By / April 16, 2024

Jacob felt happy after identifying this late Qing Dynasty bronze Buddha and its base, imitating the Xuande period.

After he transferred the 98,000 yuan to Mr. Cheng, he began to imagine what it would be like when Zhou Liangyun bought it for hundreds of thousands.

After receiving the payment, Teacher Cheng looked at the income and expenditure details. Behind the record of 98,000 yuan was the word "Jacob". He was a little confused and thought to himself: "Isn't it Mr. Murong? Why? Called Jacob?"

However, he didn't pay too much attention to it. Most of the people who deal with fake antiques are shady owners. It's normal to use a fake name to meet people.

So, he carefully wrapped the bronze Buddha and its base and handed them to Jacob, and asked politely: "I wonder if Mr. Murong has any other needs. I have a lot of good things here. May I introduce them to you?"

Jacob waved his hand: "No, just ask for this one first. This is our first time working together. I'm not sure whether your stuff is reliable or not. Let me try it first. If there is no problem, I will give it a try next time." Definitely get more."

When Teacher Cheng heard this, he couldn't help but feel disappointed, and thought to himself: "Zhang Ermao (Cade) also said that he was some kind of big shot. He only offered ninety-eight thousand when he made the move. He is not a big shot. In normal times, the price per customer is only Ninety-eight thousand customers are not qualified to come to my studio, okay?"

However, due to Zhang Ermao (Cade)'s face, he couldn't say much. He could only say politely: "Mr. Murong is right. Our first cooperation does require a process of verification and understanding. This bronze Buddha After you take it back, remember not to show it to people who have little knowledge. This thing I have is set up with smoke bombs. It is most suitable for fooling experts. Of course, it will not work for those who are too professional. Those who are too professional can still see the problem. , in fact, if you look closely at this type of vessel, there are still some subtle differences with Xuandenian's type. However, only experts who have seen a lot of genuine products, touched a lot, and played with a lot can possibly tell. So just go ahead and try to cheat, and I guarantee you will be right every time you cheat.”

Jacob nodded with satisfaction and thought to himself: “Isn’t Zhou Liangyun just such an expert? He is not really a top expert, but he does know more than the average person. It seems that this thing is tailor-made for him !”

So, he said impatiently to Zhang Ermao (Cade) on the side: “Ermao, time is short, I think we should leave quickly.”

Of course Zhang Ermao (Cade) knew how anxious Jacob was at this moment, so he immediately said: “Okay, Mr. Murong, let’s go back right now.”

After that, he said to Teacher Cheng: “Old Cheng, Mr. Murong and I will leave today. Let’s meet and talk another day.”

Teacher Cheng said hurriedly: “I’ll send you two out!”

Accompanied by Teacher Cheng, the two returned to the parking lot at the head of the village.

location, and then said goodbye to Teacher Cheng and drove back to the city.

As soon as the car drove out, Jacob, who was sitting in the passenger seat, couldn’t hold it any longer. He hurriedly asked Zhang Ermao (Cade): “Ermao, when do you think it’s appropriate for us to start? I can’t wait any longer.”

Zhang Ermao (Cade) said without hesitation: “It’s better to choose a day than to hit it. I think we’ll do it today! Today I’ll find a reliable subordinate and take this thing to Zhou Liangyun’s shop to make him look good. I believe he just returned to antiques. Judging from the situation on the street, he urgently needs a good start to boost his morale and increase his reputation, so I believe he will not let this bronze Buddha go. “

Jacob nodded repeatedly and said with a smile: “I think so, today is the most suitable day, because I am going to Dubai for a trip soon, and I am waiting for this matter to be settled before setting off. If you can handle this matter today, I will buy a ticket for tomorrow morning and go directly to Dubai!”

Zhang Ermao (Cade) said: “President Jacob, don’t worry, we will definitely take care of this matter today.”

With that said, he said to Jacob: “But President Jacob, please be more patient. If we have to handle this matter, it must be done at the last moment before Zhou Liangyun closes this evening.”

Jacob asked curiously: “Is there any explanation for this?”

Zhang Ermao (Cade) explained: “You see, although Zhou Liangyu is open for business now, there is nothing in his store, which means it is difficult for him to do any business. Even if someone comes up with something, he will not be able to do anything.” Maybe he went out to a shop that had nothing? So I speculated that no matter what time he closed today, he must not be open. Think about it, he must be a little depressed after waiting for a whole day, but At the last moment when he was about to close, business suddenly came to his door. This feeling was very surprising, so subconsciously he would want to seize this last opportunity, and his awareness of prevention would be slightly lowered.”

“One more thing, no matter how good the light is at night, you can never see things as accurately as during the day. It’s not that the brightness in his store is not enough. It’s mainly because people have overused their eyes after staying up all day. When the weather starts to get dark, When it gets dark, his eyes have reached a very tired state. At this time, it is easy to blink when looking at things, and the problem that was originally visible may not be visible. “

Having said this, Zhang Ermao (Cade) added: “In addition to these two reasons, another reason why I chose it at night is that I need the salesman to make up a story;”

“Think about it, why our people are willing to sell something with a market price of one or two million for hundreds of thousands? There must be a convincing reason;”

“So what I’m thinking is, let’s find someone and let him lie that his old man just passed away. He took this bronze Buddha out of the house secretly when the other brothers weren’t paying attention. He just wanted to keep a low profile. A little, all

I want to exchange money quickly, so I don't dare to go out for a grand transaction or directly participate in the auction;"

"There is something wrong in his heart, so he is willing to sell at a low price. There is nothing wrong with this logic. As long as he behaves sneakily, his credibility will be increased a few points."

"What is Zhou Liangyun thinking at that time? He must feel that he is really lucky. On the first day he opened the door, he met a man with a good thing who was anxious to sell it. As long as he got this thing and the price was right, Isn't this a great start? Everyone knows that everything in business is difficult at the beginning, especially the process of starting from an unknown place and laying the foundation bit by bit. It is even more difficult to become a hit. It's the best strategy and a perfect start. When the time comes, he will definitely feel that his luck is coming and he can't stop it, and his mentality will probably drift away at that time!"

"This man is not afraid of anything but drifting! As long as his heart wanders, it's over!"

"Why do you think casino operators can make money? If you give a first-time customer a small profit and let him win so many games in a row, this person will feel like he is the fucking chosen one. To be able to conquer all directions is to be able to do anything to your advantage!"

"Once he enters this state of extreme blind confidence, he can lose everything in the casino no matter how much money he has. If you want his money, you can win all his money, and if you want his house, you can If you want his wife, you can win his wife. If you want his children, you can win his children. Even if you want his life, you can win his life. "

Having said this, Zhang Ermao (Cade) smiled, looked at Jacob, and asked: "President Jacob, do you think that with the combination of these few points, plus this thing in your hand, it is possible that Zhou Liangyun will not be fooled?"

Because Zhang Ermao (Cade) also promised to give Chen Yufei of Ji Qingtang a favor, he made an agreement with Jacob that the two of them would meet in the parking lot outside the antique street around seven o'clock in the evening.

Afterwards, Zhang Ermao (Cade) first sent Jacob back to the Painting and Calligraphy Association, and then he chose a clever younger brother in his heart and asked him to familiarize himself with the lines and plot, and then take his things to Ji Qingtang.

The younger brother who was selected by Zhang Ermao (Cade) met him in the office as soon as possible. As soon as they met, Zhang Ermao (Cade) introduced to him in detail what he needed to do tonight and helped him clarify every one of them. detail.

And he does have a good way of judging people. Although the younger brother he chose has never done this kind of thing, he got started very quickly. In a short time, he had learned the entire script by heart and was able to do it flawlessly.

After making sure there was nothing wrong with this person, Zhang Ermao (Cade) called Chen Yufei.

As soon as the phone call came through, Chen Yufei was the first to ask: "Brother Ermao, how is the progress of the matter we talked about?"

Zhang Ermao (Cade) smiled and said: "Everything has been arranged, and the things and people have been found. In a while, , and when it's almost six-thirty, I will ask him to take the things to your store first. You must receive them in person, and you must get the things in person."

Chen Yufei said hurriedly: "Brother Ermao, don't worry, I've already done it. Everything is ready, the monitoring has been debugged, and there are no problems with the camera, recording, and exporting."

After that, he quickly asked: "By the way, Brother Ermao, please introduce this script to me when the time comes. How can I say it so that I can appear more professional?"

Zhang Ermao (Cade) said, "I'll introduce it to you now. Take a pen and paper and note down the key points. Don't forget it."

"No problem!" Chen Yufei was excited! , quickly got a pen and paper, and listened and memorized it.

Halfway through listening, the corners of his mouth were like ripe and fried watermelons, unable to close at all.

After hearing the second half, he even put down his pen and paper, held his mobile phone between his face and shoulders, couldn't help but applaud, and blurted out: "Brother Ermao, you are such a genius! You can come up with such a method, This guy named Zhou must die."

Zhang Ermao (Cade) chuckled, and after introducing the entire plan, he told him, "You must remember not to tell anyone about this, even in your store. You can't let them know that when word comes from the antique street that Zhu Liangyun suffered a big loss and got punched in the eye, you pretend to suddenly realize it, bring up the surveillance camera, and send it to your colleagues so that they can see clearly and take it as a clue. Jie, in this way, your reputation for being sharp-eyed and having much better professional abilities than Zhou Liangyun will spread like wildfire. If this matter reaches Miss Moore's ears, your position will be secure! "

Chen Yufei said excitedly: "Brother Ermao, you have helped me a lot. I don't know how to thank you. Don't worry, I will definitely give you a big red envelope when things are done!"

Zhang Ermao (Cade) smiled. He smiled and said casually: "As long as you have the heart."

After saying that, Zhang Ermao (Cade) thought to himself: "Your so-called big red envelope is only ten or twenty thousand if it lasts. I wish Zhou Liangyun hadn't been fooled by this matter today." , I have to pay at least 100,000 yuan to Jacob's side."

When it was almost six o'clock, Elaine called Jacob and asked him affectionately: "Hey, hubby, what do you want to eat tonight? I'll prepare it for you in advance."

Jacob chuckled and said, "Honey, my friend has something to do tonight, so I won't go home for dinner."

Elaine asked casually, "What's the matter? You sound very happy." "

Jacob said with a smile: "If this thing is done, I might earn three or four hundred thousand. If it happens, I will buy you a big diamond ring when we get to Dubai."

Elaine. Hearing that he could earn hundreds of thousands, he immediately asked excitedly: "Really? What kind of business are you doing to earn so much money?"

Jacob smiled and said: "Don't let the secret be revealed. I will tell you after it is done."

Elaine was busy Asked: "Then have you decided when we will go to Dubai?"

Jacob said: "Whether you can make it depends on tonight. Regardless of whether he can make it or not, we will leave for a while tomorrow morning, and I will give us our tickets first. After booking, the hotel will be the seven-star Burj Al Arab I told you about before. I see people bragging about how luxurious that seven-star hotel is on the Internet every day, so I want to go and see how luxurious it is. Awesome." When Elaine heard this, she danced with joy: "Oh my God, that's great! I just wanted to go quickly! Then you have to be busy tonight, and I'll pack up my things quickly!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6679

: "Bring less luggage, only bring the necessities. Apart from the necessities, we will buy the rest when we get there!"

"Okay!" Elaine was so excited that she said, "Then you hurry up and do your business. Come on, I'm going to pack my things!"

After hanging up the phone, Elaine immediately called charlie Wade.

charlie Wade was at the Champs-Élysées villa in the middle of the mountain. His grandfather and his two uncles were still discussing investment cooperation in Eastcliff. He specifically asked charlie Wade to spend more time with the old lady. It just so happened that Nanako was still practicing controlling spiritual energy in another villa, so charlie Wade came here directly.

Originally, he planned to return to the city soon, go to Claire's company to pick her up, and then go home for dinner together. Unexpectedly, Elaine called and said, "Good son-in-law, your dad has something to do tonight." He's not going home for dinner. He said he's going to Dubai tomorrow morning. Mom has to pack her things. How about you and Claire order what you want to eat and send it home in advance?"

charlie Wade asked curiously: "Didn't Dad say that the things here haven't been settled yet? Why are you leaving tomorrow?"

Elaine smiled and said: "I don't know what he planned, but he just called and said it seemed There is a business deal to be discussed tonight, whether it will happen or not depends on tonight. Regardless of whether it works or not, we will leave tomorrow morning." As soon as charlie Wade heard this, he knew that his father-in-law was definitely going to do something against Zhou Liangyun tonight.

Although he didn't know what tricks they were going to play, charlie Wade was generally not worried. After all, both Jacob and Zhang Ermao (Cade) were just shrimps in front of Zhou Liangyun.

But charlie Wade's only worry is that they don't follow martial ethics and gather a group of people to find trouble for Zhou Liangyun.

Although Zhou Liangyun has seen the world and gone through big storms, after all, he is just a frail middle-aged man with little fighting ability. Not to mention the many gangsters under Zhang Ermao (Cade), even Zhang Ermao (Cade) and Jacob can control Zhou Liangyun. He wanted to beat him up, so charlie Wade thought about it and decided to go to the antique street quietly and keep an eye on him secretly. As long as they didn't do anything, he wouldn't interfere. Once they did, he could stop them.

Thinking of this, he said to Elaine: "Mom, I won't go back to eat tonight. I'll tell Claire later that you two can order something to eat tonight."

Elaine didn't care, mainly because he couldn't take care of it. When cooking, I was afraid that charlie Wade would not have anything to eat when he came back and he would be dissatisfied. Since charlie Wade wouldn't come back to eat, then whatever happened would be fine.

So she smiled and said, "Good son-in-law, since you have to be busy too, then you should be busy with yours. I'll call Claire and ask her to order whatever she wants. We two will eat at home!"

"Okay, Mom. "

charlie hung up the phone, said goodbye to his grandmother, and drove to the antique street.

After arriving at the antique street, he walked around wearing a mask and discovered Zhou Liangyun's "Zhen Baoxuan".

"Zhen Baoxuan" still has no signboard at the moment. Only Zhou Liangyun is packing it up. Apart from old shelves and display cabinets, there are no products for sale. I guess it will take at least a month or two to get back on track. Time to prepare slowly.

charlie Wade did not go in to disturb him, but went to a teahouse not far away diagonally across the street. He found a seat with a good view on the second floor and sat down. He ordered a pot of Biluochun and drank while waiting on his seat, waiting to see himself. What bad ideas are the father-in-law and this bastard Zhang Ermao (Cade) holding back?

At half past six in the afternoon, it was getting dark.

A hurried figure trotted all the way into the antique street.

This person went straight to Jiqingtang, which is at the core of the antique street.

At this time, the manager of Ji Qingtang, Chen Yufei, was looking at the store with a few clerks. There were a few individual customers wandering around in the store. Chen Yufei left it to the other clerks to deal with, while he was anxiously waiting for the boy sent by Zhang Ermao (Cade). .

A few minutes later, a figure rushed in. As soon as he entered the door, he couldn't wait to ask: "Is the boss here? Do we collect antiques in our store?"

"Collect them, collect them!" Chen Yufei immediately greeted him enthusiastically and said Asked: "I wonder what you plan to sell?"

The man looked around, then took out something wrapped in red silk from his arms, and then he carefully opened one of the corners, revealing a gap. , letting Chen Yufei see a small part of it, then quickly covered it again, and whispered: “This is a good thing, I don’t know if you have the strength to take it down.”

Chen Yufei said with a smile: “Look at you It is said that in the whole of Jinling, if there is something that our Ji Qingtang cannot take, then no one can take it from you.”

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6680

By / April 17, 2024

As he spoke, he said with a profound look on his face: “What you just showed me. I only saw a little bit of the thing, it seems to be a base. If I read it correctly, judging from my personal experience, it should be something from the Ming Dynasty. So, please move to the VIP room, and we can discuss it in detail there. , you can let me take a closer look at the things and give you a real price.”

The man said hurriedly: “Okay! Hurry up!”

Chen Yufei invited him to the VIP room at the back and closed the door. , only the two of them were left inside.

Originally there was no surveillance in the VIP room. Ever since Jacob hit the Yu Hu Chun Ping, Jasmine had people install surveillance cameras in obvious locations.

The man came in and saw that there was a surveillance camera in the room, so he quickly asked: “Why are you still recording here? I can’t let people outside know about my coming here.”

Chen Yufei knew very well that these conversations were actually It was just an arranged script, so he smiled and said: “Don’t worry about this, this is our internal security camera. It is mainly used to keep a piece of evidence in case anyone has any disputes or objections about things.” , those who work in our industry have to be careful. If you take a piece of porcelain that is inherently defective and drop it here on purpose, and say we broke it, we will be asked to compensate according to the normal market price. If there is no monitoring, there is nothing we can do. Just make sense, right?”

The man waved his hands helplessly and said, "Okay, okay, I'm here to sell things, not to trick people. You should take a look at the things first, and if they work, give me a price as soon as possible. ."

After that, he handed the thing wrapped in red silk to Chen Yufei's hand.

Chen Yufei took the thing and looked at the Buddha statue and its matching base carefully. Then he smiled and said to the man, "Brother, are you in a hurry to get rid of this thing?"

"Yes." The man nodded and said, "As long as the price is suitable, we can make a move now."

Chen Yufei smiled thoughtfully and asked him, "What price are you going to quote for this thing?"

The man held out five fingers: "Five hundred thousand!"

"Five hundred thousand?" "Chen Yufei laughed and said: "This thing looks like a bronze Buddha from the Xuande period of the Ming Dynasty. The craftsmanship and shape are very good. If it goes to auction, it can sell for at least one or two million. Find a strong one like Ji Qingtang. If you sell it on consignment in an antique store, you can sell it for at least one million. Why are you selling it for half a million?"

The man sighed: "To be honest, this thing belongs to our old man, who just died this afternoon. Son, he asked him to leave all the antiques in the house to my eldest brother in his will. I thought that the old man was so partial, so I had to get something for myself, so I quietly took it out and wanted to sell it quickly. If you want to cash it out, you don't have to tell me whether it's worth one million or two million, or even three or five million. I'm not greedy. If you give me half a million, this thing is yours."

Chen Yufei asked him . : "Since your old man has made a will and left things to your eldest brother, and you take them out quietly, this is theft, and then this thing is stolen goods. Do you think I dare to accept it?"/

The man immediately said : "Our old man has a lot of things, and this is just one of them. Besides, my eldest brother doesn't know anything about antiques. He doesn't even know that such a thing exists or how much it is worth. Besides, if this thing is fair and honest, I won't It can't be only half a million. You know a lot of rich people in this business. If you can find a rich person to buy it for more than one million, wouldn't you make dozens or even millions? "

After that, he said with a pained face: "I've made the situation very clear to you, so I won't argue with you anymore. I'll drop another hundred thousand. If you can take the four hundred thousand, you can't. "Here, let me find someone else to look at!"

Chen Yufei sneered disdainfully and said, "Oh brother, your acting skills are indeed good, and the story is well written, but you chose the wrong person!" As the general manager of Ji Qingtang, how can you not see your tricks?"

The man's expression flashed with panic, and he quickly said: "What tricks can I do to sell things sincerely? If you want it, you can do it. If you don't want it, just give it back to me, or I won't sell it to you at worst."

Chen Yufei smiled contemptuously: "Your Buddha statue is indeed good, and the shape and workmanship are very good, but the leather shell looks artificially aged. It seems that although this thing is not a modern handicraft, it is not too old. It is the end of the late Qing Dynasty at the earliest, and maybe it is something from the early Republic of China." "But there is one thing to say, your base is really the Xuande of the Ming Dynasty. It's an old thing with a large door that's 20 years old. Unfortunately, it's just a base. Without the main body, the base isn't worth much. It's only worth a few tens of thousands of yuan. So I think this thing of yours is worth nothing at most. It's worth 70,000 to 80,000 yuan, and you sold it to me for 500,000 yuan, and you made it seem like you left a big leak in my hands. Aren't you treating me like a fool?"

The man suddenly panicked and said quickly: "This...this...you...how did you see this? "

"Joke. " "Chen Yufei said arrogantly: "I have been fooling around for so many years. If I can't even see your tricks, wouldn't all these years have been in vain? "

With that said, he threw the things back to the other party and said coldly: "Brother, if you want to trick me, you are still too young. Go back and practice hard for a few more years! "

The man took the things and said nervously and fearfully: "I'm sorry, boss, I'm just a young man who doesn't know the truth, and I'm trying to do everything in front of you. Please don't be as knowledgeable as a loser like me... .."

Chen Yufei waved his hands in disgust: "Okay, take your things and get out. "

"Hey! "The man hurriedly put the things in his arms and ran away from the door without looking back.

Chen Yufei turned his back to the camera, with a secretly happy face, and sighed in his heart: "Damn, it turns out this is what it feels like to rely on technology to show off. , even though I knew it was an act, it was really fun! "

Thinking of this, he became more dramatic, looked at the direction in which the man was escaping, and sneered: "There is no antique liar smarter than me, Chen Yufei, yet born yet! "

After that, he closed the door of the VIP room and returned to the lobby.

After the man escaped from the Jiqing Hall, he walked around on the antique street with his things.

At this time, Zhou Liangyun was just about to close his shop. He planned to go to the supermarket to purchase some daily necessities and arrange the second floor where he lived. The man just happened to sneak up to the door of his store. He looked up and saw Zhou Liangyun, surrounded by people. Looking at each other, he lowered his voice and asked mysteriously: "Boss, are you collecting things here?"
