

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7428

Tawana hadn't expected to kiss charlie Wade through the mask again during the next three concerts in Eastcliff. She was already more than satisfied with this one time, so she quickly reassured him, "Don't worry, Mr. Wade, I won't do it again!"

Stefanie sun smiled and said, "Tawana, it's getting late. We need to head back. You should rest—there's another show tomorrow."

Tawana nodded and asked, "Stefanie, do you and Mr. Wade have any plans for the day after tomorrow? I've got the day off and I'd like to explore Eastcliff—climb the Great Wall, visit the Forbidden City, that kind of thing."

Stefanie sun laughed and said, "If you're planning to climb the Great Wall, you'll probably need at least a few dozen bodyguards. Otherwise, your fans will swarm you."

Tawana grinned and asked, "What if I go in disguise?"

"That would be a disaster," Stefanie sun replied playfully.

Stefanie sun shook her head and said, "You're a foreigner, so you stand out quite a bit. Plus, your fans will definitely recognize your features. Even if you're fully covered, someone will still figure out it's you."

"What should I do..." Tawana said regretfully. "I really want to go out and explore."

Stefanie sun smiled and said, "You can go—just do it openly. But you'll have no privacy. I can go with you, but Brother charlie Wade definitely can't."

charlie Wade nodded and added, "It'd be great for you two to go out, have some fun, walk around, and let Tawana's international fans see the real China. That'll stir up some excitement."

Tawana asked in confusion, "Mr. Wade, why can't you come with us? You're part of our team too."

charlie Wade smiled and replied, "What's my role again? Feng Shui Director. I'm in charge of the Feng Shui setup for your concert venues. Normally, how could I tag along to climb the Great Wall or visit the Forbidden City? The Great Wall and Forbidden City represent centuries of Chinese history. The Forbidden City was even a royal palace. It's not my place as a Feng Shui master to just stroll in and act like a guide."

Stefanie sun agreed beside him, "Exactly. It'd be odd for Brother charlie Wade to be out having fun with us. His wife would be so confused if she saw it! Plus, Brother charlie Wade doesn't like appearing in public. If he goes out with us, it'll definitely be all over the internet."

"I see..." Tawana said, sounding a bit disappointed.

She had hoped to use the break to plan an outing with Charlie Wade and Stefanie Sun, mainly as a way to spend more time with Charlie Wade.

She hadn't expected Charlie Wade would still refuse to be seen in public.

In that moment, she felt a bit disheartened by her identity as a celebrity—there was simply no such thing as privacy.

If neither he nor Stefanie Sun were celebrities, the three of them could walk around freely without drawing any attention.

With a sigh, Tawana turned to Stefanie Sun and said, "Then let's go together. I believe after tonight, we'll be trending on several hot searches. Let's strike while the iron is hot and promote our image as best friends in front of the media. It's also a great opportunity to promote Huaxia."

As she spoke, she looked at Charlie Wade and said seriously, "Mr. Wade, many of the things Western media say about China are baseless. I never held a concert here before because I was misled. I used to think China was underdeveloped, poor, closed off, and unwelcoming. But after coming here, I've realized that it's actually a very friendly, open, modern, and developed country. Most importantly, it has a rich history and culture. If there's a way to show the real China to people in the West, then I'll feel like I've helped clear China's name!"

Charlie Wade was a bit surprised by Tawana's insight, and he smiled as he said, "I'm glad you feel that way. I'll have someone spread the word on short video platforms ahead of time to attract more top influencers to do live broadcasts."

Tawana nodded firmly. "Absolutely. I still have two or three days free before heading to Shanghai, so I'll spend that time exploring more of Eastcliff."

Having made up her mind, she added with a smile, "Maybe I should try doing live broadcasts every time I visit a city in China, and show the world the most authentic side of this country!"

Charlie Wade gave her a thumbs-up and smiled. "Excellent idea. If the Huaxia government ever asks you to be a tourism ambassador, you must say yes!"

Tawana responded without hesitation, "If they invite me, I'll definitely accept! It would be an honor!"
