By / April 11, 2024

Seeing charlie Wade and Claire come out, Elaine quickly greeted them and said, "Claire, charlie Wade, you two come and sit for a while and try how mom makes the tea."

The two looked at each other and then said: Sat down on the sofa.

While pouring tea for the two of them, Elaine said to Claire with a smile: "By the way, Claire, mom was so busy being angry with your dad that she forgot to ask you, are you going to the United States to help that Miss Fei this time? How much did she give you?"

Claire said a little unnaturally: "Miss Fei gave me two million."

"Only two million?" Elaine was immediately disappointed and said angrily: "Okay A son-in-law can cost tens or even millions to show someone Feng Shui. How long does that take? You went to help her and worked for so long, and she only gave you two million? That's too stingy!"

Claire He said awkwardly: "It's two million U.S. dollars..."

"What? U.S. dollars?!"

Elaine suddenly exclaimed: "How much is two million U.S. dollars? What is the exchange rate today?"

Jacob on the side quickly picked up his mobile phone to check. After checking, he blurted out: "Today's exchange rate is 7.2 yuan."

"I'll go!" Elaine said excitedly: "So, two million US dollars, that's more than 14 million! My dear Oh, more than 10 million! Our family has become rich!!"

Claire said hurriedly: "I didn't expect Miss Fei to give so much. She asked me to apply for a card at JP Morgan in the United States and said It was normal wages and subsidies. I didn't expect to receive two million dollars from Fei's Group just before I got on the plane. She said it was for my hard work, but I didn't do much work, so how could I ask for so much money? , so all the way here I was thinking about how to give her back some of it."

Elaine said quickly: "My dear girl, are you stupid? Are you stupid?! Since they gave it to you, you can take it with peace of mind and give it to her. What's the deal with people retreating? Isn't this spitting in someone's face?"

Claire frowned and said: "Mom...what you said is too disgusting...is this the same thing?"

"Of course It's the same thing." Elaine said righteously: "Rich people care about face. If you don't want money if you don't want it, then you don't give them face. Isn't that just like spitting in someone's face?"

After that, She quickly comforted her and said: "Good girl, just hold on to this money and don't be stupid, you know?"

Claire said frankly: "Mom, I didn't actually help them much when I went to the United States, and that project The progress is not going well, and there are still disputes. Maybe Ms. Fei's previous investment will be in vain. How can I get so much money? It's too hot to hold."

"Hey!" Elaine curled her lips and said, "This is the first time I heard someone say that money is still hot. If it were me, let alone two million US dollars, even if it were two red-hot gold bars, I would never put it in my pocket. It's too hot!"

After saying that, she hurriedly added: "If you find it too hot, please give it to mom first. Mom will save it for you. When you and charlie Wade have children in the future, I will save it for my grandson to go to college!"

charlie Wade was amused when he heard this. Will he keep it for his grandson to go to college? Only Elaine could say this. If the two million US dollars were really given to her, she would probably spend them all before the child was born.

Claire also knew that his mother was absolutely unreliable when it came to money, so he said: "Mom, let me think about this matter again. My current thinking is that if the project becomes brighter in the future, I will use this money." I will not return it to Miss Fei. As long as she still needs my participation, I will follow this project to the end. But if this project cannot continue, then I will return at least half of it to her."

Elaine said quickly: "At most, half of it will be returned. How about you transfer one million US dollars to mom first, and she will go to the bank to buy a fixed term."

Claire said: "If I keep one million US dollars, I want to use it to develop the company. Now I am doing it. Being young is a good time to work hard on your career. It is definitely more meaningful to invest the money in the company than to deposit it in the bank."

Elaine was a little dissatisfied: "After all, you just don't believe mom?"

Claire was helpless. Said: "Mom, it's not that I don't believe you, it's that I really have my own plans for this money. When I went to the United States this time, I found that many design companies are taking the route of holding high and fighting hard, and they are trying to find ways to participate in various competitions. I have the opportunity to win awards. On the other hand, I will try my best to take on big projects to increase my visibility. The development direction is the same as that of those 4A advertising companies. I also want to increase the scale of the company. While expanding the staff, I will also poach a few with high salaries who are well-known in the country. A well-known designer, in this case, maybe I can take on some larger real estate projects. This money is just the first phase of start-up capital."

After that, she looked at Elaine and said: "If you need money, I can give you 50,000 U.S. dollars, and treat it as my pocket money to honor you. You don't have to save it for me. It's completely up to you and I won't interfere. Isn't that okay?"

Elaine could give herself something after hearing this. Fifty thousand US dollars, he suddenly smiled and said: "Okay! I think it works! My daughter is amazing and has such a strong career ambition. If you really build a well-known domestic design brand, wouldn't our family be even more powerful?"

As she spoke, she couldn't help but think: "My son-in-law is a famous Feng Shui master, and my daughter is a famous designer. Our family has two money printing machines, and we can make endless money!"

Jacob on the side did not expect Elaine to say After just a few words, he got fifty thousand US dollars. He was so itchy that he couldn't help coughing twice and said: "That...girl...you are so powerful now, and dad is very happy. I wonder if I can let dad share your experience too." Success?"

Claire nodded: "Okay dad, I will give you fifty thousand US dollars."

Jacob smiled and said with joy: "Then I will thank my daughter in advance!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6662

Claire did not delay, He immediately took out his mobile phone and transferred $50,000 to each of their accounts.

The two of them were naturally happy after receiving the money. Elaine looked at the words "50,000 U.S. dollar deposits" on the account and couldn't help but sigh: "If my daughter and her good son-in-law continue to move forward, maybe our family will not be as Matilda as hers in the future." Matilda is so different!"

Jacob said awkwardly: "Why did you mention Matilda again..."

Elaine quickly explained: "I don't mean anything else, but the more I think about her doing so well, the worse I feel. It's not balanced. How much money does the good son-in-law say she has? How many billions?"

charlie Wade said casually: "A conservative estimate, one billion US dollars."

"One billion US dollars..." Elaine murmured: "One hundred million is just that. One hundred is one million, and one billion is one thousand. Based on the initial two million US dollars for a project, you have to do at least five hundred..."

charlie Wade said quickly: "Mom, don't think about this. , people's money in the bank earns tens of millions of dollars a year in interest, what is it like?"

As he said that, charlie Wade thought that he would have to be a witness to Matilda and hank next week, what if Elaine... He couldn't figure it out for a few days, and he was afraid that if some evil moth came, it would not end well, so he said: "Dad, Mom, you two have been working very hard during this time, why not find a holiday resort and have a good time?" Let's play and treat it as a second honeymoon. How about you two choose a place and I'll pay for it after you choose it?"/

When Elaine heard this, she said happily: “Okay! That’s great! Do I have it? ” I don’t have time to travel anymore! I didn’t have much chance to have fun last time I went to the United States, and I got f*cked before I left.”

After that, she looked at Jacob and complained: “When we got married, you I don’t care at all. It’s okay if the wedding isn’t a big event, and I didn’t even take me on the honeymoon!”

Jacob laughed twice: “You ran away with the ball at that time, where should I take you for your honeymoon...”

After saying that, he quickly added: “But since the good son-in-law said so, then you can choose a place you like and treat it as a honeymoon that year!”

Not only Elaine has not traveled for a long time, but Jacob has also not traveled for a long time. Haven’t gone out to play.

The last time I went to South Korea for exchange, I thought it was a trip of love and career. Unexpectedly, I was so suppressed by hank’s halo that I couldn’t open my eyes. He even lost his love in South Korea, so that trip was very difficult for him. There’s absolutely nothing to be happy about.

In addition, the recent news that Matilda is getting married has made me really unhappy. Being able to go out for fun is definitely a good opportunity to relax and change her mood.

What’s more, charlie Wade spent money without having to pay a dime.

When Elaine heard what Jacob said, she naturally yearned for it, so she asked Jacob: “Where is the most fun?”

Jacob thought for a while and asked tentatively: “Europe? Or resorts like the Maldives or Mauritius? “

Elaine suddenly thought of something and blurted out: “Will Matilda also have a honeymoon after getting married? Where are they going?”

Jacob said awkwardly: “Then I don’t know where to go.”

Elaine thought for a while and blurted out : “A woman like Matilda, who likes to pretend to be artistic, will most likely find a picturesque tropical island to enjoy the natural scenery. I don't want to bump into her. When they live in the presidential suite, they will be everywhere. Private jet, I'm afraid I'll be so angry that I'm going to die abroad."

Jacob said subconsciously: "The world is so big, how could we meet them by chance..."

Elaine said seriously: "As long as a person with this kind of energy can get up, , Drinking cold water can stuff your teeth, and farting can bring out shit."

As she said, she had an idea and said excitedly: "I thought of it! Let's go to a vulgar place! As long as it's vulgar enough, it will definitely not I met Matilda!"

Jacob asked her: "Where is the more vulgar place? Xinma, Thailand?"

Elaine pouted: "In what age do you still go to Xinma, Thailand? It's OK to be vulgar, but you can't be vulgar. You have to Rich and vulgar!"

After that, she said with a firm tone: "If we want to go, let's go to Dubai! In a place like this where people spend a lot of money and live in extravagance, Matilda will not even go there for her honeymoon. It's a good place to shop. Shopping and spending money, what is the purpose of giving these dollars to my daughter? Isn't it just to go shopping abroad?"

"Hey..." Jacob gave a thumbs up: "I really have it for you! Then go to Dubai!"

Elaine looked at charlie Wade again and asked him: "Good son-in-law, what do you think of Dubai?"

charlie Wade nodded: "I think it's okay, then let's book Dubai."

Elaine exclaimed intentionally, "Good son-in-law, but the consumption in Dubai is not low..." charlie Wade waved his hand and said cheerfully: "Mom, don't worry, I'll take care of it. Didn't Claire give you 100,000 yuan? " U.S. dollars? I'll give you one hundred thousand U.S. dollars too!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6663

By / April 12, 2024

When they heard that Charlie also wanted to give one hundred thousand US dollars, Elaine and Jacob were excited beyond words.

Elaine couldn't help but applaud and cheered: "Oh my, what a day it is today! Good things happen one after another! I have long heard that Dubai is a shopping paradise, and it will be very enjoyable to go shopping there!"

After saying that, she looked at Jacob and asked him: "Do you need a visa for Dubai?"

Jacob thought for a moment: "I don't think so."

"Great!" Elaine was even more excited and said quickly: "No need. I told you to pack your luggage today and leave tomorrow!"

After saying that, he got up and went back to his room to pack his things.

Jacob quickly stopped her: "Don't worry, you can't just leave. There are many things that haven't been determined yet. Flights, air tickets, and hotels all have to be booked in advance, and you have to do your homework online first. Check it out. Where is fun and shopping, and then choose the most convenient hotel. Also, we have to see if there is anything fun around Dubai, and plan how long we will go there this time."

"Yes, yes, yes!" Elaine suddenly realized and praised. "My husband has thought it through! Why don't you hurry up and take a look now?"

Jacob said: "We are not in a hurry for a day or two. Although there is usually nothing going on in the meeting, but I want to go out to play, so I must take care of the meeting in advance. I have to arrange things well, and I have to say hello to President Pei. President Pei is currently walking around in activities. The position of future president is mine. I have to pay attention to the influence I have in the meeting and not let others feel I don't take the association seriously."

After saying that, Jacob said: "Besides, I still have to wait for Zhang Ermao (Cade) to reply to me."

Elaine asked curiously: "Why are you looking for that Zhang Ermao (Cade)?" "Have you started raking in antiques again?"

Jacob waved his hand: "I'm not looking for him, he's looking for me. I can't explain the specific things to you in a few sentences, so don't worry about it. I'll urge him as soon as possible tomorrow. In addition, I will also do my homework in Dubai in the evening. I will try to get everything done in three or two days and then we will set off!"

"Okay!" Elaine was uncharacteristically uncharacteristic this time. She didn't question Jacob's remarks and didn't find opportunities to make fun of him. He was sarcastic, but said in a very common sense: "You are going to be the president of the association soon, so you really need to pay more attention to the impact. I don't have much plans anyway. Just coordinate your time and let's go."

Jacob said with a smile. "Okay, I'll make a rough plan for you later."

After saying that, Jacob stood up and said impatiently: "I'm going back to the house first. I have to take a notebook to check and write down this kind of thing. "

Elaine subconsciously stood up and said, "I'm with you!"

In fact, Elaine wanted to take advantage of today to talk to Jacob about a lot of things, and simply let Jacob move back to his bedroom.

After all, the two have been separated for a long time. During the Cold War period, no one paid attention to the other, so the separation was natural. But now that they have reconciled, there is no need to continue to live apart.

However, Elaine thought about it carefully and realized that she could not take the initiative to say such words, otherwise it would be a shame. It would be best if Jacob took the initiative to move back.

If Jacob loses face for a while, Elaine thinks it doesn't matter. She will think more about Jacob now. It's normal for a gentleman to want to save face, so it's better to wait for two days for the two of them to go traveling together. We take the opportunity to go out together and naturally stay in the same room when staying in a hotel. In this way, it will be more natural to sleep in the same room again when we come back from the trip.

The next day, Zhou Liangyun, who temporarily stayed at an express hotel near Antique Street, came to Antique Street early in the morning.

Although he asked the vendor to help him find a shop yesterday, he also knew that it was unlikely that others would really help, so he still had to rely on himself for everything.

Yesterday afternoon, he found many shops in the Antique Street saying they were for rent or sublet. He thought that the business in the Antique Street was not that easy now, so as soon as he arrived at the Antique Street in the morning, he went to those sublet shops. to understand the situation.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6664

By / April 12, 2024

When the Antique Street was at its peak, the domestic antique market was also at its hottest. People who were looking for antiques still can't help but slap their thighs in excitement when they think of those golden years.

In that era, a pair of Wenwan walnuts cost at least several thousand yuan, and a good one could even cost tens or even millions.

A Dzi bead, as big as a child's little finger, can start at tens of millions, and can even go up to hundreds of millions. The key is that there are really unfair people who buy it.

The most ridiculous thing is that a few years ago, a cultural toy called the Dripping Lotus entered the market and was sold at a sky-high price as soon as it appeared. Later, people discovered that the toy was actually a southern roadside landscape plant. seed.

Many of the vendors in the antique street now entered the industry at that time. In that golden period, it was difficult to find a shop in the antique street, and a small storefront of less than 20 square meters. Not to mention the rent, the transfer fee alone was as high as dozens. Ten thousand, it is common for larger shops to have transfer fees of several million.

However, now that the antiques industry is experiencing a downturn, more than half of the shops in Antique Street will not receive transfer fees at all when they are transferred to external parties. Only good shops in core locations can still charge some transfer fees.

Zhou Liangyun looked around and fell in love with a two-story shop that was being transferred. The shop's name was Zhenbaoxuan. The location was good or not, and the area was decent. Each floor was about fifty square meters. The downstairs was now occupied by The operators use it to sell agate, jade and some unpopular cheap gemstones, and the second floor is the bedroom where the operators live.

The other party's quotation for this shop is a transfer fee of 150,000 yuan, and the remaining three months of the lease period. After the lease period is up, the landlord will renew the lease at a price of 200,000 yuan a year.

The annual rent of 200,000 yuan is not expensive, but the transfer fee of 150,000 yuan is somewhat outrageous.

So Zhou Liangyun said to the other party: "I have an impression of your store. When I was at Ji Qingtang, this store had been open for a long time. The contract you signed with the landlord must not have been 200,000 yuan a year, right? ?"

The other party replied: "I have been running this store for almost ten years. When I first took over, I paid a transfer fee of 300,000 to the previous tenant, and the rent was 250,000 a year. Later, the business became difficult. The rent has been reduced all the way to 180,000, but the landlord now regrets it and plans to increase the rent to 200,000. I really don't want to do this anymore, so I don't want to renew my contract with him. The transfer fee of 300,000 back then is now 50% off. , as long as 150,000 yuan comes with three months' rent, the price is already very low."

Zhou Liangyun nodded. Although the other party's words were accurate, he did not question the authenticity of the other party's words. The only thing that made him doubtful was, This is the current value of this shop.

The original transfer fee only represented the original market price, and the current price has nothing to do with the original transfer fee. It is only related to the current market value. This is the same logic as the stock.

Judging from the current business situation in the antique street, it is impossible for such a small shop to receive a dime in transfer fees.

The reason for this is also very simple. When business is not doing well, many stores are losing money. Most businesses can only hold on while trying to sublease because their leases and rents have not expired. At the same time, he was also prepared. If no one took over, he would have to wait until the last moment.

But once the lease expires, with the current situation of operating at a loss, they will definitely not be able to sign a one-year lease with the landlord, so they will have to pack up and leave at that time, handing the shop back to the landlord in exchange for being in the landlord's hands. Deposit in hand.

If they ask for a transfer fee now, they are basically holding the mentality that they can get away with it. Once the lease reaches the last month, they will naturally give up the unrealistic fantasy of transfer fee.

When Zhou Liangyun saw that there were not many goods in the other shop, he knew that the boss must have entered the stage of dumping goods. He would sell whatever he could, no matter how many times, but it was absolutely impossible for him to spend more money to purchase goods. .

In fact, Zhou Liangyun is not short of money. The transfer fee of more than 100,000 yuan is a drop in the bucket for him.

However, he also knew very well that in areas such as Antique Street where shops are concentrated, there are no secrets between each other, such as which business is good, what year it started, where the boss is from, and whether there is anything fishy about the business. Almost everyone can find out.

If I buy this store today and the contract has not been signed yet, the entire antique street will probably know about it. If I know that I have been taken advantage of, I will definitely become a talking point and a laughing stock among the merchants in the entire street.

Moreover, I plan to open a store and start by collecting antiques and helping to identify antiques. Once someone labels me as someone who has been taken advantage of, I don't know how many people from all walks of life will come to deceive me in the future.

Although I have enough professionalism to ensure that I try not to be deceived, when everyone thinks that I am a dishonest person, I will be exhausted just dealing with those people.

As for the business of appraising antiques, you don't have to think about it at all. No one will pay someone to appraise things.

Therefore, if you want to gain a foothold in the antique street, the first thing you need to do is to get a good price.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6665

By / April 12, 2024

So, he said: "Let's do this, boss, for the remaining three months of your rent, I will pay you the actual rent. Isn't your current rent 180,000 per year? One month is 15,000. Three months' rent is 45,000 yuan. As for you, you don't have to spend it here. With these three months' rent, you can make some money, but I can't pay for the transfer fee. You."/

When the other party heard this, his expression suddenly became a little depressed and he said: "How can that be done? I spent 300,000 yuan in transfer fees at that time. It was real money, not even a penny less. You can get it no matter what. Will you let me come back?"

Zhou Liangyun shook his head and said, "I'm sorry, I have limited funds. I have to stock up on the store after I book it. I really don't have enough money. If you charge a transfer fee, then I can only I went to another house to have a look."

The other party still wanted to stretch his muscles, so he said: "There is no other way, you can take a look again."

Zhou Liangyun didn't say anything, turned around and walked out. The other party didn't expect that he walked so decisively, without even tailing him. He didn't even leave it for himself, and he suddenly felt a little panicked.

His shop has been transferred to other parties for half a year. During this period, almost no one has come to ask. Occasionally, there are one or two who turn around and leave as soon as they hear the transfer fee. Moreover, some people know that they are in a hurry to transfer, even leaving the remaining items. The rent is required to be discounted in half.

He has worked hard for six months and today, he has lost another 90,000 yuan in rent, but in these six months of exhausting work, the net profit is less than 20,000 yuan.

And as the goods in his store become less and less, it has inevitably given people the feeling that it is about to become a yellow stall, so there has been no business recently. The customers who occasionally come to buy things can also see that they are anxious to clear the goods. When it comes to goods, the price is not cut in half, but directly discounted or even lower.

If the consumption continues, the next three months will probably be even more difficult.

Instead of doing this, it is better to get rid of it quickly and find a peer to exchange the remaining goods at a low price, so that you can be relieved as soon as possible.

So, he stopped Zhou Liangyun and said, "Brother, don't leave in a hurry. Let's talk again. If you think the transfer fee of 150,000 yuan is too much, then I'll give you another one. What do you think of 100,000 yuan?"

Zhou Liangyun turned around and said seriously: "I won't pay a penny for the transfer fee."

The man became anxious and blurted out: "You can give me ten or twenty thousand yuan for tea. My shop is really good. You You can definitely make money by taking it!"

Zhou Liangyun thought for a moment and said, "Well, if you can vacate the shop for me today, I will give you five thousand yuan as hard work fee, and I will pay you the rent for the remaining three months. You have 50,000 yuan, and even one cent more is gone. If you think it's OK, call the landlord now to sign the contract. In addition, quickly pack up your things and find a truck to take them away. If you think it's not OK, then I'll leave directly. After saying that

, Zhou Liangyun added: "To be honest, if I look around again, I will definitely find a more suitable shop than yours, but you are different. You sit here and wait stupidly, but you can't wait for me to be so sincere." Customer, in this case, if you are still determined and unwilling to cut off your flesh, then you have to be prepared to get the final result."

Zhou Liangyun's words suddenly hit the other side's sore spot, and he cursed and said: "I The oil stocks I bought more than ten years ago are still stuck today. When it came time to cut the meat, I was reluctant to do it. I could have saved a pair of trousers, but in the end I even lost money..."

said Well, he gritted his teeth and blurted out: "Forget it, just as you said, I will free up the fifty thousand yuan for you today!"

Zhou Liangyun nodded: “Then you contact the landlord and sign the contract together.”

Before the landlord came, the news that Zhou Liangyun had taken over the shop had already spread like wildfire in the antique street.

Chen Yufei from Ji Qingtang didn’t expect Zhou Liangyun to be so fast, so he became a little anxious, so he quickly called Zhang Ermao (Cade). As soon as the call came through, he said impatiently: “Brother Ermao, that old boy Zhou Liangyun’s moves are too... It’s almost time. In this morning, he has decided on the shop! Do you have any news about the things I asked you to find?”

Zhang Ermao (Cade) also didn’t expect Zhou Liangyun to be so efficient, so he said: “What are you looking for? Don’t worry, I’m looking for someone to inquire. Zhou Liangyun’s level is higher than yours, and he may not be below me. It’s hard to find something that can scare him.”

After that, he asked again: “Which shop did Zhou Liangyun get? “

Chen Yufei blurted out: “The Zhenbaoxuan I got, it is said that I didn’t pay even a penny in transfer fees!” “Oh!” Zhang Ermao (Cade) said with some surprise: “The boss of Zhenbaoxuan is so stinky and tough that he even confiscated a dime in transfer fees! Just transferred the store to Zhou Liangyun?”

Chen Yufei said: “It’s true, it is said that the owner of Zhenbaoxuan was given five thousand yuan for moving expenses and told him to pack up and get out today. Isn’t this fucking insulting? Zhenbao Boss Xuan didn’t hit him, so it’s not bad, but he actually agreed to it!”

”This guy named Zhou has something.” Zhang Ermao (Cade) sighed and said, “Come on, I’ll go to the antique street in the afternoon and meet him for a while first. Good luck this week!”

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6666

In order not to lose the remaining three months of the lease, the boss of Zhenbaoxuan found the landlord as quickly as possible, and then called in several colleagues to evaluate the goods.

Cutting meat is always the hardest decision to make, but as long as you make the decision and wave the knife, there is nothing that cannot be cut.

The landlord was very happy. After all, he had found a place for his next home. Otherwise, if no one was willing to continue renting the property when the current tenant expired, he would have to struggle to find a tenant and lose a day's rent.

So after he arrived, he immediately signed an agreement with the two people recognizing the transfer of the remaining three months of the lease, and signed a new contract with Zhou Liangyun. Zhou Liangyun did not need to pay money immediately, he only needed to pay when the three-month lease was up. Just transfer the rent to the landlord before the new lease term starts.

After signing the agreement, colleagues with the same positioning as Zhenbaoxuan on Antique Street flocked to the place.

Merchants here like to go to their peers' stores to take inventory.

Once this peer decides not to operate the business anymore, or even plans to no longer personally retail the remaining goods, it means that he is willing to accept clearing goods to his peers at a price lower than the cost price.

If you buy something that costs one hundred yuan, you can often get it for seventy or eighty yuan, which is much more cost-effective than going to other places to purchase the goods yourself.

The boss saw his colleagues coming over and clearing away all the goods in less than half an hour. He couldn't help but sigh to Zhou Liangyun: "It seems that this meat must be cut when it's time to cut it! In the past, I only had to look at this pile I had a headache when I bought all the goods. Now that they are all gone, I feel much more comfortable. Although I lost a lot of money, I finally had a good mood."

Zhou Liangyun nodded in agreement and said: "People say that out of sight is out of mind. Annoyance, this is the truth. When these things become a drag on you, although they still have value, they can only provide you with negative emotional value until they are cashed out. Every day you are upset is an invisible loss. “

If you buy something that costs one hundred yuan, you can often get it for seventy or eighty yuan, which is much more cost-effective than going to other places to purchase the goods yourself.

The boss saw his colleagues coming over and clearing away all the goods in less than half an hour. He couldn't help but sigh to Zhou Liangyun: "It seems that this meat must be cut when it's time to cut it! In the past, I only had to look at this pile I had a headache when I bought all the goods. Now that they are all gone, I feel much more comfortable. Although I lost a lot of money, I finally had a good mood.”

Zhou Liangyun nodded in agreement and said: “People say that out of sight is out of mind. Annoyance, this is the truth. When these things become a drag on you, although they still have value, they can only provide you with negative emotional value until they are cashed out. Every day you are upset is an invisible loss. “

After the words were written, he stepped directly on the ladder and covered the original signboard with the words. Then he wrote another notice with only ten words in it, which read: Collect antiques from all over the world and appraise treasures from all directions.

As soon as the temporary signs and notices were put up, Chen Yufei ran over with a flower basket congratulating the opening.

As soon as they met, he said enthusiastically: “Oh, Manager Zhou, you are really efficient. You just came back yesterday evening, and the store opened at noon today!”

Zhou Liangyun smiled and said: “You can do a small business by yourself, of course. The sooner the better.”

Chen Yufei placed the flower basket next to Zhen Baoxuan’s door and said with a bit of blame: “Manager Zhou, you are still too unfamiliar. Almost half of the merchants in this antique street are old acquaintances. Come on, your new store has opened, why don’t you tell everyone and send you a few more flower baskets, which will make your aura brighter!”

Zhou Liangyun hurriedly handed over his hands and said, “Manager spent a lot of money, but this is my small business. I don’t know if I can continue the business since I opened the business. It’s not suitable to make a big fanfare and hold it high right from the beginning. It’s better to keep a low profile.”

Chen Yufei nodded and said with a smile: “You are so humble. With your strength, you will soon be If you can make a name for yourself in Antique Street, your Zhen Baoxuan business will definitely be the hottest on our street.”

Zhou Liangyun said politely: "Then I'll lend you your good luck."

Just as he said that, Zhang Ermao (Cade) walked away with a smile. He came over and saw Zhou Liangyun and Chen Yufei at the door. He pretended to be surprised and said, "Oh, isn't this Manager Zhou? When did he come back?"

Zhou Liangyun also recognized Zhang Ermao (Cade).

The reason why he still remembers Zhang Ermao (Cade) is that in his opinion, Zhang Ermao (Cade) is the smartest vendor in the entire antique street. He is really smart. However, in Zhou Liangyun's opinion before, Zhang Ermao (Cade)'s intelligence was not used in the right way.

He is a well-informed person, and he can see that although people like Zhang Ermao (Cade) have a little cleverness, they have not settled down to turn their little cleverness into a real skill. In addition, he comes from a humble background and has no noble people to support him. It's still hard to get ahead.

But looking at Zhang Ermao (Cade) today, I clearly feel that this person's aura is a little different from before. He has also become a little rounder from the skinny skin before. It seems that he has been living a good life recently.

So, Zhou Liangyun asked him with a smile: "Er Mao, are you still doing business in the Antique Street?"

Zhang Ermao (Cade) said with a smile: "Occasionally, come here occasionally. Now I mainly do something with an old brother. This Antique Street I can't take care of it anymore."

As he said that, he asked pretending to be curious, "Manager Zhou, are you opening a new business?"

"Yes." Zhou Liangyun nodded and said, "It's a new business, collect some things, and also... Help people look at things."

"Treasure appraisal." Zhang Ermao (Cade) said with a smile: "It's good to appraise treasures. Treasure appraisal is very popular recently. If we start a live broadcast when the time comes, it won't be long before it becomes very popular."

Zhou Liangyun himself came to Aurous Hill to start over. He did not want to be high-profile, so he was not interested in live broadcasting, so he casually said: "Live broadcasting is not easy to do now. I have long missed the good opportunity to enter. Now I can do live broadcasting without spending money to invest." Almost no one watches the stream. If you spend money to join the stream, you don't know if you will make it back in your lifetime. My funds are also limited, so I can just make a living by making small meals."

Zhang Ermao (Cade) nodded and smiled: "How about Zhou? Manager, you are an expert and you are professional as soon as you speak."

With that said, Zhang Ermao (Cade) added: "By the way, I have many friends here who often ship goods. I wonder how much money Manager Zhou has? Let me see if they have anything suitable to bring over to cooperate with you. "

How big is the pot?" probably means asking how much money he plans to invest. Zhou Liangyun wants to collect antiques, so this question is also asking him how much money he can get to collect the items.

Zhou Liangyun said modestly: "I have been messing around during this period and haven't saved much money. I only have a few hundred thousand in total. If it is cheap and affordable, I will definitely have no problem here. If it is top-notch goods, I'm afraid." I just can't eat anymore."

"Okay." Zhang Ermao (Cade) knew Zhou Liangyun's approximate capital size and said, "I'll save you some relevant resources later and see if I can facilitate a few deals."

Zhou Liangyun said. He raised his hand and said, "Thank you Ermao!"

Zhang Ermao (Cade) smiled and waved his hand, and said to Chen Yufei: "Manager , please help me prepare a flower basket for Manager Zhou. I will transfer the money to you later."

Chen Yufei said quickly: "Oh, Ermao. " Brother, why are you so polite to me? I'll prepare the flower basket, so don't worry about it!"

Zhang Ermao (Cade) nodded and said casually: “Let’s go, you two, sit down and have a cup of tea together when we have the opportunity.”

After saying that, he stepped forward . He walked away quickly.

Chen Yufei knew that after Zhang Ermao (Cade) came to get to know Zhou Liangyun, he would definitely find a way to help him when he returned, so he breathed a sigh of relief and said to Zhou Liangyun: “Manager Zhou, you are busy first, I will go back too “Brother Ermao’s flower basket, I’ll have it delivered later!”

As he said that, he added: “To tell you the truth, the financial department of the Moore Group has always wanted to eliminate my business. It was Miss moore who kept Ji Qingtang despite all the opinions. It can be seen that moore The young lady has feelings for Ji Qingtang, and she will definitely pay attention to this business from time to time. If she knows that Zhou Liangyun is back and is doing well, she might think of inviting him back. !”

Zhang Ermao (Cade) secretly laughed in his heart: “If this information channel is not well-informed, you will suffer a big loss. You, Chen Yufei, are worried about who will take your seat, but you don’t have to worry about Zhou Liangyun, because he was driven away in the first place because he offended wade. The master’s father-in-law, Miss moore, has great respect for Master Wade and obeys his advice. It is absolutely impossible to invite Zhou Liangyun, a person who has offended Master Wade, back. It is really unfounded. “

However, he did not break this relationship. After all, Chen Yufei has. As a matter of fact, if you help Jacob vent his anger, you can make Chen Yufei owe you a favor. You can kill two birds with one stone, so why not do it.

Thinking of this, he smiled and said: “Originally I didn’t want to get involved in this kind of thing, but you guys are lucky this time. I just have nothing to do recently. Since there are two brushes for good luck this week, then I will Let’s see how he compares with Zhang Ermao (Cade) and me.”

After that, he said, “Isn’t Zhou Liangyun worth hundreds of thousands? I’ll go back and find something that can impress even an expert like him, and give him one shot at a time. If these hundreds of thousands are sucked up, what the hell will he do with antiques when he has no start-up capital?"

Chen Yufei said excitedly: "That would be great! Then I will let people secretly publicize it and let everyone know about him. As soon as Zhou Liangyun returned to the antique street, he slapped him, making him lose money and face! I wonder how he can gain a foothold in the antique street!"

Zhang Ermao (Cade) nodded and said: "Manager Chen, why don't I give you another favor?"

Chen Yufei hurriedly asked respectfully: "Brother Ermao, what do you mean by favors?"

Zhang Ermao (Cade) said: "After I prepare the things, I will have someone bring them to you for appraisal first. How will you comment and view them at that time?" I will tell you in advance whether something is wrong or where the fake thing is. You are ready to monitor it. When the time comes, you will perform a scene under the monitor. When Zhou Liangyun gets an eyeful, you can release the video. You will have Manager's dazzling eyes in front of you. After seeing through the fake, Zhou Liangyun was blinded and bankrupted. This comparison will reach Miss Moore's ears, and your position will be more stable."

Chen Yufei thought hard and couldn't come up with this good idea of killing two birds with one stone. I was so excited that I couldn't add anything to it.

At this moment, Jacob is in his own office at the Painting and Calligraphy Association, busy making plans for a trip to Dubai.

Hearing Zhang Ermao (Cade) say that what he was thinking about was revealed, he immediately became interested and said quickly: "You come to the association to find me and come to my office for an interview!"

"Okay!" Zhang Ermao (Cade) readily agreed and blurted out: " President Jacob, wait a minute, I'll be here soon!"

Jacob hurriedly lowered his voice and reminded: “By the way, when you get here, don’t call me President Jacob in front of others, please call me Vice President Jacob, I understand. No?”

Zhang Ermao (Cade) is a pure human spirit, how could he not know this truth.

The reason why I called Jacob President Jacob instead of Vice President Jacob was to please him, but naturally this title could not be used randomly in the Calligraphy and Painting Association.

So he smiled and said: “President Jacob, you can always rest assured that I, Zhang Ermao (Cade), will take care of things!”

After hanging up the phone, Zhang Ermao (Cade) drove to the Painting and Calligraphy Association as quickly as possible.

At this time, in the Calligraphy and Painting Association, there were only about a dozen people at the dozens of workstations, but there were a lot of office supplies or personal items on the dozens of workstations, which made Zhang Ermao (Cade) feel a little strange.

After he inquired, an employee took him to Jacob’s office. After knocking on the door, he opened the door and said to Jacob: “Vice President Jacob, someone wants to see you.”

Jacob looked up and saw Zhang Ermao (Cade) behind him, and waved his hand. : “Okay, let him come in and go and do your work.”

“Okay, Vice President Jacob!”

The employee invited Zhang Ermao (Cade) into the office, then closed the door and left.

Zhang Ermao (Cade) came to Jacob with a smile and sat down on the chair in front of his desk.

After sitting down, he couldn’t help but curiously asked: “President Jacob, there are so many workstations outside, why are there no people there?”

Jacob quickly lowered his voice and said: “Don’t call me President Jacob, call me Vice President Jacob!”

Zhang Ermao (Cade) smiled mischievously, and then said: “There is no one else here, so don’t worry. Besides, I think you will have to take off the vice president’s name sooner or later.”

Jacob said with pretending humility . : “Hey, you can’t say that. Before I take it off officially, I am the vice president, and I can’t overstep it!”

After saying that, Jacob knocked on the table and said, “You just asked why there are so many empty workstations outside.” Right?”

Zhang Ermao (Cade) nodded repeatedly: “Yes, yes.”

Jacob stretched and said with a smile: “This is the nourishing place of the Calligraphy and Painting Association. Everyone is not under pressure, and we don’t have excessive requirements for the employees below. Come when you can get up, or come in the afternoon if you can’t. After sitting here enough, men can ask friends to drink coffee, and women can ask girlfriends to go shopping. All they have to do is give a reason for going out to visit calligraphy and painting authors. I usually do that. I don’t stay here very often. I used to like to go to the University for the Elderly to talk nonsense. Now I don’t like to go to the University for the Elderly. I haven’t developed the next project to kill time yet.”

As he spoke, Jacob waved his hands in boredom: “Don’t talk about this. , I’m so annoyed, let’s talk about the project you mentioned, how to play it?
