

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6855

As soon as he talked about his last experience in China, Jimmy burst into tears.

He took the microphone and fired at Knight like a denunciation meeting. Not only did he accuse Knight of his experience in detail, but he also took out his mobile phone and shook out all the evidence that he had asked Knight to send him before.

This was like a powder keg that was completely detonated.

All the senior partners at the scene, one by one, had a lot of evidence in Knight's hands, and almost all of them were worth hundreds of millions of dollars. As long as the truth came out, they would either go to jail or face huge compensation.

For a while, the venue was full of abuse against Knight, asking him to give everyone a reasonable explanation.

There were even senior partners who were so excited that they wanted to rush up and fight with Knight.

Knight was also worried and afraid. He thought he could bribe Jimmy and use his influence to get closer to Steve, but he never expected to be fooled by this guy. Now the situation is completely out of control. If he really fights, how can he bear it?

To put it another way, even if he doesn't fight, these people will come to him for an explanation. How can he give it?

Seeing Knight's panic, Jimmy felt relieved, and his previous experience in China was relieved.

Seeing that everyone was surrounding Knight to ask for an explanation, he put the microphone in Knight's hand and said coldly: "Come on, Knight, since everyone wants you to give an explanation, then explain it to everyone in front of everyone."

Knight wiped the cold sweat and said tremblingly: "I... I want to apologize to everyone first... This matter is indeed... It is indeed my fault, but I have no choice. The competition in the industry is very fierce. You are all the backbone of the law firm. Although you don't earn the most, you have the most output. Once someone changes jobs or leaves to start a business, it will be a huge loss to the law firm..."

Having said that, Knight said a little aggrievedly: "Actually... Actually, as long as everyone works peacefully in the Ellis Law Firm, I will never do anything to threaten your personal safety or career prospects..."

Eric said coldly: "Stop being hypocritical here. Isn't Jimmy's case typical enough? He was just a person who got into trouble in China and was sold out by you!"

Knight said with a sad face: "That's because he offended Mr. Rothschild..."

Steve frowned and glared at him when he heard this. Knight was so scared that he quickly shut his mouth, his expression aggrieved like a nagging woman.

Eric continued to ask at this time: "Kate, I don't want to argue with you about who is right or wrong between you and Jimmy. I just want to know, regarding the matter of setting a trap for us, what kind of solution are you going to give us?"

Knight quickly raised his right hand and said solemnly: "I swear to God, I can pretend that these things have never happened and will never use this to threaten you again."

Jimmy said contemptuously: "Pretend that this incident never happened? It's easy for you to say, but maybe one day we offend you or affect your interests, you will take out these evidences to kill us!"

"Jimmy is right!" Someone shouted: "In my opinion, the best solution now is for the law firm to issue a statement stating that all our illegal operations are approved by the law firm, and the law firm waives the right to pursue all legal responsibilities!" As soon as this person's words came out

, everyone was immediately enlightened, and they all echoed: "That's right! This is the best way! Sign this statement for us, and then submit it to the judicial department for notarization! Once it has legal effect, we will terminate the employment contract with Ellis! Everyone will have nothing to do with each other in the future, and no one should cause trouble for each other!"
