

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7501

The young woman said with a sad face: "They are haunting us. Wherever we go, they go..."

The middle-aged man whispered, "You know nothing. They are not short of money, and they are richer than us. They will definitely choose the most expensive things when they come to the Maldives. This also proves that this family is really something. Anyway, everyone will have fun on their own after arriving on the island, and there is no need to deal with them. Just bear with it for the rest of the trip."

The young woman was a little angry and muttered, "My good mood has been ruined by them... I am so annoyed..."

The middle-aged man hurriedly said, "Hey, keep your voice down! It's better to have less trouble than more, understand? This incident is my fault. If I had known, I would not have provoked their family at the airport."

The young woman was very depressed. She thought it was going to be a fantastic journey, but she didn't expect that she would be pressed down by Elaine from the beginning in the airport waiting room. After getting off the plane, she was pressed down by someone again. This feeling was really uncomfortable.

Fortunately, Elaine already looked down on them mentally, so she was too lazy to cause trouble for them. The two of them kept silent, and the place was quiet.

charlie and his family handed their luggage to the staff and went to the VIP lounge of Baima Island to rest for a while.

Unexpectedly, a few minutes later, the middle-aged man and the young woman walked in somewhat awkwardly, accompanied by a private butler, who was one of the other three staff members.

When their eyes met, the man even raised his hand to greet charlie and chuckled twice.

charlie nodded and smiled in return.

He didn't really have any aversion to this man. He had seen many vain people. After all, his father-in-law and mother-in-law had already reached the pinnacle, so when charlie saw what this man did, he just felt that it was understandable.

Seeing that the other party greeted charlie politely, Elaine was still very proud in her heart. She felt that this was all her credit. She scored a decisive goal at Aurous Hill Airport and made the final decision.

However, she did not continue to target them, but just kept her head held high and her chin lowered, looking at people, with arrogance all over her face.

After waiting for about twenty minutes, the butler Hani came over and said respectfully, “Mr. Wade, we can board the plane.”

charlie nodded and asked him: “How long will the seaplane take to fly?”

“About half an hour.” Hani said respectfully, “The straight-line distance is less than 200 kilometers, so we’ll be there soon.”

“Okay.” charlie stood up and walked out of the lounge with his family.

The take-off and landing point of the seaplane is in the sea area parallel to the airport runway. The seaplane is relatively small in size, even smaller than an ordinary business jet. After several people board the plane, they have to wear noise-cancelling headphones because the propeller of the plane makes a lot of noise during takeoff and landing, and normal communication is impossible in the cabin.

After the couple came up, they sat at the back. There was no communication throughout the whole process. The woman looked depressed and reluctant, and the man could only hold her hand and stroke it gently to comfort her.

The plane accelerated on the water, took off, and flew towards the north of Male.

Along the way, we passed many scenic islands. The layout of almost every island is similar. In addition to large areas of beaches, reefs and forests, there are also large groups of buildings. The large main buildings are generally public facilities on the island, and the scattered small buildings are independent guest villas. Some houses are located in tropical woods beside the beach, while others extend from the sea and are built directly on the islands and reefs above the sea.

The plane landed on the water and glided slowly to the dock. When a group of people got off the plane, they were greeted by the slightly salty sea breeze of the tropical island.

charlie booked the best water house for his family for four nights. After landing on the island, the housekeeper drove a golf cart and took the family of four to the guest room, while introducing them to the basic situation of the island.

White Horse Island has many facilities, including six restaurants of various types, more than one bar and spa. It offers almost all imaginable marine entertainment, including various diving activities.

Of course, all of these are charged separately. A casual Western meal or Maldivian-style meal here will cost at least US$500 per person. Even an ordinary essential oil SPA massage will cost at least US$1,000 or US$2,000. The cost-effectiveness can be said to be almost zero.

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7502

Although the accommodation fee does not seem to be very expensive, once you arrive on the island, all the expenses are outrageously expensive.

However, the guests who come here are basically very wealthy, and hundreds of thousands of US dollars may just be a number, so everyone can accept it.

After the family settled down in two rooms and took a short rest, charlie prepared to prepare dinner.

He sent the introduction of restaurants on the island to the WeChat group of the family of four. Elaine was the first to express her opinion: "Let's try the local seafood in Maldives tonight! I heard that the locals cook delicious seafood."

charlie immediately used the room phone to contact the housekeeper and asked the housekeeper to help reserve a table at a local Maldivian restaurant.

After booking a seat, the family of four changed into seaside holiday-style T-shirts and shorts, and walked from the water house to the restaurant, enjoying the sea breeze.

The scenery along the way was breathtaking. Jacob and Elaine almost never put down their phones. However, Claire didn't seem to be in the mood. He took small steps alone, clapping his hands in front of him and behind him. He felt very bored.

charlie asked with concern: "Wife, why do you seem to be in a bad mood? Are you not satisfied with the environment here?"

Claire forced a smile, shook his head and said, "Maybe it's because I'm still a little tired on the way, and I haven't recovered yet. Plus, my period is about to come, so I feel a little weak."

charlie quickly said: "I have some blood-replenishing medicine here, I'll come back and give you some later."

charlie thought that he would quickly get some pills in the water and let Claire drink it, but Claire shook his head slightly and said, "Don't bother. I guess it will be fine after a meal."

charlie nodded. He always felt that something was wrong with Claire, but he didn't know what went wrong.

He was not so sensitive about emotions, so he attributed Claire's condition to the outrageous actions of Jacob and Elaine, as well as the fatigue from the long journey. Then he just wanted to order some delicious food to replenish Claire's strength.

When the four of them arrived at the Maldivian-style restaurant, the setting sun was just hanging above the sea. The fiery red sunlight dyed the surrounding clouds, sky and sea red, giving the feeling that the sea and sky were one color.

There weren't many people in the restaurant. After all, there were six restaurants here, which allowed them to divide the customers well so that each restaurant wasn't too noisy.

The family chose a seat where they could watch the sunset and the sea view. charlie handed the menu to Claire and Elaine, wanting them to order some of their favorite dishes.

Jacob looked outside the restaurant at this time and couldn't help but exclaimed: "Damn, that man has two wives!"

charlie, Claire and Elaine all subconsciously followed his gaze and saw a man with Middle Eastern appearance, walking towards them with two women wearing headscarves on his left and right. The key point is that both women were pregnant with big bellies.

Elaine muttered: "What's the big fuss about this? Isn't it stipulated by law that they can marry four wives?"

After saying that, seeing charlie's face full of shock, he asked in surprise: "Good son-in-law, don't think about this kind of thing! Don't envy them, their system is different from ours, just take a look!"

charlie came back to his senses from the shock, smiled awkwardly, and said: "Mom, I'm not envious, this person is a friend of mine..."

"friend?"

The family of three was all surprised.

I didn't expect charlie to meet friends here.

charlie also confirmed the other party's identity again. Although he was not wearing a military uniform, he was indeed his Syrian warlord buddy, hunter Hamid.

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7503

At this time, hunter Hamid had not seen charlie yet.

He hugged two women, with a cigar in his mouth, and he looked very happy and proud.

The family of three in front of charlie were very surprised. They didn't know how charlie could know a Middle Eastern man, and he looked quite rich.

Elaine was impatient, so she asked him directly: "Good son-in-law, how do you know the rich man in the Middle East? He married two wives and brought them out together. This man is too arrogant!"

charlie smiled and said, "You also said that this is their custom and it is allowed by law."

After that, he explained, "This friend is a client of mine. Didn't Don Albert ask me to go to the northwest border to check the Feng Shui of a large coal mine? That coal mine is invested by this tycoon from the Middle East."

Jacob and Elaine both suddenly realized that it seemed natural for Middle Eastern tycoons to invest in mining in the northwestern frontier, not to mention that it was closer to the Middle East.

However, Claire lowered her head and said nothing. She knew that charlie was lying again.

Moreover, everything charlie said before about Feng Shui now seems to be a lie.

She felt helpless, sad, and even a little heartbroken for a while.

charlie thought there was nothing wrong with his explanation, and the reason why he said hunter Hamid was his friend was because he was worried that if hunter Hamid saw him and took the initiative to greet him, he might be exposed.

So he said to the three of them, "You guys take a seat first, I'll go say hello to him."

After saying this, he immediately stood up and walked towards hunter Hamid.

charlie knew that hunter Hamid would not use his real identity when he went on vacation. After all, he was a warlord, and an opposition warlord at that. He could not be so stupid.

So, he deliberately didn't say hunter Hamid's name, but waved to him with a smile: "Hey, brother!"

hunter Hamid suddenly heard someone greeting him in Chinese. He was shocked at first, thinking that he was recognized for hiding his identity and going out for a relaxing vacation. Then he looked closely and saw that it was charlie. He immediately widened his eyes and said excitedly, "Hey, Brother wade! How... why are you here?!"

charlie came forward and said with a smile: "I am on vacation with my wife, father-in-law and mother-in-law. What about you?"

hunter Hamid quickly let go of the two women around him and said with a smile: "My two wives are both pregnant. I brought them here to have a vacation. You know, where I live, there are only mountains and deserts. The environment is too bad."

After that, hunter Hamid whispered a few words in Arabic in the ears of the two women, asking them to find a seat and sit down first. He then put his arm around charlie affectionately and said excitedly, "Come on, Brother wade, let's go out and talk, let's go out and talk!"

The two of them came to the beach outside the restaurant. There was no one around, so hunter Hamid hugged charlie in surprise and said excitedly: "Good brother, we are destined to meet! We can meet here!"

charlie smiled and said, "Brother, when did you marry these two wives? Why didn't I hear you tell me?"

hunter Hamid scratched his head in embarrassment. "Alas, my previous wife ran away during the war because she thought it was too dangerous for her to follow me. Later, I never got around to marrying again. Later, thanks to you, I gradually settled down and became stable. I married two wives. I wanted to invite you to the wedding, but it's not easy to go to that remote place. Plus, the situation was so turbulent some time ago, so I didn't feel comfortable bothering you."

charlie nodded and said, "The opposition has already established a government, which is considered a complete victory. What is the situation on your side now?"

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7504

hunter Hamid smiled and said, "I'm fine. They talked to me once after they captured the capital. I didn't really want to be recruited by them. I thought it would be the same as before. I just wanted to keep my own piece of land. They also respected my opinion. We agreed not to interfere with each other. That's why I am in the mood to get married and take my wife out for a trip and vacation. I have been in the mountains for so many years. To be honest, I can't stand it anymore."

charlie asked again: "What does Wanlong Hall say? Do they still recognize the land lease agreement reached between Wanlong Hall and the previous government?"

"Admit it!" hunter Hamid said with a smile, "How dare they offend the Ten Thousand Dragons Palace? That's why they promised the Palace Master that all conditions will remain unchanged and they will not interfere with each other."

charlie said with a serious expression: “There is nothing to worry about with the Ten Thousand Dragons Palace. After all, they are a mercenary organization and will not covet the opposition’s regime. We can indeed keep our distance from each other. But you, brother, you refused their offer to recruit you, and the previous government surrendered at the speed of light. Now that they have no enemies, you have become their enemy.”

“No.” hunter Hamid said confidently: “I have a good relationship with their leader. We are all friends who have risked our lives for each other. It’s just that we have different ideas. He has big ambitions, while I have small ambitions. Brothers can understand each other. Now that they have power, they won’t care about my little territory.”

charlie shook his head: “That’s not what I meant. We Chinese have an old saying, ‘How can I allow others to snore beside my bed?’ You are under their noses, so you can be considered to have your own troops. When there were foreign enemies before, you were an ally, sharing the pressure and firepower. Now that there are no foreign enemies, aren’t you an enemy?”

hunter Hamid frowned and was silent for a moment, then waved his hand cheerfully: “Good brother, don’t worry, I’m not afraid of them causing trouble. Of course, this is all thanks to you, brother. My base is now a huge permanent fortification. I dare not forget what you said about storing up food and becoming king slowly. Now the tunnels on the reverse slope are full of food, ammunition and medicine. We are not afraid of defending for three to five years. If they really want to fight, then just give it a try. I guarantee that they will lose both the wife and the army! They are shooting themselves in the foot!”

charlie smiled helplessly: “Brother, the situation is different now, and the strategy is naturally different. In the past, you were one of the many opposition factions. If the government army couldn’t defeat you, they could find other soft persimmons to pinch. There was no need to fight you to the death;”

After that, charlie changed the subject and said seriously: “But it’s different now. You are now the only uncertain factor in the eyes of the opposition. If they really want to attack you, they can concentrate all their efforts on you. Apart from anything else, they have more troops than you, and there is no other battle that requires them to divide their troops. If they send a part of their troops to surround you, what will you do?”

“Well...” hunter Hamid asked nervously, “Do you think they will really attack me?”

charlie said: “If they attack directly, even if they can’t take you down head-on, they can still harass you with long-range firepower. By then, your people will have to hide in the fortifications on the reverse slope for years and months to listen to the cannon fire. Your soldiers don’t have any iron will, and they will collapse in a few months.”

“But if they surround you without attacking you and cut off all your external supplies, after a few years without any effort on your part, you will run out of ammunition and food and surrender.”

“If you take the initiative to counterattack, your military strength will be like an egg hitting a rock. And once you abandon your fortifications and fight back, you will lose your greatest advantage and will definitely lose!”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7505

charlie Wade’s insightful speculation and analysis made hunter Hamid a little nervous.

He asked charlie Wade with a sad face: “Brother wade, you said that I can’t fight or defend, so if I keep turning, won’t I just die?”

charlie Wade sighed and said, “Brother, I personally feel that the situation is indeed not optimistic. I didn’t expect the opposition to achieve a complete victory so quickly before. Now the situation has changed completely.”

hunter Hamid asked, “So what do I do now?”

charlie Wade pondered for a moment and said seriously: “If it were me, I would definitely start to sneak around immediately to see if there is any internal discord or even internal division among the opposition. If there is, I would try to use sowing discord and money to lure in some potential allies, find the right time to attack from both inside and outside, and maybe I can replace them.”

“Well...” hunter Hamid said awkwardly: “Brother... I know you have the talent of a general, but I don’t have this ability. To be honest, before I met you, it was difficult for me to command two or three thousand people. If I were to handle such a big situation, I would not be able to handle it!”

After saying that, hunter Hamid looked at charlie Wade excitedly and said, “Unless you are willing to help me command!”

“Forget it...” charlie Wade smiled bitterly: “I am in a state of disarray right now, and if you really want to fight this battle, I’m afraid it will take three to five years or even longer to produce a result. If you want to achieve a complete victory, it will be a protracted war.”

hunter Hamid sighed and said, “Yeah, you can’t possibly have that much time and energy to help me command and lead the troops to fight.”

At this point, he quickly asked, “By the way, brother, can...can you ask Lord Wan to help me? I don’t expect him to help me fight. If the opposition really fights me, can you ask Lord Wan to help mediate? Mediate or support me?”

charlie Wade waved his hand and said, “If it was the opposition in the past, there would be no problem for Wanlong Hall to clash with them, but the key is that the current opposition is no longer an opposition. They are the legitimate government. If Wanlong Hall goes against them, it would be tantamount to invasion.”

hunter Hamid thought carefully for a long time and said, “Then I will do as you said and go back to secretly win over some potential allies from their camp.”

charlie Wade nodded and said, “Be careful when you go back. Just defend your base. Even if they attack you, they won’t be able to do anything to you in a short time. If they really attack you, I will help you think of a solution.”

hunter Hamid breathed a sigh of relief: “I feel relieved after hearing what you said, brother!”

charlie Wade asked him: “By the way, what identity did you use to come to the Maldives this time?”

hunter Hamid said: “I got an identity from Dubai and now I am the owner of a construction company in Dubai.”

charlie Wade nodded: “When you meet and chat with my family later, just say that I met you when I went to the northwest frontier to check the feng shui of the coal mine you invested in. Do you understand?”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7506

hunter Hamid smiled and said, “Don’t worry, there will be no problem!”

“That’s fine.” charlie Wade breathed a sigh of relief and waved, “Let’s go back to eat. You go to my table and say hello to my family so that they won’t get suspicious. By the way, don’t call me brother in front of them. Call me Master Wade.”

hunter Hamid nodded heavily and said with a smile: “No problem, Master Wade!”

Seeing charlie Wade chatting cordially with the Middle Eastern tycoon for a long time, and coming back talking and laughing, Elaine couldn’t help but sigh: “My good son-in-law is really capable now. The customers have all been developed in the Middle East! This tycoon is very rich at first glance!”

Jacob smiled and said, “Needless to say? The Middle East is not a good place for growing crops, and the climate is not good for tourism, but there is a lot of oil underground, so the people there don’t have much of anything except money.”

Viola Ma echoed: “Wrong, there are more wives!”

Jacob didn’t dare to respond and could only smile without saying anything.

Seeing charlie Wade and hunter Hamid coming over together, the couple was a little curious.

charlie Wade brought hunter Hamid to the family of three and introduced them with a smile: “Dad, Mom, wife, this is the Middle Eastern boss I was talking about.”

hunter Hamid then quickly introduced himself: “Hello everyone, my name is Ahmed Savani, you can just call me Ahmed!”

Jacob quickly stood up, feeling somewhat flattered, and asked in surprise: “Oh, Mr. Ahmed, you speak Chinese so well!”

hunter Hamid smiled and said, “I have been in China for a long time, doing business. I am an old friend of you Chinese people!”

hunter Hamid did not dare to say that he had studied abroad in China, because if someone asked him what school he studied and what major he studied, the more he talked, the more complicated it would become.

Jacob said: “Mr. Ahmed, let me introduce myself. My name is Jacob, and I am charlie Wade’s father-in-law!”

Elaine also came over quickly: “My name is Elaine, I’m charlie Wade’s mother-in-law.”

hunter Hamid looked at Claire and smiled, “This beautiful lady must be Madam Ye!”

Claire guessed hunter Hamid’s identity in her heart, because she knew that everything hunter Hamid said must be a lie. He knew charlie Wade and must know that charlie Wade was the young master of the Ye family.

However, she did not show any abnormality, but smiled very appropriately and said, “Hello, Mr. Ahmed, my name is Claire, nice to meet you.”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7507

hunter Hamid nodded and said politely, “Master Wade has helped me a lot in Feng Shui. I have always been very grateful to him. It is fate that we can meet him and all of you here. How about this? All your expenses in Baima Island will be charged to my account.”

Elaine was delighted: “Really, Mr. Ahmed, this...thank you so much!”

Jacob was still a little reserved, and quickly said politely: “Hey, Mr. Ahmed, you don’t have to be so polite!”

hunter Hamid thought, is this a small amount of money? My Brother wade helped me raise hundreds of millions of dollars for infrastructure construction. I am where I am today because of my Brother wade, who is my bread and butter. What does this small gesture of mine mean?

So, he immediately smiled and said, “You two don’t have to be so polite to me. Master Wade has helped me a lot.”

After saying that, he immediately called the restaurant manager and reminded him, “Remember, all the expenses of these people on the island will be charged to my account.”

hunter Hamid arrived on the island two days earlier than charlie Wade. The manager recognized him and knew that he was generous, so he immediately said respectfully: “Okay sir, don’t worry, we will arrange it.”

Elaine quickly said with a smile: “Oh, look at what happened, how can this be embarrassing, Mr. Ahmed...”

“It’s okay, it’s just a small token of my appreciation.” hunter Hamid said with a hearty smile, “By the way, you guys eat first. I have to go and accompany the two ladies. We can talk again when we have time!”

The family exchanged some pleasantries and sent hunter Hamid away. Viola Ma immediately picked up her phone and searched while saying happily: “Oh, that’s great, someone is paying for everything. I want to see how much the most expensive SPA here is. I’ll go experience it after dinner!”

After checking, she immediately asked him in the WeChat group set up by the housekeeper Hani: “Housekeeper, I want to make an appointment for an underwater SPA. Are you free tonight?”

Claire whispered, “Mom, the underwater spa here is very expensive, it costs five or six thousand dollars per person, we shouldn’t be so extravagant, right?”

Elaine said casually: “What are you afraid of, isn’t there someone hanging up the account?”

Claire quickly explained: “It’s because of the debt that we can’t be so extravagant. Otherwise, I’ll give you my visa card later and you can use my card to make purchases.”

“How can that be possible!” Elaine said seriously: “When there is no advantage to take, you have to create an advantage to take advantage of it. Now that there is a benefit to take advantage of, why should I spend my own money!”

As he was speaking, Hani replied in the group: “Hello, Ms. Elaine, our underwater SPA is temporarily closed today and tomorrow. If you want to have a spa, you can make an appointment at other spa clubs.”

Elaine replied: “I just want to go to your underwater SPA. Isn’t it said that there is transparent glass all around so that you can see the underwater world? I just want to do this!”

Hani replied: “I’m sorry Ms. Elaine, our group boss will come to the island for inspection tomorrow. The underwater spa is currently undergoing maintenance and will not be open until the day after tomorrow.”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7508

Elaine was very dissatisfied with Hani’s explanation.

She immediately retorted, “What do you mean? When your group’s CEO comes, can’t we, the customers, enjoy ourselves? Who is God, the customer or the boss?”

Hani was very embarrassed and said, “Madam, it stands to reason that the customer is the king, but I am just a small housekeeper, how can I control how the group boss arranges it?”

Elaine asked back: “Where is the president of your group? Ask him to come and see me. I want to ask him in person, is this how he usually treats customers?”

Hani was shocked by Elaine’s words, and he asked tentatively: “Madam, do you know who the president of our group is?”

Elaine said disdainfully: “I’m here to spend money on vacation, and I have to study who your boss is? What’s the matter? Is your boss better than the famous Bill Gates?”

Hani coughed awkwardly twice and explained in a low voice: “Madam, according to last year’s authoritative Hurun Rich List, our boss ranked third in the world, and Mr. Bill Gates you mentioned ranked eighth in the world.”

“What the hell?” Elaine was shocked and blurted out, “Didn’t your boss just open a hotel? How could he be ranked third on the list of the world’s richest people?”

Hani then introduced: “Madam, you may not know that not only the island you are on, but all the White Horse hotels around the world are just small businesses owned by our boss. The famous luxury brands such as LV and Hermes are now owned by our boss. He is an international luxury giant.”

“Bernard Arno?” When charlie Wade heard this name, an amused arc appeared on the corner of his mouth. It turned out that the island he had carefully selected was actually the property of this nemesis brother. If he had known this, he would have let him take out this island as an extra item when bidding for the rejuvenation pill.

At this time, Elaine murmured and sighed: “This old dog is so rich, it seems that this luxury goods industry is indeed a highly profitable industry. I don’t know how much money the old dog made from buying those brand-name bags?”

Hani was startled and quickly reminded her: “Madam, please be careful with your words...”

“Oh oh!” Elaine came back to her senses and laughed twice: “If you say he is the third richest man in the world, then I must be careful with my words.”

After that, she tilted her head and thought for a while, then asked the housekeeper Honey: “Besides the underwater SPA, which one is the best?”

Honey replied, “The best is our beach spa.”

Elaine nodded immediately and waved her hand: “Okay, make an appointment for me, I’ll be there after dinner!”

Jacob raised his hand and said, “Please make an appointment for me too, so I can feel it too.”

After saying that, he looked at charlie Wade and Claire: “charlie Wade, Claire, do you want to come together?”

charlie Wade smiled and said, “I won’t go.”

Claire also nodded and said, “I won’t go either, you guys go.”

Elaine smiled and said, “That’s fine, you two can enjoy your world of two!”

Claire looked a little embarrassed. Originally, she was looking forward to coming to the Maldives and spending a romantic time with charlie Wade on the beautiful tropical island. But now, there was always a big stone blocking her heart, and all her moods disappeared.

After dinner, Viola Ma and Jacob went to the beach spa that Hani mentioned. charlie Wade asked Claire: “Wife, do you want to go to the beach?”

Claire glanced at charlie Wade, nodded slightly, and said, “Then let’s go for a walk.”

charlie Wade stood up, said hello to Hamid, and then left the restaurant with Claire.

Hani came up to them and said with a smile, “Mr. Wade, Mrs. Wade, there are many manta rays on the beach in the northern bay. Do you want to interact with them?”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7509

“Devil fish?” Claire asked in surprise, “Did you raise it?”

“No.” Hani shook his head and smiled. “Manta rays are unique to our area. There are a lot of them locally. They like to go to the shallows to forage and play at this time of year. They go back to the deep sea when it gets dark. Now is a good time to interact with them.”

Claire asked him: “Can you take us there?”

“Sure, no problem!” Hani said with a smile, “Take our golf cart and I’ll take you two there.”

Claire’s expression, which had been a little too calm, finally showed some joy, and he said happily: “Thank you so much!”

charlie Wade and Claire got on Honey’s golf cart, which was specially used to serve guests. The electric cart drove steadily on the gravel road on the island and headed straight to the northernmost beach of the island.

Baima Island is very large, with not many guest rooms. It is a low-density resort island, so the total number of tourists is not large. There are only a small number of tourists scattered along the long coastline.

However, because of the manta rays visiting the northern beach, there were still many tourists who came to watch the fun. Most of them were brought here by their butlers, who were waiting patiently by the beach.

As soon as charlie Wade and Claire arrived at the beach, they saw a bunch of manta rays the size of washbasins swimming around in the shallows. Some tourists were already standing in the water, interacting with the manta rays while taking photos and recording videos with their mobile phones.

Because everyone had changed into slippers when going to the restaurant, Claire took the lead, walking on the off-white beach, stepping on the waves, and soon arrived at the area where manta rays gathered.

charlie Wade was not very interested in animals, so he just followed her silently and took out his cell phone to take pictures for her.

Just as the guests were having a great time playing with the manta rays, a white butler suddenly shouted in standard English: “Oh my God! Oh my God! Check the work group, the manager said that superstar Tawanna Sweet will be coming to our place for vacation tomorrow! Let us prepare to work overtime tonight to prepare for the welcome!”

“Really?!” Several housekeepers suddenly went crazy, each of them looked surprised and happy, and then quickly took out their mobile phones.

Afterwards, several people excitedly jumped around and cheered: “It’s true! Tawanna Sweet is really coming! Oh my God! Tell me this is not a dream!”

Baima Island has always attached great importance to the privacy of its guests. Once a well-known guest is coming, the top management will keep it highly confidential and will not notify the employees until the evening of the day before the guest arrives.

Because they are important and well-known guests, they have to prepare a special welcoming ceremony for them one night in advance.

Among the guests of White Horse Island in the past, there have always been international superstars, but Tawanna Sweet has never been here.

For many people who like European and American pop music, Tawanna Sweet is a unique existence. No matter how popular others are, they are always one level lower than her. Even the god-level Beyoncé cannot be compared with her in influence.

Moreover, most of these housekeepers are young people, who are at the age when they like Tawanna Sweet. They don’t earn much money on weekdays and cannot afford to travel around the world to watch Tawanna’s concerts. Now they suddenly hear that Tawanna Sweet is going to land on White Horse Island tomorrow, and everyone is extremely excited.

The cheers of several housekeepers attracted the attention of some guests. Some guests heard their conversation and asked in surprise: “Tawanna Sweet is coming to White Horse Island?! Is it true?!”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7510

Because Tawana will arrive on the island tomorrow morning and will start making welcome materials tonight, it is difficult to keep it secret from the guests on the island at this moment, so the staff generously admitted: “This is the news we have received so far, but we cannot guarantee whether it is true or whether there will be any other changes.”

A group of tourists who were playing with manta rays on the beach suddenly cheered excitedly.

It's hard to even see the idol from afar if you want to spend 10 times the price to buy a concert ticket, but you never expected that the idol would go on vacation on the same island with them. It's like when Chinese people go out for fun and suddenly run into Jay Chou in the hotel where they are staying. How can this not make people excited?

Moreover, although Cheval Blanc is an island, it is actually a large hotel. All public facilities on it are open to all guests unless there are unexpected circumstances. This means that everyone is likely to eat in the same restaurant, swim in the same pool, and go out to sea on the same yacht as Tawana!

Among this group of extremely excited tourists, there were two people with surprised expressions and no sign of joy.

One is charlie.

The other is his wife, Claire.

charlie didn't want to see Tawana at all.

Especially when he was with Claire.

He even suspected that Tawanna had secretly sent someone to monitor him and knew that he was here, so she followed him.

But he thought about it carefully again and felt that Tawana should not have such great ability.

Considering that she had said before that she seemed to want to go on vacation, he felt that this was more likely a coincidence.

But, coincidence is too fucking weird, right?

When Claire and I went out for a trip, even if we didn't spend some time alone together, at least we could spend a few days in peace. But how could we be quiet when Tawanna came?

Moreover, the enthusiasm and unrestrainedness of American women sometimes made him unable to cope with it.

He prefers the relatively implicit tenderness of East Asian women, which is as gentle as water.

Claire didn't feel happy at all. Since she knew charlie's true identity, she had guessed a lot of things about Tawana.

I think the reason why Tawana came to China to hold so many concerts was because she was invited by her husband.

After all, Tawana was ostensibly invited by Bruce Automobile, and Bruce Automobile was a joint venture between my husband's grandfather's family and my grandfather's family, and even the brand used Charlie's father's name.

With this inference, it seems that Charlie's running around with Tawana under the banner of Feng Shui Director a few days ago was also a fabrication.

I already suspected that the male dancer who was passionately kissed by Tawanna on the stage was Charlie, but I thought that an international superstar like Tawanna would not be interested in a Feng Shui master like her husband.

At that time, I felt that compared to my husband Charlie, Tawanna was simply a person from heaven and the gap was huge.
