

The amazing son in law - The Amazing Son In Law

Chapter 7175

Tawana never expected that charlie Wade would ask her a question instead of answering it.

The issue of illegal immigration is almost as sensitive as LGBT, so she dared not say anything politically incorrect, otherwise she would be attacked.

So, she said with a serious face: “I think the immigration issue should be left to the US government. The United States has special laws to solve such problems. As long as they ensure fairness and justice in the law enforcement process, it will be fine.” After that, she couldn't help but look at charlie Wade with some pride and asked him: “So what is Mr. Wade's attitude towards LGBT?”

charlie Wade smiled and said: “If you insist on leaving everything to the law, then you don't need to ask me about LGBT issues, let alone come out to appeal for anything. Isn't there a law for everything, right? Leave things that can be solved by the law to the law, and we should do what we should do, and don't get involved in legal matters.”

“...” Tawana was speechless for a moment. She didn't expect that she played tricks, and charlie Wade followed suit.

Moreover, she could hear that charlie Wade's words seemed to accuse her of meddling in other people's business.

Just when she didn't know how to respond, charlie Wade said again: “In fact, it is unfair for you to say that leaving the issue of illegal immigration to the law is also unfair. At the very least, the position you personally put when treating LGBT and illegal immigrants is unfair.”

“It's not unfair!” Tawana immediately retorted: “What I mean is that every group should be fully respected, and then adapt to the corresponding laws and regulations, which will be safer.”

charlie Wade smiled and said: “You celebrities often stand up and call on American states to amend legal provisions for LGBT, but I have never heard of you standing up and calling for amendments to legal provisions for illegal immigrants. You ask the government to provide equal rights for LGBT, which is very good, very humane and very American, but why do you treat LGBT and illegal immigrants differently? Aren't illegal immigrants worthy of your appeal and amendment of legal provisions for them? The reason why you treat LGBT and illegal immigrants differently is just because illegal immigrants do not have American citizenship? If your so-called equality is based on having American citizenship, then isn't this equality a bit too frivolous?”

“Uh...” Tawana was stumped by charlie Wade's series of tricky questions. Although she has been a big name in the entertainment industry for many years and her singing skills are world-class, it can be seen from the fact that she can deliberately influence the values of fans as an idol that she is not the kind of person who truly believes in Li Jufu. What is Li Jufu? It means that any point you put forward must be convincing. If you just shout at the top of your voice and say you want this and that, but you can't say four, five, six, it's basically no different from being a hooligan.

After thinking for a long time with a depressed look on her face, Tawanna said, "You know, the meaning of the LGBT group is broader. We support LGBT, not just the LGBT in the United States, but the LGBT in the world."

charlie Wade nodded and said, "Yes, the illegal immigrants I mentioned are not just illegal immigrants in the United States, but illegal immigrants in various countries around the world, so what is the difference between them?"

Tawanna glanced at charlie Wade dimly, thinking that he would be easily incited by her like the previous two ladies, and then say a few words of support, and the matter would pass perfectly, but who would have thought that this guy would be a stubborn person, and he would never stop arguing with her.

Seeing that she was speechless for a while, charlie Wade said, "Ms. Sweet, if my question just now is difficult to answer, then you don't have to answer me, but I have a question that I need you to give me a clear answer."

Tawanna hurriedly said, "Tell me."

charlie Wade asked her, "In your eyes, are illegal immigrants and LGBT equal? You just need to answer me, yes, or no."

Tawanna was a little entangled again.

It's nonsense to say that they are equal.

Most Americans don't like illegal immigrants.

Or it can be said that most people living in their own country do not like illegal immigrants who sneak into their country.

But although this is true, it cannot be said that way.

In the West, you cannot say many people and things you don't like.

It's like as a woman, you don't want a man dressed as a man to go into the women's restroom with you. This logic is normal and 100% correct, but you can't say it.

As long as you say it, a lot of saints will jump out and criticize you: He is already pitiful for dressing up as a woman, and he has to squat to pee in the women's restroom. It's so hard, but you don't let him go to the women's restroom. Do you have a conscience?

Tawanna grew up in this environment and grew into a superstar. She knows the ins and outs of it very well.

So, she could only say against her will: “I think illegal immigrants and LGBT are equal. After all, we are all human beings, and humans should be treated equally.”

charlie Wade nodded and said, “It’s great that you have such an attitude. I think someone should record our conversation and post it online to let everyone know that you are also very supportive of illegal immigrants. And I remember that you openly support LGBT in almost every concert. I admire and agree with your approach. But since in your eyes, illegal immigrants and LGBT are equal, why haven’t I heard you speak out for illegal immigrants in public at your concerts before?”

The amazing son in law - The Amazing Son In Law

Chapter 7176

Tawanna said unnaturally: “The world needs to pay attention to not only the two minority groups of LGBT and illegal immigrants, but also many other minority groups. It is impossible for me to publicly call on everyone to pay attention to all minority groups at a concert.”

“Yes.” charlie Wade nodded and asked her: “You didn’t pay attention to illegal immigrants before, I naturally won’t blame you, let’s put aside the past and talk about the present. Since you are going to have a concert tonight, can you speak out for illegal immigrants at today’s concert? Can you spare no effort to call on the states of the United States and even countries around the world to improve their laws and provide better humanitarian assistance and protection for illegal immigrants?” Without waiting for Tawanna to answer, charlie Wade continued: “I heard that those illegal immigrants in the United States are penniless and have to bear expensive medical costs to see a doctor. Some people go to the hospital to see a doctor when they are sick. , the doctor just talked to him for a few words and gave him a bill of several thousand dollars. This is really inhumane! It’s really shocking! In our country, the total cost of an early lung cancer resection operation is only a few thousand dollars. American doctors charge so much money for talking to illegal immigrants. Isn’t this a bit too outrageous? I think you really should call on the US government to use taxpayers’ money to quickly provide these illegal immigrants with complete humanitarian assistance, including but not limited to a comfortable living environment, sufficient food supply and free comprehensive medical care. What do you think? “

Tavanna’s expression was already dumbfounded.

First, she didn’t expect charlie Wade’s entry point to be so tricky, and second, she was surprised at the series of fantasy stories charlie Wade just said.

Let her call on the US government to use taxpayers' money to support illegal immigrants? And they have to be fat, healthy, and healthy?

If I really said that, would I be able to go back to the United States in the future? Isn't this equivalent to snatching a bite of food from the rice bowls of all Americans and giving it to those illegal immigrants?

Even if I kill myself, I can't say such remarks that will inevitably be despised by the whole United States!

When she thought of this, Tawana couldn't wait to end the chat with charlie Wade.

At most, she wouldn't release the video about him. It would be better than being so aggressive and speechless, right?

So, she coughed awkwardly twice and said, "Mr. Wade is indeed very humanitarian, but I think this matter should be left to the US government. What I can do is to call on people not to discriminate against each other."

Seeing that his sweetheart was always outshined by charlie Wade, Tawanna's boyfriend Trevor immediately said, "Mr. Wade, you didn't answer Tawanna's question in the final analysis. The reason why you brought up the issue of illegal immigrants so aggressively was that you wanted to indirectly show that deep down in your heart you don't support LGBT at all. Am I right?"

Hearing her boyfriend come to her rescue and instantly turn from passive to active, Tawanna breathed a sigh of relief. At the same time, she looked at Trevor with love, and said in her heart, "This is my man. At the critical moment, he can withstand everything for me!"

So, she looked at charlie Wade and struck while the iron was hot: "Mr. Wade, LGBT are discriminated against in many places, so we must clearly support them and spare no effort to let them have equal rights. If each of us is unwilling to express our attitude and support them like you, then where will their future go?"

At this time, charlie Wade looked at Trevor and said with a smile: "I don't know what your LGBT specifically stands for, but I can tell you and Miss Sweet very clearly that I respect everyone's s*xual orientation. After all, this is everyone's own choice, and it is also everyone's own private life. Since it is private life, it is not appropriate to always discuss it in public; "

As he said, he looked at Trevor and asked him: "Do you like men or women?"

Trevor frowned and said subconsciously: "Of course I like women!"

charlie Wade smiled and said: "You can also like men. This is your freedom. If you really like men, then I also understand and respect it. "

"I really don't like men..."

Trevor blurted out to explain, but charlie Wade didn't give him a chance and continued, "You don't have to explain to me, you can like men, I just don't think you can go to the streets every day and shout that you like men, or even encourage other men to like men like you. After all, there are still many children on the streets, and their values are easily influenced by young idols. Back then, those rock bands and hippies in your West were proud of taking contraband, but what was the result? The result is that more than 100,000 people die in the United States every year from contraband!"

"If minors are influenced by you and make the wrong choice of s*xual orientation, or even mistakenly choose irreversible s*x reassignment surgery, will you be responsible for them? Obviously not!" "

Therefore, s*xual orientation is an adult topic in itself. Whether you support it or not, it should not be discussed in public. You always mention these topics in public, which is irresponsible to society!"

"What's more, you are far more than just open discussion, but often accompanied by incitement and instigation!"

Trevor waved his hands and said, "I didn't... I didn't..."

charlie Wade said coldly, "I've read the news. You even encouraged some states to pass bills to allow minors to change their gender freely without the supervision of their guardians. There are even special funds to provide them with surgery expenses. If this is not instigation, what is it?"

charlie Wade said in a somewhat aggressive tone, "In my opinion, your behavior is no longer protecting s*xual minorities, but producing s*xual minorities! You intend to artificially mass-produce more LGBT to expand this team! What is your intention in doing this?"