

The amazing son in law - The Amazing Son In Law

Chapter 7126

Helena was very sensible. Seeing Charlie Wade say this, although she felt disappointed, she still said, "Since Mr. Wade has made up his mind, Helena will not keep you any longer. I will go to the airport to see you and Miss Lin off tomorrow."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) on the side suddenly smiled and asked, "Sister Helena, the winter in Northern Europe is too long, and it will be boring if you stay there for a long time. Why don't you go to China with us for vacation? In the past, your Nordic royal family should have gone to Southern Europe or equatorial countries for vacation during the winter break, right?"

Helena didn't expect Lin Wan'er (Alani) to invite her to China. She said a little awkwardly, "We...we go to Southern Europe or equatorial countries for vacation, mainly because we have industries there, and we can go with the Chinese people." I am familiar with the local government, so it is convenient to enter the country and it is more private. As for China... the royal family has only visited there for state visits before, but they have not had any contact about vacations, so it may be more troublesome. "

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said, "It's actually not a big deal. Let Osu City and Aurous Hill establish a friendly city. Then my sister can go to Aurous Hill on this basis. At that time, the Nordic royal family will come forward to rent a hotel in Aurous Hill and do a good job of security. Basically, there will be no problem. If you want to be more convenient, you can directly rent the Buckingham Palace in Aurous Hill, which is the property of Brother Charlie Wade. In addition, you can say hello to the relevant departments in Aurous Hill and say that you don't want to be too high-profile. Let the media not report on you, sister, and basically there will be no problem. "

When Helena heard this, her eyes suddenly shone with some brilliance.

Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s idea is very feasible. The Nordic countries are relatively small, and the royal family is more of a mascot. Therefore, it is not surprising for the queen to personally show up to establish friendly cities with big countries. It is also reasonable for her to solve the accommodation and security problems by herself. When the Saudi royal family came to China to discuss cooperation, they once booked an entire hotel. In addition to airlifting a fleet of vehicles, they also rented dozens or even hundreds of luxury Mercedes-Benz and Maybach cars in Yanjing. Although the Nordic royal family is not so grand, it is still very easy for them to solve the accommodation and security problems by themselves.

So, she looked at Charlie Wade and asked him, "Mr. Wade, if Helena goes to Aurous Hill, will it bother you?"

Charlie Wade didn't understand why Lin Wan'er (Alani) suddenly had the idea to invite Helena to Aurous Hill, but since she said so, he certainly couldn't show embarrassment. After all, Helena helped a lot when he and Lin Wan'er (Alani) came here this time, so he smiled and said, "No, you are welcome to come to Aurous Hill anytime you want."

Helena was very excited and said quickly, "Then I will communicate with Susan, the Prime Minister, and the Mayor to push this matter forward."

After dinner with Helena, Charlie Wade went back to the room to pack his carry-on luggage. When he was halfway through packing, he heard Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s voice from outside the door: "Brother Charlie Wade, is it convenient to talk to you now?"

"Convenient." Charlie Wade answered casually.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) pushed the door in, closed the door carefully, walked to Charlie Wade, and asked in a low voice with expectation, "My lord, is everything going well in Morocco this time?"

"Smooth." Charlie Wade introduced the general process to Lin Wan'er (Alani).

After listening to this, Lin Wan'er (Alani) couldn't help but laugh and said, "Young Master is really good at this. Just one Reshaping Pill has made Sara lose her composure. After this incident, her mentality will definitely change dramatically. If there is a problem with her mentality, it will affect her judgment, which is a good thing for us."

After that, she asked Charlie Wade, "By the way, Young Master, have you continued to practice that set of hand seals to accumulate spiritual energy these days?"

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "I have never stopped as long as I have free time."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) asked expectantly, "Then has Young Master tried to inject spiritual energy into the ring?"

"Is it possible to absorb more spiritual energy?" Charlie Wade said, "Not yet. I'm worried that the ring is too overbearing and will suck all my spiritual energy away. I plan to try again after returning to Aurous Hill. If the spiritual energy is completely drained, I can take medicine to replenish it. The pills that can replenish spiritual energy have been used to detoxify those dead soldiers and the cavalry guards."

"Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded repeatedly, looked at Charlie Wade and asked him, "If you plan to try it after returning to Aurous Hill, can I let me watch from the side? I'm very curious about what other effects the ring has!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "Of course we have to give it a try. If Miss Lin is interested, then after we land in Aurous Hill late tomorrow night, we can go to the hillside villa of Champs Elysees and see if there is anything special about this ring."
