

The amazing son in law - The Amazing Son In Law

Chapter 7105

The initial stage of amputation is the most painful and difficult.

For many years, he was a healthy person with no defects. Suddenly, he lost some limbs, which was a great psychological blow.

Wu Shuhang was the same.

For people like him, the most difficult thing was to accept his disability psychologically, and then to overcome and make up for his disability physically. He would often go through a period of depression.

Wu Shuhang had always been arrogant and became the Grand Commander of the Right Army Commander's Office. He was originally in high spirits, but now he suddenly became disabled, which was like being poured with a bucket of ice water.

Just when he was feeling depressed and sighing, there was a knock on the door.

He looked at the time. It had been more than an hour since Andre left. He thought Andre had completed his mission and returned, so he hurriedly said, "Come in, the door is not locked."

The door was gently pushed open from the outside, and Wu Shuhang immediately said, "Have you bought it? Let me try it."

Wu Shuhang did not have any hope for the value that could be bought in a place like Casablanca. He just wanted to buy one to deal with it so that no one would notice the clues, so he did not think it was unusual that Andre came back so soon.

But what she did not expect was that the man who flashed in after the door was pushed open was not Andre, but a strange man who looked much younger than Andre and was wearing a mask.

Wu Shuhang was immediately horrified and asked: "Who are you? How did you get in?!"

charlie Wade smiled and said: "Grand Commander Wu, don't be so nervous. I'm not targeting you. Besides, your security work here is meaningless to me. I can come to this kind of place anytime I want and leave anytime I want." When Wu Shuhang heard the other party call him Grand Commander Wu, he immediately asked vigilantly: "You... do you know me?"

charlie Wade smiled and said: "I've only heard of your name, and today is the first time I've seen you in person."

As he said that, charlie Wade's voice immediately turned cold, and he said: "Grand Commander, if you cooperate with me obediently, don't shout, and don't... Try to tip off anyone. I won't make it difficult for you. On the contrary, I have prepared a great gift for you. I hope you can accept it."

Wu Shuhang looked at charlie Wade and asked vigilantly, "Duke Mining was done by you, right?!"

charlie Wade said calmly, "Yes, it was me. I think the Grand Commander should have taken Song Ruyu's sword, right?"

Wu Shuhang looked at charlie Wade nervously and asked, "Did you come here to kill me?"

charlie Wade waved his hand, "I just said that I prepared a great gift for you, and sent it to you specially."

As he said that, he looked at Wu Shuhang's empty left sleeve and asked with a smile, "The Grand Commander's There seems to be something wrong with the left hand, what's wrong? Was it cut off by Sara's men?"

Wu Shuhang was panicked and couldn't help asking charlie Wade: "You...how did you know?"

charlie Wade smiled and said, "I have been paying attention to Morocco and Nigeria. If you have any movement, it can generally not be hidden from my surveillance."

Then, charlie Wade asked again: "Why did the Grand Commander lose his left hand? Is it because of the failure of Duke Mining?"

Wu Shuhang didn't know why charlie Wade suddenly appeared here, so he asked him: "What exactly are you doing here?"

charlie Wade smiled and said, "I came here today just to see your style, but I didn't expect , the Grand Commander has become a disabled person. It must be very hard for him to lose his left hand."

Wu Shuhang was worried, but he pretended to be calm and said, "Sir, if you have anything to say, don't beat around the bush."

charlie Wade nodded, sat down in front of him, and smiled, "Tell me the truth. I came here today to bring you warmth."

As he said that, he took out a remodeling pill and said lightly, "Grand Commander, please look at this pill. It is called the Remodeling Pill. As the name suggests, it means to remodel the golden body. Don't say that you just lost your left hand. Even if you are chopped into a human pig now, as long as you take this pill, your hands and feet will grow smoothly. "

"Remodeling Pill? ! "

Wu Shuhang's eyes widened when he looked at the pill.

He was just thinking that if he wanted to return to being a real normal person, the only way was to get a remodeling pill.

Apart from this, there was almost no second possibility.

But he was very pessimistic about this before. After all, this kind of elixir is expensive. How could he get such a magical medicine?

Then, he looked at Charlie Wade and smiled bitterly, "Sir, please don't tease me here. The Reshaping Pill is said to be a life-saving magic medicine. As long as you have it, even if you are beaten to the point where only your brain is left, you can be revived with full blood. I am not sure whether the old lady Yingzhu has such a precious elixir. You just took out a pill and told me that it is pure vegetarian. How can I believe it?"

Charlie Wade did not speak, but threw the pill to him directly. Wu Shuhang subconsciously stretched out his two hands to catch it, but at that moment he found that he only had one right hand left. He barely grabbed the pill with his right hand and instinctively examined the pill.

He could smell the pure medicinal fragrance of the pill. It was not an ordinary product at a glance, but he did not dare to believe it in his heart whether it was a duplicate.

Charlie Wade said at this time: "Just take the pill. It won't be long before your broken hand will grow back."

Wu Shuhang asked him: "You and I have never met before, and we are enemies. I really can't understand why you want to help me. Besides, how do I know if there is any trick in this pill?"

Charlie Wade sneered: "I can show up here without alerting anyone, and I can also take your life at any time. There is such a big gap in strength between you and me, do you think it is necessary for me to come to your house and deceive you this time?"

Wu Shuhang asked carefully: "But why did you give me this pill? Do you want me to betray the Lord?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "Don't worry, I give you this pill today, and you don't need to do anything to compensate me. I just don't like Sara. Since he broke your hand, I will let your hand grow back!"

After that, Charlie Wade ordered: "I'll give you three seconds to eat the pill, otherwise I will take it back. You must remember, there will be no such store after my village."

Wu Shuhang hesitated and struggled for a long time, still did not dare to try the pill given to him by the stranger in front of him.

After all, he was a member of the Wu family. He knew very well how the Lord controlled everyone. In addition to using his family as long-term hostages, he also had a magic weapon, which was the poison planted in these people's bodies.

Because he was a member of the Wu family, he was spared the step of taking the poison, so he was worried that the pill Charlie Wade handed to him was of another kind. Once he was controlled by him again, it would be a standard pipe dream to think of turning things around in the future.

Seeing that he looked afraid, Charlie Wade became a little impatient. Then, he came to Wu Shuhang at a very fast speed, and then snatched the pill from his right hand with one hand, and directly pinched her mouth with the other hand. Then, his right hand slapped Wu Shuhang's face like a dunk, and directly slapped the pill from Wu Shuhang's mouth into his stomach.

Seeing his panic, Charlie Wade said calmly, "Don't be so nervous. You just lost your left hand, so the medicine will take effect very quickly. You just need to wait patiently for five or six minutes, and your left hand will grow back."
