

The Amazing Son in law /

Super Hero Charlie Wade - Charlie Wade Chapter 7369

The night in Eastcliff was crisp and cold.

Charlie Wade lay in bed, tossing and turning, unable to sleep.

His past, present, and future intertwined in his mind like the meeting of three rivers, leaving him in turmoil.

Meanwhile, thousands of kilometers away, in a blue-brick courtyard of a temple on Putuo Mountain, a striking woman sat on a rattan chair, gazing at the vast, starry sky.

She possessed delicate features and an extraordinary presence. Though more than fifty years had passed, time had left only a few fine wrinkles at the corners of her eyes.

This woman was Charlie Wade's biological mother, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom).

Just then, an elderly but strong and agile woman entered the courtyard swiftly and said respectfully, "Madam, Sihai—the subordinate stationed at the Wade family—reports that the master of the Wade family had a long conversation with Charlie today."

"Oh?" Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) asked curiously. "What did my father-in-law discuss with Charlie?"

The woman replied respectfully, "Madam, they talked about Miss Sun."

"Stefanie." A gentle smile appeared on Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom)'s face. "What did they say about her?"

The woman then relayed the conversation in detail.

The more Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) listened, the more surprised she became. Finally, she couldn't help but exclaim, "Orrin Sun certainly has good intentions."

The woman nodded. "I agree. The Sun family's treatment of the young master is truly admirable."

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) sighed. "My father-in-law is right. One day, Charlie will return to the Wade family and reclaim his place in the public eye as the heir. When that happens, Claire may not be able to accept it."

The woman looked at her and asked, "Madam, what do you believe is the best solution to this matter?"

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom)'s expression froze as she pondered for a long time before speaking seriously, "There is more than one optimal solution, but maintaining the status quo is not one of them."

The elderly woman quickly asked, "Do you mean that the young master and Claire are not suitable for each other?"

"Yes." Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) nodded.

After a brief pause, she sighed and said, "In my opinion, their relationship is far from pure and carries too many hidden dangers. Once Charlie resolves the issue with Wu Feiyan and returns to the Wade family, he will be embraced by the combined power of the Wade family, the An family, and his own strength. At that point, he will be the brightest rising star in the world. If news of his divorce from Claire breaks at that time, it would not bode well for him."

The elderly woman nodded and asked respectfully, "Then, Madam, do you have a solution?"

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) remained silent for a moment before replying, "Claire's parents are unpredictable factors, but Claire herself may still be influenced. I wonder if there's a way for her to discover Charlie's true identity by chance?"

"Ah?!"

The elderly woman asked nervously, "If she learns the young master's true background, wouldn't that put him in danger?"

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) spoke seriously, "That's why it must be carefully controlled. If Claire learns of Charlie's identity, realizes he has deceived her, and understands the weight of the mission he carries, what do you think she would do?"

The elderly woman thought for a moment and replied, "She would likely choose to divorce the young master, wouldn't she?"

"Exactly." Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) nodded. "If her personality is genuine and not an act, then given her temperament, she will most likely walk away. On one hand, she would be disillusioned by the years of deception; on the other, she would recognize the deep-seated blood feud behind Charlie's life. If she truly loves him, I believe she would choose to confront him, but ultimately, she would leave—quietly, taking the secret with her, without even telling her parents."

The elderly woman asked hurriedly, "Madam, are you suggesting that we reveal everything to Claire?"

“Yes,” Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) said firmly. “It’s time she knows the truth. Given Charlie’s current situation, he cannot afford to be weighed down by unnecessary worries. If she leaves, even if only temporarily, it will ultimately be in Charlie’s best interest.”

The elderly woman asked again, “Then how should we reveal the truth to Claire? She would need to hear it from someone highly convincing to believe it.”

After a moment’s thought, she suggested, “Madam, should I find an opportunity to meet her?”

“You are not the right person,” Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) rejected the idea decisively. She then explained seriously, “You, too, have been absent from the world for many years. If you suddenly appear before her and tell her these things, she may not believe you.”

The elderly woman hesitated before asking, “Then who do you think would be more suitable?”

“There is only one person in the world who fits this role,” Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) replied. “That person is Tang Sihai.”

She continued, “If Claire were to hear the truth from the Wade family or the An family, it would certainly be convincing. However, when Charlie finds out, he would surely blame them. These people are his close relatives—they are not suited to play the villain in this situation. Sihai, on the other hand, has served the Wade family faithfully for many years. His identity is well-documented and easily verifiable. If he is the one to tell Claire, she won’t have any reason to doubt him.”

Realization dawned on the elderly woman, and she nodded thoughtfully. Lifting her gaze, she said, “Madam, you have considered this thoroughly. Indeed, Sihai is the most suitable person for the task.”

A sudden thought crossed her mind, and she quickly asked, “But Madam, what if Claire refuses to leave the young master even after learning the truth?”

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) remained composed as she replied, “It doesn’t matter if she chooses to stay. Charlie is decisive in most things, yet when it comes to this matter, he has been hesitant and indecisive. Because of this, their relationship is filled with hidden dangers. If, after learning everything, Claire still chooses to stay, then at least she will have made a clear decision to be with Charlie and build a life with him. That would be far better than the current state, where everything remains uncertain.”

As a mother-in-law, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) couldn’t help but feel some dissatisfaction with Claire.

Setting everything else aside, the fact that Charlie Wade and Claire have been married for years without becoming husband and wife is something no mother-in-law would find acceptable.

If Claire is willing to leave Charlie, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) is prepared to offer her a breakup fee of 10 billion, ensuring she will never have to worry about financial security for the rest of her life. This way, Charlie can finally break free from this dysfunctional marriage and regain his complete freedom.

If Claire refuses to leave, then this move will still put immense pressure on her, forcing her to take the next step in her relationship with Charlie—at the very least, to become his wife in the truest sense.

From Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom)'s perspective, either outcome is far better than the current stalemate.

Since Charlie is unwilling to take this step himself, as his mother, she will find a way to help him take it.

Without hesitation, she turned to the elderly woman and instructed, "Tell Sihai to prepare and return to the country quietly."

The elderly woman nodded. "Understood, Madam. I will contact Sihai right away."

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) added, "Tell him not to take a plane. Instead, he must find a secure water route. Charlie now has an AI model in place. If Sihai enters the country through regular channels, he will be easily tracked."

The elderly woman hesitated and said, "Madam, the water route will be much slower. It could take until next month for him to reach China."

"That's fine," Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) replied calmly. "Speed doesn't matter—what matters is leaving no trace. If Charlie finds him, it will lead directly to me. And knowing Charlie, he has countless ways to get information about me from Sihai."
