

The amazing son in law - The Amazing Son In Law

Chapter 7130

So, he immediately tried to transfer the spiritual energy in his Dantian to his brain to fight with that spiritual energy.

But the strange thing was that just as he was mobilizing his spiritual energy to rescue the other spiritual energy that was trapped, the strange spiritual energy that was entangled with him seemed to sense the reinforcements coming from behind, and turned around and attacked from the brain, intercepting the new spiritual energy directly in the meridians, and then entangled it inside himself.

charlie Wade was horrified to find that the spiritual energy that was transformed by the Peiyuan Pill had also betrayed him and was completely controlled by the strange spiritual energy.

Then, the more powerful spiritual energy continued to rush upward, scaring charlie Wade to death and trying to close the meridians to block it, but there was no controllable spiritual energy in his body, so the physical manifestation of this futile effort was the same as before, making him look hideous and painful.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) was so nervous that she didn't dare to delay, and quickly stuffed another pill into charlie Wade's mouth.

Then the strange thing happened again.

The spiritual energy that was almost reaching the sea of consciousness felt that there was more spiritual energy flowing into the Dantian. Before charlie Wade could mobilize the spiritual energy upward, it turned around 180 degrees and rushed towards the Dantian. The spiritual energy that had become increasingly powerful was now completely unstoppable. Before the newly injected spiritual energy in the Dantian could even warm up, it was completely absorbed by the other party!

charlie Wade was about to collapse. How could he have thought that this weird spiritual energy was playing a snake game in his body!

Lin Wan'er (Alani), who didn't understand why, saw that charlie Wade had not gotten better after taking two pills, and quickly stuffed another one into his mouth.

charlie Wade thought it was over. This ghost thing was here to cheat the spiritual energy. If he continued to eat it, wouldn't all the precious pills be wasted?

But at this moment, he was really distracted and couldn't even open his mouth to talk to Lin Wan'er (Alani). The only thing he could do was to close his mouth and clench his teeth as much as possible to prevent Lin Wan'er (Alani) from stuffing pills into his mouth again.

On the one hand, he really felt sorry for the pills, but on the other hand, he was also worried that if he took more, the spiritual energy would brew a spiritual energy bomb in his body. If it rushed into his brain, it would be no less powerful than Chang Shengbo's self-explosion. By then, not to mention Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s death, the entire villa complex in the hillside would probably be razed to the ground! But his physical strength was obviously exhausted at this time. Even if he gritted his teeth with all his strength, he still couldn't stop Lin Wan'er (Alani) who was eager to save him. Lin Wan'er (Alani) pinched Charlie Wade's cheeks on both sides, forcibly pinched his upper and lower teeth apart, and stuffed another pill in.

So, the weird spiritual energy played the snake game in Charlie Wade's body again.

Three, four, five...

In order to prevent Charlie Wade from getting into trouble, Lin Wan'er (Alani) gave all five pills to Charlie Wade, praying non-stop: "Master! Master, can you hear me? Is the spiritual energy still not enough?! If it is still not enough, tell me the password of the safe, and I will get you some more pills!"

Charlie Wade had no time to respond to her. The spiritual energy was already so powerful that it turned around again and attacked his brain.

The extremely powerful spiritual energy poured into the sea of consciousness, making Charlie Wade's eyes go black. He felt a sharp pain as if his brain was stretched open, and then he lost consciousness.

At the moment he lost consciousness, a majestic pagoda suddenly rose above the sea of consciousness. The appearance of the pagoda was exactly the same as the four-sided treasure tower!

It was a pity that Charlie Wade could not see this scene at all.

At this moment, Charlie Wade's sea of consciousness was like a vast ocean, and suddenly the powerful spiritual energy set off a raging wave that seemed to swallow everything. But then, the spiritual energy that seemed to destroy everything turned into countless tiny light spots and rushed towards the pagoda hanging in the air.

After absorbing the light spots transformed by the spiritual energy, the pagoda looked dilapidated and experienced vicissitudes in the last second, and then it burst out with colorful Buddha light in the next second, and its own fallen colors gradually recovered at this moment, as if it had returned to the moment it was just built after a thousand years!

The new, solemn and solemn pagoda floated on Charlie Wade's sea of consciousness. After all the spiritual energy was absorbed, it suddenly sank into the sea of consciousness and disappeared without a trace.

And charlie Wade's sea of consciousness once again returned to calm.

At this time, charlie Wade had fainted and fell directly into Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s arms.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) was extremely nervous. She held charlie Wade's head and cried, "Master, don't scare me. Please wake up quickly, okay..."

charlie Wade also slowly opened his eyes at this moment. At this moment, he felt that his body was as weak as if he had been locked up in a coal mine and had been digging coal for seven days and seven nights without a moment's rest. He had no strength at all. Every inch of skin, every muscle, and every bone was sore.

When he saw Lin Wan'er (Alani) holding him in her arms, he subconsciously asked, "Am I still alive?"

When Lin Wan'er (Alani) saw that he was awake, she burst into tears of joy and cried, "Master, you are awake! I am almost scared to death by you! What happened to you just now?"

charlie Wade recalled everything that had just happened, and then tried to look into his meridians and dantian. There was no trace of spiritual energy at all. It was all absorbed by the strange spiritual energy.

He subconsciously asked Lin Wan'er (Alani), "Miss Lin, how many pills did you feed me just now?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) blurted out, "I fed you five pills and it's not enough. I almost thought you couldn't make it..."

"Five pills?!" charlie Wade's eyes went dark again and he almost fainted again.

Then, tears flowed from his eyes and he cursed with gritted teeth, "What a bullshit handprint, I thought it was the Buddha's spirit... This... This is a f*cking scam!"

No data found.