

the Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6888

Upon hearing that Lord Wade wanted to stay in Aurous Hill for a longer time, the happiest person was charlie Wade's foreign public security officer Qishan.

He couldn't help but laugh and said, "Brother wade, you might as well live at home. There are still empty rooms at home. Living together, we can have a drink, reminisce and chat about family matters when we have nothing to do."

Lord Wade said, "Brother An, I won't live at home. It's too disturbing. It's more convenient to live in Shangri-La. If you want to have a drink, reminisce and chat about family matters, I can come over anytime. The journey is not far and the transportation is convenient."

An Qishan wanted to persuade him, but charlie Wade said directly, "Grandpa, I asked isaac to buy back these hillside villas in Champs Elysees. Except for the one next door, which I occasionally use, the others are all empty. I asked Don Albert to arrange someone to prepare a set for you. It happens that Don Albert is at the foot of the mountain most of the time. I asked him to come and take care of your daily life. If you want to live in the city, let Don Albert take you there directly."

Lord Wade smiled and said, "Okay, okay, this is more convenient! Since tomorrow's press conference will be held at Shangri-La, I will live there tonight and move here after the press conference. The environment here is good and much quieter than Eastcliff. charlie, just ask Don Albert to drive a car for me. You don't have to take care of my daily life. I am in good health now and can live alone. "

An Qishan on the side couldn't help asking him, "Brother wade, why didn't you bring one or two children to take care of you when you came to Aurous Hill this time?"

Lord Wade looked at charlie Wade, and then said to An Qishan, "Don't be afraid to say it out loud and make you laugh. When the Wanlong Palace attacked Lingshan before, among the descendants of the wade family, except charlie, there was no one with backbone. They were all cowards who were greedy for life and afraid of death. Later, charlie subdued the Wan Pojun Army and let them all live in Lingshan to mourn for the ancestors of the Wade family. "

An Qishan dropped his jaw and blurted out, “All of them?”

“Yes.” Lord Wade laughed awkwardly: “Son, daughter, grandson, and those relatives with the surname wade, all went. Except for my daughter who was specially allowed by charlie to take care of my food and daily life in Eastcliff, no one else can leave Lingshan within three years without charlie’s permission.”

An Qishan widened his eyes and glanced at charlie Wade subconsciously. Seeing that charlie Wade had a calm face, as if what he said had nothing to do with him, he tentatively asked Lord Wade: “Brother wade, with so many people in Lingshan, the Wade family’s business should be greatly affected, right?”

Hearing An Qishan’s question, Lord Wade smiled awkwardly: “This is where the shame lies. After these people handed over the business, they handed it over to professional managers according to charlie’s wishes. There are strict performance appraisals and reward and punishment standards for these professional managers. As a result, the original business scale and profit margin have reversed. While the cost keeps rising, the cost is also reduced a lot. Although the salaries of those professional managers are also very high, they are much lower than the salary and benefits that the Wade family provides to their own people. It is equivalent to reducing costs and increasing efficiency, so it is good for those people to stay in Yeling Mountain. “

An Qishan did not expect such an answer. He smiled helplessly and said, “Sometimes, we do neglect to manage and restrain our own people. This is also a stubborn problem faced by many families.”

Lord Wade smiled and said, “I figured it out later. If our family members don’t have this ability, let them just sit back and enjoy the achievements. They don’t have to stay in their original positions and eat for nothing. Instead, give the positions to capable people, and they only need to sacrifice a part of the dividend ratio. If capable people can make the income base Higher, they don’t have to work, but can earn more. “

An Qishan nodded in agreement: “This is also a good way to solve the problem.” Lord Wade smiled and said: "I have let it go now. Although the Wade family is not as big as the An family, it has already made all the Wade family members and the Wade family's relatives and backbones achieve financial freedom. As long as they take good care of the money in their hands, they can live a life of luxury. So the current Wade family does not need to bear any excessive responsibilities and burdens for them. "

As he said, he looked at charlie Wade and said very seriously: "charlie, all the assets of the Wade family today are your funds to fight against the Broken Qing Society in the future. Just let it go. Even if the assets of the Wade family are exhausted one day, you don't need to be responsible to anyone, and you don't need to have any psychological burden. " charlie Wade nodded gently. Although he didn't need to use any resources of the Wade family now, he couldn't help but be moved by the old man's words.

Foreign security guard An Qishan couldn't help but sighed: "charlie, my attitude is the same as your grandfather. All the resources of the An family are at your disposal!"

After a family dinner, everyone toasted each other, and the two old people who had broken the barriers of many years became happier and happier.

However, sometimes the topic would involuntarily talk about charlie Wade's parents, and the two old people would often have red eyes.

charlie Wade was relieved. After all, this meant that there would be no more conflicts and gaps between the two families in the future. His parents had always had a very good relationship when they were alive. If the spirits in heaven saw the two old people put aside their past grudges, they would definitely be happy. After eating and drinking, Lord Wade chatted with charlie Wade's grandparents for a long time before he got up and said goodbye with some apology.

charlie Wade asked Don Albert to drive and first sent Lord Wade to Shangri-La, and then he returned home.

Tomorrow's press conference is scheduled for the afternoon. In the morning, the two old people and charlie Wade's three uncles will meet with hank and his wife who have returned from their honeymoon to sort out the process and content outline of the press conference to ensure that the press conference in the afternoon will be foolproof.

At night, Charlie Wade couldn't fall asleep for a long time. Listening to Claire's slow and quiet breathing beside him, he knew that she had fallen asleep.

Charlie Wade was still thinking about what his grandmother had said to him.

Although he had never thought about having a child, his grandmother's words still planted a seed in his heart.

The inheritance of blood makes him shoulder invisibly, he has taken on a huge and unshirkable responsibility, and he has the responsibility to pass on the bloodline left by his parents.

People will always die, the difference is that when some people die, the bloodline that has been passed down from the Homo sapiens era is cut off in their bodies, but some people continue this bloodline;

there are 8 billion people alive in this world today, and there are 8 billion hot bloodlines. Among them, there must be a part of the bloodline that can continue for thousands or tens of thousands of years, or even until the last moment of human extinction, and there must be a part of the bloodline that will die when the second hand points to any grid. It may be the last second, this second, or the next second.

Charlie Wade cannot guarantee how long his bloodline will last in the future, but he realizes that he must hand over the baton at some stage to complete the inheritance of his bloodline to the next generation. Life is a relay race. When people on other tracks are passing the baton, the one who finishes the race silently is destined to be lonely for life.

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade couldn't help but laugh at himself. In the past twenty years, what he thought about in his mind was was all about revenge for his parents. He never thought about what kind of life he should live. During these years of marriage with Claire, he first insisted on marrying into the family of a loser and the mutual respect between the two. Later, he continued with the guilt of concealing his identity and the unchanged respect between the two.

This continuation is like a rocket launched into outer space. You don't have to worry about it. It will fly at a constant speed in space. It will not turn or slow down. It is as stable as the ECG of a dead person.

And charlie Wade was really a little scared at this moment.

He was afraid that if he could not defeat Sara and was killed by Sara, cutting off his parents' bloodline, how should he face his parents' spirits in heaven?

With this thought, he could not help but turn around, looking at Claire who was sleeping beside him, and asked softly: "Wife, how about... let's think about having a child."

charlie Wade just whispered softly, never thinking that Claire could hear it, but Claire closed her eyes and said in a daze: "Husband... recently... recently I'm really... so busy... how about... how about waiting for two years to have a baby..."

charlie Wade was startled by her voice, and after a closer look, he found that she should be talking in her sleep. Sometimes people can't distinguish between dreams and reality in dreams. If someone happens to dream about someone in a dream, and someone asks her a question in reality, she will directly bring it into the dream, and then answer in a daze.

charlie Wade also guessed that Claire should have him in her dream at this moment, but he didn't know whether her answer was sincere or perfunctory.

But he didn't really want to ask, so he looked at Claire gently and said softly: "It's okay, I still have a lot of things to do, you can think about it slowly."

Claire seemed to have heard his words, giggled, and murmured coquettishly: "Thank you, husband, for your understanding, husband is the best..."

At this moment, in a Buddhist house on Putuo Mountain.

A woman with extraordinary temperament was sitting quietly in the yard, looking up at the starry sky.

Today the weather dropped sharply, and the cold wind from the north blew away the clouds in the sky. The whole sky was full of stars, which was fascinating.

This woman was Charlie Wade's mother, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom).

Although Putuo Mountain is located further south, the damp and cold weather is particularly unbearable, but Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) was only wearing a thin robe, hugging her arms in front of her chest, looking up at the sky, and her beautiful eyes were shining under the starry sky.

Sister Sun came out of the left wing holding a coat, put the coat on Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom)'s shoulders, and said, "Madam, it's too late, you should rest."

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom)'s eyes were sparkling with tears.

She did not let the tears flow, but smiled and said, "Sister Sun, my father-in-law met my parents today, and Charlie was here too. I think they should have forgiven each other."

Sister Sun nodded, and said respectfully and distressedly, "Madam, your father hated your father-in-law for so many years, and now they finally understand each other. This is a good thing for him and your father-in-law. If they knew you were still alive one day, they would definitely be happier."

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) shook his head, sighed, and murmured softly, "It's different. My parents will be extremely happy, but my father-in-law may be even more lonely. After all, Bruce will never come back, and he originally had my parents, two people who were also sending off the young and the same fate. Once I go back, he will become the only one. This is too cruel for him, an old man who is nearly 80 years old..."
