

The amazing son in law - The Amazing Son In Law

Chapter 7141

In the evening, charlie Wade estimated that his wife Claire should have returned home from work, so he said goodbye to Lin Wan'er (Alani) and asked Don Albert to take him back to Tomson Yipin.

When he arrived at the gate of his villa, only Claire's BMW was parked in the yard, and there was no Cullinan driven by his father-in-law Jacob. charlie Wade guessed that only his wife was at home, so he tidied up his appearance to make himself look a little dusty, and then walked to the door.

Just as he was about to push the door, he heard a voice from the room that did not belong to his family, but was very familiar. He said, "Claire, why don't you ask charlie Wade when he is done, and ask him to come back as early as possible. If he can catch up, we can go together, if not, we can go together."

The speaker was Claire's good friend, Loreen.

charlie Wade was puzzled, wondering where Loreen was going to take Claire. At this time, he heard Claire say, "charlie Wade is inconvenient to communicate in the northwest. Besides, he has something important to do. I can't rush him because of this."

charlie Wade pushed the door open and said with a smile, "What's the matter? You are so mysterious."

Hearing charlie Wade's voice, Claire and Loreen were a little excited and spoke almost at the same time:

"Husband, you are back!"

"charlie Wade, you are back!"

charlie Wade smiled, "Yes, I just came back."

Claire hurried out and said, "Husband, why didn't you tell me in advance when you came back so that I could pick you up at the airport."

charlie Wade smiled, "Don Albert sent me back. He was very concerned. He was waiting at the airport before the plane took off, so I didn't tell you. I also wanted to give you a surprise."

Loreen also stood up from the sofa at this time, looking at charlie Wade with a pair of big eyes shining, and said with joy, "charlie Wade, long time no see."

charlie Wade nodded and asked her with a smile, "When did Loreen come?"

"I just arrived." Loreen said, "Claire and I were just talking about you. Tawanna Sweet will have a concert at Tokyo Dome in three days. I finally got three tickets. I wanted to ask if you and Claire want to go together. Anyway, Tokyo is close and we will be there soon."

"Tawanna Sweet?" Charlie Wade was a little surprised. This female singer is the most popular country singer in the United States today. It can even be said that she is the most popular female singer in the world. Her record sales, number of awards and number of fans are even stronger than Stefanie. She became famous at a young age and has long been popular all over the world. It is said that her concert tickets are much harder to get than those of the Chinese pop king.

In addition to having many popular songs, this female singer's rich gossip history often makes headlines in media around the world. It can be said that her songs are popular, and she is even more popular. She is definitely the top of the top.

Loreen said with anticipation: "Tawanna's world tour has already held several shows in Asia. I didn't have time and couldn't get tickets before. This time, I asked a good friend in Japan to help me find connections and locked in three tickets in advance. My friend's family is also the organizer of this show in Japan. They said that there will be a super VIP private meeting with Tawanna before the show. You can get close to Tawanna, shake hands with her, and get her autograph!"

Charlie Wade said casually: "Since it's an Asian tour, wouldn't it be more convenient to wait and see her perform in China?"

Loreen said: "She doesn't have China in her tour plan this time, so she can only go to South Korea or Japan. I don't have any connections for the concert in Korea."

After that, Loreen asked Charlie Wade, "Charlie Wade, are you free in two days? We can fly over the day after tomorrow, take a day off, watch the concert in the evening of the second day, go shopping and eat on the third day, and we can be back soon."

Charlie Wade looked at Claire and asked her, "What do you think, Claire?"

Claire pursed her lips and said in a soft voice, "Hubby... I really like Tawanna, and I have never seen her live concert. This is a rare opportunity. You can go with me and Loreen, okay?"

Seeing that Claire really wanted to see it, Charlie Wade nodded without hesitation and said, "No problem, if you say go, then go."

"Great!" Before Claire expressed his opinion, Loreen cheered and said excitedly: "Then I'll book the tickets and hotel!"

Charlie Wade said: "Loreen, you got the tickets through your connections, let me arrange the tickets and hotel."

Loreen said: "Charlie Wade, we are so close, why are you still so distant with me?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said: "It's not distant, it's a matter of reciprocity. Just like when I go out with friends, if my friends are responsible for accommodation, then I will be responsible for food. If my friends are responsible for food, then accommodation will be paid for by themselves. Of course, I am the one who is responsible. It is impossible for one person to spend the money. Although everyone may not lack this little money, it is not the case after all. ”
