

The amazing son in law - The Amazing Son In Law

Chapter 7148

This means that Aurora's game was in the third game.

charlie Wade also saw the name of Aurora's opponent this time on the screen. Her name was Haley Swain, an American.

Although he didn't know where this Hayley Swain came from, based on his understanding of Aurora, Aurora's current strength has been greatly improved compared to before. Not to mention that she has the elixir he gave her to strengthen her bones and meridians, and the martial arts skills he taught her can directly improve her actual combat ability. I think she will definitely win tonight.

At 6:50, the host came on stage to open the show. After the host's hard work, the atmosphere on the scene soon became heated.

The first game was played by two female players. The two players were equally strong and the game was hard to tell. After each of them won a round, the third game was even more evenly matched. This stalemate situation was very good and improved the audience's perception. There were cheers, applause and whistles on the scene.

When the third game was at the most critical moment, the African player suddenly attacked, instantly disrupting the opponent's rhythm, and then took advantage of the victory to kill the game.

The audience didn't expect that the opening third place match would be so exciting, and they were even more looking forward to the second game.

What no one expected was that the second match was not as evenly matched as the first match. A Japanese player was suppressed by a European player throughout the whole match, and soon the opponent won two games in a row and won easily.

Then the host came on stage again and said excitedly: "The next match is the women's championship match, which is also a match that countless audiences are looking forward to. The contestants are Aurora, the No. 1 seed from China, and Hayley Swain, the No. 15 seed from the United States. Here I want to focus on Hayley Swain. This is her first time to participate in this event. Although the event expert group is optimistic about her strength and ranked her as the No. 15 seed, no one expected that she could have won many consecutive games with a crushing score of 2-0. She can be said to be the biggest dark horse of this event!"

"Tonight she will challenge Aurora, the No. 1 seed. Whether she can succeed in the challenge, please wait and see."

At this point, he said loudly: “Next, let us welcome our No. 1 seed, Aurora, with the warmest applause!”

The cheers on the scene were endless.

Aurora has a beautiful face, tall figure, and a cool and cool temperament. After Nanako Ito withdrew from the competition, she has been regarded as the goddess in this field, and naturally has a large number of fans.

Then, Aurora walked out of the passage amid the applause of the audience, stepped onto the stage, and waved to everyone.

The host looked at Aurora and asked curiously: “Miss Aurora, Hayley Swain is going to challenge you tonight. Are you sure you can defeat her and defend your title again?”

Aurora immediately shouted: “I am sure!”

The host nodded and smiled: “There are many of your fans at the scene. I believe they must want to witness your defense again.”

Then he said: “Then please continue to applaud warmly, and welcome Aurora’s challenger-Hayley Swain!”

As soon as the host’s voice fell, what Charlie Wade did not expect was that there was a booing at the scene.

Charlie Wade was puzzled and thought to himself: “Is this Hayley Swain so unpopular? Why are so many people booing her? It is understandable that away players are booed at home, but Aurora is a Chinese player, and this is Tokyo, Japan, not Aurora’s home court. It is really inappropriate for these audiences to boo a challenger like this.”

Just when Charlie Wade thought that the audience’s performance was not appropriate, a figure quickly ran onto the boxing ring, and the boos at the scene reached a peak at this moment.

Charlie Wade couldn’t help but drop his jaw at this moment. He looked at Hayley Swain on the ring and thought to himself: “This... isn’t this a man? Although he has long hair, his Adam’s apple can be seen clearly. How can he still come to participate in the women’s competition?!”

Charlie really didn’t understand why it was a man who went on stage to compete against Aurora in the final of the women’s group.

Seeing that many people were cursing at him, Charlie asked a Chinese man beside him who was cursing: “Brother, do you know where this contestant came from?”

The Chinese man cursed angrily: “What the hell is his background? He is just a man who claims to have gender dysphoria! He said that he felt that he should be a girl since he was a child, but he was imprisoned in a male body. The key is that if he really had a s*x change operation and really became a man, we would have nothing to say, right? But this old guy is really shameless. While participating in the women's competition, he said that he was taking drugs to suppress male hormones, saying that he wanted to use drugs to change his hormones, and then change his gender through surgery. Damn, people believe this?"

charlie couldn't help but say: "That means that this buddy is a man from a physiological point of view."

"Yes!" the man said indignantly, "His body is a man, but he feels that his soul is a woman, so he can participate in women's competitions. Where can I go to make sense?"

charlie asked puzzledly, "If it is so ridiculous, why did the organizing committee of the event approve his registration?"

The man said, "The organizing committee of this competition is in the United States. They advocate LGBT, so the organizing committee thinks there is no problem, so they let him in."

Then, the man said, "There is something even more ridiculous. It is said that over there, as long as you feel that you are a woman, you can go to the women's restroom. There are really all kinds of birds in the forest."

charlie couldn't help but sighed, "I haven't paid much attention to this aspect. I didn't expect the West to be so magical."

"There are many magical things." The man said indignantly: "There is a great writer in the UK. You know the girl who wrote Harry Potter, right?"

charlie nodded: "I know, what's wrong?"

The man said: "The girl complained about this matter a few times, and was collectively expelled by the actors of Harry Potter. A bunch of people who became famous because of her jumped up to accuse her. Do you think she is sick? As the old saying goes, you can't pick up the bowl to eat, and put down the chopsticks to curse your mother, right? This is immoral!"

charlie couldn't help but laugh twice. He had never experienced such a magical world until today.

At this time, Hayley Swain, who was on the stage, was not affected at all by the boos from the audience. Instead, she proudly raised her right hand high, walked around the ring with a swagger, and then jumped in front of Aurora for a while, looking at Aurora with a strange smile on her face, with an expression that was completely sure of victory.

Aurora looked a little unhappy, but was very restrained and did not give any response to the other party.

But this Hailey Swain didn't know how to behave at all. Seeing that Aurora was unmoved, she raised her fist in front of Aurora, pretending to knock her out.

The referee came on stage at this time, pushed Hailey Swain away, and signaled him to keep a distance from Aurora. Hailey Swain seemed a little unconvinced and kept making faces at the referee.

The audience saw him so jumpy and booed even more. However, Hailey Swain was very strong mentally, and no matter how loud the boos were, it didn't cause any trouble to her.
