

the Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6946

By _ / July 28, 2024

The Rothschild father and son, both satisfied with each other, chatted happily on the way to the palace.

The more Howard looked at Steve, the more he liked him. He kept sighing in his heart that he had given birth to a sensible and filial son. Steve was naturally in a very good mood because he had received his father's approval. He just hoped to move to China as soon as possible to get close to Charlie Wade and improve their friendship.

Steve thought that going to China would definitely be beneficial to him. Even if he could not get Charlie Wade's support in inheriting the family, he would have a good chance of getting some pills from Charlie Wade by flattering him. This was much better than staying in the United States and being suspected, guarded against, and hated by the old man under his nose.

Therefore, the father and son each had their own thoughts, but the relationship between them returned to the harmonious state when Steve was a child.

When the two arrived at the palace, the royal guards were already waiting on both sides of the road inside the palace. Knowing that Howard must be a face-conscious person, Helena also arranged for him to receive the highest courtesy of the Nordic royal family.

In the square in front of the main building of the palace, Helena and the old queen stood side by side. After the Rothschild father and son got out of the car, they came up to the two of them and kissed their hands respectfully.

Howard looked at Helena and said with gratitude: "Your Majesty, thank you for your invitation. It is an honor for our Rothschild family to come to the Nordic Palace to have dinner with you and Lady Iliad!"

Helena smiled and said, "Mr. Rothschild, you are too polite. You two are distinguished guests of the Nordic royal family. You should feel like you are at home here. There is no need to be too polite."

After that, she said, "You two, the dinner is still being prepared and will start in two hours. I will show you around the palace first."

Howard said hurriedly, "That's great. It's an honor to have Her Majesty personally show us around!"

Helena nodded slightly and smiled gracefully, then took the father and son to visit the main hall of the palace.

The so-called visit was actually a gesture of goodwill towards Howard. Charlie Wade wanted to take a two-pronged approach and extract value from both Howard and Steve, father and son, respectively. Therefore, he would not be too stingy in giving the face and benefits that should be given.

Helena's goodwill towards Howard is the core motivation for Howard to continue working for Helena.

Steve followed his father Howard on the tour like an obedient quail. During this time, his father and Helena kept talking, but Steve didn't say much.

His mind was not at all on visiting the Nordic Palace or the Nordic Queen Helena. He was only thinking that Charlie Wade said he wanted to come to Northern Europe when he was in China, and he wondered if he was also in the palace at this moment.

So, while Helena was introducing the royal art collection to her father Howard, he took out his mobile phone and sent a message to Charlie Wade. The content of the message was: Mr. Wade, are you in Northern Europe?

Charlie Wade quickly replied: I am having dinner in the banquet hall of the Nordic royal family.

Steve was startled and thought to himself, "Why is Charlie Wade also in the banquet hall? Could it be that Helena invited me and my father at the same time, and also invited Charlie Wade? Wouldn't it be awkward if we met?"

In a state of nervousness, he quickly replied to the message and asked Charlie Wade: "Mr. Wade, are you going to have dinner with us later?"

Charlie Wade replied: "No, I will leave after I finish eating. It's still more than an hour before your dinner starts, and you probably won't be able to see me."

Steve breathed a sigh of relief. It seemed that Charlie Wade had no intention of meeting his father. In that case, he naturally had no psychological burden.

So he quickly asked again: "Mr. Wade, can I go to the banquet hall to meet you? I have something I want to tell you in person."

Charlie Wade replied: "Come if you want."

Steve wanted to meet Charlie Wade, not only to get close to him, but also to tell him that he was going to live in China soon.

Seeing that Charlie Wade also agreed to meet, he quickly said: "Okay, Mr. Wade, wait a moment, I'll be there soon!"

Then, he thought for a moment, walked to Helena and Howard, and said, "Excuse me, Your Majesty, which way is the bathroom?"

Helena guessed that he was going to see charlie Wade, so she smiled and said, "You can go to the bathroom over at the banquet hall. Just go through the corridor on the east side of the first floor and walk to the end."

"Okay, thank you, Her Majesty!" Steve saluted very respectfully, and then whispered to his father, "Father, I'll go first. You can talk to Her Majesty first."

"Go ahead." Howard nodded. In his opinion, Steve was just a foil today. It didn't matter whether he was there or not, so he didn't take it to heart.

When Steve arrived at the banquet hall, charlie Wade, Lin Wan'er, Asher and Li Yalin were sitting at the huge dining table having dinner.

Steve trotted over and when he saw charlie Wade, he quickly put on an excited expression, walked quickly to his side, and said respectfully: "Hello, Mr. Wade! We meet again!"

charlie Wade nodded and introduced him to his second uncle Homula who was sitting opposite him, saying: "Steve, let me introduce my second uncle Homula. You should have met him, right?"

Steve naturally knew Homula, but they had never been close friends. But when they met again, he stepped forward and shook his hand enthusiastically, saying, "Hello, Mr. An! We have known each other for a long time!"

Homula smiled and said, "I didn't expect to meet Mr. Rothschild here. It's such an honor."

Steve quickly said, "Just call me Steve, don't call me Mr. Rothschild, that's too distant. You are Mr. Wade's uncle, and you will be my good friend in the future. There's no need to be so polite between good friends!"

Homula nodded and said with a smile: "Okay Steve, just call me Homula from now on, or call me by my English name Kevin."

Steve smiled and said, "I'm good at Chinese, so let's call you Homula."

charlie Wade introduced Li Yalin again at this time, saying: "Steve, this is Inspector Li Yalin, I don't need to introduce him any further, right?"

“No, no, no.” Steve said with a smile, “I live in New York, how could I not have heard of Inspector Li’s name? I have heard of him for a long time!”

After saying that, he took the initiative to extend his hand to Inspector Li and shook hands.

charlie Wade then pointed to Lin Wan’er beside him and introduced: “This is my little sister, Lin Xiaowan.”

Steve saw that Lin Wan’er looked very girlish, so he didn’t think much about it, and subconsciously wanted to step forward and kiss her hand. charlie Wade interrupted him and said with a smile: “If you are not eighteen years old, forget about the kiss.”

Steve didn’t feel embarrassed, and immediately pulled his hand back, saying with a smile: “I didn’t expect Miss Lin to be so young. If you have the opportunity to visit the United States in the future, please let Mr. Wade contact me. I will definitely arrange the best reception!”

Lin Wan’er nodded politely and smiled, saying, “Thank you, Mr. Rothschild.”

charlie Wade looked at Steve and asked curiously: “Steve, why don’t you accompany your old man on the tour? Why do you come here to see me?”

Steve couldn’t hide his excitement and said, “Mr. Wade, I want to tell you that I have reached a consensus with my father and plan to set up a Rothschild family office in China, which will be responsible for the family’s investment in China. At that time, this family office will be fully responsible for me. I will go to China in person to be in charge of all the business of this office. The family will invest 50 billion US dollars in the first batch to increase investment in China. I plan to set up this office in Aurous Hill!”

charlie Wade was not surprised by the news. Steve was a smart man. After his last visit to Aurous Hill, he must have figured out that he was his benefactor now. It would be the best choice for him to develop in Aurous Hill in the future. Of course, it would also make it easier for him to control him.

So charlie Wade smiled and said to Steve: “Steve, then I would like to welcome you in advance on behalf of Aurous Hill and its citizens.”

Steve said excitedly: “Please rest assured, Mr. Wade and the people of Aurous Hill, I will do my best to contribute to the construction of Aurous Hill!”

charlie Wade was stunned: “Who did you learn this art of speaking from?”

Steve smiled and said truthfully, “I have been catching up on a lot of Chinese movies and TV shows recently, all of which reflect the World War II period. To be honest, I am deeply moved by the courage of those Chinese national heroes!”

charlie Wade was initially satisfied with Steve's attitude.

In theory, Steve had taken advantage of him. After all, he had given him some blood-dispersing and heart-saving pills to drink last time. If we follow the logic of fishing bait, charlie Wade had definitely hit him hard.

So he said to Steve: "Steve, I have seen your determination to build Aurous Hill. Next, it depends on your actual actions. Since you have done a lot of homework, you should know that now is the critical moment to test you!"

Steve subconsciously straightened his spine, and his right hand seemed to want to touch his temple involuntarily. His subconscious told him that he should straighten his back and salute immediately, then tell charlie Wade to rest assured, and he promised not to disappoint him.

But thinking that the cultural differences were too great, he raised his hand halfway, but reluctantly put it back, and then quickly said to charlie Wade: "Mr. Wade, please rest assured, I will do my best to do my best."

"Yeah." charlie Wade nodded slightly and said, "You should accompany your father on the tour. We will meet again when you arrive in China."

"Okay!" Steve said quickly, "Then we'll meet again in China! Mr. Wade, Mr. An, Inspector Li, Miss Lin, I'll take my leave now! I'll visit you again when I get to Aurous Hill!"

Several people said goodbye to Steve politely and watched him leave timidly. After he walked out of the banquet hall, Homula smiled and said, "I have met Steve Rothschild many times. Every time he was arrogant and looked down on others. This is the first time he has been so humble as today."

charlie Wade smiled and said: "Once you ask for help from others, you will naturally lose your confidence."

After that, charlie Wade said, "By the way, Uncle, regarding when the AI model can be completely handed over and customized calculations can be performed, did the technicians give an accurate time node?"

Lin Wan'er said, "From Frankfurt to South Africa, the entire journey is more than 8,000 kilometers."

charlie Wade frowned and asked her: "

Then, Lin Wan'er added, "However, the plane issued an emergency code just after it flew over Niger, and then landed in the Nigerian port city of Lagos. It was said that there was a smoke alarm in the cargo hold, and it took off again after eliminating the hidden danger."

charlie Wade frowned and said, "Lagos, Nigeria... Why does this city sound familiar?"

Lin Wan'er asked curiously, "Have you been there, sir?"

"No..." charlie Wade said, "I seem to have heard of it somewhere."

charlie Wade thought for a moment and said, "I remember that before you were attacked, I found clues about Yuantai International Express, and then monitored six Boeing 777 cargo planes under Yuantai. One of them was in Lagos, Nigeria. Later, the plane went from Nigeria to Sweden. I think it was to pick up the Cavalry Guards who arrested you in Sweden."

Lin Wan'er said: "In that case, there is a high probability that the Poqing Society has its headquarters in Nigeria."

charlie Wade frowned and said, "This plane applied for a route to South Africa, but it used an emergency code to make an emergency landing in Nigeria. It seems like there is nothing wrong with it, but it feels like it was intentional."

Lin Wan'er nodded. "Since their plane has been in Nigeria before, it doesn't seem so unusual for it to make an emergency landing in Nigeria this time. It's possible that selling it to other countries is just a cover. After flying in Europe for a few days, they will start to find a way to reuse it."

charlie Wade asked her: "If they are trying to go to Nigeria under the guise of going to South Africa, what is their purpose? To make an emergency landing in Nigeria under the pretext of a plane malfunction and then deliver goods to Nigeria?"

Lin Wan'er said, "Your speculation is not impossible. They may feel that it is not safe to fly directly to Nigeria, so they use this method to confuse us. Since it is a smoke alarm in the cargo hold, they must clear out the cargo in the cargo hold after landing to check for hidden dangers. If the real destination of the cargo is Nigeria, this link can complete the cargo transfer. Although Nigeria is the largest economy in Africa, it is still quite chaotic internally. The Broken Qing Society has been working there for many years, so it is definitely not difficult for them to operate this matter."

After that, Lin Wan'er added: "But I still think this matter is a little strange. My lord, just listen to it, and don't pursue this clue."

charlie Wade joked, "The Po Qing Society has been tossing so much about the shipping company, maybe they just want to use it to fish. If it were before, because I have too few clues about the Po Qing Society, regardless of whether the other party is really fishing, I will definitely go to Nigeria to find out. However, the AI model is about to be delivered. Next, it is more reliable to search for clues about the Po Qing Society through AI. I will ignore Nigeria for the time being."

"Yes." Lin Wan'er nodded and said, "The authenticity of the clues released by the Poqing Society itself needs to be verified, and I believe in Ai's analysis more."

charlie Wade smacked his lips and smiled, "If the Po Qing Society really wants to fish in Nigeria, they will definitely send one or all of the three elders to Nigeria to wait and see. Once they strengthen their defense in Nigeria, the defense forces in other places will inevitably be weakened. If Ai can help me find other bases of the Po Qing Society in other countries around Nigeria, I will go over to Nigeria and kill the Po Qing Society in other bases around Nigeria. Will Wu Feiyan be mad to death?"

Lin Wan'er smiled and said, "Sir, when you say that, I feel like I'm watching Tom and Jerry. The intention of provocation is too obvious."

"Yes!" charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "Since we can't beat her head-on, we have to use various methods to constantly provoke her, torture her will and mentality, and make her gradually lose her mind!"
