

The Amazing son in law - The Amazing son in law

Chapter 7459

The Niwan Palace, located in the brain, lies beyond the limits of what the Reshaping Pill can regenerate.

The next day, when charlie Wade returned to the Champs Elysees Hot Spring Hotel, he brought with him two enhanced versions of the Peiyuan Pill, specially refined in the cauldron.

To his surprise, neither Ruyu nor Yun Ruge had rested the night before. Instead, they had spent the entire night meditating and practicing breathing techniques in the training room charlie Wade had prepared for Ruyu.

When they saw charlie Wade, who had only just left the previous night and returned early in the morning, both women were moved. Yun Ruge said warmly, "Mr. Wade, I'll take care of Miss Song here. You don't need to worry too much."

charlie Wade smiled and replied, "I'm not worried. I just came to give you two something."

The two looked at him in surprise, wondering what he had brought so early in the morning.

Without revealing it just yet, charlie Wade said, "Both of you sit cross-legged and enter meditation. I'll assist you."

The two were overjoyed at his words. Ruyu had only recently attained enlightenment and was still quite weak. Although charlie Wade had helped her recover her sea of consciousness, she remained far behind Yun Ruge in terms of strength. She had been eager to continue advancing her cultivation.

Yun Ruge, too, was deeply committed to cultivation. With charlie Wade's assistance, she could naturally progress much faster, achieving twice the results with half the effort.

charlie Wade instructed the two to sit cross-legged side by side, then sat down in front of them in the center. He said, "You two have different cultivation levels. Miss Yun has been training for a long time and is more skilled at controlling spiritual energy. Miss Song, on the other hand, has just discovered her sea of consciousness and is still unfamiliar with energy control. So the best way to help you both right now isn't to teach you how to control or purify spiritual energy, but to give you more of it directly. In this world, it's no longer possible to absorb spiritual energy naturally through breathing, so the only way to increase your spiritual energy is through pills."

As he spoke, Charlie Wade took out two enhanced Peiyuan Pills and said, "Have you ever heard of the Peiyuan Pill?"

"Peiyuan Pill?!"

At the mention of the name, Yun Ruge's heartbeat quickened.

Last time, Charlie Wade had given her a Rejuvenation Pill to heal her injuries. That pill had given her a firsthand experience of what a true treasure of heaven and earth felt like.

She still remembered the feeling of her body being cleansed and her marrow refined. But she hadn't expected Charlie Wade to actually possess Peiyuan Pills!

Back in the Poqing Society, she had only ever received what were called "small Peiyuan Pills," but the spiritual energy in those was minimal. Even after all her years there, the total number she had received was limited.

The so-called "small Peiyuan Pill" wasn't an actual pill type—it was a diluted version created by Sara through excessive tampering with authentic Peiyuan Pills.

One regular Peiyuan Pill could be stretched into twenty "small" ones by mixing in inert medicinal ingredients that lacked any spiritual energy, making the final product far less effective.

Even so, Sara used the small Peiyuan Pills as treasured rewards to win over the four earls and cultivators like Ruyu.

At that moment, Ruyu also gasped in surprise. "Mr. Wade... I've only ever taken the small Peiyuan Pills given by Sara. I've never even heard of a full Peiyuan Pill..."

"Small Peiyuan Pill?" Charlie Wade instantly understood what it was just from the name.

"It's like taking one cup of sugar water and diluting it into ten or twenty cups—it's still sweet, but very weak. The same principle applies to diluting elixirs."

He smiled and added, "In fact, what I've brought you today isn't just a Peiyuan Pill—it's a Great Peiyuan Pill!"
