

The amazing son in law - The Amazing Son In Law

Chapter 7131

charlie Wade is not a stingy person, but he really feels sorry for spiritual energy.

What's more, the spiritual energy that was cheated this time reached an unprecedented new height. All the spiritual energy in his body, plus the spiritual energy from the hand seals, plus the five Peiyuan Pills, were all cheated away. This loss was more painful than losing 10 billion US dollars.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) had never expected that after she fed charlie Wade five pills in a row, the spiritual energy would disappear without a trace. She couldn't help but exclaimed, "Master, this... this spiritual energy shouldn't just disappear for no reason, right? Could it have been sucked away by the ring again?"

charlie Wade shook his head and said dejectedly, "It really wasn't it this time. I wanted to guide all the spiritual energy into the ring, but the spiritual energy generated by the handprint was not only out of my control, but also seemed to have its own consciousness. It carried my original spiritual energy straight into my sea of consciousness, so that I lost control of my own spiritual energy. Then you kept feeding me pills, and it seemed to have consciousness. When it found new spiritual energy in my dantian, it turned around and killed me. It killed five pills and six. I suspect it was setting a trap for me from the beginning to the end, giving me a little profit first, and then constantly drawing cakes for me. I thought my spiritual energy had doubled with its help, but in fact it was greedy for my principal..."

After saying this, he thought of the five pills, covered his face and sighed: "This is equivalent to forcing me to chase five times the leverage after my account was liquidated... Damn it! Isn't this just a dog dealer in the stock market that specifically lures in more investors and kills retail investors?!"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) murmured, "It...it is just the spiritual energy cultivated by the young master using hand seals. It is impossible for spiritual energy to have self-awareness. How can it be so cunning..."

charlie Wade shook his head and said, "I don't understand it either. It doesn't make sense at all..."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) asked, "Since you can be sure that the spiritual energy was not absorbed by the ring, could it be absorbed by something else?"

"Others?" charlie Wade shook his head and said, "Besides the ring you gave me and the medicine cauldron I extorted from the head of Taizhen Dao, I have not obtained any other ready-made magic tools from other channels. But this time it is not a ring, and it cannot be a medicine cauldron."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) asked in confusion, "But... even your body may not be able to carry such a huge amount of spiritual energy. Why did it disappear without a trace after reaching your sea of consciousness? I have been by your side just now and did not feel anything unusual. Logically, the spiritual energy in your body should not have taken the opportunity to escape from your body. But it just disappeared for no reason. It is really too weird."

"Yes..." charlie Wade sat up straight with difficulty, and cursed in frustration: "This is like a person eating several times his own weight in one meal. It sounds incredible, but when the spiritual energy reaches the sea of consciousness, it really disappears without a trace."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) continued, "Sir, have you ever thought about why when you and I stood under the Northern Lights, the lights transformed into that set of handprints? Could it be that the other party had been setting a trap for you since then?"

charlie Wade asked: "You mean, someone deliberately asked Ji Guang to teach me the handprints and tricked me into falling for it, just to cheat me out of all my spiritual energy?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded and said, "Let me and you reason together. If this is a trap from the beginning to the end, then the initiator of the trap must be either a person or an object;"

Then, Lin Wan'er (Alani) continued, "I think the possibility of it being a human is very small. Even if there were experts hiding near the Aurora that day, it is unlikely that they would follow us all the way across the ocean, follow us to Aurous Hill, and follow us into the basement of this villa. Unless it is a supernatural thing like a ghost, but this is unconfirmed and unlikely;"

charlie Wade agreed and said, "It is indeed unlikely to be a human or a ghost. If it is a human, then he must at least master the invisibility technique in fantasy novels, otherwise it would be impossible for him to follow us step by step without being discovered by us. As for ghosts, this is even more unreliable. There is no evidence to prove the existence of ghosts. Besides, even if there are ghosts, ghosts cannot absorb spiritual energy. hh
