

The amazing son in law - The Amazing Son In Law

Chapter 7151

Hayley Swain was a little confused at this time. This was his first time to participate in the women's competition as a woman. Although he had studied the seeded players in the women's group before the game, especially the number one seed Aurora, he found that the overall combat power of the women's group was indeed much worse than that of the men's group when he really played all the way to the finals. So he also looked down on the number one seed Aurora in the women's group.

He had previously specifically compared the data of the top male and female athletes in the 100-meter track and field. The results of the top male athletes were within ten seconds, while the results of the top female athletes were between ten and eleven seconds. He felt that he was equivalent to a player in the range of ten and a half seconds in the men's 100 meters. Although he might not even make it to the finals in the men's group, it was still easy to win the championship in the women's group.

But what he didn't expect was that he was suppressed by Aurora as soon as he played against her, and his skills and tactics could not be used at all. The real strength of this woman was far stronger than he had thought before!

Just when he felt bad, Aurora had already figured out his details and knew that his actual fighting ability was not as good as his own, so he was no longer as conservative as before, but began to take the initiative.

Aurora was very dissatisfied with Haley Swain in her heart. She also felt that it was unfair to all the female players for the organizing committee to let such a so-called transgender person participate in the women's competition. Moreover, this person was not a real transgender person at first glance, but was just flaunting himself in order to take advantage of this loophole, so she was even more resistant.

Especially Haley Swain's arrogant attitude from the beginning to now, it was completely a face of "I took advantage of the rules but you can't do anything to me, and I just like to see you look at me and can't get rid of me", which really made people dissatisfied.

Now that Aurora has figured out the true level of the opponent, he immediately began to change tactics.

Seeing Aurora start to take the initiative to meet him, Haley Swain knew that Aurora was going to change tactics. Before he could figure out how to deal with it, Aurora's continuous attack came head-on.

Seeing that Aurora's punching speed was much faster than her own pick and roll, Hailey Swain was a little overwhelmed.

Aurora attacked from both sides, and each round of attack was four punches quickly. Hailey Swain could only block two or three times with her arm pick and roll, so she was bound to be hit by one or two punches.

Fortunately, when Aurora threw fast punches, in order to ensure the speed of punching, she had to reduce the amplitude of her arm swing and speed up the frequency of her arm swing, so that she could not accumulate enough power for each punch. Therefore, although the punches were very fast, the power was naturally much weaker. For Hailey Swain, who was a man, she could still block it.

But even if she could block it, being beaten like this all the time, the crackling punches on her body really made Hailey Swain feel very embarrassed and annoyed.

Since he participated in this women's competition, he had been overcoming all obstacles and crushing the enemy, and he did not give his opponent a chance to really hurt him. He did not expect that in the finals, he would be hit by a little girl on the head, and he was naturally furious.

But even though he was angry, he knew that he was not as strong as Aurora. If he counterattacked rashly, the opponent would seize the opportunity to hit him hard.

However, such passive defense was not a solution. After all, if he was hit by the opponent all the time, even if he was not injured, he would lose points quickly. Even if he did not suffer any serious injuries at the end of this game, he would lose the game because of the score.

At this time, Hailey Swain was thinking about one thing, how to break the situation!
