

The amazing son in law - The Amazing Son In Law

Chapter 7146

After that, Nanako looked at charlie Wade and smiled, “charlie Wade has never been a fan of stars. This time, you should go with your wife, right?”

charlie Wade did not hide it and nodded, “My wife’s best friend is also a fan of this Tawanna. Her friend helped her get tickets to the Tokyo station, so she invited us to watch it together.”
Nanako

laughed, ” I haven’t been back to Japan for a long time. I rarely left home for so long before. ”

She said, “But I don’t miss Tokyo, but the old house in Kyoto. Especially when it snows, I will think of the scene when charlie Wadejun came down from the sky and saved me from danger.”

charlie Wade asked her, “Do you plan to go back recently?”

Nanako thought for a while and said, “I won’t go back for the time being. Thanks to charlie Wadejun, my father’s legs have recovered. He now likes the life in Aurous Hill. Few people here know him, so he can live a normal life like a normal person. Going out every morning to do morning exercises with the local elderly has become his unshakable compulsory course. Tanakasans has the same feeling. If they go back, they must pretend to be disabled, which is a bit troublesome. My father now regards Aurous Hill as his second hometown. A few days ago, he mentioned to me that he plans to find a Feng Shui treasure land with mountains and water in Aurous Hill, and rebuild a house according to the scale of the old house in Kyoto, and live here in the future. ”

charlie Wade also understood Ito Takehiko’s decision. He was a big shot in Japan. Although he handed over the management of the family to Ito Nanako and retreated to the second line, a big man is a big man after all, just like the two famous little brothers in China, who are well-known in the Chinese world. For such a person, it is very unlikely to live an ordinary life in his own country. He can only have this opportunity in a foreign country. Aurous Hill is a very good choice.

In fact, in charlie Wade’s view, Aurous Hill’s cultural landscape is not worse than Kyoto, and its historical heritage is infinitely stronger than Kyoto. The biggest regret is that this city with a long history was destroyed during the Japanese invasion of China and experienced a huge catastrophe.

Fortunately, the Ito family is not like those right-wing elements who deny history. If Ito Takehiko’s thoughts are slightly right-leaning, charlie Wade will not let him stay in Aurous Hill.

At this time, charlie Wade suddenly remembered that Nanako had just asked him whether he was going to watch a game or a concert, so he asked curiously: “Nanako, you just asked me if I was going to the game. Are there any important events in Tokyo? ”

Nanako said, “It was the Global College Sanda Competition where charlie Wadejun and I first met. This year’s competition is hosted by Tokyo.”

Then, Nanako said, “By the way, Aoxue has also signed up for the competition. She called me a few days ago and asked me why I didn’t participate. I told her that I had given up Sanda. I also asked her if she had told charlie Wadejun about the competition, but she said that her father told you that you have been very busy recently, so she didn’t feel embarrassed to call you. ” charlie Wade really didn’t hear anything about the Sanda competition. He hadn’t contacted Qin Aoxue for a while, and Qin Gang didn’t contact him much either. With the help of Jiuxuan Pharmaceutical, his medicine business was very prosperous. He had more contact with Wei Liang every day, but less and less contact with himself, so he didn’t know anything about Qin Aoxue going to Tokyo to play the game.

charlie Wade asked Nanako, “How is Aoxue’s schedule arranged?”

Nanako said, “The competition seems to have started for several days. The venue is at the Tokyo Budokan. If I remember correctly, the final will be tomorrow night. ”

charlie Wade asked again: “Did Aurora make it to the finals?”

“Yes.” Nanako smiled and said: “It was easy for her to make it to the finals, but I heard that there is a very powerful American player this year, who is a dark horse, but I don’t know much about the details. If nothing unexpected happens, Aurora should meet her in the finals. ”

charlie Wade nodded and said: “I will fly to Tokyo at noon tomorrow, and I will go to watch her game in person then.”
