At this time, Zhen Baoxuan was packed with twenty or thirty people, but it was extremely quiet inside. No one spoke, only the sound of everyone's breathing and the sound of clothes rubbing together as they passed things around.

And just as these people were taking turns to pass the bronze Buddha, Jacob and Elaine had already started to board the plane.

Since they were traveling in first class, they boarded the plane directly ahead of most passengers at the first class gate.

This Boeing 777 passenger aircraft has a large passenger capacity. A double corridor bridge dedicated to wide-body aircraft is used on the ground to connect the aircraft. First class, business class passengers and economy class passengers use different boarding channels, and the boarding of the two classes is The passage leads directly to the front of the aircraft, and the economy class boarding passage leads to the connection between the two cabins and the economy class. Therefore, when the two people board the plane through the VIP passage, the economy class passengers are already in front of the boarding gate. There was a long queue of more than two hundred people.

As Elaine walked, she looked back and sighed to Jacob: "It's great to have money! In the past, we had to be like them when we went out. No matter how many people there were, we had to wait in a long queue. When there were many people, we had to queue for half an hour. They couldn't even get on the plane, but now they have money to fly first class. Although they are still sitting on the same plane as them, they have no contact with them at all. They boarded the plane earlier than them and got off the plane earlier than them. Even I queued up to pick up my luggage, and my luggage was shipped out earlier than them. Looking back at the time I lived at Willson's house, it was nothing like life at all, it was like living in ruins!"

Jacob said with a smile: "It's not like we haven't flown in business class before. Have you forgotten that we traveled to Liangdu a few years ago? Didn't we fly in business class?"

Elaine curled her lips: "Forget about the business class at a special price. What's the point of business class on a small plane? It's just like the first class and second class seats on the high-speed rail. There is no difference. To talk about first class, you have to have something you can only enjoy when sitting on a big plane on an international route.”

Jacob nodded and said with a smile: “Ah, don’t worry, I, Lao Willson, will be ready to leave the country officially when I come back from Dubai this time. If I don’t have anything to do, I can spend more time messing around with antiques. Maybe I can earn several million a year. By then, I’ll buy first class to take you to the Maldives and Australia!”

Elaine said with a smile: “That’s good, I’ve always wanted to go to the Maldives. If I weren’t afraid of bumping into Matilda and the others, I wouldn’t go to Dubai this time.”

Speaking of Matilda, Elaine suddenly became depressed again. She waved her hand and said, “Don’t mention that fox.”

As soon as she took her seat, Elaine couldn’t help complaining to the respectful stewardess beside her: “They say Emirates is the best airline in the world. But today, it’s just like that. The seats on your plane are so comfortable. It’s far worse than that Gulfstream G650.”

The flight attendant squatted and knelt beside her legs, and said very apologetically: “I’m sorry, Ms. , I’m really sorry to make you feel so disappointed. Our Emirates airline has always been ranked among the top 5 in the world among public airlines. We Its hardware level is among the best among public airlines in the world. However, the Gulfstream G650 you mentioned is a private jet. There is no upper limit on the internal modification of private jets, so it may not be comparable to public airlines like us, but you can Rest assured, we will definitely provide you with the best in-flight service on this flight.”

Elaine is actually very satisfied with the environment here. The reason why he mentioned the Gulfstream G650 is just to show off and put some money on his face.

Seeing that there was nothing wrong with the flight attendant’s attitude, Elaine said arrogantly: “Go back and tell your leaders to make suggestions. We should upgrade this first class cabin to a luxurious first class cabin. It’s not like we can’t afford it.”

The stewardess said quickly: "I will definitely report your suggestion to the company..."

Elaine nodded with satisfaction, waved his hand and said, "Okay, go and do your work."

As if she had been granted amnesty, the flight attendant respectfully said, "You can call me anytime if you need anything."

After the stewardess left, Jacob asked Elaine curiously: "Is the private jet very luxurious?"

Elaine rolled her eyes at him: "Didn't you see the WeChat Moments I posted at that time?"

Jacob said subconsciously: "I didn't pay attention."

Elaine wanted to scold him for being

Shi's heart was definitely not with him, but then he thought about it, since the two of them had reconciled, he would stop stirring up trouble with this monster, so he said: "From now on, you must like and comment on every post in my circle of friends. , otherwise I'll be in a hurry with you!"

Jacob quickly said: "No problem!"

While taking pictures of various details in the first-class cabin, Elaine asked Jacob: "How long until it takes off?"

Jacob looked at the time and said, "It's probably time to close the cabin door in 20 minutes. We'll be flying in another half hour."

Elaine nodded, curled her lips and said, "There are too many losers sitting in economy class. They really delay things. I'll take a nap first. It's too early to get up today."

After saying that, she took off a steam eye mask and put it on, closed her eyes and rested.

At this time, Zhen Baoxuan had been passed on by ten collectors, and the bronze Buddha was passed back to Zhou Liangyun.

The vendor kept watching the ten people while they were looking at things, hoping that one of them would find something wrong with the things and attack Zhou Liangyun on the spot.

But what he didn't expect was that so many people watched it one after another, and each one looked at it silently. He couldn't figure out whether their quality was too high, or whether it was too real.

At this time, Zhou Liangyun put the bronze Buddha away and said: "Since you have all seen it and I believe you have a clear idea of the actual value of the thing, I will not waste everyone's time and just get it from Starting from Tibetan Friend No. 1, will Tibetan Friend No. 1 decide to do it or not?"

The others also looked at Tibetan Friend No. 1 nervously. If he asked for it directly and paid within five minutes, then the bronze Buddha would be unavailable to anyone else.

At this time, Tibetan Friend No. 1 was already restless waiting. When he heard what Zhou Liangyun said, he immediately said loudly in an extremely firm tone: "I want it! I want it! Thank you boss for giving me an account, 20 million Transfer money immediately!"
