

The amazing son in law - The Amazing Son In Law

Chapter 7081

After cutting off Wu Shutong's left hand, the Great Elder Wu Bolin (Bick) picked up Wu Shutong's severed hand from the ground and said, "We still have to remain in seclusion here and wait for the next order from the Lord. If the Lord gives you a chance to make amends, you must seize it and never let the Lord down again."

Wu Shutong could only nod heavily and said, "Please rest assured, Great Elder, I will do my best!"

After that, he whispered, "Thank you, Great Elder, for showing mercy..."

Wu Shutong knew very well that the Great Elder had been quite good to him. He didn't feel any pain when his left hand was cut off. This was all thanks to the Great Elder's protection with spiritual energy. Otherwise, the severe pain at the moment of cutting off and the subsequent pain of wound healing would definitely be very unbearable.

Wu Bolin (Bick) has been in Nigeria these days. He also knows that Wu Shutong is a bit wronged in this blame, but he can't say such words, so he said: "We are all Wu family members, there is no need to thank you. The three of us will continue to retreat here, take care of yourself."

"Retreat here?!" Wu Shutong asked in surprise: "The mysterious man bypassed this place, so won't the three elders go back?"

Wu Bolin (Bick) said lightly: "The British Lord ordered us to continue to retreat here, so we naturally can't leave a step."

After hearing this, Wu Shutong was even more confused. He didn't understand why the British Lord didn't let the three elders leave. If they were not transferred, wouldn't it be better to let them go to Morocco to find the whereabouts of the enemy and find an opportunity to kill the enemy with one blow?

However, Wu Bolin (Bick) had already said that this was the order of the British Lord, so he didn't dare to ask in detail, so he respectfully said: "Then I will see the three elders off."

"No need." Wu Bolin (Bick) waved his hand, turned around and walked out.

When he was about to reach the door, he said calmly without looking back: "I will burn your severed hand with real fire later, so don't worry about it."

After that, he walked out. Only

Wu Shutong and Yuan Chengze were left in the room.

Seeing Wu Shutong's left wrist had been cut off, Yuan Chengze knelt on one knee and said in fear and trepidation: "My subordinates are not doing a good job, please punish me, Grand Commander!"

A good subordinate must learn to take the blame for the boss who promoted him.

Even if he can't carry it, he must take the responsibility on himself by talking.

Yuan Chengze knew that the Grand Commander was paying for the failure of the British Lord's decision this time, so he naturally had to make the Grand Commander feel a little more comfortable.

Sure enough, seeing Yuan Chengze kneeling

Wu Shutong's mood eased a little after he apologized. Then he sighed and said, "Get up. The Lord ordered the three elders to stay here. There must be other orders. From now on, you and I have to fight to the death. Otherwise, what will be cut off next time will not be the wrist, but the neck!"

Yuan Chengze clasped his hands and said respectfully, "Please rest assured, Grand Commander, I will do my best!"

As soon as Yuan Chengze finished speaking, Wu Shutong received a call from Jadiel.

On the phone, Jadiel repeated the task Sara had given him and told him, "Shutong, this is a good opportunity for you to redeem yourself. Morocco is not big, but it is not small either. The possibility of more than 10,000 people wanting to get out immediately without being discovered is almost zero, so those people should still be in Morocco. Immediately send all the Xiaoqi Guards in Nigeria and all the Tiger Guards of the Tiger Guard Camp of your Right Army Governor's Office. Even if you have to dig three feet into the ground, you must find clues so that you can find their clues. Immediately notify the three elders, and they will rush over in the shortest time and kill the Lord's biggest worry on the spot. At that time, you will have made a great contribution!"

Wu Shutong immediately said, "Grandpa, don't worry. Tianlin will do his best this time. Not only will all the Tiger Guards be sent over, but Lieutenant General Yuan and I will also set off immediately to Morocco to take command!"
