

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6672

Zhang Ermao (Cade) was so smart that he immediately understood Jacob's true intention.

However, he did this not to make money, but to curry favor with Jacob, so while helping Jacob vent his anger and help him make some money, wouldn't Jacob be more grateful to himself?

So, Zhang Ermao (Cade) said without hesitation: "President Jacob, since you have contributed the money, I will give you a good portion of the profits I make at that time."

Jacob said with a smile: "Oh my, my, how can you be so embarrassed? , I definitely can't let Er Mao work in vain after making money!"

He waved his hand and said cheerfully: "Let's do this, Er Mao, I will pay for all the costs, and I will give you 20% of the net profit!"

Zhang Er Mao said with a smile ! : "President Jacob, these are things for later. I have to remind you that after you have chosen something, we have to pay for it first. When buying imitations, you have to pay for them and have them delivered, and you have to buy them and leave them. We have chosen them." After buying something, if Zhou Liangyun doesn't take the bait, then the money will be wasted. Whether it can be given to others is still unknown. You have to bear the cost, so I have to make this risk clear to you. "

Jacob . He said with a smile: "To tell you the truth, Er Mao, if I were to choose by myself, I would definitely not be sure, but don't you have to be a consultant? The whole antique street is going to say cheating, oh no, let's talk about this When it comes to packaging and storytelling, you, Zhang Ermao (Cade), are definitely the first. I believe in your vision. It's easy to deceive Zhou Liangyu with what you choose."

After that, Jacob said again: "Oh, yes . Well, to say the least, it doesn't matter if Zhou Liangyun doesn't take the bait this time. He's not the only one with money. I believe that with your ability, you can still sell it."

Jacob's words made Zhang Ermao (Cade) happy. I feel a little depressed.

He thought to himself: “Mr. Willson, he wants me to tell him the truth! Does this mean that even if he can’t deceive Zhou Liangyun, he still has to find someone to defraud him and give him the money? It’s really shameless...”

Zhang Ermao (Cade) now regrets taking the initiative to help Jacob take revenge.

Before, I just wanted to take the opportunity to do a favor with him and gain a good impression, but now it seems. If this thing didn’t work out, I would have to spend a lot of money. If I really took Jacob to spend 50,000 yuan to buy something and tried to defraud Zhou Liangyun of 500,000 yuan, if this thing didn’t work out, I would have to pay 500,000 yuan. Give it to him?

Thinking of this, Zhang Ermao (Cade) sighed in his heart: “It’s dark! It’s so damn dark!”

However, Zhang Ermao (Cade) also knew very well in his heart: “Damn this kind of thing, there is no turning back arrow, and there is no regret medicine to take. Since the matter we have already reached this point, so we can only go ahead and do it as a way to repay Master Wade’s favor.”

So, he said: “President Jacob, don’t worry, even if we fail to win Zhou Liangyun in this matter, I, Zhang Ermao (Cade), can also promise you that no matter how much money you invest, you will get back at least twice as much.”

By saying the promise of doubling, Zhang Ermao (Cade) can be regarded as setting an upper limit for his possible losses.

The purpose is to defraud Zhou Liangyun out of hundreds of thousands, so the maximum investment in this matter is only one hundred thousand yuan. If it exceeds one hundred thousand yuan, it will not be cost-effective.

You can’t spend a hundred dollars to buy a fake one hundred dollar bill and then go find a store to spend it, right? Isn’t that just a disease?

As for the cost of 100,000 yuan, Jacob must pay for it. If Zhou Liangyun refuses to take the thing, he will give 200,000 yuan to Jacob. If the thing can find the next victim, he will still make some money and will not lose money.

Jacob just received two 50,000 US dollars from Claire and Charlie yesterday. He had money in his account and confidence in his heart, so he said happily:

“Er Mao, otherwise you are more reliable! Look at us When are you going to see things? It’s not too late for him to do this. I’m going to Dubai in two days. Try to get this matter done before I go to Dubai!”

Zhang Ermao (Cade) also took the risk and said quickly: ” President, since it’s sooner rather than later, let’s just go there now!”

Jacob slapped the table: “Let’s go! Play with him!”
