Zhou Liangyun smiled and gestured, then found a seat nearby and sat down, and charlie Wade sat down next to him.

Steve asked him with concern at this moment: "Mr. Wade, has the Hogwitz family paid the 1 billion US dollars? To be honest, I have always been worried that they feel that the cost-effectiveness of paying is not high and they are unwilling to pay this money, which is also a loss for you."

charlie Wade smiled and said, "Look at what you said, Steve. Do you think I really care about their money? The reason why I asked them for money is nothing more than cooperating with you to put on a show. You have been in Jinling for so long and haven't found them. It will be embarrassing if it gets out. What's more, you can't go back empty-handed. I took them to the high seas to shoot a video, and then asked their family for a huge ransom. Isn't it just the perfect way to get rid of you? So you can fly back to the United States tonight, and don't worry about anyone mocking you for your incompetence."

When Steve heard this, he wailed in his heart: "It's over! It's all my fault for talking too much. Now charlie Wade is dumping all the favors on me. If the Hogwitz family doesn't give him the ten billion US dollars, he won't ask me for it, right? If he asks me, I will definitely give it to him. Then what if he doesn't ask me for it? Should I give it to him or not? I don't give it to him. Although there is nothing wrong with it, charlie Wade has said so much. If I don't give it to him, he will definitely think that I am ignorant. But if I take the initiative to give it to him, it's ten billion US dollars. Damn it, I'm not the patriarch of the family now. If I pay him so much money out of my own pocket, I will at least feel the pain for a whole year..."

Seeing that Steve didn't speak, charlie Wade deliberately smiled and asked him: "What's wrong, Steve? When talking about whether Hogwitz will pay you, why are you still silent? Are you afraid that I will ask you for the money?"

Steve immediately understood what charlie Wade meant, and thought to himself: "Are you afraid that you will ask me for it? If you don't give it to me, then you can ask me for it. I wonder why you are so confident. You just asked for 1 billion US dollars without hesitation, and you don't even return the father and son to them. If they think about it carefully, they probably won't give the money. So you are using me as a backup. From what you mean, if Hogwitz doesn't pay, then I have to pay..."

Thinking of this, he said a little depressed: "How could it be, Mr. Wade... I'm just worried that the people of the Hogwitz family are ignorant and make you unhappy..."

charlie Wade waved his hand: "It doesn't matter, isn't it just 1 billion US dollars? Take out a pill and scrape some foam, and the money will come."

When Steve heard the word "pill", he was startled and said quickly, "Don't worry, Mr. Wade! If those guys from Hogwitz don't behave, I will make up for it! Isn't it just 1 billion US dollars? I will definitely not let you suffer any loss."

charlie Wade laughed and said, "Oh, how can this be so embarrassing, Steve? Although you are related to them, they are distant relatives after all. There is no need to pay for them."

Steve quickly said, "It's okay, it's okay, Mr. Wade, please don't be polite to me. I only have one goal now, which is not to harm your interests in any way."

There was one more thing Steve didn't say. What he was thinking was that after he paid one billion US dollars, if charlie Wade could scrape some elixir powder for him, then his money would be worth it!

charlie Wade was about to speak when he suddenly received a message on his phone. He opened it and saw that it was from Abbas of Wanlong Palace, telling him that he had received 1 billion US dollars in cryptocurrency.

charlie Wade put down his phone and said to Steve with a smile: "Steve, you are indeed a very loyal friend, but they have just paid the money. I just received the news that the advance payment has been received. This matter has come to a perfect end."

Steve felt disappointed when he heard this, thinking to himself: "Damn, such a good opportunity! What a pity!"

Just as he finished speaking, he suddenly received a push notification from the BBC on his phone. The title of the push notification was: "Behind the shocking ransom of one billion US dollars – the admirable Mrs. Hogwitz!"

Seeing the push, Steve muttered subconsciously: “I just gave the money to the BBC and they reported it. This is too damn fast.”

“BBC?” charlie Wade asked curiously, “What did the BBC report? Did they report about the Hogwitz family?”

“Yes!” Steve opened his phone and quickly browsed the news while saying to charlie Wade, “Mr. Wade, Jenny Hogwitz from the Hogwitz family actually accepted the media’s full tracking and interviews. The news was full of her photos. This old woman is very scheming. She packaged herself before spending any money.”

Although charlie Wade didn’t see the content of the news, he was not surprised. He smiled and said, “They have spent 1 billion US dollars, so it’s understandable that they package it a little bit.”

Steve couldn’t help but say, “But she doesn’t know what the kidnapers’ attitude will be when they see this news report. Her husband and son are still in their hands. Isn’t she worried that they will get angry after seeing the news and kill her husband and son?”

After that, he handed the phone to charlie Wade and said, “Look, Mr. Wade, many of the photos were taken by media reporters at her home, which proves that she may have contacted the media yesterday.”

charlie Wade took the phone and roughly glanced through the content of the news. The content was nothing more than an introduction to the disappearance of the Hogwitz father and son overseas, and then the kidnapers demanded one billion US dollars. Then, they conducted a full-scale tracking record of Jenny Hogwitz. In the words of the media, they recorded the whole process of this great wife and great mother making a difficult decision.

After reading the news, charlie Wade was about to return the phone to Steve when he saw that Steve’s phone received another push from the net, with the title: “Jenny Hogwitz, the awe-inspiring wife, mother, and helmsman of the family!”

charlie Wade did not click to read it, but smiled and said: “BBNet is reporting it, it should be planned in advance. It seems that there must be a master behind her. Anyway, she can't save the person by spending money, so she might as well take this opportunity to promote and package herself."

As he spoke, Charlie Wade asked him curiously: "By the way, what is the relationship between this Anne Hogwitz and your Rothschild family?"

Steve said, "She is my father's cousin, the daughter of my uncle, so we are very distantly related."

Charlie Wade nodded and said casually: "Although the relationship is very distant, your father still specially sent you to Aurous Hill to find them. This shows that your father still attaches great importance to this matter. This Jenny might also go to discuss it with your father. Maybe this idea was given to her by your father."

Steve frowned, thought for a moment, and then suddenly realized: "Mr. Wade, if you say so, it is really possible. Spending money and getting a certain return has always been my father's style."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "It seems that you know your father very well."

Steve laughed awkwardly: "After all, they say that no one knows a son better than his father, and no one knows a father better than his son. I do know him very well."

As he said that, Steve rolled his eyes and asked Charlie Wade: "Mr. Wade, this matter has been reported in the news media. I'm afraid it will bring you some unnecessary trouble, right?"

Steve felt that since it was his father who gave Jenny advice behind the scenes, this was a good opportunity to drag his father down in front of Charlie Wade.

At present, the interest relationship between father and son is very delicate. Whoever Charlie Wade favors may directly threaten the interests and life of the other person. Therefore, it is a good thing for him to take this opportunity to make Charlie Wade complain about his father.

charlie Wade naturally knew what Steve meant, and he also knew that he was implicitly discrediting his own father, but charlie Wade did not take it to heart. This kind of thing...

In fact, this kind of thing would not bring any substantial trouble to himself. After all, no one could find the true whereabouts of the father and son. If the news leaked out one day, it would definitely be Steve's doing, so charlie Wade was sure that he did not have the courage to tell anyone.

However, in order to satisfy Steve's cleverness, charlie Wade pretended to be displeased and said, "I will make your father pay the price for doing this kind of cleverness behind your back. In a few days, when he goes to Northern Europe, I will let him know what it means to be self-defeating."

Steve was secretly delighted and quickly stated his attitude: "But Mr. Wade, don't worry that I am the only outsider who knows about this matter. But I will keep it a secret and won't let anyone know that the matter between Hogwitz and his son has anything to do with you."

charlie Wade nodded. At this time, Don Albert knocked on the door and walked in, saying to charlie Wade: "Master Wade, can you serve the hot dishes?"

charlie Wade waved and said, "Come on, Don Albert, take a seat first. I just happen to have something to tell you and Steve."

Don Albert quickly sat down on the other side of charlie Wade and said respectfully, "Master Wade, please let me know if you have anything to say."

charlie Wade glanced at Steve and said, "By the way, I remember Steve was at the dog farm and said he would donate $100 million to you for expansion and upgrading. Is that true?"

Before Don Albert could say anything, Steve immediately replied, "Yes! Yes, yes, yes! Don't worry, Mr., I will arrange for someone to pay the money when I get back. If it is inconvenient for you to receive it, I can also exchange it into cryptocurrency for you."

charlie Wade smiled and said, "It's OK if there is such a thing. Steve, remember it. Don Albert, remember it too. When Steve returns to the United States, you contact him and quickly coordinate this matter."

Don Albert said respectfully: "Master Wade, rest assured, I will connect with Mr. Rothschild."

Steve was afraid that Charlie Wade would think he was stingy, so he quickly said to Charlie Wade: "Mr. Wade, if you need me anywhere in the future, just ask, I will do my best!"

Charlie Wade remembered something and said, "By the way, in two days, the model your father made in Northern Europe will be delivered to the Queen of Northern Europe. I plan to go over and take a look. Can you help me arrange a private jet with a clean background and no connection with the Rothschild family? I will use it for a while."

Charlie Wade used to rely on the flight trajectory of airplanes to snipe at every move of the Po Qing Society. Now that the Po Qing Society has noticed this loophole, while filling their own loophole, they must also learn how to use this loophole to monitor other people. If they pay attention to the Wade family, they will most likely also pay attention to the Wade family's airplanes. With the previous experience of the Po Qing Society, Charlie Wade plans to avoid taking the Wade family's airplanes as much as possible.

When Steve heard Charlie Wade asking him to help with a private jet, he immediately said without hesitation: "Don't worry, Mr. Wade, I'll take care of this matter. I'll arrange a plane to come to Aurous Hill today. When do you plan to use it?"

Charlie Wade said: "We can go to Aurous Hill the day after tomorrow. I will probably leave early the day after tomorrow."

Steve assured, "Don't worry, I will have the plane and crew on standby in Aurous Hill tomorrow night."

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "I just want the plane. I have my own crew. You just need to ask their crew to fly the plane over."

Steve nodded, and thinking of what happened in Northern Europe, he couldn't help but say to Charlie Wade: "Mr. Wade, why don't I tell my father after I go back and let me go to Northern Europe instead of him, so that I can meet you in Northern Europe in a few days."

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "I think your father will definitely go there in person."

Steve's heart skipped a beat, and he quickly asked him, "Mr. Wade, did you...did you promise my father anything?"

By / July 17, 2024

Facing Steve's question, charlie Wade just smiled slightly, without comment or answer.

The reason why Helena was able to get Steve's father Howard to reduce the time to build the AI model from one or two years to one month was because of the right to purchase half a pill of the Blood-Rescuing Heart Pill.

As long as Howard completes the construction of the AI model within the specified time, he will be eligible to purchase half a pill of the Blood-Rescuing Heart Pill for 50 billion US dollars. This is the most attractive condition for him.

So Howard used all the resources he could to make this impossible thing possible.

Given his enthusiasm for the Blood-Dispersing and Heart-Saving Pills, he would definitely go to Northern Europe in person, deliver the AI model to Helena in person, and then immediately buy half a pill.

charlie Wade could even conclude that he would take the Blood-Dispersing and Heart-Rescuing Pill immediately after receiving it, without any hesitation for even a second.

However, this is not good news for Steve. The more pills his father gets, the longer he will live, and the slimmer his chances of inheriting the family will be.

At this moment, charlie Wade looked at Steve, picked up the wine glass, and said with a smile: "Come on Steve, you are leaving today, I toast you a glass."

When Steve saw charlie Wade change the subject, he knew that the situation was similar to what he guessed. He sighed softly, stood up very respectfully, raised the wine glass, and said devoutly: "Mr. Wade, you are too polite. I toast to you!"

After saying that, he tilted his head back and drank a glass of Moutai.

charlie Wade nodded, motioned Don Albert to fill Steve's glass, then raised his glass again and said with a smile: "Come on, let's deepen it!"

"Deepen?" Steve was a little stunned for a moment, not understanding what charlie Wade meant by deepening one.

charlie Wade smiled and said, "We Chinese people say that feelings are in wine. To deepen one, just drink another glass to deepen the feelings."

"Oh!" Steve suddenly understood and said with a smile, "So this is what deepening means! Then it must be deepened, Mr. Wade, deepening just one is not enough, let's deepen two!"

charlie Wade smiled and said, "No problem, two is two."

Although Steve's alcohol tolerance was average, he still gave it his all and drank two more glasses in succession before sitting back in his seat.

Steve was already a little embarrassed at this time, charlie Wade asked him with a smile: "By the way, Steve, you have been in Aurous Hill for so long this time, how do you feel?"

Steve said without hesitation: "Mr. Wade, Aurous Hill is indeed a good place. I will definitely come here often in the future. I said before that I would invest in Aurous Hill, and I will definitely do what I said. I may inevitably come to bother you often in the future."

charlie Wade nodded, patted Don Albert's shoulder, and said with a smile: "Anyway, you are familiar with Don Albert. When you come to Aurous Hill in the future, say hello to him in advance, and he will definitely treat you well."

Don Albert smiled and said, "Yes, Mr. Rothschild, we are all family. You also have my contact information. Please contact me in advance when you come to Aurous Hill in the future."

"Okay, okay! We are all family. I will definitely contact Mr. Albert in advance!" Steve nodded repeatedly with an irresistible smile on his face.

the Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6925

By / July 17, 2024

He couldn't understand why. Don Albert was obviously just a little brother of Charlie Wade. In terms of wealth, strength, and social status, he was far inferior to himself.

However, when Don Albert said the three words "one of us", I felt...

I was actually quite touched and even a little flattered.

So he immediately picked up his glass, stood up, and said to Don Albert: "Mr. Albert is right, we are all family. Come on, Mr. Albert, I'll toast you a glass!"

Now it was Don Albert's turn to be flattered. He thought to himself, "Fuck, I, Don Albert, am following Master Ye. This is really a great honor. Who would have thought that the second in command of the fucking Rothschild family would actually offer me a glass of wine? Next week is the anniversary of my short-lived father's death. When I go to visit his grave, if I tell him about this in front of the grave, he will jump out of the grave, point at my nose and scold me for bragging..."

Seeing Don Albert sitting there grinning and not accepting his toast, Steve quickly whispered, "Mr. Albert? Mr. Albert?"

Don Albert came back to his senses and said with a look of regret: "Hey, Mr. Rothschild, it would be great if you left a few days later. We are not close enough as brothers!"

After that, he quickly stood up, raised his glass and stretched it in front of Steve, saying loudly: "Mr. Rothschild, I toast to you!"

Steve said with a smile: "Let's not toast to each other, let's do it together later!"

"Deeper, must be deeper!" Don Albert said cheerfully: "Next time you come to Aurous Hill, come to Tianxiang Mansion as soon as you get off the plane. I will host a banquet for you! We are all brothers, just treat this place as your own home. As long as you are in Aurous Hill, you can come here anytime you want to eat. You can ask the chef to cook whatever you want. You don't need to order. Just ask them to cook it for you according to the menu!"

Steve suddenly began to like the strong underworld atmosphere at the wine table, and he was very pleased with it, so he said very seriously: "If Mr. Wade and Mr. Albert have time to come to the United States in the future, please contact me in advance. I will personally go to the airport to greet you and do all the welcoming work for you two!”

After saying that, he looked at Zhou Liangyun on the side, patted his chest and said, “Mr. Zhou, please rest assured. I am different from my father. He is an old stubborn man who is obsessed with the Four-sided Treasure Tower all day long. I don’t care about these things. The Four-sided Treasure Tower and the Eight-sided Treasure Tower are all your Chinese things anyway. It is only natural to return them. If I become the patriarch of the Rothschild family in the future, I will return all the Chinese collections of the family. At that time, you can return to the United States openly at any time without having to look at anyone’s face!”

When he said this, Steve couldn’t help but glance at Charlie Wade, wanting to see how Charlie Wade responded to his bold words and ambitions.

Although Charlie Wade had a faint smile on his face at this time, he was thinking in his heart: “Sure enough, men all over the world are the same. As long as they drink too much, they all like to brag.”

Zhou Liangyun, who was standing by, also knew that it would take 20 to 30 years or even longer for Steve to become the patriarch, so he just listened to his words for fun, and smiled and nodded, raising his glass and said, “Thank you in advance, Mr. Rothschild!”

Steve said seriously: “Why thank you? Isn’t this what I should do? I can’t control the British government and their royal family. Otherwise, I would force them to return all the Chinese cultural relics in the British Museum!”

After saying that, he looked at Charlie Wade again, and said under the influence of alcohol: “Mr. Wade, how about I hire some mercenaries and take back all the Chinese cultural relics in the British Museum!”

Charlie Wade felt overwhelmed and smiled helplessly: “The British stole Chinese cultural relics, and finally asked the Americans to help get them back. This doesn’t seem to be appropriate. I feel your enthusiasm, but this method is not advisable. It is more appropriate for the Chinese to get their own things back in the future.”
