Chapter 7161

Without giving Claire a chance to react, charlie Wade pulled her and strode towards Kelly West in the crowd.

Kelly West at this moment was the core of the core circle. Everyone looked at her with a glass of wine and listened to her talk. Sasaki Miki was looking at Kelly West with admiration on the outside.

At this moment, she saw charlie Wade and Claire striding forward, followed by Loreen and her cousin Sasaki Sachiko. She frowned and stared at charlie Wade, observing what he wanted to do.

At this time, charlie Wade had already stepped out of the crowd. When he was about to call Kelly West, Sasaki Miki sneered, then strode up and deliberately said in a slightly louder voice: "Mr. Wade, Mr. Wade, you are not allowed to come here!"

If Sasaki Miki really wanted to persuade charlie Wade to leave, she would not have to speak so loudly.

The reason why she deliberately raised her voice was to attract the attention of all the core circle people. As long as everyone paid attention to it, she could take advantage of the topic to make a comment. It just so happened that the head of the Sasaki family, who was also her and Sasaki Sachiko's grandfather, was also here, so she could take the opportunity to mock Sasaki Sachiko.

Although the people in the core circle were all chatting around Kelly West, they were all well-known figures after all, and the volume of their voices was not very high, so Sasaki Miki's voice attracted everyone's attention.

At this time, Miki Sasaki saw that everyone was looking at her, so she hurriedly said with an apologetic look on her face: "I'm sorry, I'm sorry! I didn't mean to disturb you. This gentleman and lady are the guests invited by my sister Sachiko. They came from a small city in China and may not know the rules of parties like this in Tokyo. I apologize to everyone on their behalf."

After that, she quickly said to charlie Wade: "I'm sorry, Mr. Wade, although you have received an invitation to the party, at this kind of party, the group of people chatting privately are all good friends who are very familiar with each other. Strangers cannot come here casually unless there is a middleman to introduce them. Even if there is a middleman to introduce them, the middleman must first ask everyone if they are interested in making new friends."

Everyone first watched Miki Sasaki's personal performance, and then looked at the Mr. Wade mentioned by Miki Sasaki. When many people saw charlie Wade, they felt that although he did not look like a loser at first glance, he did not have the high-end and classy background. He looked like the kind of middle-class who was trying hard to get into the upper class by biting the bullet and standing on tiptoe.

After all, they are all elites of the upper class. Their clothes, accessories, and hairstyles are very exquisite. They also have strong observation experience. They can tell what grade his suit belongs to by just looking at the fabric of the clothes he wears. Watches, leather shoes, and belts are also reference factors. When looking at men, they will also pay attention to whether there are fine hairs on the sideburns and neck of the other party. If there are, it proves that this person definitely does not have a full-time stylist to follow him every day, otherwise such hairs will be shaved off.

From these points of view, Charlie Wade obviously does not have the elements of the upper class.

And when everyone looked down on Charlie Wade, Kelly West, who was like a moon surrounded by stars, looked at Charlie Wade and Claire in shock.

As a designer, the reason why she can be so concerned and even complimented among many wealthy people in Tokyo today is not because she is really face-saving, but because the reason why she came to Tokyo to attend this party is entirely because of the support of the head of the Fei family, Fei Kexin.

As for Fei Kexin's attitude towards Charlie Wade, Kelly West knew it all.

Chapter 7162

In fact, the reason why Kelly West can get close to Fei Kexin is mainly because Fei Kexin invited her to act together in order to get close to Charlie Wade's wife Claire. Otherwise, with her level, she might not even have the opportunity to meet Fei Kexin.

During this period of time, Fei Kexin also reciprocated and gave Kelly West many good opportunities. The reason why Kelly appeared here this time was because the Fei family and the Mitsui family planned to jointly invest billions of dollars to build a super business center in Tokyo.

This super business center will not only be built into the largest shopping mall in Tokyo, but also equipped with super high-rise office buildings, super luxury hotels and super luxury large hotel apartments. It will even be equipped with a high-end private hospital, combining medical talents from the United States and Japan, and relying on the top hospitals of the two countries to provide generous medical services for the rich.

The reason why she wants to invest in Japan is, on the one hand, because the relationship between the United States and Japan is close and the relevant investment policies are loose. On the other hand, the high-end elites of the American upper class have always had a good impression of Japan, and many people are willing to come to Japan to invest or even retire.

Fei Kexin has abundant Western resources and funds in the United States. After witnessing her grandfather's strong desire to survive, she realized that this kind of business can be done, and it can be done on a large scale. The profit margin and market prospects of letting those top Western rich people come to Japan for retirement and even receive hospice care here must be very considerable. In Fei Kexin's view, as long as such a project is well developed, it can not only speculate on land, sell houses, rent shops and office buildings, but also bring a group of American rich people to consume. It is a good business that is almost certain to win. Moreover, the Fei family does not seek short-term and fast business, but seeks to snowball. Once Japan is developed into the second home and retirement place of Western rich people, it will create a steady stream of profits and benefits for the Fei family.

For this reason, Fei Kexin made a special trip to Japan to investigate and planned to put this matter on the agenda.

When the Mitsui family learned that Fei Kexin was going to invest in Japan and bring wealthy Westerners to Japan for consumption, they immediately realized the huge commercial benefits. Although they had infiltrated all walks of life in Japan, they lacked Western big customers, so they took the initiative to find Fei Kexin, hoping to cooperate with Fei Kexin in depth.

For Fei Kexin, the Mitsui family is strong. Not only does it have a large piece of land that she likes most, but more importantly, they are involved in various industries in Japan, so they reached a cooperation intention with the Mitsui family. Then she asked Kelly West to come to Japan in order to let her serve as the chief designer of this super commercial complex.

For the Mitsui family, they have a large number of industries in Tokyo and the land that Fei Kexin wants most, but so cooperating with the Fei family can be said to be a win-win situation. The Mitsui family originally tried hard to invite Fei Kexin to attend the party, but Fei Kexin was not very interested in Tawanna Sweet. In order to save some face for the Mitsui family, she asked Kelly West to come on her behalf.

Because Fei Kexin has not yet made the final decision to cooperate with the Mitsui family, the Mitsui family now treats her like an aunt, and naturally flatters Kelly West, hoping to please her and win some extra points from Fei Kexin. Kelly West also knows that the key to her being so popular here is that Fei Kexin helped her with this project. She is already grateful to Fei Kexin, and now seeing Charlie Wade and Claire here, she is even more excited.

So, she pushed away the people around her and greeted Charlie Wade and Claire, excited and excited.

Miki Sasaki didn't expect Kelly West to walk towards her. Unable to guess what Kelly was going to do, she walked up to Kelly and said flatteringly, "I'm sorry, Ms. West, please don't be influenced by them. I'll let them leave now."

Kelly West naturally saw through her little thoughts and tricks, so she said to her with a cold face, "If you dare to let Miss Fei's two good friends leave, then I can only go with them! If it affects the cooperation between Miss Fei and the Mitsui family, you will be fully responsible!" As soon as these words came out, the people watching the excitement were shocked.

I thought Kelly West was Fei Kexin's spokesperson, so everyone complimented her very much. Unexpectedly, two more good friends of Fei Kexin came!

Miki Sasaki asked in shock at this time: "You...what did you say?! They are actually... Miss Fei's good friends?!"

Kelly West didn't bother to pay attention to her, she just reached out and gently pushed her aside, strode to Charlie Wade and Claire, and said excitedly: "Claire, Mr. Wade, I didn't expect to have the honor of meeting you here!"

Chapter 7163

Although the protagonist of today's party is Tawana Sweet, who has not yet appeared, the upper class present are essentially businessmen. Chasing stars is not what they are passionate about, but making money is.

Therefore, today these people gathered together and talked with Kelly West as the core. What they wanted most in their hearts was to be able to get in touch with Fei Kexin.

Unfortunately, Fei Kexin has never felt anything about the entertainment industry. The head of the Mitsui family invited her many times, but she was not moved at all.

Unexpectedly, Fei Kexin did not come, but two of Fei Kexin's good friends came.

Moreover, from Kelly's attitude towards Charlie Wade and Claire, it can be seen that these two people must have a good relationship with Fei Kexin, at least, better than Kelly's relationship with Fei Kexin.

Miki Sasaki has lost the ability to think. She stared at Charlie Wade in amazement. She couldn't understand how this man could be Fei Kexin's good friend. Who is Fei Kexin? The Fei family, which alone manages trillions of dollars, is nothing more than a primary school student in front of the head of the Mitsui family, judging by the dimension of personal management of assets.

Miki Sasaki turned pale with fear when she thought of how she had just mocked Charlie Wade and Claire. She had no idea how Charlie Wade would retaliate against her.

At this time, the always Buddhist Sasaki Sachiko was also dumbfounded.

She was different from her cousin Miki. Miki was obsessed with climbing up. Whether it was her status in the family or her status in society, Miki cared a lot, so she was happy to make friends with the powerful all day long.

As for Sachiko, all she thought about was living a plain life, and she had no other ambitions.

So when the family gave each of them three invitations, Miki spent a whole day giving a comprehensive score to all the upper-class people she knew, and selected the top three to give out invitations. Sachiko thought that her good friend Loreen had always liked Tawana, and there was just this good opportunity, so she naturally invited her first.

Loreen had no idea that there were so many hidden rules behind this concert. When she heard what Sachiko said, besides being excited, the second thing she thought of was to ask Sachiko if she had any extra tickets. She wanted to invite her good friends to watch the concert together.

Sachiko didn't know who to give the remaining two tickets to. Seeing that Loreen wanted to invite other friends, she directly gave the decision-making power of the remaining two places to Loreen.

But she never expected that Loreen actually invited two big names who seemed to be very important.

At this time, Kelly had already walked up to Claire and hugged her lightly, then bowed respectfully to Charlie Wade, and then asked Claire with surprise: "Claire, when did you and Mr. Wade come to Tokyo?"

Claire replied: "We just arrived yesterday, how about you?"

Kelly smiled and said: "I have been here for a few days, I came with Miss Fei."

After that, she couldn't help but sigh: "I didn't expect the world to be so small. I came all the way from the United States to Japan, and I actually met you and Mr. Wade here! If I told Miss Fei, I guess she would think I was joking with her."

Claire couldn't help but sigh: "It's really a coincidence. I didn't expect to meet you here."

Then, Claire asked again: "By the way, Kelly, you said Miss Fei is here too? Where is she?"

Kelly said: "Miss Fei is not a fan, so she didn't attend this party, and she doesn't plan to attend the concert tonight. But if she knew you were here, she would definitely change her mind. I'll call her later." At this time, a man wearing glasses and with a face like A gentle yellow man in his forties walked up and asked Kelly respectfully, “Ms. West, excuse me, are these two distinguished guests your friends?”

Kelly looked at the man, nodded slightly, and then said to him, “Mr. Mitsui, let me introduce you. This is Mr. Wade, and next to him is Mr. Wade’s wife, Ms. willson. They are both good friends of Miss Fei and me.” Then,

Chapter 7164

Kelly said to charlie Wade and Claire, “Mr. Wade, Claire, this is Mitsui Nagayasu, the vice chairman of the Mitsui family board of directors. Mr. Mitsui is in charge of the Tawana Tokyo concert this time.” Mitsui Nagayasu could tell from the conversation between Kelly and charlie Wade and Claire just now that these two people not only have a close relationship with Fei Kexin, but also have great weight in front of Fei Kexin. She had tried her best to invite Fei Kexin to the party and watch the concert, but she didn’t agree. Kelly had no objection and said that if Fei Kexin knew that the two of them were coming, she would definitely change her mind, which shows that Fei Kexin has a special relationship with the two of them.

Therefore, without waiting for charlie Wade and Claire to speak, he immediately said respectfully: “Mr. Wade, Mrs. Wade, I am Sanjing Changkang. It’s our first meeting. Please take care of me!”

Although charlie Wade didn’t want to socialize here, he didn’t want to hit a smiling person after all, so he shook hands with him and said a few polite words.

Seeing that the second-in-command of the Sanjing family was so polite to charlie Wade, Sasaki Miki was even more panicked. Thinking that she had just mocked charlie Wade and his wife without any eyes, she was even more uneasy.

At this time, an old man came over with a smile on his face and smiled at Sasaki Sachiko who was still confused not far away: “Sachiko, you haven’t introduced these two guests to your grandfather yet. What are their names?”

The speaker was Sasaki Taro, the grandfather of Sasaki Sachiko and Sasaki Miki. This person was the helmsman of the Sasaki family and a relative of the Sanjing family. His sister married into the Sanjing family that year. Thanks to this relationship, they could become relatives of the Sanjing family.

Taro Sasaki’s position in this core circle is as awkward as that of his granddaughter Miki Sasaki. He is a marginal figure who can hardly get a word in. But he did not expect that his eldest granddaughter, who is like a nobody in daily life, would quietly invite two big shots. How could he miss such a good opportunity to show up in front of the core circle members?

When Sasaki Sachiko heard her grandfather's question, she was about to answer truthfully, but Charlie Wade took the lead and said, "Old sir, we are not distinguished guests. Just like what Miss Miki said just now, I am not even allowed to come here to talk to you, so I'd better step away."

After that, he looked at Kelly and smiled, "Kelly, you guys chat first. Let's go back to that corner and stay quietly for a while to avoid disturbing everyone."

Kelly said without hesitation, "Mr. Wade, I don't like too lively occasions either. Why don't we go together!"

Charlie Wade nodded and smiled, "Then let's go over there and chat."

Seeing Kelly, Charlie Wade and others turned around and went to the corner, the people who stayed behind looked at each other. Many people had begun to look at the instigator, Sasaki Miki, with questioning eyes, making Sasaki Miki feel uneasy.

Taro Sasaki questioned her coldly at this time: "Miki! What is going on? Why are you so rude to Mr. Wade?!"

"I..." Miki Sasaki said in a panic: "I don't know, Grandpa... I saw that he was dressed and didn't look like a big shot. I didn't want him to bother you, so I accidentally said the wrong thing..."

Taro Sasaki snorted coldly: "In this era, you still judge a person's ability by his clothes. It's really stupid to stay here. It's embarrassing. You should go home and reflect on it!"

Miki Sasaki was so excited about today's party and concert that she didn't even sleep in the past two days. In addition to the fact that she is also a fan of Tawana, more importantly, she also wants to take this opportunity to get in touch with more people from the upper class. But now she hasn't even seen Tawana, and Grandpa asked her to go home and reflect. Wouldn't all the expectations of these days be in vain? Thinking of this, she couldn't help but beg: "Grandpa... Miki knows she is wrong. Please give Miki another chance. Miki will never judge people by appearance again in the future..."

Sasaki Taro was not moved at all, and said in an unquestionable tone: "There is nothing to bargain for, go back quickly, don't lose face for the Sasaki family here!"

Seeing her grandfather's firm attitude, Sasaki Miki's eyes instantly turned red and tears burst out.

Just when she was about to beg, someone ran over and said to Mitsui Nagayasu: "Mr. Mitsui! The master, the eldest lady, and Tawana's motorcade have arrived!"

Chapter 7165

Hearing that the master, the eldest daughter, and the big star Tawanna were coming, everyone around them was in high spirits.

Although everyone was surprised to see Fei Kexin's good friend at the scene, a good friend is just a friend after all, and Fei Kexin was not there in person. The person who was about to arrive was a well-connected person in Japan. He was the head of the Mitsui family, Mitsui Yoshitaka.

Mitsui Yoshitaka was very low-key, and low-key was also a common trait of the successors of the Mitsui family. Generally speaking, he rarely participated in such large-scale occasions. The reason why he showed up in person this time was mainly because he doted on his daughter too much. His daughter was a fanatical fan of Tawanna, and as a father, he naturally had to be more active.

Soon, several bodyguards in black led the way, and a middle-aged couple in their fifties walked in with a girl in her early twenties who had a two-dimensional style.

Following the three people was a white couple. The woman was the famous Tawanna Sweet, and the muscular man holding her hand with a mustache was her boyfriend, professional baseball player Trevor Kennedy. As soon as the five people entered the venue, the guests in the venue applauded and cheered. Many people even shouted excitedly. The most shouted were "Mr. Mitsui" and "Ms. Sweet".

It goes without saying that Mitsui Yoshitaka is like the boss of the Samsung family in Korea. Everyone who sees him must be respectful. Tawanna Sweet is so well-known that there are indeed many fans who really like her at the scene, such as Claire and Loreen.

However, what is puzzling is that the three members of the Mitsui family all have smiling expressions, and it can be seen that they are sincerely happy, but Tawanna and her boyfriend Trevor have a frown on their faces at this time, looking a little decadent and a little bitter.

At this time, Sasaki Sachiko said to Charlie Wade and the other two, "This couple is Mr. Mitsui Yoshitaka and his wife Mitsui Masa, and the girl next to them is their only daughter, Mitsui Xinmei."

Loreen asked curiously, "The head of such a big family has only one child?"

"It's normal." Sasaki Sachiko said, "In recent years, Japanese people are less and less willing to have children. Now there are many schools in Japan with more teachers than students. Some schools have only single-digit students, and there may be even fewer in the future."

Loreen nodded and said, “I can understand the low fertility rate. Now young people in Japan and South Korea don’t seem to like having children, but it’s rare for such a wealthy family not to like having children. It seems that wealthy families have many children.”

Loreen said, “I’m telling you the truth. I don’t mean to be sexist. The Mitsui family has such a big business, don’t they want to give birth to a son to inherit it?”

“No, no, no.” Sasaki Sachiko shook her head and said, “For these upper-class families in Japan, having sons is far less appropriate than having daughters. Now everyone likes daughters more and more.”

“Ah?” Loreen was even more surprised and couldn’t help asking, “Why is that?”

Sasaki Sachiko whispered, “In Japan, it doesn’t matter if you don’t have a son. As long as you have a daughter, the son-in-law can marry into the wife’s family, and the son-in-law who marries into the wife’s family will change his surname to his wife’s family. In this way, isn’t it the same as having your own son? Anyway, the family business of a large family is not given to one person. Even if the son-in-law who marries into the wife’s family takes charge of the family in the future, he will only be in charge for his son or daughter. The family will have strict laws to ensure that the family business is passed down from generation to generation in their own surname.”

Then, Sasaki Sachiko said, “Besides, having a son is actually like buying a lottery ticket. It’s easy to have a son, but it’s hard to have a capable son, especially a capable one. The probability of having a son who can manage a trillion-dollar fortune is lower than buying a lottery ticket, but it is different to recruit a son-in-law. The logic of recruiting a son-in-law is that as long as you have a trillion-dollar fortune and a daughter, you can pick a son-in-law from thousands of outstanding men. Few people can resist such a strong temptation. It’s like what the Japanese often say, it’s as difficult as ascending to heaven to have a son who can be admitted to the University of Tokyo, but to recruit a son-in-law of the University of Tokyo, you just need to go to the University of Tokyo and grab a boy with your eyes closed.”

Loreen couldn’t help but laugh: “It can be like this…” Sasaki Yukiko smiled and said: “This is a very normal tradition in Japan, so many big families have only one daughter, and the famous Ito family also has only one daughter.”

“I see.” Loreen couldn’t help but nodded gently.

At this time, the five people headed by Mitsui Yoshitaka had arrived at the center of the party.

A small stage was built in front, which was reserved for important people to speak, so Mitsui Yoshitaka boarded the small stage surrounded by the crowd.

After he came on stage, someone handed a microphone to Mitsui Yoshitaka. After Mitsui Yoshitaka took it, he smiled and said, “Thank you very much for coming to today’s party. Today we are honored to invite the famous American female singer Tawanna Sweet. Her talent has amazed me, who never chases stars, and my baby daughter admires her. Please welcome her to Tokyo with the warmest applause!" As soon as Mitsui Yoshitaka finished speaking, the applause was thunderous.

Everyone looked at Tawanna Sweet and her greasy-looking boyfriend with a mustache.

Tawanna Sweet seemed to have some difficulty in squeezing out a smile to everyone and said, "Thank you, thank you everyone, and thank you Tokyo."

"Strange." Loreen couldn't help muttering, "Why do I think Tawanna doesn't seem very happy today?"

"Yes." Claire also nodded and said, "It seems like she is forcing a smile. Is there something unhappy with the Mitsui family?"

"How could it be." Sasaki Yukiko whispered, "This time, Mitsui Xinmei invited Tawana and her boyfriend to live in her own manor. This treatment is very high. Even many big shots don't have the opportunity to live in the Mitsui family. This time, because Mitsui Xinmei likes Tawana, the Mitsui family has provided Tawana with all the reception and services of super high standards. If she is still unhappy, it would be too outrageous. Even the Speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives came to Tokyo and didn't get this treatment."

Loreen couldn't help gossiping, "Could it be that she had a quarrel with her boyfriend? You can see that her whole face is downcast. She looks very depressed and can't cheer up at all. Or maybe her boyfriend was caught flirting with another woman?"

Claire said quickly: "Loreen, stop guessing, those rumors are all made up by people."

Loreen laughed and said: "I'm just curious! She is always very excited for every concert, she shouldn't be so depressed before the performance, I'm worried about the quality of her performance later."

charlie Wade suddenly said: "Look carefully at her and her boyfriend, although both of them are very unhappy and feel like they have lost their parents, they have been holding hands and have not let go for even half a second. It can be seen that they need each other very much at this time, which proves that Loreen's guess is wrong. They are not quarreling at all. On the contrary, they should be facing some kind of hardship together, which means they are in the same boat together."

"Face it together?" Loreen asked curiously, "What hardships do they face together? They have both got enough money and love. Besides making money, they travel around the world on a private jet every day to date and show their affection. What hardships could such a couple face? Could it be that their parents don't agree with them being together? That's impossible!"

charlie Wade smiled and said, "It could also be that the bad news from their hometown made them feel devastated."

"Bad news?" Loreen asked in surprise, "What bad news could there be for such a winner in life?"

charlie Wade smiled and said, "Didn't you watch the news? The whole country in their hometown is red now. If I remember correctly, these big stars are all of another color."
