

The amazing son in law - The Amazing Son In Law

Chapter 7086

The office building and the warehouse are together, and it is a separate courtyard. Although the area of the office building is not large, the warehouse covers an area of tens of thousands of square meters. In order not to be suspected by the outside world, they are also engaged in normal import and export trade.

Nearly a thousand people came to Moore Trade in broad daylight, which was indeed a bit too ostentatious, but Wu Shutong didn't care, and didn't remind them to pay attention to disguise, because in his opinion, since it was an open card, there was no need to hide it anymore, anyway, this place would lose its value soon.

At present, Duke Mining no longer exists. It stands to reason that all the people here should be gathered together and killed, and all clues to the Morocco line should be completely cut off.

But this time is different from the Cyprus. The enemy disappeared without a trace in Cyprus, and it is likely that they have escaped from the sea, so the Poqing Society did not track down Charlie Wade's clues and whereabouts, but this time Sara couldn't bear it anymore and vowed to find Charlie Wade's trace in Morocco, so Moore Trade still has some value for the time being.

Although there is still some use value, in Wu Shutong's opinion, there is only one mission left here. No matter whether clues can be found or not, after this matter is over, Moore Trade will have no need and possibility to continue to exist, so he is too lazy to pretend at the moment.

Dong Mingchao, the special envoy of Moore Trade, was very nervous at this moment. In the morning, seven or eight hundred people came one after another. After these people came, they all lined up in the warehouse and waited. The scene was spectacular.

His deputy asked him nervously in a low voice: "Sir, these people come here in broad daylight, isn't this too careless? What if someone sees us, won't we be exposed?"

“Exposed?” Dong Mingchao smiled bitterly: “The house has collapsed, what’s the point of having a bare gate standing in front of the ruins? In other words, the house is gone, what’s the point of having a bare gate?”

The deputy instantly understood what he meant and asked him quickly: “What will the higher-ups do with us?”

Dong Mingchao shook his head and said: “I can’t say for sure. Right now, we need to cooperate with them and find clues about those people. After this incident, we may be transferred or executed, but we can’t stay here any longer.”

“Execution?!” The deputy panicked and said, “We haven’t done anything wrong, they won’t execute us, right?”

Dong Mingchao said worriedly, “Who can say for sure? The organization has always been ruthless in doing things, and the secrets between the various bases are protected very well. Even if other bases are destroyed, it is difficult for us to know. But if we are assigned to other bases, it means that the secret of the destruction of Duke Mining is exposed to other bases. Do you think the organization is willing to take this risk?”

The deputy hurriedly said, “But they are doing a big change now. Aren’t they afraid that the exchanged Cavalry Guards will also exchange the secrets of the various bases at the same time?”

Dong Mingchao asked, “What secrets are being exchanged? Where are their respective bases? Is it meaningful? It is impossible for them to leave there after being exchanged. What’s the use even if they know the locations of the ten bases outside? Their personal freedom is strictly controlled, and they have no connection with the outside world at all. “We have no contact with them, are you afraid that they will leak the secrets?”

Dong Mingchao said, “Besides, these people’s families are in other garrisons. Even if they have the opportunity to leak the secrets of the organization, they dare not do so.”

At this point, Dong Mingchao paused for a moment and said sadly, “We are different. We know everything that happened in Duke Mining. This kind of news must not be spread within the organization. It will greatly affect the morale of the army and the authority of the organization. If I were the British leader, I would not let a group of people take their scandals to other places...”

The deputy was so scared that his face turned pale and blurted out, “Sir, what should we do now? ! We can’t just sit here and wait to die, right?”

Dong Mingchao asked back, “Besides sitting and waiting to die, do you have any other good ideas?”

The deputy was speechless for a moment. He also knew that in this situation, they had no power to resist at all.

Dong Mingchao sighed: “No matter how you look at it, the guys at Duke Mining are the luckiest. They were rescued with their families before the big change. As long as they can avoid this wave of searches, they can rest easy!”

His deputy couldn’t help but said: “Why don’t we have such good luck...”

Just as he finished speaking, a subordinate ran over and said nervously through the door: “Special Envoy! The Grand Commander is here!”
