Chen Yufei had already cut out the surveillance video and was waiting for the good news about Zhang Ermao ( Cade ).

He watched the video several times, and the more he watched it, the more he admired the person in the video who had a keen eye for identifying fakes. He felt that his performance was really awesome and he was a complete master. Moreover, all the details were explained in a clear and logical way. , can't fault it at all.

Hearing Zhang Ermao ( Cade ) say that Zhou Liangyun had actually punched the bronze Buddha, he was extremely excited.

Originally, everything was ready except for the east wind, but now, the east wind has come.

So, he immediately called all his trustworthy associates in front of him and said to them with excitement: "Brothers, hurry up and spread the word, Zhou Liangyun is blinded! He spent 300,000 to buy a fake Xuande Nian Bronze Buddha! "

The guys didn't know what was going on here. They just heard Chen Yufei say that someone came to sell fake bronze Buddhas, but he saw through it and drove him away. Now they heard that Zhou Liangyun bought a fake bronze Buddha, so someone asked: "Manager, Zhou Liangyun shouldn't have bought the bronze Buddha that the person used to deceive you just now, right?" Chen Yufei nodded and said with a smile: "That's right! He bought it for 300,000! Although our antique street sells it every day Everyone has been fooled, but there has been a time when no one has been fooled in such a big way, right? "

"That's..." A guy said with a smile: "The antique business has been hard to do in the past two years, and everyone wants to pick up the leaks. I am not willing to spend money anymore. In the past, it was said that a thing could be sold for 10 million yuan, and it might be possible to defraud the scammer into paying 1.8 million yuan. Now most people hope to buy something of value for 180 yuan. With tens of millions of dollars, the life of a liar is not easy."

After that, the man said doubtfully: “Based on my impression of Zhou Liangyun, he shouldn’t be that stupid, right? “Have you been cheated?”

Chen Yufei said with a smile: “Oh, this is what people often say about hunting geese all day long. Zhou Liangyun just returned to Jinling Antique Street, and he must have wanted to quickly make a deal and pick it up in the antique street. It’s a big leak and an instant success. If you think like this, it will be easier to be fooled.”

In a place like this, as long as any gossip is posted, a bunch of people will immediately forward it to a bunch of groups, and the news will spread as fast as the speed of light.

So, under the operation of a group of thoughtful people, just a few minutes later, this antique street, which had begun to rest with the night, suddenly started to boil!

A businessman was defrauded of 300,000 yuan!

The boss is still Zhou Liangyun, the general manager of Jiqingtang!

Some people secretly thought: “When did Zhou Liangyun come back?”

Others thought it was a joke: “After all, someone who has been the general manager of Ji Qingtang can also get an eye shot. What a joke!”

There were also many people . Sighing: “Zhou Liangyun threw away 300,000 yuan, how can he gain a foothold in the antique street in the future? Moreover, the antique street has not seen such a large amount of fake transactions for a long time!”

In many WeChat groups, merchants and clerks from all walks of life And the vendors all began to ask a question: “How did Zhou Liangyun get deceived?”

Chen Yufei did not immediately release the video at this time, but found other people to spread the news in various groups, claiming that Zhou Liangyun bought a replica of Xuande from the Ming Dynasty. I thought I had picked up a big leak in the bronze Buddha, but I didn’t expect that I had stepped on a big hole.

As soon as this news came out, various groups began to ridicule Zhou Liangyun, feeling that this person was really too trusting.

Someone said: "Zhou Liangyun just returned to the antique street to open a shop, and he wanted to pick up a million-dollar leak. How is it possible? If such a good thing really happened, wouldn't everyone get rich? What the hell are you daydreaming about?"

Someone echoed: "That's right! If a real bronze Buddha made in the Xuande year of the Ming Dynasty is worth at least one or two million, how can it be bought for only 300,000? Does he think he is the Ma Ye of the capital?"

Someone else said: "Today's antique industry is no longer as profitable as it was when the famous Jingcheng Ma Ye first debuted! Even if Jingcheng Ma Ye goes out on his own, it will be difficult to make big mistakes."

One person immediately said: "Yes. That's right. In Mr. Ma's era, there was limited information and lack of materials. The common people took the good things handed down from their ancestors without realizing it. Antique collectors only needed to carry some cash and food stamps and walk around the streets, and they could make great money. We can get official kiln porcelain from the Ming and Qing dynasties at a low price, and even top-quality blue and white flowers from the Yuan Dynasty."

"I'm not exaggerating when I say that in the villages around the capital, there were even a lot of Yuan blue and white flowers on the plates used by the old ladies feeding their dogs. If you had exchanged a large aluminum pot for her in that era, she would have picked up the pot and run away, fearing that you would regret it. But what you exchanged for a large aluminum pot might even be auctioned at auction today. One hundred million! It's a pity that I wasn't born in that era, otherwise I would have gotten rich and opened a museum!"

Chen Yufei sent a voice message at this time, echoing: "Yeah! That's right! Our antique industry is not what it used to be. It has entered the information age twenty or thirty years ago. In the information age, anyone can find out some relevant information. How can Manager Zhou just sell good things at a low price? It's too reckless, it shouldn't be!"

As he said that, he added: "In today's society, I can see clearly that everyone has a dream of getting rich. When I bought the company at a low price, I had actually seen so many other people's sudden wealth stories. I had already digged up the graves of my ancestors eight times and dug three feet into the ground to find treasures.”

“In this case, don’t say you want to be low. He wanted to buy other people’s good things at a low price, otherwise who would sell the 8,800 national jade seals on TV shopping? Wouldn’t they all be sold to these dreaming fools? “

Many people immediately ? Praise:

“Manager hit the nail on the head!”

“It has to be Manager ! He really understands people!”

“It seems that Miss moore driving Zhou Liangyun away and letting Manager take over Ji Qingtang is the most correct choice! Manager ‘s level is better than Zhou Liangyun I don’t know how much higher!”

Chen Yufei immediately became interested when he saw everyone praising him, and said with a smile: “You are all praising me so much, I would also like to share with you a little personal opinion. In fact, we have a little understanding of this industry. Everyone knows that after entering the information age, it is very difficult to think about buying good things at low prices;”

“So now many people with ulterior motives have begun to change their minds. Since I can’t pick up other people’s mistakes, then I will simply Make some and let others pick them up;”

“So, the jade seals of Chuan Guo, the royal wine of Qianlong, the imperial pen of Kangxi, and the wooden fish of Shunzhi all came into being, and they were all fools who had dreams of getting rich!”

Someone immediately agreed ! Said: “Oh, Manager said it well! There will never be a shortage of fools like this in this world. I met such a fool last week. The jade I bought in my store for 1,800 yuan sold to him for a minimum of 4,000 yuan.” He thought it was expensive, so he went back to spend 20,000 yuan to buy a marble jade seal. That stupid thing only costs 200 yuan including postage.”

Another person said: “Manager , please tell us a few words ! , Speak more words of advice, and we should also learn to be more vigilant and prepared!”

Chen Yufei smiled and said: “Everyone, in today’s environment, the antique industry has long been as popular as used cars in the upper reaches. It’s nearly transparent. No matter how thieves or deceitful second-hand car dealers are, it’s hard to deceive sellers when they take over the car. Most of them can only defraud the seller when selling the car.

” Si sold the price of a nearly new car, but it is impossible for him to buy a nearly new Rolls-Royce for the price of a soaked Rolls-Royce. Therefore, when we open a store in Antique Street, we must first have an awareness that the entire It’s hard to miss in the antique industry!”

Soon, the entire process of Chen Yufei’s acting was sent to the industry group.

People who eat melons can’t wait for it. As soon as the video was received, they immediately clicked to watch it.

In the video, Chen Yufei’s acting skills are at their peak. No one can see the slightest bit of acting. But in the video, everyone can also see that the bronze Buddha does look like a good thing. If it is really held in front of him, what will happen? If you don’t do well, you will be deceived.

And when everyone saw that Chen Yufei could easily see through the opponent’s tricks, they couldn’t help but admire him. As the saying goes, an expert can tell when he makes a move. Chen Yufei vividly explained the true meaning of this sentence in the video.

No matter how well the counterfeiters disguise the item, it is impossible to deceive the real experts. Just like Chen Yufei, just by looking at it, he can see that this item is a modern object that has been aged, and it is equipped with a base made in the Xuande year of the Ming Dynasty. Confusing information.

This also made many practitioners look at Chen Yufei with admiration.

Since Chen Yufei took over Ji Qingtang, Ji Qingtang’s performance has been declining, so some people have always thought that Chen Yufei’s personal ability was not good enough. But this time, everyone deeply realized that Chen Yufei's personal strength is sufficient. The reason for the decline in performance is probably The industry is in a slump and nothing good has come across. No wonder Chen Yufei.

For a time, the compliments for him in the group were overwhelming.

Chen Yufei was extremely proud. In his opinion, after tonight, he will be the most handsome boy in the entire antique street. The legend about himself will definitely become more amazing as it continues to spread, which will help enhance his status in the industry. , undoubtedly of great help.

At this time, someone in the group suggested: "Manager Chen, my short video account has more than 10,000 fans. Please verbally authorize me and I will post this video to my video account. Maybe you can become popular!"

Chen Yufei hurriedly went to see each one one by one to see who had more fans. Then he gritted his teeth and used his own money to secretly invest 5,000 yuan in promoting this video posted by the person with the most fans.

In his opinion, although five thousand yuan is painful, it is definitely worth it to promote himself.

And Chen Yufei is very calculating. When he invested in promotion, he specifically defined the scope of promotion. He only promoted local users in Aurous Hill.

The reason why he only promotes local users is because he knows very well that the traffic that can be bought for five thousand yuan is not much. If the scope is not defined, the traffic will be too scattered.

Now that I am involved in the Aurous Hill antique circle, I naturally first find a way to increase my reputation in Aurous Hill. It is best to package myself as a local antique master in Aurous Hill, so that it can slowly penetrate into the whole province and the entire eastern China region. Finally, It's nationwide.

Therefore, it is most cost-effective to let as many local Aurous Hill users see you first.

In addition, he also has another thought, that is, if Jasmine, the chairman of the Moore Group, sees this video, he will definitely look at him with admiration. If Jasmine can take him seriously, then his career will be just around the corner!

Soon, the video blessed with 5,000 yuan became popular in Aurous Hill.

The video quickly exceeded 10,000 views, and then exceeded 50,000 within minutes.

Almost all the comments were praising Chen Yufei. They felt that this person was indeed very professional and that he could detect such a cunning liar at a glance.

Chen Yufei sent the video link to Zhang Ermao ( Cade ), who opened the video and started playing it in front of Jacob.

Jacob didn't know that Zhang Ermao ( Cade ) had other security, so he asked curiously: "Ermao, what is this?"

Zhang Ermao ( Cade ) smiled and said: "President Jacob, don't you want Zhou Liangyun to be ruined? I can't be fooled." Send the video, but you can send a comparison video to make him look even more stupid!" As he said that, he handed the phone to Jacob and said, "Look, Zhou Liangyun will definitely become even more shameless after this video comes out

Looking at the person in the picture, he said in surprise: "Isn't this the current manager Chen of Ji Qingtang?"

"Yes." Zhang Ermao ( Cade ) nodded: "That's him. Originally, his professional ability was definitely not as good as Zhou Liangyun, but Such an operation will make people think that Zhou Liangyun is far worse than him. Zhou Liangyun will not be able to work in the store in the future, and there is no chance of finding a job in an antique shop in Aurous Hill! "

Jacob is not smart enough to realize that Zhang Ermao ( Cade ) is a piece of cake ! The matter was a favor between the two of them. I felt that Zhang Ermao ( Cade ) was more thoughtful and sinister than me, so he smiled and said: "Er Mao, Er Mao, it has to be you!"

Zhang Ermao ( Cade ) chuckled and said: " President Jacob, Zhou Liangyun's reputation will be completely ruined tonight. I think he will have to pack up and get out early tomorrow morning! If he insists on doing it here, he will definitely lose money! There are still more than ten or two hundred thousand, and there is not even a cent left after paying the rent. I will definitely not be able to bear it by then!"

"Okay, okay!" Jacob nodded proudly and said with a smile: "I'm going to see Zhou Liangyun, don't do this! My grandson can't stand it tonight and gets out. Then there will be no chance to see him!"

Zhang Ermao ( Cade ) said hurriedly: "President Jacob, go see him. If he guesses that this matter is related to you, won't he hold a grudge? you?"
