

The amazing son in law - Charlie Wade Chapter 7186

Pete Roger stared at charlie Wade, suppressing his anger, and warned in a cold voice: “Sir, I’m not kidding you! You’d better get out of the way immediately and don’t get yourself into unnecessary trouble!”

charlie Wade didn’t He said disdainfully: “You are such a talkative person. I still say the same thing. If you don’t let me get in the car, you can’t leave. Unless you shoot me, I don’t believe that you dare to do it in front of Mr. Mitsui!”

Pete Roger suddenly had a headache. His original task was to take Tawanna away to deal with it alone. As a result, at the party just now, Tawanna’s boyfriend Trevor insisted on following. He didn’t want to affect his actions, so he could only let Trevor go with him. Now there is a man who claims to be Tawanna’s bodyguard. If he lets him get in the car again, there will be two more people than the original plan!

However, he can also see that charlie Wade is obviously not someone who can give up easily. If he doesn’t let him get in the car, he will probably stay and not leave. But he can’t show his true colors in front of Mitsui Yoshitaka now. In that case, even if he can barely complete the task, it will be difficult for him to get out of it.

He carefully weighed the pros and cons, and finally had no choice but to grit his teeth and said to charlie Wade: “Okay, you can come up, but I warn you, you must strictly abide by our requirements!”

“Okay.” Seeing that he had no choice but to do so, charlie Wade smiled triumphantly, and immediately stepped forward stepped onto the step of the Toyota bus.

Pete Roger stood at the door, looked at charlie Wade coldly, and said in his heart: “Since you are looking for death, don’t blame me for sending you to the road.”

Seeing that he was blocking the door and not moving, charlie Wade couldn’t help but urge him: “Haven’t you heard? A good dog doesn’t block the road. How can I get on if you don’t get out of the way?”

Pete Roger was so angry that he almost vomited blood. With a ruthless heart, he flashed to make way for charlie Wade.

charlie Wade stepped into the car and saw that there were six people in the car except the driver. This Toyota bus originally had 20 seats, but it was obviously modified, so only four rows of first-class seats were left, with two seats in each row.

At this time, a white person was already sitting in the first row, and the empty seat was most likely Pete Roger’s, while Tawanna and Trevor were sitting in the second row, and there were two people sitting in the third row.

After charlie Wade got in the car, he looked at the situation. When he met Tawana’s eyes, Tawana was surprised and puzzled. She couldn’t understand why charlie Wade came to join in the fun when she and charlie Wade didn’t like each other.

When charlie Wade made eye contact with her, he was thinking that this woman and her boyfriend were now trapped in the middle. Except for the front windshield, the other windows of the car were all blackened, and the outsiders couldn’t see the inside at all. If the four of them wanted to attack them in the car, they would have no chance at all.

Pete Roger said to the man in the first row, “Lucas, go to the last row and let him sit in your seat.”

Just as the man named Lucas wanted to stand up, charlie Wade put his hand on his shoulder and pushed him back to his seat. At the same time, he walked towards the last row and said with a smile, "How can I let you give up your seat for me? I'll just go to the last row and make do!" Pete Roger's heart tightened immediately. His plan was to let the two people in the third row attack Tawanna and Trevor as soon as the car drove out of the dome. The lethal dose of injection drugs had been prepared long ago. He only needed to stand up and stab and push the two people in the neck, and the two would die immediately within half a minute.

Originally, all this was effortless, but he never thought that charlie Wade, the troublemaker, would sit in the last row as soon as he came up. If he really let him sit in the last row, he could see the actions of all the people in front of him clearly. At that time, not to mention injecting drugs into them when they were not paying attention, it is very likely that charlie Wade would find out as soon as the syringe was taken out!

So, Peter Roger subconsciously pulled charlie Wade and said, "Just sit in the first row!" charlie Wade shook his arm, shook off his hand, and said impatiently, "I can sit wherever I want, why do you need to give me instructions?"

Peter Roger had never seen someone like charlie who was so aggressive when he was in a tiger's mouth, and he was a little uncomfortable at first.

He couldn't help but frown and said coldly: "I am a CIA agent and the person in charge of this investigation. Since you are in our car, you must obey our arrangements! Do you think this is your living room and you can sit wherever you want?!"

charlie asked him impatiently: "I want to sit in the last row, what can you do to me? Kill me? Don't forget that even if you are a CIA agent, you have no law enforcement power in Japan. If you dare to touch me here, I will kill you immediately!"

charlie said again: "Oh, by the way, I forgot to remind you that I am not an American, I am Chinese! You, an American CIA, on Japanese territory, have no deterrent power to me, a Chinese. To put it bluntly, you are not even a hair in my eyes!"

Peter Roger looked at charlie, who didn't look like a joke at all, and he was dumbfounded.

Although he had killed many people, it was the first time he had seen someone like charlie who was so determined to die.

He was puzzled: "This guy insisted on getting in the car. For me, isn't it just a matter of killing one more person and dealing with one more body? Why is he so arrogant in front of me?"

However, the only problem at the moment was that he had to drive as soon as possible and couldn't stay here all the time. If he really quarreled with charlie here, the whole operation would be affected.

So, he could only suppress his anger and said to charlie: “Okay! If you want to sit in the last row, go ahead!”

charlie curled his lips at him and muttered: “F*ck, he’s just a shitty agent. What are you proud of? Don’t you still have to admit your defeat?”

charlie deliberately let Pete Roger hear his mumbling, which immediately made the other party so angry that he wanted to curse.

But considering the overall situation, he still held back and didn’t get angry. Then he picked up the intercom and said, “Contact the car of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in front and ask them to send two staff members to our car.”

charlie claimed to be a bodyguard. Peter Roger didn’t know his strength, so he decided to find two ninjas to come just in case.

charlie ignored him and walked back. When he passed the second row, Tawana, who looked surprised, couldn’t help but ask him, “What are you doing?! What does this have to do with you?”

charlie said calmly, “It’s not your car, what do you care about?”

This sentence choked Tawana.

Yes, after all, even she was sitting in someone else’s car, and charlie was willing to come up to join in the fun, so she really had no right to care about him.

So, Tawana thought of the only breakthrough and said coldly, “Okay, I can’t control you if you get in the car, but I want to ask you, who gave you the right to pretend to be my bodyguard?!”

After that, Tawana stared at charlie with a smug expression, waiting for his answer.

charlie was really shocked, and several people including Pete Roger were even more shocked.

They thought charlie was really Tawana’s bodyguard, but they didn’t expect that he was an imposter.

This immediately alerted them, wondering what charlie’s intention was to get on this car, or even insist on getting on this car.

charlie held Tawana, gave her a thumbs up, and praised her coldly: “Okay, you have a quick mind.”

Pete Roger stared at charlie and asked coldly: “Who are you?! Since you are not Miss Sweet’s bodyguard, please get out of the car immediately!”

Although Pete Roger wanted to kill charlie to relieve his anger, he also knew the principle of less trouble is more trouble. One more Trevor was already beyond expectations, and one more charlie would cause more trouble.

Therefore, it would be great if charlie could get off the car by himself.

charlie looked at Peter Roger and said with a bad attitude: “Okay, I won’t pretend anymore. I’m going to be honest with you. I suspect that you are not a CIA agent at all, so I’ll follow you to see what you want to do. If you don’t accept it, I’ll ask Mr. Mitsui to find a connection and call the Ministry of Foreign Affairs or the US Embassy in Japan to confirm it. What do you think?”

Peter Roger’s heart sank.

The reason why things have progressed so smoothly today is that he is well prepared. A large number of forged documents and certificates can be completely mistaken for the real thing.

Moreover, his reasons are well-made, taking advantage of things that everyone knows but tacitly understands, so that everyone thinks that it is reasonable for the CIA to investigate Tawanna at this time. However

, if Mitsui Yoshitaka had more ideas and called the Japanese Ministry of Foreign Affairs to verify it, he would soon realize that all this is just a scam.

Therefore, he, who wanted charlie to get out of the car just now, now dared not let charlie leave the car again.

So, he pretended to be disdainful and said, “I have shown all my certificates and documents. If you still feel uneasy, you will understand everything when you arrive at the embassy and meet the ambassador.”

As he said that, he looked at the time and said seriously, “We can’t delay any longer. Washington is still waiting. Let’s go first! We’ll talk about it when we get to the embassy!”

charlie smiled and didn’t continue to confront him. Instead, he casually said, “Since you won’t let me go down, I’ll sit in the last row.”

The amazing son in law - Charlie Wade Chapter 7188

After that, he looked at Tawana and said with a smile, “Miss Sweet’s brain is so fast, why don’t you analyze the current situation carefully? Guess what I came up for?”

Tawana didn’t realize that there was something fishy going on. She just glared at charlie and turned her face away and ignored him.

charlie snorted and laughed, and continued to move forward. After passing the third row, he sat in the first-class seat on the right side of the last row.

At this time, two young men got out of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs car in front. After the two men immediately boarded the Toyota bus, Peter Roger said to one of them: “You go to the last row and keep a close eye on that man. Make sure he doesn’t interfere with our investigation.”

The man frowned and understood what Peter Roger meant. Once he used the unquestionable word “must” on someone, it meant that this person must be killed to avoid any uncontrollable factors.

Since the original plan was to kill Tawanna, he realized that once other people took action against Tawanna, he would have to take action to get rid of charlie at the same time.

So he immediately said: “Okay, Agent Roger, I understand.

Peter Roger nodded, and then said to another person: “You sit in my seat, and I’ll sit in the passenger seat.”

Peter Roger himself is not a master, he is a well-trained professional killer, so his combat effectiveness can only be reflected with hot weapons.

And this time, his superiors did not let him do it by force, so he thought of such a trick, intending to take Tawanna away and get rid of her without any soldiers or shots.

However, in order to deal with emergencies, he hid a loaded pistol under the passenger seat. Once there is an emergency and the pistol is needed, he can take it out and open the safety to fire it immediately.

Originally, if charlie didn’t get on the car, he planned to sit in the first row and watch the process of Tawanna and Trevor being poisoned up close, but now there was an uncontrollable factor, so he let the ninja sit in the first row to assist, and he went to the co-pilot so that he could be closer to the gun and on the other hand, he could keep the maximum distance from charlie to give full play to the advantages of thermal weapons. In addition, there were three rows of six people in the middle. If there was any danger, he would be the one with the lowest risk.

After arranging the people, Peter Roger said to the driver: “Okay, get off as soon as possible, Washington is still waiting.”

The driver nodded, started the car, and slowly drove away.

Peter Roger’s plan for his men was that as long as the vehicle left the dome smoothly, he would immediately kill the people to avoid more trouble.

The reason for leaving the dome before taking action was that he was afraid that if the Mitsui family stopped the car team, everything would not be flawed.

As long as the vehicle left the dome, it would be on the municipal road in Tokyo. In that case, the Mitsui family would not be able to stop it even if they wanted to. This was the best time to take action.

After the operation, the vehicle will immediately go to Yokohama. They have already been waiting at a funeral home in Yokohama. After arriving at the funeral home, the body will be immediately pushed into the same incinerator for cremation together with an elderly widow who was scheduled to be cremated in the afternoon.

The elderly widow died of illness in a nursing home. The local government and welfare department paid for the cremation and simple burial services. Since there were no relatives accompanying her, there would be no outsiders at the cremation. Tawanna was burned together with the elderly, and a part of the ashes was given to the welfare department staff. The rest was smashed and flushed into the sewer. Even if Tawanna disappeared completely from this world, no one would be able to find any clues.

But now the thorny issue has come. The crematorium that was originally used to burn two bodies now has to burn four bodies. Whether it can fit in is really a problem.

So he immediately picked up his phone and sent a message to his superior, informing him that the situation had changed. The number of bodies that needed to be dealt with later increased from one person, Tawanna, to three.

After receiving the message, the superior was furious and replied to him, “Are you F*cking mentally ill? Come and see for yourself if that crematorium can F*cking fit four people? Two have to go in one by one, how can I burn four?”

Pete Roger replied, “That’s your problem. I will send you three bodies later. You can F*cking burn them however you want.”

The superior replied angrily, “Go F*ck yourself!”

That probably meant, go F*ck yourself.

At this moment, Charlie, who was sitting in the last row, was analyzing the current situation in his heart, looking at the ninja next to him who had been vigilantly observing him with his peripheral vision.

If he really wanted to take action, these people, without exception, would not be his opponents.

However, he had to save the lives of Tawanna and Trevor while dealing with these people.

Otherwise, his wife came to the concert with great expectations, but the singer was assassinated before the concert even started. This kind of thing would leave a psychological shadow on anyone...

The amazing son in law - Charlie Wade Chapter 7189

At this time, the three groups of people in the car were thinking about their own thoughts.

charlie Wade was thinking about how to save the lives of Tawanna and Trevor, the ill-fated couple, Pete Roger was thinking about how to kill these three people together in the shortest time, and Tawanna was thinking about why even the CIA couldn't do anything about that annoying man.

Soon, the vehicle had driven to the entrance and exit of the dome.

There was a manually guarded gate at the entrance and exit. Since the internal passage of the dome was not open to the public, there were always security personnel on duty here.

Before the gate was opened, Pete Roger was a little uneasy in his heart. For him, this was the last level. As long as he could pass this level, this matter would be considered a success.

Several security personnel in uniforms standing upright and looking majestic next to the gate were watching the convoy coming out.

However, before the motorcade reached the gate, several people immediately opened the gate diligently, and stood in a line on the roadside long ago, bowing to the motorcade with a smile on their faces. The pair of hands wearing white gloves were neatly and stiffly placed on both sides of the body. One look at these hands showed that the respect of their owners was from the heart.

Seeing this, Pete Roger was completely relieved. These security personnel were like the three sled idiots who guarded the house. The three sled idiots were the kind that looked very majestic, but when bad guys came, they would not only not bark or bite, but also diligently wag their tails at the other party.

The motorcade passed the gate one after another and prepared to turn to the municipal road. charlie Wade found that the Japanese ninja beside him had already retracted his hands into his sleeves.

And the two people sitting in front of charlie Wade, that is, in the third row of seats, also quietly put their hands into their arms, as if they were taking something.

charlie Wade released his spiritual perception and found that the ninja next to him was indeed preparing the traditional program of Japanese ninjas, shuriken.

charlie Wade had dealt with Japanese ninjas several times and found that Japanese ninjas only had this much ability. Shuriken was their most commonly used hidden weapon. In charlie Wade's opinion, Japanese ninjas using shurikens was just like terrorists using AK47s, which was already boring.

As for the two people in front, they were quite innovative. What the two guys were secretly preparing in their arms were actually two syringes.

charlie Wade understood their intentions instantly. The Japanese ninja next to him was responsible for killing him with shurikens, and the two fake CIA agents in front of him were probably planning to use poison to send Tawanna and her boyfriend away directly.

At this time, Tawanna didn't know that a disaster was coming.

She put her head through the middle aisle and deliberately spoke to her boyfriend in a voice that seemed like a whisper but could be heard by people around her: "That guy is really annoying. Is there any way to get him off and not in the same car with us?"

Trevor glanced back at charlie Wade, then quickly turned his face away and whispered to Tawanna: "Baby, you have to be polite to him. After all, he is Miss Fei's good friend..."

Tawanna deliberately pouted and said: "I didn't name him or his surname. If anyone takes it personally, it's his own problem."

Trevor was embarrassed and whispered: "Okay, okay, stop making trouble. He got on the car out of kindness."

"He was kind-hearted?" Tawanna said angrily, "Such a poor reason, I guess only someone with your IQ would believe it. How could he get on the car for our safety? He obviously came here to watch the show. He knew the CIA couldn't do anything to a Chinese like him, so he deliberately wanted to join in the fun of our lives. I know this kind of person too well. Who in the world of fame and fortune isn't hypocritical?"

Trevor didn't know how to answer for a moment. He felt that charlie Wade was very fair and upright. He didn't irresponsibly express support or opposition for a complex issue. He pointed out some unreasonable aspects on the premise of respect, that's all. Tawanna was too sensitive. She always thought things were black or white. She thought that if you couldn't fully agree with my point of view, then you would be completely denying my point of view and standing against me.

The amazing son in law - Charlie Wade Chapter 7190

At this moment, Pete Roger, who was sitting in the front passenger seat, suddenly said, "Everyone, time is running out, hurry up!"

Tawanna and Trevor were a little stunned for a moment, not knowing what he meant by saying this, and the two people behind them immediately took out the syringes from their arms as quickly as possible.

Both syringes were 10 ml in capacity and were filled with transparent liquid. The two took out the syringes and immediately stabbed Tawanna and Trevor in front of them.

Tawanna and Trevor's attention was all on Pete Roger, who suddenly shouted, and they had no idea of the murderous intent behind them.

charlie Wade also felt that the ninja next to him had taken out a shuriken from the cuff of his right hand, and then suddenly turned sideways and stabbed the shuriken at himself.

charlie Wade was not in a hurry. His aura protected one side of his body calmly, and he shouted at the same time: "Tawanna, you idiot!"

When Tawanna heard charlie Wade insulting her, she turned around and shouted almost reflexively: "Who are you calling an idiot!"

As soon as she finished speaking, she saw a silver light rushing towards her.

Then, she felt a sudden sharp pain in her neck. The needle, which was at least five or six centimeters long, had completely pierced her neck!

"Ah! It hurts! What are you doing?!"

The severe pain made Tawanna scream uncontrollably, and Trevor's screams were heard from the side. Another person had already pierced Trevor's neck with a syringe!

At this time, as long as the two killers pushed the liquid into their bodies with a little force on their fingertips, this popular couple would become desperate mandarin ducks!

At this time, the ninja next to charlie Wade was no less fast than the two killers just now. He stabbed charlie Wade's waist with all his strength, intending to pull up directly after stabbing it and open his chest sideways.

But what shocked him was that when the sharp blade of his shuriken was less than one centimeter away from charlie Wade's body, it seemed to encounter great resistance. No matter how hard he tried, he could not stab the sharp blade forward!

He thought he was having an illusion, and immediately gathered strength to stab again, but the tip of the knife was still hovering less than one centimeter away from charlie Wade, and he could not move forward no matter what!

The killer who stabbed the syringe into Tawanna's neck did not know what happened in the back row. He looked at Tawanna at this moment and sneered, "Miss Sweet, go on your way with peace of mind. This medicine will make you go peacefully and it won't hurt at all!"

After that, he was about to push the syringe to inject poison into Tawanna's body.

Trevor was so scared that his face turned pale, and he blurted out: “Why! Why do you want to kill us!”

Another killer laughed and said: “I didn’t mean to kill you, but who told you to come here and die?”

After that, he looked back at charlie Wade, and seeing that the ninja had already made a sideways stabbing motion, he guessed that charlie Wade had been stabbed at this time, so he sneered: “And you, are you sick in the head? You have to rush to die, isn’t it better to live well?”

charlie Wade smiled and said: “It’s not certain who will die.”

Seeing that charlie Wade said it calmly, the man was surprised in his heart. How could a person who was hit by a shuriken be so calm and talk and laugh? !

So, he immediately looked at the ninja, wanting to see if he accidentally missed.

At this time, the ninja stood up, holding the shuriken and tremblingly pointing at charlie Wade, with a terrified expression, he shouted: “He... He is a devil! He is an unkillable devil!”
