In the antique business, anything that is not visible to the public is usually traded at night when it is closed.

This is especially true for those who sell antiques in stores.

Generally speaking, most of the things that are sold at night are freshly dug out of the ground, or stolen or robbed from others. Of course, there are also those who specialize in using fake goods to deceive people.

Although Zhou Liangyun has been growing and starting a business overseas, he had already understood many of the unspoken rules in this circle during the last time he came to Aurous Hill.

Seeing that the other person's face was full of vigilance and that something seemed to be wrapped in his arms, he knew that the things this person was holding would most likely not be seen in the light.

In fact, the antiquities industry has similar methods all over the world, such as tomb robbery, fraud, and grafting. Europeans and Americans are also very familiar with this game, so Zhou Liangyun has definitely seen it before.

However, he did not show his vigilance, but said with a smile: "Take it, of course, come on, let's talk inside!"

With that, he quickly invited the man into his store.

At the same time, in the parking lot outside Antique Street, Jacob and Zhang Ermao (Cade) had already watched the simultaneous live broadcast.

However, the picture at this time was completely dark, and the sound was very fragmentary and messy, so it was impossible to tell the reason.

Zhang Ermao (Cade) explained to Jacob who was beside him: "President Jacob, I think my little brother has put his mobile phone in his pocket, so it's not so clear. But don't worry, when he takes out his mobile phone, we will be able to be normal here." I saw it."

Jacob nodded repeatedly and said with a smile: "Nowadays, science and technology are really advanced. This kind of thing is the high-end equipment used by spies in the past. I thought it was all fabricated, but I didn't expect it to make people laugh. It's made."

Zhang Ermao (Cade) smiled and said, "Oh, what's this? I see that President Jacob doesn't go online often. You don't get used to this kind of thing a few years ago."

At the same time, the man had been invited into the store by Zhou Liangyun.

After he came in, he found that there was nothing in the store. It was empty, so he asked with some doubts: "Boss, are you open for business? Why is there nothing in the store?"

Zhou Liangyun smiled and said: "This is my store. It's just opened, but it's not actually opened. I just put it down and thought it was idle, so I put up the sign first. After a while, I collected more and more things, and naturally there was a dazzling array of things. "

After that, he added: "But this does not affect my acceptance. As long as you have good things, I will definitely accept them, and the price will be very fair."

At this point, Zhou Liangyun looked at him and said with a smile. There is no one else here, can you take out the things for me to see?"

The man nodded, sat down in front of Zhou Liangyun, then took out the bronze Buddha and the base from his pocket, and handed them over with the red silk cloth. In the hands of Zhou Liangyun.

After handing out the bronze Buddha, he also took out his cell phone and placed it on the table.

Jacob and Zhang Ermao (Cade) in the parking lot immediately saw the live broadcast from Zhang Ermao (Cade)'s mobile phone.

The SIM card slot of the phone is facing Zhou Liangyun, and the lens has a bit of a wide-angle effect, so Zhou Liangyun appears in the picture.

As soon as Jacob saw Zhou Liangyun's face, he gritted his teeth angrily and cursed: "Damn it, it's this bastard! I'm going to get angry when I see his face!"

Zhang Ermao (Cade) quickly comforted him: "President Jacob, don't be angry again. It's not worth it if you're so angry. Besides, aren't we just here to take revenge on him? Just look at it, we will definitely ruin his fortune and reputation!”

Jacob nodded, a little excited and a little nervous. He clenched his fists and gritted his teeth: “Success or failure depends on the next few dozen minutes!”

In Zhen Baoxuan.

Zhou Liangyun opened the red silk bronze Buddha in front of the man and in front of the camera. After opening it, a trace of surprise flashed in his eyes, but it quickly disappeared without a trace.

While playing with the bronze Buddha, he asked: “Do you know where this thing comes from?”

The man said: “You know, isn’t this a bronze Buddha made in the Xuande year of the Ming Dynasty? There are patterns on the base. “

Zhou Liangyun looked at him and asked curiously: “Are you sure it was made in the Xuande year of the Ming Dynasty?”

The man thought that Zhou Liangyun had found a clue, and said quickly: “Our old man looked at it before, and the expert said it was. The thing with the big door looks real at first glance! To tell you the truth, I want to sell it because our old man just passed away today, and I have to get this thing out before my elder brother takes stock of his inheritance.”

He said. The compiled story was explained to Zhou Liangyun in more detail.

Zhou Liangyun nodded and said casually: “I don’t think this thing has the characteristics of the Ming Dynasty. The bronze Buddhas of the Ming Dynasty, especially the bronze Buddhas of the Xuanden year, seem to be a bit different from this in terms of their manufacturing process and shape characteristics. “

When the man heard this, he suddenly became nervous and said in a uncertain tone: “How...how could it be...the things that experts have seen before are from the Ming Dynasty ? Ah, if this thing goes to auction, it will be worth at least two million.”

After that, he quickly added: "Look carefully at the base, it is made in the Ming Dynasty."

Zhou Liangyun smiled: "The base is. Open the door, but this bronze Buddha..."

At this point, Zhou Liangyun suddenly stopped.

Jacob and Zhang Ermao (Cade) were watching the live broadcast in the car with their hearts in their throats.

Jacob asked anxiously: "I said Ermao... Could this bastard named Zhou have noticed it?!"

Zhang Ermao (Cade) was also a little unsure and whispered: "This... ..It shouldn't be...What Teacher Cheng and the others have created, let alone ordinary people, even experts from our Aurous Hill Museum, without the assistance of professional equipment and long-term careful observation, alone It's impossible not to find some clues with the naked eye."

Jacob said quickly: "Er Mao, although we have a good relationship, we still have one code and one code. This idea was yours. If this thing can't be sold, you have to find a way to give it to me. I'll sell it for 200,000 yuan."

Zhang Ermao (Cade) cursed in his heart, but said very cheerfully: "President Jacob, don't worry, since I have agreed to this matter, I will definitely take care of it to the end, Mr. Zhou. If you don't want to buy it, I will definitely find a buyer to buy it for 200,000 yuan. If no one wants to buy it, I, Zhang Ermao (Cade), will pay for it myself."

Jacob felt relieved, nodded and said, "He is not here before, mainly. I don't want this bastard named Zhou to escape again."

Inside Zhen Baoxuan's store.

When the man saw Zhou Liangyun mentioning the Bronze Buddha, he stopped talking. He hesitated and asked him again: "What do you think happened to the Bronze Buddha?"

Zhou Liangyun said: "It's the same thing I said just now, I don't think it is something from the Ming Dynasty. "

The man's cold sweat oozed from his pores. He was afraid that Zhou Liangyun would see it, so he leaned back subconsciously, and then said, "What about that, please take a closer look."

Zhou Liangyun saw the other person's nervousness and anxiety, and also said. Seeing the beads of sweat on his forehead and temples, he smiled lightly, took out a piece of paper and handed it over, saying with a smile: "Don't be nervous, wipe off the sweat first." As soon as these words came out, no matter it was This little acting guy, Jacob and Zhang Ermao (Cade) in the car couldn't help but feel a little thump in their hearts, thinking to themselves, they must have been spotted.

The younger brother was already stumbling a little, and he concealed it awkwardly: "No... I'm not nervous... I... I'm really from the Ming Dynasty, I didn't lie to you... ...

Zhang Ermao (Cade) couldn't help but cursed at the screen in the car: "Damn waste! The more you can't be nervous at this time, what the hell are you thinking about? Isn't this just a trap for Zhou?" Damn it!"

Jacob was also very angry, gritted his teeth and cursed: "Oh my god, I didn't expect this bastard to be a f*cking old fox, f*ck him!"

After that, he waved his hand and said, "Let's count the balls. , I'll go home and pack my things. I'll go to the airport to fly to Dubai early tomorrow morning. Please remember to help me deal with the bronze Buddha as soon as possible. Just give me the money later."

After saying that, he opened the door and got out of the car.

Zhang Ermao (Cade) said helplessly and apologetically: "I'm sorry, President Jacob, it doesn't matter if this matter is dirty, please let me think about it again, I will definitely come up with a way to mess with him!" Jacob ignored him and threw a leg He had already stepped outside the car. Unexpectedly, at this time, Zhou Liangyun's voice came from Zhang Ermao (Cade)'s mobile phone: "You really don't need to be nervous. I'm not saying you lied to me. I just feel that this bronze Buddha does not have the characteristics of the Ming Dynasty. Some are like the characteristics of the Northern Song Dynasty. “

“Northern...Northern Song Dynasty?” The man was confused. He was not very good at history and couldn't help but ask: “When was the Northern Song Dynasty?”

Zhou Liangyun explained: “ The period from 960 to 1127 AD was the Northern Song Dynasty, and the period from 1127 to 1279 was the Southern Song Dynasty. If I look at it, your bronze Buddha is at least four hundred years older than Xuande. “

In the car.

When Jacob heard this, he raised his buttocks and sat back down. Then he pulled back his outgoing leg and asked Zhang Ermao (Cade) in surprise: “Ermao, is that bronze Buddha from the Northern Song Dynasty?!

” Er Mao was stunned for a moment, then came back to his senses and cursed: “Bah! This idiot is from the Northern Song Dynasty. Why didn't he say he was from the Northern Wei Dynasty? He's talking nonsense.”

Jacob said: “It's not the Zhou surname. “What if it's really from the Northern Song Dynasty?”

Zhang Ermao (Cade) asked him, “President Jacob, you are also a veteran in the antique circle. You must have heard of many pick-ups. ” It's leaky, but have you ever heard of someone who can pick up a leaky thing from a counterfeit seller? Teacher Cheng is the master of counterfeiting, can he tell when this thing was made?”

Jacob asked: “What if he got a punch in the eye? After all, he also said that the skin of the bronze Buddha had been destroyed when he collected it. What if it interfered with his judgment?”

Zhang Ermao (Cade) waved his hand: “Impossible. President Jacob, it's impossible to catch his eye. Don't listen to his stories. In the antique business, you can listen to any story. You can't believe it. I used to deceive foreigners with the Mona Lisa in the style of Chinese painting. Well, I f*cking admire myself for making up that story.”

After that, Zhang Ermao (Cade) came again: “Do you really believe that Teacher Cheng said that the skin of the bronze Buddha was damaged when he collected it? That’s all, why don’t we make up a story to tell Zhou Liangyun that this thing is an ancestral inheritance from my little brother’s family? Maybe Teacher Cheng refurbished it from a handicraft, and then made up a story to defraud us of 100,000 yuan.”

Jacob was anxious. , asked him: “Then you still want me to buy it? Isn’t this a hundred thousand yuan thrown at him in vain?”

Zhang Ermao (Cade) quickly explained: “I mean maybe, it’s possible, but it doesn’t necessarily mean that it’s certain! Besides, , you won’t suffer any loss if you buy it. I, Zhang Ermao (Cade), will tell you what you will suffer. If you suffer a loss, I will suffer a loss.”

Jacob quickly explained: “I, Jacob, am not afraid of suffering a loss. I don’t want others to fool me. I’m not happy if people fool me.” As he said that, he expressed his worries: “Er Mao, I’m not complaining about you or questioning you, I just want to say, is it possible that that thing is really from the Northern Song Dynasty

He said with great certainty: “Impossible, absolutely impossible!”

As he said that, Zhang Ermao (Cade) knew that Jacob’s suspicious and indecisive character, as well as his self-confidence that he thought he was possessed by the god of luck, had been activated by Zhou Liangyun’s words, and Then he continued: “President Jacob, let’s change the metaphor. Is it possible for you to buy a real Hermès in a counterfeit Hermès workshop? Besides, it doesn’t mean that he is going to a counterfeit Hermès workshop to buy a real Hermès. That’s outrageous. “It’s like you went to a counterfeit Hermès workshop and bought a Hermès that was used and signed by the Queen of Britain during her lifetime. Isn’t this pure nonsense?”

Jacob held his chin and said solemnly: “What do you mean? “It does make sense, but you said that the man named Zhou suddenly said that the bronze Buddha was from the Song Dynasty. What was his intention?”

Zhang Ermao (Cade) shook his head and said, “I don’t know. I guess this bastard has figured out that we are playing tricks on him.” ” Yeah, he is definitely trying to take advantage of us!”

“That makes sense.” Jacob nodded and said, “I think he’s just playing tricks on us. This guy is so f*cking difficult to deal with. ” ah!

At this time, Zhang Ermao (Cade)’s boy in the store was completely confused.

He couldn’t help but think to himself: “Brother Ermao told me before I came here. I am here to deceive people. I have to pretend that something from the late Qing Dynasty or the early Republic of China is from the Ming Dynasty, and then sell it at a high price.” Give it to the guy in front of you. Now this guy says it is from the Song Dynasty. What the hell does that mean?”

In doubt, he subconsciously asked: “Boss, if this thing is really from the Song Dynasty as you said, how much is it worth? Money?”

Zhou Liangyun thought for a moment and said: “The bronze wares of the Southern Song Dynasty are actually relatively unpopular. It’s not that no one buys them or likes to play with them. It’s mainly because the Southern Song Dynasty had to resist foreign enemies all the time. Part of the copper was used for war. In addition, the metallurgical conditions were limited at that time, and the output of copper was very low. Therefore, there was naturally less copper that could be used among the people, and most of it was bronze. Such high quality The bronzes are very rare;”

“High-quality bronzes generally use gilt craftsmanship. The gilt bronzes of the Northern Song Dynasty are now items that can be entered into museums, and the price is very high. The theme of your bronze Buddha is Venerable Subintuo, the appearance is indeed not very good. I guess that when it was handed down, later generations did not understand it and kept it improperly, so they severely damaged the leather case. After the damage, it was artificially aged;”

said this , Zhou Liangyun added: “But even if it is destroyed, it can still be seen that the craftsmanship of this bronze Buddha is very strong. It was definitely a very remarkable thing in that era, and judging from this type of vessel and craftsmanship, it was The thing must be entirely gilded, but unfortunately, the gilding is all gone.”

“According to my estimation, only royal families or large temples had such bronze Buddha statues at that time. A similar one was sold at the Beijing auction more than ten years ago. The gilt bronze Buddha. At that time, the shape of the bronze Buddha was not as good as this one. It cost 20 million yuan. The 20 million yuan at that time was definitely worth 100 million yuan now. So if it is placed now If the leather case is evaluated in the market, even if the leather case is damaged, I estimate that the market price will not be less than 20 million yuan. If the leather case is well preserved, I conservatively estimate that there is hope of selling it at an auction for more than 80 million yuan. “

Jacob and Zhang Ermao (Cade) yelled at the same time: ” You idiot! What a fucking fool

After scolding, Jacob said angrily: “Damn, stop playing! Go home! Pay back 80 million! Damn it, why doesn’t this grandson say it’s worth 800 million? Damn it, you have nothing to do but learn to play tricks on others.” Play!”

Zhang Ermao (Cade) was also very angry and yelled angrily: “You look like a dog, but you are so fucking evil!”

But no one expected that Zhou Liangyun’s next words would confuse the two of them again.

He said to the man: “If you can wait, you can give the thing to me for consignment. After selling it, I will give you 10%, which is 10%, and the rest will be yours. What do you think?”

Jacob Stunned, he asked Zhang Ermao (Cade): “What on earth does this grandson want to do? Is he addicted to acting?”

Zhang Ermao (Cade) shook his head: “I don’t understand... Could he be trying to trick us into keeping things?” Come down and take advantage of us, right?”

Jacob asked, “Didn’t you say that the antique trade is willing to admit defeat and the police won’t care about it?”

Zhang Ermao (Cade) said, “He wants to sell it on consignment now, and it doesn’t cost him anything. Let’s keep the thing first. What if he doesn’t call the police and exposes it to the whole industry? He has the insight to see through the scam and is famous. What the hell are we going to do? Do we still want this thing? If you want it, do you dare to go to him to ask for it? “

” Damn it.” Jacob said hurriedly: “Then why are you standing there? Hurry up and get the things back!”

Zhang Ermao (Cade) gritted his teeth and said to Jacob: ” “Come on, it’s already like this. Why don’t you go out and give it a try?”

Jacob asked, “How?”

Zhang Ermao (Cade) muttered, “It doesn’t matter if he wants to play with us or leave evidence to be exposed in the industry.” Well, as long as we can get him to pay, won’t we win? In the final analysis, isn’t it just to get him to pay? Even if he doesn’t get exposed, we will get exposed!”

As he spoke, he took out another mobile phone and sent a WeChat message to his younger brother.

The younger brother’s cell phone rang. He picked it up and took a look at it. Then he put it back and said to Zhou Liangyun: “Boss, I really can’t wait any longer. If I wait any longer, this thing will no longer be mine, and I won’t care about him.” Is it from the Ming Dynasty, the Song Dynasty, or the Tang Dynasty? I want to sell it today, just for 500,000. Do you want it or not? If you want it, take it. If you don’t want it, I’ll find another one!”

asked Jacob in the car ! Zhang Ermao (Cade): “Will it work? He has obviously figured it out, and he will still spend money to buy it?”

Zhang Ermao (Cade) said casually: “A dead horse is a living horse doctor. Let’s take a step back and say, what if this grandson really Do you think it’s from the Northern Song Dynasty? Wouldn’t it be an eyesore if he bought it? Now that we’ve reached this point, let’s just ask him directly if he wants to buy it. If he doesn’t buy it, we’ll just take it and leave. You don’t have to worry if it can’t be sold anyway. , I will personally give you 200,000 yuan.”

Jacob was relieved, but he quickly said: “This is not all about money...”

At this time, Zhou Liangyun in the store looked at the young man. He opened his mouth and said: "You have to think clearly, this is something worth tens of millions. Are you really willing to sell it for only 500,000?"

The younger brother nodded and said firmly: "Don't say it is worth tens of millions. I don't care if it's hundreds of billions, I want half a million today!"

Zhou Liangyun sighed and said, "To be honest, I really want to take this stuff from you, but I really don't have that much in my hand!" I have cash. Look, I have nothing in this store. The place I want to live upstairs has not been released yet. I still have to keep a hundred and eighty thousand in my hand, so I can't take out anything. It's only two to three hundred thousand."

As he said that, he said to the person very frankly: "How about this? I have a fair proposal. I'll give you a share of this thing, and I'll give you two hundred and fifty thousand. Let's draw up an agreement. Each of us will own 50% of the stuff. Once it's sold, no matter how much it costs, you can keep half of it!
