

The amazing son in law - The Amazing Son In Law

Chapter 7134

In addition, charlie Wade hopes to find an opportunity to send away the plague god in his body that can suck his spiritual energy crazily.

Then charlie Wade called to arrange a plane, and then hurriedly left the villa halfway up the mountain with Lin Wan'er (Alani).

Fortunately, there was a spare vehicle here, so charlie Wade did not let Don Albert send him to the airport. He drove to the airport with Lin Wan'er (Alani), and then took off in the night and flew straight to Eastcliff. After an hour and a half of flight, the plane landed at Eastcliff Airport.

The weather in Eastcliff was unusually cold today. It started snowing in the evening, and the snow was getting heavier at this time. The snow on both sides of the airport runway was nearly ten centimeters thick.

Although it was snowing heavily in the sky, Sun Zhidong (Meir) was already waiting here in person. As soon as the two got off the plane, they saw him coming forward and said, "Miss, Mr. Wade, I have already said hello to the cultural relics department, and we can go over now."

charlie Wade said respectfully, "Grandpa Sun, thank you for your trouble!"

Sun Zhidong (Meir) said, "Mr. Wade is too polite. This is all my job."

Sun Zhidong (Meir) was also very grateful to charlie Wade. Even if charlie Wade did not let Lin Wan'er (Alani) speak and asked him for help directly, he would definitely not refuse.

Then, the convoy of three cars drove quickly towards the suburbs of Eastcliff.

However, what charlie Wade did not expect was that the Four-sided Treasure Pagoda was not stored in the cultural relics department, but in the station of the Beijing suburbs garrison.

The main reason for placing it in the garrison was that the Four-sided Treasure Pagoda was too precious. To some extent, it was at the same level as the Qin Shihuang's imperial seal. In many fields such as history and academia, it could be regarded as the top cultural relic of the Chinese nation.

In addition, there was another highly confidential reason, that is, the relevant departments wanted to verify whether the Four-sided Treasure Pagoda could bless the country's destiny with the mentality of believing it was there rather than not believing it.

When Charlie Wade and Lin Wan'er (Alani) drove through the camp and arrived in front of the core building, Sun Zhidong (Meir) whispered to them: "The Four-sided Treasure Pagoda is stored in the underground bunker. There is an order that the Four-sided Treasure Pagoda must not leave the bunker, so if you want to see it, you can only go down."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Everything is subject to your arrangements."

Since Sun Zhidong (Meir) had greeted them, and the higher-ups also knew that the Four-sided Treasure Pagoda was sent back by Charlie Wade, he wanted to see the Four-sided Treasure Pagoda, so the soldiers guarding the scene did not check too much and let them into the building.

At this time, a military representative came over, saluted Sun Zhidong (Meir), and said respectfully: "Mr. Sun, the higher-ups have designated me to accompany you and the two guests throughout the trip."

Sun Zhidong (Meir) nodded and asked him: "Is there anyone downstairs?"

"Yes." The representative said: "We have soldiers guarding in shifts downstairs 24 hours a day. Usually, there are some cultural relics experts and metaphysical masters who come to do research, but they have left at this time and will not come back until seven o'clock in the morning."

As he said that, the man opened the only elevator in and out of the underground bunker for them and invited them in.

After Charlie Wade entered the elevator, he found that in addition to the first floor, there were three buttons: B3, B2, and B1.

It seemed that the underground bunker should have three floors.

The representative pressed B3 on the elevator, and the elevator quickly and steadily moved downward until it stopped at the bottom.

After exiting the elevator, the military representative led the three people to a completely sealed room with only one safe door. The entire room was wrapped in a hard steel shell. In order to ensure that everything was foolproof, there was not even a ventilation duct inside. There were only two air vents on the safe door, one inlet and one outlet. The air vents were a bunch of small holes less than one centimeter thick that were deliberately opened on the heavy metal door. With this hole spacing, only mosquitoes could get in.

Outside the door, there were several soldiers armed with live ammunition guarding. Their task was to keep their eyes on the Four-sided Treasure Tower when there were people inside, and to guard the door tightly when there were no people inside to ensure that no one without approval was allowed in.

Moreover, these guards did not have the keys and passwords themselves. The keys and passwords were kept by the representative. If he came to open the door and go in, these soldiers had to follow him in and strictly protect the Four-sided Treasure Tower.

Before the door was opened, charlie Wade paid close attention to his sea of consciousness. Previously, a large amount of spiritual energy disappeared from his sea of consciousness, which made him suspect that the thing that absorbed his spiritual energy was probably hidden in his sea of consciousness, but he could not detect it.

He felt that if the things in the sea of consciousness were really related to the Four-sided Treasure Tower, then when he returned to the Four-sided Treasure Tower, that thing would definitely have some connection with the Four-sided Treasure Tower.

As the verification sounded, the heavy metal door slowly opened. At this moment, the Four-sided Treasure Tower was quietly placed on a pedestal about 1.2 meters high in the center of the safe.

When charlie Wade walked towards the Four-sided Treasure Tower, he felt a faint churning suddenly in the depths of his sea of consciousness, as if a big fish was swimming and turning carefully under the calm water. At this moment, charlie Wade was certain that there was indeed an unknown thing in his sea of consciousness, and it must be related to the Four-sided Treasure Tower!