

The amazing son in law - The Amazing Son In Law

Chapter 7145

Nanako Ito has never returned to Japan since she moved to Aurous Hill with her father.

charlie Wade originally promised her that he would accompany her to watch the changes of the four seasons in Japan, but he didn't expect that the plan could not keep up with the changes. Nanako Ito directly chose to settle in Aurous Hill. However, charlie Wade always remembered this matter. He was going to Tokyo tomorrow, so he subconsciously planned to meet Nanako and say hello.

Since the day of enlightenment, Nanako Ito has been in Champs Elysees most of the time. The environment here is quiet and suitable for a person to retreat and comprehend. At the same time, it is absolutely safe and no one will disturb him.

After all the villas in the hillside were cleared and recovered, charlie Wade gave one of them to Nanako. She came here almost every day for meditation, and returned to Tomson Yipin to accompany her father Ito Takehiko at night.

charlie Wade said goodbye to Yun Ruge and called Nanako. When he learned that she was in the villa in the hillside, he drove there immediately.

Nanako Ito was overjoyed when she learned that charlie Wade was coming. She came to the courtyard to wait in a light pink kimono.

The weather on the mountain was freezing cold, and the cold wind blew on her cheeks, making them slightly red, but also a little more lovely.

charlie Wade stopped the car, and the first thing he said when he saw her was: "Why did you come out in such a cold day with so little clothes on?"

Nanako put her hands in front of her, bowed slightly to him, and said happily: "Mr. charlie Wade, long time no see!"

After that, she smiled and said: "The room is very warm, and I don't feel cold after coming out for a while. And since I have realized the truth, I feel that my physical fitness has improved a lot. I think my body is no longer afraid of the cold."

charlie Wade nodded and smiled: "It's mainly because the temperature has dropped today. Seeing that you are wearing so thin, I subconsciously worry that you will be cold, but I forgot that you have already realized the truth, and this little bit of cold is nothing."

Nanako knew that charlie Wade cared about her, and her heart was naturally happy and touched, so she smiled shyly and said quickly: "Mr. charlie Wade, please come in and sit down. There happens to be tea sent from Kyoto here."

Together with Nanako Entering the house, Nanako had decorated the living room in a light Japanese style. She invited charlie Wade to sit on the tatami mat, and then made tea for charlie Wade using the Japanese tea ceremony. charlie Wade asked her with concern: "Nanako, have you made any progress in your cultivation during this period?" Nanako said seriously: "I feel that my control over the flow of spiritual energy in my body has improved slightly, but the improvement is limited."

charlie Wade smiled and said: "You can't rush into cultivation, especially spiritual energy is not a simple power. It is more like an extension of a new sense. You must skillfully manipulate spiritual energy and try to perceive everything through spiritual energy, not only in your own body, but also in everything around you."

Nanako smiled and said: "charlie Wade is right, Nanako is not very anxious."

charlie Wade nodded slightly and said to her: "By the way, I'm going to Tokyo the day after tomorrow and will be back in two or three days."

"Going to Tokyo?" Nanako laughed in surprise, "Are you going to watch a game or a concert?"

charlie Wade subconsciously said, "To a concert."

Nanako laughed, "Are you going to Tokyo to watch Tawanna Sweet's concert?"

charlie Wade asked in surprise, "You've heard about it too?"

Nanako laughed, "Tavanna has a great influence and many fans. No matter where she holds a concert, it is always full, and a considerable number of fans fly over from other countries. It is said that whenever she holds a concert in a country, it can bring hundreds of millions or even billions of dollars to the country's economy. My best friend in Tokyo invited me to watch it a few days ago, but my mind is on cultivation now, so I declined."
