

The amazing son in law - The Amazing Son In Law

Chapter 7150

The audience next to charlie couldn't help but mutter to charlie: "In fact, we are not discriminating against this. Transgender people, the key is that you are transgender, so don't come to participate in normal gender competitions, right? Other men's and women's competitions are men against men and women against women. If you want to participate in sports competitions, it's okay. Just let the organizing committee of the event open a transgender group. Since you are transgender, you can compete with other transgender people. This is fair and just. Isn't sports competition about pursuing fairness and justice? You can't say that you think you are a woman in your heart, so you come to compete with women. Then I think my legs are lame, can I participate in the disabled race? That's not fair to the disabled people either. It's fair, right? People worked hard to overcome their physical disabilities to compete, but a person without physical disabilities won the championship and earned the prize money. Will they practice or not practice in the future? In the future, people with real disabilities will not be able to get a place, and the prize money will be taken away by people with mental disabilities. This is fundamentally wrong, don't you think? " charlie smiled and said, "Sports competitions must be fair and just. If it can't be done, then just cancel the sports competitions."

The audience also agreed and said, "I think it's okay to cancel it. Everyone can work and live without watching the competitions, but if you watch this kind of incredible competition every day, the atmosphere will definitely become a mess."

At this time, the referee on the stage announced the start of the game.

Aurora also put in 120% of his energy to deal with this Hayley Swain.

As soon as the game started, Hayley Swain burst out with extremely strong aggressiveness. He attacked Aurora one after another, with fast and fierce punches and kicks.

Aurora dodged carefully, constantly observing Haley Swain's steps, movements, and subtle habits to analyze the opponent's weaknesses.

charlie roughly looked at Haley Swain's state. This person's strength is not strong, and it is absolutely impossible for her to be Aurora's opponent. However, Aurora has never used real martial arts techniques in the competition, so Haley Swain does not know her true strength. She played so aggressively at the beginning, probably thinking that she has a sure win. In fact

, Haley Swain is just as charlie inferred. He has observed Aurora's competition and feels that although Aurora is strong, she is a player in the women's group after all. The overall strength is still weaker than that of the men's group. The fundamental reason why he chose to participate in the women's group competition as a transgender is not that he is really a transgender, but that he has been struggling in the men's group for three years and cannot even rank in the United States, so he thought of this trick to play in the women's group.

But he didn't expect that Aurora's strength is actually far above him.

After several unsuccessful attempts to attack Aurora, he was ready to be more aggressive. After several attempts to hide his true intentions, he threw a heavy punch directly at the side of Aurora's head.

At this time, Aurora had already seen that the opponent's strength was not as good as his, and found that the opponent's offensive posture was becoming more and more aggressive. The more aggressive the attack, the weaker the defense. At this time, finding the key moment to counterattack the opponent can inflict heavy damage to the opponent.

Hayley Swain threw a heavy punch, and Aurora did not dodge immediately, which made him think that he had already won. Moreover, he had a backhand. After throwing a right fist, he immediately threw a left fist, so as to distract the opponent's attention. No matter which punch the opponent decided to defend, the other punch could hit the opponent.

At this moment, Aurora suddenly dodged the opponent's attack at a very fast speed, and then her body suddenly turned to the side, so that Hailey Swain's fist missed. Before Hailey Swain could react, she threw a very fast straight punch, and the fist hit Hailey Swain's nose bridge, causing him to howl in pain, and blood flowed from his nose.

No one expected that Aurora could fight so cleanly and neatly when facing such an opponent, and the scene burst into thunderous applause!
