yet. He was doing calligraphy and painting training at the University for the Elderly.

It's said to be training. In fact, I just made a few pages of ppt, and put some classic calligraphy and painting works from all dynasties in the ppt. While showing it to the students, I explained the creative background of each work. 138 Reading Network

In fact, there is no technical content in this kind of thing. Jacob is most afraid of trouble on weekdays, so the copywriting used in the ppt is copied and pasted directly from the encyclopedia. He just stands on the stage and gives everyone an overview of the content in the encyclopedia. After reading it once, everyone knows that what he talks about is not nutritious, but after all, he is the second-in-command of the Calligraphy and Painting Association, so he must be given some face.

But even with such lack of nutrition, Jacob himself was still very enthusiastic.

In recent times, he has gone to the University for the Elderly more often than to the Calligraphy and Painting Association.

The main reason why I always come here is because Matilda teaches here, and I can have more contact with her here.

However, Jacob has indeed been hit hard these days.

He couldn't understand why Matilda was still clearly in love with him when she just came back from the United States, and why she was with someone else not long after.

Moreover, after Matilda and hank got together, when she was in front of her, her eyes no longer had the same light as before.

Jacob could see that the way Matilda looked at him now was no different from the way she looked at other men of the same age. On the contrary, every time she looked at hank, there was a different light in her eyes.

This afternoon, when Jacob drove that Cullinan to the University for the Elderly, he happened to see hank driving a domestic new energy car to send Matilda over. Jacob knew that car and it was worth more than ten or two hundred thousand. In front of Cullinan, he is a younger brother.

So, when hank parked his car and Matilda got off, Jacob parked the car to the right of hank's car, which was the side where Matilda got off the car, and even lowered the window to greet the two of them condescendingly. .

He originally thought that hank would feel a little ashamed when he saw him driving Cullinan. Unexpectedly, hank didn't care at all what kind of car he drove. Instead, he came up and asked him if charlie Wade was back. Hearing that charlie Wade was back, hank and Matilda were both happy, but Jacob couldn't figure out why they were so happy.

When giving ppt lectures, Jacob looked at Matilda under the podium from time to time.

Matilda had been listening very seriously before, but now she lowered her head and fiddled with her mobile phone, and her expression was a bit shy and happy like a girl.

Jacob was disgusted. While talking about the ppt, he angrily thought to himself: "What did Matilda talk to the person named He? They were so happy..."

At this time, Matilda had just received a message from hank. , in the message, hank told Matilda the result of his interview with charlie Wade, and also expressed his hope to hold a wedding as soon as possible. Seeing that her sweetheart was so anxious to marry him and give herself a name and a family, Matilda felt heartbroken. Naturally, I was also very moved.

At the moment, she has completely fallen in love with hank. She can't find anything wrong with this man who is similar to her in circumstances, educational background, outlook on life and even living habits. She feels that this man is God's choice for her. It's custom-made and fits you perfectly.

The biggest difference between women and men is that even if a man decides to move forward from his heart, the past scenery will often fetter him, and once most women decide to move forward from their heart, all the scenery in the past will also be gone. No more nostalgia.

Maybe I was madly in love yesterday, but after I woke up, I suddenly thought about it and no longer had any nostalgia.

This is the case with Matilda. Although she has been obsessed with Jacob for so many years, when her heart was attracted by hank, she completely lost her love for Jacob.

But Jacob is still obsessed with it.

He naively thought that Matilda should love him in her heart, and the reason why she agreed to be with hank was probably because he could not give her an explanation.

He felt that he was the male protagonist in the Korean drama, and Matilda, as the female protagonist, no matter how many times she went around, she would still love him in her heart, and she must love him.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6599

By _ / March 18, 2024

This is also the blind self-confidence that some men often have. It may be because they have watched too many unrealistic Hong Kong movies and Hollywood romance movies. They always feel that no matter how ordinary they are, they must be someone's true love. There will always be someone. Instead of eating the delicacies of the mountains and seas, I stepped on the colorful auspicious clouds to eat my sour white water noodles.

It is precisely because of this that he recently came up with the idea of saving Matilda.

But the so-called recovery is not about being with Matilda, but about letting Matilda give up hank and continue to love her by exuding her male charm.

As for whether he wants to divorce Ma Lan, that is another project.

Jacob finally finished the boring ppt. A room full of retired elderly people also recovered from their drowsiness. Everyone began to pack their things. Some people were going to other classrooms to attend other courses, while others were finishing up. I have made arrangements for today and am going home to buy groceries and cook.

Matilda had just made an appointment with hank on WeChat to go back and make a guest list together. After hank and charlie Wade had coffee, he drove back to the University for the Elderly to pick her up, so she packed her things and prepared to leave.

When Jacob saw her neatly packing up her things and leaving the classroom through the back door, he quickly chased after her and stopped her from behind: "Matilda!"

Matilda turned around, looked at Jacob, and asked with a smile: "Jacob Are you okay?"

Jacob hesitated for a moment, then said timidly: "Well, I just wanted to ask if you are free in the evening, and I would like to treat you to a meal."

After saying that, he quickly played out the Thirty-six Stratagems of Scumbags. With a nostalgic plan, he said: "How about we go to the food stalls near the back alley in front of our school? You forgot, we always went there to eat. Although it is no longer the same one, but the food stalls in that area The taste has always been very authentic these years."

If Matilda still loves Jacob in her heart, then Jacob's nostalgia card will definitely be very lethal. But at this time, Matilda has already decided to move forward, so Jacob's words are simply Without touching her emotionally, she smiled apologetically and said, "I'm sorry, Jacob, hank is waiting for me downstairs. We both have something to do. How about we have dinner together another day?" Treat me."

Jacob didn't expect that the nostalgia card would be misfired.

His original idea was to use the nostalgia card to let Matilda go to eat with him near the school, and then use the opportunity to take her to visit the old place and have a secret visit.

After all, if you want to rekindle an old relationship, revisiting the old place is the best way, bar none.

This is the same as the original soup and the original food.

But he never expected that Matilda's expression would not change at all. There was no shyness, shyness, nervousness, or the panic of a deer.

She just rejected herself simply and politely, just like she would reject an ordinary friend.

Jacob felt even more depressed when he heard that hank was waiting for Matilda. When he thought about Matilda calling him hank affectionately in front of him, he felt even more unhappy.

Therefore, he could only use the thirty-six tactics of a scumbag to retreat and make progress, and laughed at himself: "Hey, it seems that hank is indeed a good man. After you get together with him, you won't even be able to show off your old classmates." It's time to figure it out."

The difference between Matilda and Jacob is that Jacob has ten thousand thoughts in his heart, but five thousand of them dare not say them, and 4999 of them don't want to say them. The only ones he says are all in a roundabout way. It's confusing and confusing.

Maybe he wasn't like this before, but the moment he decided to be restrained and sullen, it was like a gate was installed in his heart, and the thoughts that blocked him would only become more and more numerous.

Matilda is different. She has a straightforward personality and dares to love and hate. After living in the West for so many years, she does not have the subtlety that Easterners often have. She has always said what she wants and does whatever she wants. Hide it or tuck it away.

Therefore, seeing that Jacob seemed to be complaining about rejecting his invitation, he said very frankly: "I'm really sorry, Jacob. hank and I are planning to hold a wedding soon. He asked me to go back and decide the guest list together. , after setting the list, we have to start writing the invitations, so today really can't be done, let's try another day, definitely another day!"

Jacob was completely dumbfounded from the words "the wedding is done", and his back felt cold and his legs felt numb. Soft, numb hands, and even the mouth becomes bitter and astringent.

He didn't listen at all to what Matilda said next.

He just stared at Matilda dumbfounded, unable to believe that this woman who had loved him for thirty years was actually getting married to someone else!

However, Matilda didn't wait for him to come back to her senses. Seeing that she had been delayed a lot, she said to Jacob: "Jacob, I really have to go. Let's talk later. Goodbye!"

After that, she hurriedly turned around and went downstairs. , leaving Jacob standing there dejectedly.

At this time, Jacob's brain had gone completely blank, and he just stood there blankly, motionless.

A student happened to pass by him and asked curiously: "Vice President, what are you standing here for?"

After speaking, he said in surprise: "Vice President, you... what are you doing? Crying? Are you okay?!"

When Jacob came to his senses, tears were already streaming down his face.

The student opposite him thought he was unwell and asked him again: "Vice President , would you like me to help you call your family and ask your lover to pick you up?"

Jacob's mind instantly Elaine's sharp and mean face appeared, and she trembled with fright. She quickly wiped away her tears and stammered: "No... don't bother... I... I just got something in my eyes..."

That person Obviously not believing his poor excuse, he quickly said with concern: "Vice President , why don't you give your family a call, or can I call a driver to take you back?" https:// "No, no, no

. ." Jacob quickly waved his hand and said: "I'll call my son-in-law and ask him to pick me up. He just returned to Aurous Hill. There should be nothing wrong."

After that, he quickly took out his mobile phone and called charlie. .

Just a few minutes ago, charlie had just left the coffee shop and was about to send hank to the car first.

Seeing hank walking straight towards a domestic new energy vehicle, he asked with some confusion: "Uncle Hank, it seems that you didn't drive this kind of car before, right?" "

This car is newly bought." hank said with a smile: "I gave it to you at school. The students talked about finance, carbon neutrality, new energy and supply chain. Some time ago, they did a topic about overtaking domestic new energy vehicles in corners. In order to learn more about it, I simply changed to a domestic new energy vehicle. , it can be regarded as supporting the domestic car manufacturing industry with practical actions."

charlie nodded and said: "I met my grandfather and two uncles a few days ago. The An family is also investing in the new energy field in China. The first layout is Power lithium batteries, they are still very optimistic about new energy."

hank's eyes lit up and he said with a smile: "Power batteries are a good track. Although it is a little late to enter the game now, it is the core of the new energy industry, new energy vehicles The most expensive component is the power battery, so whoever can get the most cost-effective battery will be able to build the most cost-effective car. I believe that Anjia's strength and vision will not only focus on the power battery. , they will start with power batteries first, and the final goal must be vehicle manufacturing. After all, the upstream industry of the automobile industry is too hard, with heavy asset models and low profit margins. It is better to make an overall plan to have a better chance."

charlie asked curiously : "Uncle Hank, are you very optimistic about the new energy industry?"

hank nodded and said with a smile: "Of course you are, this is the best example of overtaking in a corner. The old industrial power has accumulated in the field of internal combustion engines for too many years and formed its own technology. Barriers and their own positioning comfort zone, latecomers can only imitate him all the way, but have no chance to surpass him on his track. In this case, they can only find a way to change to a new gameplay that they have not started to pay attention to. This new gameplay is developed slowly, and when it develops to a certain level, you can attack his base and force him to change from leading to chasing you on your track. This will subvert all their previous advantages. "

Speaking of this, hank said again: "Have you ever studied how Apple headphones use one product to overtake others?"

hank said: "For so many years, established headphone manufacturers have They are advocating dynamic coils, sound quality, cables, and all kinds of data and technologies that ordinary people don't understand. If Apple competes with them within their standards, there is no chance at all," "

But Apple directly made a True wireless earphones with independent binaural ears can automatically connect when you open the cover, automatically switch when you put them on the ears, automatically pause when you take them off, and automatically charge when you put them back. As for the sound quality or not, it doesn't matter at all. Other brands are not studying it. Sound quality? I won't talk to you about sound quality. I want to work on aspects other than sound quality that you haven't paid attention to, and then I will compete with you. This is overtaking in a corner," "

Look at the current headphone market. Already completely dominated by Apple headphones and their imitators, it can be said responsibly that the hundreds of years of development of traditional wired headphones have been completely overturned. I believe that new energy vehicles will one day subvert the entire automotive industry. "
