

The amazing son in law - The Amazing Son In Law

Chapter 7152

Suddenly, he saw the pair of proud breasts trembling on Aurora's chest when she swung her fists and arms. He immediately came up with a plan, and did not care that he was being hit by Aurora. He swung his fist directly and attacked Aurora's chest. When Aurora was fighting normally, if the opponent attacked her chest, she would only make normal tactical judgments. If the opponent's strength was not great and she had the opportunity to deal greater damage, she would not deliberately defend. After all, the players she usually played against were real female players. When there was physical contact between private parts, no one would consider the situation outside the game and tactics.

But the situation today was obviously different.

No matter how Haley Swain claimed to be transgender and said that she always felt that she was a woman, in Aurora's eyes, he was a man through and through. So when the opponent suddenly attacked her chest, she subconsciously forgot that she was in a competition. Her instincts were all mobilized by the reserved and proud girl in her bones. Just like encountering a gangster, she subconsciously wanted to block her chest.

It didn't matter if she blocked her chest, but her whole face was completely exposed to the opponent.

Haley Swain had planned it in advance. He knew that with Aurora's skills, he could not touch her chest at all, but he knew that if he prepared in advance, as long as Aurora gave up attacking him and turned to protect her chest, he would immediately counterattack her. At this time, Aurora was angry and panicked. How could she calmly judge the current situation? She protected her chest and was about to protest to the referee beside her, but she didn't expect that the opponent would punch her in the face at this time.

With a bang, Aurora was hit hard in the face. Just like he hit Hayley Swain hard, Hayley Swain also punched him in the face. He felt a sharp pain in his nose, so much so that his whole face was numb. Then he felt a warm sensation on his lips, and his mouth was sweet and astringent. His nose was bleeding uncontrollably.

The audience saw it all clearly. They could tell that Hayley Swain was playing tricks and was even a little shameless. So there was a burst of boos, whistles and insults.

Hayley Swain had already put his face aside. The moment he decided to take advantage of the transgender loophole to participate in the competition, he no longer cared about his face and reputation. The most important thing was to win the championship and get the championship prize.

Therefore, he completely ignored the audience's curses, and while Aurora was hit hard, he immediately punched again. This was a right hook that he used all his strength, even more powerful than the previous one. In order to catch Aurora off guard, he only had time to use 70% of his strength, but he threw this punch right after the previous one. With the success of the first punch, he used all his strength in this punch, trying to break Aurora's state with one punch. Once Aurora was dizzy and in unbearable pain, her combat effectiveness would inevitably decline rapidly, so he could seize the opportunity to counterattack, and maybe he could directly knock Aurora out in one round.

At this time, Aurora did not react to the series of insidious moves just now.

Seeing that Hayley Swain's heavy punch was coming, Charlie Wade immediately shouted to Aurora with his spiritual energy: "Aurora! Be careful to dodge!"

This voice went straight into Aurora's cochlea, and it was like a thunderclap that made her spirit suddenly burst!

She immediately recognized that it was Charlie Wade's voice. She didn't have time to find out where Charlie Wade was. She came to her senses immediately. Seeing that the punch was almost hitting her left face, she immediately swung to the right to dodge, so that Haley Swain's punch only hit Aurora's hair.

Aurora realized that Charlie Wade was watching her game on the spot, and her fighting spirit instantly exploded. In addition, Haley Swain's insidiousness and cunningness also made her particularly annoyed. So she didn't give him a chance at all. When the opponent's punch missed, she immediately hit Haley Swain's side waist with a thunderous force.

Haley Swain only felt that his whole waist suddenly arched sideways, and then the severe pain and soreness made him limp all over. Just when his legs softened and he almost knelt on the ground, Charlie Wade once again used his spiritual energy to shout to Aurora: "Aurora! Seize the opportunity, don't let him live!"
