

the Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6928

By / July 19, 2024

Whenever Claire heard that charlie Wade was going out to work for a long time, she would feel distressed, especially when she heard that he was going to the remote northwestern border again. So she couldn't help but whispered to charlie Wade: "Husband, why don't you not go... We are not short of money now, so we don't have to work so hard..."

Before charlie Wade could say anything, Don Albert on the side pleaded devoutly: "Master Wade, you must help me with this matter! My elder brother saved my life back then. It's not easy for me to do something for him. Please don't refuse for the sake of our long-term friendship. As long as you help him solve the problem this time, you can tell me anything in Aurous Hill in the future. If I, Don Albert, blink, I will be struck by lightning!"

When Jacob heard this, his eyes suddenly lit up!

He had always thought that President Pei kicked him out of the calligraphy and painting association because he realized that the relationship between him and Don Albert was no longer as close as before. How polite was Don Albert to him before? When President Pei went to dinner, he could not get into the diamond box no matter how hard he tried. But Don Albert took the initiative to give him the diamond box and even gave him a free meal. Just that one time, President Pei was completely convinced.

Why did President Pei not obey later? I am afraid it was because he felt that his influence in front of Don Albert was not big enough.

The reason why he was able to return to the Calligraphy and Painting Association this time was because his son-in-law charlie Wade had gained favor with Don Albert. Don Albert had helped, and President Pei was forced to bring him back under pressure.

Therefore, in Jacob's view, letting Don Albert continue to owe favors to his son-in-law charlie Wade is the guarantee that he can stay in the Calligraphy and Painting Association and get better and better.

So, he took the initiative to say, "Claire, women shouldn't interfere in matters between men. Mr. Albert has always been very kind to our family. When we needed his help, he never said no. Now that he needs our help, how can we be afraid of hardship and fatigue? What's more, Mr. Albert has also said that the client will pay a huge reward, so we should not refuse!"

Seeing her father's anxious face, Claire suddenly realized the fundamental reason why her father said that. This time, he was able to return to the Calligraphy and Painting Association thanks to Don Albert's help. Theoretically speaking, her husband charlie Wade owed Don Albert a favor just a few days ago. According to the basic logic of a society based on favors, now is the time to repay the favor.

For a moment, Claire didn't know how to start.

It was Charlie Wade who broke the silence and said directly, "Mr. Albert, I owe you your help to my father-in-law last time. This time you need my help, so I can't just sit there and watch. How about this, give me two days to prepare, and I'll go over there in two days."

Don Albert immediately said excitedly: "Great, Master Wade! I feel completely relieved with your words. There are many Feng Shui issues in the world.

There is nothing that Master Wade can't solve! I will call my big brother tonight and tell him the good news!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Since I have agreed to go, I will naturally do my best to get things done."

Don Albert looked very happy. He stood up and said gratefully, "Thank you so much, Master Wade. It's so late, I won't bother you any more. Bye! Thank you very much!"

Jacob hurriedly said, "Hey, Mr. Albert, why don't we have a cup of tea together before we leave! You finally came home, you can't just leave without even a cup of tea."

Don Albert hurriedly said, "No more drinking, no more drinking. I'm sorry to bother you so much at this late hour."

Jacob had his own ideas at this time, so he pulled Don Albert's sleeve with one hand and quickly took out a teacup with the other hand. Although the tea was a little cold, he still poured a cup for Don Albert and handed it to Don Albert. Then he quickly picked up his own teacup as well, freeing up one hand, and took out his mobile phone from his pocket, unlocked it with one hand, and turned on the camera.

With a series of smooth movements, he turned on the selfie mode of the front camera. Then, holding a teacup in his other hand, he said to Don Albert, "Come on, Master, let's clink glasses. I'll take a picture as a souvenir!"

Don Albert naturally knew her little thoughts, but he was Charlie Wade's father-in-law after all, so he could only nod in cooperation and clink glasses with Jacob. In order to give him enough face, he put his other hand around his shoulders and smiled at the camera at the same time.

Jacob captured the moment when he and Don Albert clinked glasses and smiled. In the photo, they were arm in arm, toasting each other, and looked like two old friends getting together.

So, Jacob put away his phone contentedly and said to Don Albert, “Master , please come to my house often when you have nothing to do. I have plenty of good tea and wine here.”

“Okay, okay, I’ll come often in the future.” Don Albert nodded and readily agreed. Then he put down his teacup and said to everyone, “Okay, everyone. I won’t bother you any more.”

Jacob hurriedly said, “Come on, come on, Fifth Master, I’ll take you out.”

Jacob sent Don Albert to the door. After Don Albert left, he turned back to his yard and did not rush in. Instead, he quickly picked up his mobile phone, opened WeChat, and edited a circle of friends.

He chose the photo he had taken with Don Albert, and then edited a paragraph of text: It’s so nice to have good friends come to my house to drink tea and chat!

Then, press Send.

At this time, President Pei was complaining to his wife at home.

After what he did to Jacob, his own path to success was completely blocked. For this, he had always felt resentful towards his wife who had given him the advice.

Although my wife later redeemed herself by trying to make amends after the loss,

But judging from the results, the faults naturally outweigh the merits.

Therefore, President Pei would complain to his wife almost every day to relieve his depression and unhappiness. His wife also knew that she had given him a bad idea and caused irreparable losses, so whenever President Pei complained, she could only bear it silently.

Chairman Pei kept mumbling about the past while scrolling through his Moments idly. Suddenly, he saw a Moments post that Jacob had just posted. When he saw that Don Albert had actually gone to Jacob’s house and took a photo with Jacob, he immediately became furious. He threw his phone on the coffee table and started scolding his wife, “You spendthrift woman, you always said that Jacob was no good and that Master Don Albert didn’t care whether he lived or died. Look at you now. Don Albert has taken the initiative to go to Jacob's house for tea. The two of them are as close as if they were born from the same mother! You are really blind!"

The wife was suddenly scolded, and naturally she felt aggrieved, but she didn't care about fighting back. She quickly picked up President Pei's phone and took a look. After taking a look, she really regretted it and couldn't help sighing: "I was still naive. I thought only men and women would occasionally have cold wars and sulks, good today and bad tomorrow. I didn't expect that men and men were the same. At that time, Master Don Albert told you not to care about Jacob's affairs. I guess he said it in anger. I thought they must have broken up completely, but I never expected that they were like lovers, quarreling at the head of the bed and making up at the foot of the bed. Once they make up, we will be in trouble..."

When President Pei saw that she took the initiative to honestly point out her mistakes, he felt much less angry.

Sometimes people are like this. Even though they feel a lot of dissatisfaction or even grievance towards the other party in their hearts, as long as the other party can take the initiative to admit their mistakes and reflect on them, most of the anger will be eliminated.

What I am afraid of is the kind of people who know they have made a mistake but still insist on being stubborn, saying "I am not wrong, why did I do anything wrong, it is others who are wrong, it is the world that is wrong". Once you encounter such a person, a spark of anger will turn into a volcanic eruption.

Chairman Pei, who had calmed down, looked at his wife and said seriously, "You are right. We were misled by this assumption at the time. We all thought that since Master Don Albert was angry, we didn't need to work hard to protect Jacob. But we ignored that his anger was only temporary. In fact, if Master Don Albert was dissatisfied with Jacob at that time, I would still work hard to protect Jacob. Now, in addition to the gratitude they deserve, Jacob and Master Don Albert may look at me more highly."

The wife nodded and sighed, "It has always been like this. It is easy to add icing on the cake, but it is rare to send charcoal in the snow. We have learned a lesson this time. In the future, we must try every means to win over Jacob. Sincerity can move mountains and open rocks. Sooner or later, he will let go of his estrangement towards us. At that time, maybe he can ask Master Don Albert to help you move up to the next level!"

"You're right!" President Pei nodded heavily and said seriously: "Whether I can go to the next level depends entirely on Jacob!"

At the same time, Tomson Yipin.

Claire knew that since Charlie Wade agreed to Don Albert's request, it meant that Charlie Wade would be away from home for at least ten days or half a month, so she said to charlie Wade: “Husband, let’s go shopping tomorrow and buy you some new clothes. It’s already very cold here, and it’s probably even colder in the northwest. I have to buy you two thick down jackets.”

charlie Wade smiled and said, “My dear wife, you don’t have to buy me thick clothes. When I get there, I will just buy a green work coat. There must be a lot of them in the mines. No matter which country the down jacket is imported from, it is not as warm and solid as this one.”

Claire said, “You go to the mountains to read Feng Shui for others, so you have to climb mountains and wade through water. It’s already very cold there, and it will be even colder up the mountain. And the colder it is, the lighter the equipment you wear should be!”

charlie Wade waved his hand: “Wife, don’t worry about my physical fitness. I won’t be tired or frozen. Besides, I have to prepare some things for Feng Shui tomorrow. After all, I will leave the day after tomorrow. I’m afraid it will be too late to go shopping for clothes.”

Claire said: “It doesn’t matter, just go ahead and do your thing, I’ll go buy it for you.”

Jacob, who was standing by, was excited as he watched his circle of friends being liked by a large number of friends. When he saw that President Pei not only liked his post but also sent more than a dozen thumbs-up emojis, he was overjoyed and quickly echoed Claire and said to charlie Wade, “That’s right, good son-in-law, you just do your thing and let Claire buy it for you.”

As he spoke, he said with great emotion: “Good son-in-law, it seems that Master Don Albert still gives you face. If you get along well with Master Don Albert, my chances of returning to the position of executive vice president in the future will be much greater. Dad’s career depends on you!”

charlie Wade naturally knew all about Jacob’s little thoughts.

He knew that Jacob would not be satisfied with just returning to the Calligraphy and Painting Association. He would definitely think about continuing to climb up until he got back the position of executive vice president, or even became the president.

However, charlie Wade would naturally not let him have it so easy. As long as Don Albert did not open up the upward channel for President Pei, Jacob would not be able to become the president. And with his previous scandal, it would be difficult for him to return to the position of executive vice president. After all, there were several other vice presidents in the middle. Jacob, who had a dark history, could not squeeze them out one by one.

And what charlie Wade wanted was to make Jacob's upward channel in the Calligraphy and Painting Association full of thorns, and let him stay in the Calligraphy and Painting Association for a long time in the future.

Two days later, in the morning, Don Albert came to the door in person. In front of charlie Wade's family, he took the initiative to say: "Everyone, I will take Master Wade to the airport. I have something to tell Master Wade on the way."

Claire originally wanted to take charlie Wade, but Don Albert insisted that he had something to communicate with charlie Wade on the way. She had no choice but to compromise and told charlie Wade: "Husband, you must pay attention to safety and take care of yourself when you arrive in the northwest."

charlie Wade smiled and said: "Don't worry, my wife, I may often have no signal in the mountains these days. If you can't contact me temporarily, don't worry. Leave me a message directly. I will reply you as soon as I have a signal."

Claire didn't know that this was charlie Wade's little trick. He nodded very understandingly and said: "You should do your business."

charlie Wade nodded and said: "Then I'll leave first."

Then, the family sent charlie Wade out of the house and sent him to Don Albert's car.

After Don Albert drove away from Tomson Yipin, he did not go directly to the airport, but came to Zijin Villa and picked up Lin Wan'er.

Lin Wan'er and charlie Wade sat in the back seat of the car. After the car started, charlie Wade asked her, "Ms. Lin, how has the shipping company of Po Qing Hui been doing these days?"

Lin Wan'er knew that Don Albert was also there, so she didn't need to hide the matter of Po Qing Hui from Don Albert, but she couldn't let Don Albert know her identity and background, so she switched back to Lin Xiaowan's identity and said to charlie Wade, "Brother charlie Wade, after the Singapore shipping company was acquired, its aircraft have been flying intensively on European cargo routes recently. I see that almost all of them are point-to-point trunk cargo between several major cities in Europe, and the companies cooperating with them are also relatively well-known companies. Today

We are still accepting some air express shipments that DHL transfers in Frankfurt, and it seems normal at the moment. "

charlie Wade nodded and said, "Keep keeping an eye on them, maybe the normal operation is just a smokescreen, and when no one pays attention to them in a few days, they will have other actions."

Lin Wan'er nodded and said, "Brother charlie Wade, don't worry, I have arranged someone to be in charge of this matter, and I will tell me as soon as there is any movement."

"Okay." charlie Wade said, "If you have any clues, please tell me as soon as possible. "

At this time, in Aurous Hill Airport, an Airbus A350 registered in France has been parked here for two days.

This plane was arranged for charlie Wade by Steve Rothschild, who has returned to the United States. The plane belongs to a general aviation company in Paris that mainly engages in charter business and has no direct connection with the Rothschild family.

When the plane arrived in Aurous Hill, Isaac Cameron directly arranged for someone to conduct a systematic inspection of the plane to confirm that there were no safety hazards and eavesdropping devices. Only then did he apply for today's flight to Northern Europe, and the crew was also replaced by the Ye family's own to further ensure safety.

Because Sun Zhidong (Meir) had made arrangements, charlie Wade and Lin Wan'er bypassed customs and boarded the plane directly from the remote parking position.
