First, how could it be possible for two such big families to take a fancy to him.

Claire asked puzzledly: “Why is that?”

Yohana said: “There have always been rumors in the outside world that the three of them were killed in Aurous Hill. The An family and the Wade family came here to commemorate them.”

Claire was even more shocked: “The eldest daughter of the An family is the famous Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) in the United States. I read her personal biography a long time ago. When I went to the United States some time ago, I heard many people talking about her deeds. Was she killed in Aurous Hill? ? How come I have never heard of this?”

Yohana said: “Since that incident, all relevant circles have blocked the news. It is normal that you have not heard of it.”

Then, Yohana said: “You may have only heard of Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom), but the second young master of the Wade family, bruce, is actually a very famous big man, and his life story is also extraordinary. “

Claire frowned and said, “The name bruce... I don’t think I really know much about it... The reason why I know about Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom)’s situation is because she is so famous in Silicon Valley. Many world-class Internet companies that started at that time were projects invested by her. “

Yohana said at this time: “Although bruce is not as famous as Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom), his god-level operation back then was absolutely a show of genius in today’s words. The Rothschild family couldn’t do anything to him after several business wars. He is absolutely a super talent.”

charlie Wade on the side has not spoken. In fact, most of the people who knew about the incident back then knew about the same thing as Yohana described.

Even charlie Wade himself always thought that it was the Rothschild family who directly killed his parents, and the accomplice who indirectly killed his parents was his grandfather Lord Wade. These people didn't even know the existence of the Poqing Society.

Claire remembered something and asked Yohana: "What are the names of their children? "

The question asked by Claire made Charlie Wade suddenly feel a little nervous.

He also didn't know whether Yohana had heard of his name.

If she really knew his name and said it in front of his wife, maybe his wife would figure out many things.

At this time, Yohana shook his head and said, "I don't know what the child's name is. Their child was a primary school student back then. At that time, it was not like the society today. Everyone is particularly concerned about the second generation of stars and the second generation of rich people. The Internet is also very developed and there are no secrets. Netizens can unite to dig up their identities everywhere. At that time, the children of these big families were still well protected by their families. Not only did the outside world not have their video materials, but even their names were unknown. "

Speaking of this, Yohana asked again: "Why do you care about this? They are all children who have been missing for 20 years. It is still unknown whether they are alive or dead. "

Claire nodded and sighed, "I just think he is very pitiful. If he has been killed, it would be even more pitiful. With such a good background, he died so early. It would be better to be born in an ordinary family and live a healthy and peaceful life. "

Yohana nodded and said: "If he is still alive, he is a super young master who has been abandoned by the people. If he sees this press conference and comes to recognize his relatives, these two families will definitely give him the best, and he will become rich all of a sudden!"

As he was speaking, a female voice suddenly sounded at the scene, reminding: "Dear media friends, please take a seat as soon as possible and try to avoid making noise. Our press conference will officially begin in 5 minutes!"

Hearing that the press conference was about to begin, Yohana stopped gossiping with Claire.

charlie Wade on the side also breathed a sigh of relief.

It seems that the reporter is really gossipy. He is exposed to various news reports every day, and the possibility of not gossiping is almost zero. If Yohana continues to say this, he might reveal some key information about himself.

For example, the time when his parents had the accident in Aurous Hill was exactly the time when he entered the welfare home, and his surname is also wade. Fortunately, Claire is not a gossip, otherwise, if he thought about it deeply, he would always notice something wrong.

Fortunately, charlie Wade's personal information was well protected at the time. Reporters like Yohana only knew that a child of the wade family was missing, but they didn't know his name or first name. Otherwise, if she said that the child lost by the wade family was named charlie Wade, no matter how naive Claire was, she would have to think about it carefully.

Soon, the press conference officially began.

As the leader of the entire press conference, Homula did not adopt the format of traditional enterprises where leaders sit in a row and hold a press conference together. Instead, he walked onto the stage alone. As the lights were turned off, he on the stage and the huge high-definition LED screen behind him became the focus of the whole audience.

After he stepped onto the stage, Homula smiled and said, "Welcome all media friends to today's press conference. I am Homula, CEO of An's Group. At today's press conference, I will represent An's Group and wade's Group to announce to you a series of major business decisions of our two companies."

Homula started to show up in public as the person in charge of the An family's external business several years ago. After he took the stage, his image, temperament, conversation and behavior all revealed a complete elite style, which made many female reporters admire him. Even Yohana, who was about the same age as Claire, couldn't help but whisper to Claire: "Homula is really a model of a super diamond bachelor. He is handsome, capable, and his family is rich enough to rival a country. He perfectly meets my standards for choosing a spouse. However, if you want to marry a man like this, you may have to have saved the Milky Way in your previous life..."

Claire whispered: "Ningning, he seems to be in his forties."

"What's wrong with being over 40?" Yohana whispered, "I just like handsome uncles like this. Young boys don't know how to be considerate. When they quarrel, girls have to coax them. Uncles are different. They know everything. With just a glance, they can accurately grasp the needs of the other party and always take good care of the girls."

Claire smiled and said, "She must be married, and her children may already be in college."

Yohana nodded and said quickly: "If he has a son of eighteen or nineteen years old, I wouldn't mind the old cow eating the young grass."

charlie Wade was speechless as he listened to this. This woman wanted to be his aunt one moment and his sister-in-law the next. It was really weird.

At this time, Homula on the stage said loudly: "The first part of today's press conference is to announce to the public the new brand jointly funded by the An Group and the wade Group. As we all know, China's new energy vehicle industry has always been at the leading level in the world. The An family and the wade family also hope to add icing on the cake to China's dazzling new energy industry. Therefore, our two families have decided to invest at least 40 billion US dollars to establish our new energy vehicle brand in Aurous Hill!"

As soon as Homula said this, there was an exclamation at the scene!

The investment of 40 billion US dollars is the first in the history of the development of Aurous Hill private enterprises.

Moreover, an investment of 40 billion US dollars for a car brand is equivalent to nearly 300 billion RMB!

You know, the total investment of Remi Automobile, which became popular all over the country some time ago, was only 10 billion RMB!

The new energy vehicle brand that the An and Wade families want to invest in Aurous Hill is thirty times more than that of Remy Automobile!

Such a huge investment is unmatched not only in China but also in the global automotive field!

The audiences who were watching the live broadcast in front of the screen were all stunned.

The local audience in Aurous Hill, in particular, was so excited that they almost wanted to cheer in front of the screen.

If a city suddenly receives an influx of 300 billion yuan in investment, all indicators of this city will inevitably be brought to a higher level, and everyone living in this city will benefit from it to a greater or lesser extent.

At this time, Homula on the stage said: "Many of you media friends should know that our An Group just acquired the bankrupt reorganized Gaoheng Automobile some time ago. However, the $40 billion joint investment between us and the Wade Group is not used to invest in the development of Gaoheng Automobile. Instead, we have decided to launch a new car brand after discussion. At that time, we will merge the Gaoheng Automobile team and hardware into the new brand. At that time, Gaoheng Automobile will be eliminated from the historical stage and become a part of our new brand. And I want to make it clear that the $40 billion investment I just announced does not include any assets of Gaoheng Automobile."

The media reporters in the audience were even more excited. Gaoheng Automobile itself was purchased by the An family at a cost of several billion US dollars, and it was not included in the sequence of 40 billion US dollars investment. That means that the investment in this new brand created by the An family and the Wade family must be more than 40 billion US dollars or even higher.

Homula turned his head and looked at the big screen behind him, and said excitedly: "I believe that the media friends and the friends who are watching the live broadcast of the press conference in front of the screen are very curious about the name of the new brand we are jointly investing with Wade's Group. Then, please look at the big screen behind me. The new car brand of An's Group and Wade's Group will be presented on this big screen in ten seconds!"

After that, all the lights in the venue went out instantly.

The scene was like an extra-large movie theater. Apart from the bright lights from the big screen, it was completely dark.

At this moment, a Chinese character “十” suddenly appeared on the screen with a gradually increasing effect, and the media reporters on the scene began to shout out this word involuntarily.

Then, the Chinese character “ten” quickly faded away, and the Chinese character “nine” gradually emerged.

Then, the speed at which each word appeared and disappeared began to increase, and the background music at the scene began to sound like a heartbeat with an increasingly faster rhythm.

After the last Chinese character “—” disappeared, the big screen immediately fell into darkness. The scene suddenly became silent. Everyone was staring at the dark screen, wanting to know what the name of the car brand that the An and Wade families had jointly invested more than 40 billion US dollars in was.

After a few seconds of black screen, a bright spot suddenly appeared in the center of the screen, and then, around this bright spot, it seemed as if a ball of flame was burning.

Then, the flame, more like the fuse of an ancient red cannon, quickly burned across the screen in a very elegant S-shaped arc, like a piece of silk fluttering in the wind.

And when the flames had completely burned out, exciting Chinese classical folk music suddenly sounded at the scene. The background music, which sounded like the Monkey King descending from the sky or Nezha soaring into the air, instantly raised the atmosphere to its fullest.

Then, the trace left by the flames suddenly transformed into a long red tassel with two tassels fluttering in the wind amid the surging background music!

Then, under the long tassel fluttering in the wind, four powerful calligraphy characters appeared like carvings – “Bruce Automobile”!

As soon as the four big words “Bruce Automobile” came out, everyone at the scene was shocked by the unique momentum.

Many people can't help but think of the great man's words: “Today, with the long rope in hand, when will I tie up the blue dragon?”

Although this is a question, it can make people feel the confidence that victory has already been won.

As for many media reporters, they not only know the great man's poem, but also know that the second son of the Wade family who died young was named Bruce Wade!

The media reporters suddenly realized it!

It turns out that the car brand jointly established by the An family and the Wade family was actually to commemorate Bruce Wade who had passed away many years ago. No wonder the two families suddenly chose to cooperate after twenty years.

At this time, Homula on the stage paused for a moment and said with emotion: “The name Bruce in Bruce Automobile is taken from my late brother-in-law Bruce Wade. The reason for this name is to commemorate him, and I hope that Bruce Automobile can inherit his character of never giving up and bravely climbing to the top. An Group and Wade Group will also do their best to build Bruce Automobile into an internationally renowned automobile brand. I also hope that our two families can live up to his name and his expectations.”

When Homula said this, two lines of tears rolled down Charlie Wade's eyes. When no one was paying attention to him, he quietly wiped away the tears with his sleeve.

At the same time, in Putuo Mountain, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) was watching the live video of the press conference with tears streaming down his face.

She also didn't expect that the car brand jointly created by her natal family and her husband's family would be named after her late husband.

When she saw the red tassel fluttering in the wind, she could no longer hold back her emotions and tears flowed silently.

Sister Sun saw it with her own eyes and felt pain in her heart. She quickly handed her a tissue and comforted her, "Madam, you should be happy. In my opinion, the cooperation between the An family and the Wade family is a name that can be compared with Bruce in this world. The spirit of the master in heaven will definitely be very pleased!"

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) took the tissue, gently wiped away his tears, and said, "Sister Sun, you are right. I can't think of a second name that is more suitable than this, Bruce Automobile... I am now looking forward to the day when this brand of car can be driven all over the world and everyone will know the word Bruce!"

Sister Sun nodded and said, "Madam, rest assured. This time, the An family and the Wade family have joined forces, and with Master in charge, Bruce Automobile will surely become famous all over the world!"

"Yes!" Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) nodded heavily and said faintly: "I hope that by that time, I can also go to meet them openly."

At this time at the press conference, Homula followed the established procedure and invited Charlie Wade's grandfather, old man Lord Wade, to the stage.

When Lord Wade took the stage, his eyes, which were covered with deep wrinkles, were red. After shaking hands with Homula, he took the microphone and said, "When Bruce resolutely returned to China from abroad more than 30 years ago, he made a great ambition to devote himself to the development and modernization of the motherland. It's a pity that he and his wife Ms. Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) died young and could not fulfill their lifelong wish. Now that China's new energy industry is rising, our two companies hope that through our joint efforts, we can make contributions to the development of China's automobile industry that will be remembered by the world."

Lord Wade didn't say much. After a few words, he put down the microphone, turned around and looked at the car brand and logo named after his son, as if time had stopped.

Afterwards, Homula invited An Qishan to the stage.

An Qishan stepped to the front of the stage, holding the microphone, and said to the audience: "I have met countless people in my life, and have seen many top talents and elites in various industries, but I have never seen anyone who can surpass Bruce. This cooperation with Wade Group to establish Bruce Automobile is also the last battle in the business career of the two of us old men. In the name of Bruce, the two of us are willing to stake all the honors of this life for this. We also ask all friends who pay attention to Bruce Automobile to believe that both of us will do our best for this brand!"

The two elderly men's brief and sincere speeches moved countless viewers in front of the screen and made the audience look forward to the future development of Bruce Automobile even more.

Then, Homula personally escorted the two elderly people off the stage. When he came back, he said to the audience with full confidence: "Next, I will use a set of PPTs to introduce the general situation of Bruce Automobile to media friends and audience friends;"

"First, our initial investment is 40 billion US dollars, which I have just introduced. This is the largest single investment in the automotive manufacturing industry;"

"Secondly, our goal is to build a super factory in Aurous Hill with an annual production capacity of at least 350,000 new energy vehicles within one year, and increase the annual production to 700,000 vehicles within two years. With the launch of the second phase of the project, we will achieve an annual production of 1.5 million vehicles within five years.

The plan to achieve a production capacity of 1.5 million vehicles within five years shocked everyone.

Nowadays, new energy vehicle companies with an annual output of more than 1.5 million vehicles are rare, and those that can reach this scale basically have more than ten years of accumulation and have taken the lead.

It is almost unbelievable for a new brand to achieve a production capacity of 1.5 million vehicles within five years.

But what they don't know is that this is actually just the goal of Bruce Automobile's Aurous Hill Super Factory, and it is only to cover the domestic market. In the future, once Bruce Automobile is able to fire the first shot, Charlie Wade and the An family will immediately invest in a new super factory in the eastern coastal area, specifically to cover overseas markets.
