

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7443

Claire laughed and said, “You know her too well. She just wants me to convince you. She said our family hasn’t really traveled together for a vacation yet.”

charlie Wade thought about his upcoming schedule. There wasn’t anything pressing that would require him to stay in the country over the New Year.

Since Claire brought it up herself, it was clear she was also interested — otherwise, she would have shut Elaine’s idea down right away.

So he said cheerfully, “Alright, let’s go!”

Claire beamed and said, “Since you agreed, I’ll spend some time over the next few days making a travel guide to find out which island offers the best value.”

charlie Wade waved his hand and said, “Come on, your husband’s made plenty of money. Why bother looking for the best deal? Forget value — let’s pick the most expensive one!”

After saying that, without giving Claire a chance to respond, he added decisively, “Your husband will handle everything — you don’t need to worry about a thing!”

Claire knew that charlie Wade had made quite a bit of money recently by working as a feng shui master. His minimum appearance fee now started at one million, and with his latest collaboration with Tawana, his income would be even higher. A family vacation for a few days would only cost a few hundred thousand at most. Since he was willing to handle it, she figured it was best to let him take care of everything.

So, Claire smiled and said, “Then I’ll leave it all to you, and just wait for my husband to make the arrangements!”

charlie Wade realized he had just barely passed her scrutiny and felt much more at ease. Smiling, he said, “Don’t worry! Your husband will take care of everything perfectly!”

charlie Wade didn’t know much about the Maldives, so he planned to ask someone more familiar with it the next day. Even if no one else could help, Jasmine moore had grown up wealthy and should be knowledgeable about it.

The next morning, Claire got up early, quickly packed her things, had breakfast, and then headed to the company.

charlie Wade casually greeted Jacob and Elaine, exchanged a few pleasantries, then pulled out his phone to message Jasmine moore and ask about the Maldives.

When Jasmine moore heard that charlie Wade planned to go to the Maldives, she immediately sent a voice message: “Master Wade, if you’re going to the Maldives, I highly recommend White Horse Island. It’s the most luxurious destination there. Food, entertainment, accommodations, and scenery are all top-notch.”

Hearing Jasmine moore’s enthusiastic recommendation, charlie Wade made up his mind without hesitation to choose White Horse Island.

He sent her a thank-you message, then opened a hotel and flight booking app to start planning his trip.

Jasmine moore followed up, asking, “Master Wade, Jasmine has a travel company. Would you like me to arrange the itinerary for you? You can even use the Moore Family’s private jet anytime.”

charlie Wade smiled and replied, “No, no need. I’m planning to travel with my family to celebrate the New Year, so it’s better if I make the arrangements myself to avoid drawing any attention.”

Hearing this, Jasmine moore didn’t insist further.

She understood that charlie Wade hadn’t yet revealed his true identity to Claire, and if she intervened, she might unintentionally cause trouble despite her good intentions.

charlie Wade booked two water villas on White Horse Island and first-class round-trip tickets for four people to Malé, the capital of the Maldives, using the app.

White Horse Island was indeed the most luxurious island in the Maldives, especially during the New Year period when prices soared — a single water villa cost nearly $100,000 per night.

However, for charlie Wade, this amount was just a drop in the bucket. Without any hesitation, he booked the best villas available and also reserved a private plane to transfer them from Malé to the island.

Thanks to the recommendation and confirmation from a trusted acquaintance, charlie Wade made his decision swiftly, without any unnecessary delays, and didn’t even bother reading the detailed introduction about White Horse Island.

This island was owned by the world’s largest luxury goods group.

The head of this group, Bernard Elno, had previously been tricked to death by charlie Wade’s series of strategic moves during the auction of the Rejuvenation Pill.
