But now looking again, the one high in the sky was not Tawana at all, but charlie!

Now, charlie and I have just arrived at White Horse Island, and Tawana is coming tomorrow. Needless to say, we know that she must be here for charlie.

This was the only time he traveled with charlie, and it might also be the last time.

But what she never expected was that another competitor of extraordinary status would soon come. How could she feel good about this?

Seeing charlie's expression was a little surprised, she deliberately asked him: "Husband, Miss Sweet is also coming to White Horse Island, isn't this too coincidental? Have you told her before that you are coming here?"

"No!" charlie sighed, "I only told others that I was going to go on vacation during the Chinese New Year, but I didn't tell them where I was going. There are so many resorts in the world, and there are so many resort islands in the Maldives. I didn't expect Tawana to choose here."

Claire saw that charlie didn't seem to be lying, but thinking of what he said in the past, he was always serious, so he was skeptical in his heart, but he said, "Although there are many resorts in the world, it is winter in the entire northern hemisphere now. The only seaside resorts with such good weather are in tropical areas and the southern hemisphere. Maldives is one of the well-deserved first choices. Besides, the White Horse Island we are here is also the best in the Maldives. It's not surprising that Miss Sweet is so rich that she chose here."

As she spoke, she murmured in a low voice: "You and Miss Sweet are quite destined to meet here."

charlie said awkwardly: "So, I have a good relationship with the Middle Eastern boss of the restaurant just now."

"It's fate." Claire nodded and said, "You know I've been in Aurous Hill for so many years, and I haven't met anyone familiar on the local subway, let alone when I go out. You've gone abroad, and you can still meet acquaintances one after another. It must be fate."

charlie smiled awkwardly and said nothing.

Because the housekeepers were busy going back to prepare for Tawana's landing on the island, charlie and Claire walked along the beach back to their water villa.

Jacob and Elaine, who lived next door, had not returned yet. Just as charlie was about to enter the house, he saw the door of the house across the street open. hunter Hamid walked out of the villa and waved to charlie: “Brother Ye, would you like to chat for a while?”

After that, he told Claire: “Wife, go back first. I’ll chat with this old man for a while.”

Claire nodded slightly, then pushed the door and entered the villa.

hunter Hamid walked towards charlie at this time, and when he came up to him, he whispered to him: “Brother, let’s talk for a moment.”

There are independent water villas all around. Although the privacy is very good, if you talk outside, you are afraid that others will hear you.

So the two of them walked a long distance away, and charlie asked him: “Brother, do you have something to talk to me about?”

hunter Hamid said to him, “Brother, I have booked a flight for the day after tomorrow morning. I plan to go back. The day after tomorrow morning I will take a seaplane from Cheval Blanc directly to Male, and then fly to Beirut, Lebanon.”

charlie asked him: “Is it the original plan or a spur-of-the-moment idea?”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7512

“It’s temporary.” hunter Hamid sighed and said, “I originally planned to take a good rest for a while, but after listening to you talking at the restaurant entrance in the evening, I was always nervous and a little uneasy, so I planned to go back early. I wanted to leave tomorrow, but my two wives heard that the international drama Tawanna Sweet will land on the island tomorrow, and they refused to leave. They insisted on meeting Tawanna Sweet, taking a photo with her and asking for her autograph before leaving. I have no choice but to postpone it to the day after tomorrow.”

After that, he said with some melancholy: “I wanted to have a good chat with you, brother, but it seems that I can only wait until next time.”

charlie said: “It’s okay, brother, go back and do your business first. During this period of time, you should make use of the time to contact some marginal forces in the opposition. It is always good to make arrangements in advance.”

At this point, charlie suddenly thought of something, so he asked him: “Brother, do you still remember that I helped you resist the attack of the Ten Thousand Dragons Palace?”

“Of course I remember!” hunter Hamid said excitedly, “Every one of your strategies was extremely useful. Digging tunnels on the reverse slope, building fortifications, constructing bunkers, crossfire coverage, and drone reconnaissance defeated those well-trained soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragons Palace! Oh, I still get excited when I think about it now!”

charlie said: “I want to remind you about drones. When I asked you to make good use of drones earlier, those small drones were mainly used for reconnaissance. They are flexible and small, and can hardly be detected by the enemy. However, the war situation in Eastern Europe has been deadlocked in the past two years, and drones have been developed for many new purposes. Most of them are used to carry small bombs for low-altitude bombing and suicide attacks. I think you should hurry up and stockpile a large number of drones, preferably 100,000. Once the enemy launches a general attack on you, drones will be very effective!”

“Yeah...” hunter Hamid nodded in agreement. “I’ve also read a lot of relevant reports. This thing is quite powerful. It’s low-cost and difficult to defend against.”

charlie said: “You must also be prepared to defend against drones. See if you can purchase advanced radars. Once an enemy drone attacks, I dare not say that I can completely defend against it, but at least I must be prepared in advance to prevent the enemy from using drones to carry out precision strikes on your large equipment, or to carry out decapitation operations against you.”

“No problem!” hunter Hamid’s face sternly realized the danger and said, “I’ll have them take anti-drone measures at the permanent fortifications and the reverse slope tunnel entrance.”

charlie reminded him again: “You must make sure that drone aerial patrols are normalized and that the movement of personnel and equipment within a 50-kilometer radius of your base is closely monitored. Also, be prepared to escape. If the war becomes one-sided, find a way to escape alive. Then come to Huaxia to find me and I will keep you safe.”

hunter Hamid was a little nervous: “Brother, is the situation so pessimistic? The current base is the result of my hard work over the years. You have invested so much money in me and built so many new infrastructures. If we really give up, those bastards will get it for nothing!”

charlie shook his head and said, “Brother, you have to have a big picture. When it comes to a life-or-death moment, there is nothing you can’t give up except your life.”

Fearing that he would be too nervous and his mentality would be affected, charlie smiled and said, “But it may not be that serious. It’s always good to be well prepared. There are too many variables in your place. Anything can happen.”

hunter Hamid bit his lip and nodded heavily, saying, “Okay! I’ll listen to you!”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7513

That night on Baima Island, all the staff stayed up all night.

They set up a huge welcome banner and a wall of flowers at the dock where they landed on the island. The red carpet was also taken out and thoroughly cleaned, waiting to be laid out from the dock to the hotel lobby early tomorrow morning.

After enjoying a SPA massage with his wife under the sea, Bernard Elno complained to his wife as they came up in the elevator: “Why did the American singer choose to come to the Maldives at this time? I’m afraid the whole island will be filled with shouting and screaming. It’s so annoying.”

The wife said casually: “What’s the trouble? We open the door to do business. As long as the guests can pay, we will treat them well.”

Bernard Elno complained: “I don’t want the luxurious resort I carefully built to become a noisy star-chasing scene like a vegetable market. It’s a pity that this woman is too influential. We can’t refuse her from coming to the island. We have to put on a welcoming posture. It’s really annoying.”

The wife shrugged and said, “I told you a long time ago that if you plan to come here on vacation by yourself, it’s best to ask the hotel to cancel all reservations so that our family can enjoy this island alone. It’s not only quiet, but also safe. But you didn’t listen.”

Bernard Erno curled his lips and said, “You make it sound simple. Do you know how much we have to pay if they cancel the hotel stay because of us? We have to compensate them 3 to 5 times the order amount, and even their air tickets and mental damages. If we encounter a guest who likes to sue at every turn, there will be more trouble in the future.”

The wife held her shoulders and grumbled in dissatisfaction: “You are already so rich, can’t you have a little more vision? Even if we compensate these customers as much as you said, how much money can we lose? A few million or at most tens of millions of dollars. Our family has assets of hundreds of billions of dollars, and the annual profit is also tens of billions of dollars. The returns from various investments are too numerous to count. What does this little money mean to us?”

Bernard Elno waved his hand and said, “You don’t understand. Money is something that can be seen but not spent. The Chinese have a saying that goes, ‘Save as much as you can.’ We should try to avoid unnecessary waste. How do you know if there will be any big expenses in the future?”

In fact, Bernard Elno never told his wife that he spent 108 billion US dollars to buy a pill from China.

At the auction of the rejuvenation pill, as Asher was expelled and Jian's son usurped power and lost the ability to pay, he was lucky enough to buy a rejuvenation pill for 720 million US dollars.

At that time, the entire group and his own personal liquidity was only more than 80 billion US dollars.

What he didn't expect was that he had already allocated more than 300 million US dollars worth of goods, but the owner of the rejuvenation pill did not let him go and asked him to allocate another 50% of the goods. Most of the 36 billion allocated goods were paid in installments.

In order to buy a rejuvenation pill, Bernard Elno's assets have shrunk significantly, and his personal and group cash flow has become very tight. There are still many installments that need to be repaid with the group's subsequent profits. At this time, let alone tens of millions of dollars in income, he is unwilling to let go even if it is 100,000 US dollars.

In addition, there is another very important reason. He hopes to save more money over the years, so that when the effect of the rejuvenation pill is about to wear off, he can quickly buy the second one.

This means that he would have to save at least one or two hundred billion US dollars in the next ten years or so in order to have a chance to live another 20 years.

But he didn't dare tell his wife about these things, because theoretically the income of the company group is the common property of the couple. He used the money to pray for immortality without caring about his wife's life or death. Once his wife knew about it, she would definitely make a fuss to the death.

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7514

To this end, he even asked the group's finance department to falsify revenue and profit data in order to paralyze his wife and keep her in the dark.

Moreover, he had never told his wife about his cancer. With his wealth, he was wary of everyone around him. He was very worried that his wife would find out that he had cancer and would not live long, so he immediately began to make preparations for taking over his inheritance and business control.

Although it is a normal process between husband and wife for one party to encounter problems and the other party to make preparations, Bernard Erno is well versed in human nature. He knows that once his wife thinks that she will not live long and starts to prepare for her own death, her feelings for him will become weaker and weaker.

If I died as she expected and without disrupting her plans, perhaps we could have maintained a normal relationship as husband and wife before I died. But once I lived beyond her expectations and her long-awaited preparations became nothing more than alternative plans, I didn't know whether she would blame me or not.

What people fear most is a change in their mentality.

The same thing, before your mindset changes, may be pain and torture, but after your mindset changes, it may be expectation and longing.

In order to prevent this from happening, he never told his wife a word about cancer and the rejuvenation pill, which was a change from hell to heaven.

This is also a worry unique to the top wealthy people.

The wife was still complaining at this time: "Bernard, do you know why you have become more and more stingy in recent times? To be honest, you and I are so old, why should we care about these material things like money? Even if nothing unexpected happens, our lives will only last a dozen or twenty years at most. The most important thing is to make yourself happy in the rest of your life!"

Bernard Elno muttered to himself: "For you, you only have ten or twenty years to live at most, but for me, as long as I have enough money and the auction of rejuvenation pills continues, I may live another forty years!"

However, he naturally did not dare to say these words, so he smiled and comforted her: "This island is so big, our family only needs two houses, there is no need to clear the entire island, sometimes we also need to get a taste of the world, and it just so happens that Tawanna Sweet is coming, and the island will definitely be very lively at that time. It's a good thing to think about it this way. If we get in touch with more young people, our mentality can also become younger."

His wife looked at him in surprise and said, "You change your expression so quickly. Just now you were complaining about Tawanna Sweet's coming. Why do you think it's a good thing now?"

Bernard Elno smiled awkwardly and said, "Ah, there are always two sides to a thing. Looking at the problem from that side may be a bit bad, but looking at the problem from this side will make it clear."

As he said that, he deliberately changed the subject and said, "By the way, honey, since Tawana is an international superstar and is also very popular among the guests of White Horse Island, why don't we hold a party tomorrow and invite Tawana and guests from all over the island to participate. Let's have some fun together and feel the feeling of being young. What do you think?"

The wife shook her head helplessly and smiled: "I was the one who advised you, how come you are the one who advised me? But since you want to have some fun, I have no objection."

Bernard Elno quickly struck while the iron was hot: "It's settled then. After Tawanna arrives on the island tomorrow, I'll talk to her about this. As long as she agrees, we'll have a party tonight!"

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7515

That night, accompanied by the hunter Hamid sea breeze and the sound of waves of the tropical island, charlie rarely found some true peace.

Claire beside him went to bed early. She slept with her back to charlie, and charlie didn't notice anything unusual.

The next morning, when charlie was still sleeping, Claire got up quietly.

Although she tried her best not to make any sound, charlie quickly sensed it and woke up.

After Claire got up, he left the bedroom. In this water villa, both the bedroom and the living room had a door facing the sea. When you pushed it open, you would see the jelly-like blue sea.

Pushing the door out of the bedroom, there is a water terrace with a log fence on the side, which provides great privacy. The entire villa is built on underwater islands and reefs, and the waves are rolling right under your feet.

There are two outdoor lounge chairs on the terrace and a large freshwater swimming pool below.

When Claire came out of the bedroom, the skyline was just beginning to lighten, but there was no sign of the rising sun yet.

She sat on a recliner, supporting her chin with one hand, staring intently at the brightest spot on the skyline, her expression slightly dazed.

At this moment, charlie pushed the door open and walked out. Claire turned around and looked at him, and asked in surprise: "Are you awake? Did I wake you up?"

"No." charlie smiled and said, "Why did you come out to watch the sunrise alone without asking me to join you?"

Claire said unnaturally: "I'm afraid of waking you up. You've been running around outside all day long. It's too tiring. I finally got you out to play, so I wanted you to rest more."

charlie nodded and sat down beside her. The morning glow on the sea had begun to turn red, making Claire's fair face look bright red, like a fresh, rosy apple, so beautiful and tempting.

charlie was distracted, and after a moment he looked around again. He did not feel calm, but rather a little anxious.

Since his parents were murdered in Aurous Hill when he was eight years old, he has not lived a normal life until today. Even though he is now on vacation in the picturesque Maldives, he still has to wear that mask in front of his wife, and in his mind he is still thinking about how to avenge his parents.

That deep hatred lingered in his heart, and even on vacation, he found it difficult to truly relax.

He longed to kill Sara as soon as possible, so that he could take off all his disguises, live a good life with Claire, and no longer have to think about the Qing Society and Sara. However, he didn't know how long he would have to wait to achieve this goal.

In a trance, the morning sun rises in the east.

Claire was fascinated by the same red sun, but charlie was absent-minded.

When the sun completely rose from the sea, a seaplane appeared on the skyline.

Seeing that the plane was getting closer and closer and its altitude was getting lower and lower, Claire said to charlie: "Someone has landed on the island so early, could it be Miss Tawana Sweet?"

"Maybe." charlie responded casually.

He had a headache about Tawana.

Claire couldn't help but tease: "It seems that you and Miss Sweet are quite predestined. You just worked together for so long, and now you meet here again."

"Hey." charlie waved his hand: "I don't want to see any acquaintances when I'm on vacation."

Claire said: "It's okay, anyway, our plan is only for four nights this time, and now there are only three nights left. Three days will pass quickly."

On the plane that was about to land were indeed Tawana, her family, and her bodyguard team.

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7516

Her private plane took off from Los Angeles and after more than ten hours and a journey of nearly 15,000 kilometers, it landed in Male, the capital of the Maldives before dawn.

Although she had a good rest on the private plane, she still felt a little overwhelmed. As the seaplane she was taking was about to arrive at the destination, she couldn't help but complain to her mother: "Before coming here, I thought it would only take seven or eight hours to fly to the Maldives. I didn't expect it would take so long. I regret it so much. If I had known that when my agent helped me choose the Maldives, I should have learned about the distance first."

Mom smiled and said, "Maldives is not that famous in the United States, mainly because it is too far away. In fact, the climate in the Caribbean is not much different from here, and the scenery is not much different. Next time if you want to go on a tropical vacation, go to the Caribbean."

Tawana's father immediately said, "Don't go to the Caribbean again. It has a bad reputation in the United States. Have you forgotten about those islands? We can't let our precious daughter have anything to do with those places."

"That's right!" Tawana's mother thought of those notorious islands and said with some fear: "Try not to consider the Caribbean Sea."

Tawana felt extremely embarrassed because her parents were unaware of the connection between her and those islands. If they knew that she had often hung out with notorious people, they would probably be very disappointed in her.

The seaplane landed on the sea and then taxied all the way to the pier.

After receiving the news, the staff rushed to the dock early to prepare for the welcome.

Even the general manager of White Horse Island and Bernard Elno's assistant came to the dock to welcome the international superstar who was about to arrive on the island on behalf of Bernard Elno and the entire White Horse Island Group.

After the plane stopped, Tawanna was the first to get off the plane, followed by her parents, and four bodyguards followed closely behind them.

Bernard Elnó's assistant came up to greet them and said respectfully, "Hello, Miss Sweet. I am Mr. Bernard Elnó's personal assistant. My name is Alexander Renault. On behalf of Mr. Bernard Elnó and his wife, I would like to extend my heartfelt welcome to you!"

Tawanna was a little curious. Since Bernard Elnó's personal assistant was here, did that mean Bernard Elnó was here too?

Thinking of this, she asked, "Is Mr. Bernard Elnó on the island?"

"Yes!" Alexander nodded and said with a smile, "What a coincidence! Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Elnó have just arrived on the island. It's just that they are old and can't come to greet us in person so early. I hope Miss Sweet can forgive me."

"You are so polite. I will go visit Mr. Erno when the time is convenient."

As a top star in the entertainment and music circles, Tawana has actually dealt with the capital behind these luxury brands a lot, and has even had a lot of collaborations with them. Bernard Arnault is the only super-rich man in the entire luxury circle, so his status in the entertainment circle is naturally very transcendent, and Tawana has to give him more face.

Alexander smiled and said, "Miss Sweet, Mr. Elnor wanted me to tell you that he wants to organize a party on the island tonight and invites you and all the guests on the island to attend. Are you interested?"

Since Tawanna was out on vacation, she naturally didn't want to attend any party. Moreover, if she held a party here, the participants would definitely be ordinary people, not people in the circle. She would be the only star, so it would definitely feel awkward.

However, she couldn't refuse Bernard Elnó's kindness as soon as she arrived on the island, so she could only agree and said, "It's great to be able to attend another party. I'm interested!"

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7517

Although Tawana was reluctant, she still accepted the invitation to the party in the evening for the sake of future business cooperation, not for anything else, just to give Bernard Arno face.

Bernard Elnó's assistant also breathed a sigh of relief and quickly said politely, "Miss Sweet, you are exhausted from the journey. Let the butler take you and your family back to the villa first. You should have a good rest. Mr. Elnó has already instructed that if you have any requests on the island, just tell the butler. The entire White Horse Island will do its best to satisfy you."

Sweet nodded and said, “Thank Mr. Erno for me.”

The assistant smiled and thought, “I think Miss Sweet didn’t misunderstand me. What I meant was that the whole island will try its best to meet his needs, but it’s not free. Mr. Erno is frugal and wants to save as much as possible. It’s impossible for him to charge all the expenses of Sweet and his group...”

At a certain moment, he wanted to remind Tawanna implicitly, but then he thought, he should not waste his energy. If Tawanna was dissatisfied, Mr. Arno might blame him for being too talkative.

Anyway, all consumption on the island is charged to account and the settlement will be made when leaving. It doesn’t matter whether Sweet made a mistake or not. Someone will naturally come to her to settle the bill when she leaves. At that time, even if she curses Mr. Erno a hundred times in her heart, it will have nothing to do with her.

So he smiled and said, “Miss Sweet, please get in the car with your family!”

Tawanna nodded and asked, “Are the rooms we booked together?”

At this time, a white female housekeeper came forward and said respectfully: “Miss Sweet, you have booked a total of four water villas, and these four villas are next to each other.”

“That’s good.” Tawanna nodded and said, “Please take us there.”

The butler made a gesture of invitation and bowed, saying, “Please get in the car. I will take you to your room.”

At this time, many guests who came to watch the fun gathered outside the pier. They knew yesterday that the big star Tawanna would land on White Horse Island today. After hearing the roar and landing of the seaplane just now, they all went out and rushed to the pier, wanting to catch a close glimpse of the international superstar.

When they saw Tawanna in person, the residents shouted excitedly, and there were even many fanatical fans who wanted to rush up to ask for autographs and take photos.

Fortunately, White Horse Island had prepared security personnel in advance, and Tawanna brought several burly bodyguards to keep these fanatical fans out.

Unable to get close contact, the fans could only take out their mobile phones to take as many photos as possible. Tawanna was used to the feeling of being the center of attention wherever she went, so when she got on the golf cart, she kept smiling and waving to other guests.

hunter Hamid and his two pregnant young wives were also among the crowd.

The two ladies were so excited to see Tawana that they even jumped up and down, waved and screamed at her. hunter Hamid was so anxious that he whispered to them, “Stop jumping, stop jumping, be careful with the children, be careful with the children!”

The two ladies are young. Although they have to wear headscarves and veils according to custom when they go out, they are no different from ordinary women at home. They also surf the Internet and chase stars. Tawanna is their idol, so they were naturally excited when they met her.

hunter Hamid was very nervous, but fortunately the two ladies were young and strong, so jumping around didn’t have much of an impact on them.

Seeing Tawana leave, hunter Hamid finally breathed a sigh of relief and tried to persuade the two: “Ladies, you have seen this star, can we prepare to go back? It’s still early now. If you agree to go back, I will arrange for someone to prepare today’s tickets. After breakfast, we will check out and go to Male to catch a plane.”

The eldest lady asked, “Don’t we have a chance to get up close and personal with Tawanna? Even if it’s just to get an autograph!”

The second wife agreed and said, “I want to take a photo with her! This may be the only chance in my life to see her face to face and up close.”

hunter Hamid said helplessly, “Oh, there will definitely be opportunities in the future. I’m always worried about something now, and I want to go back early to make arrangements. Besides, Tawana is a big star, and even if you stay on the island, it will be difficult for you to have a chance to contact her. Didn’t you see that she brings so many bodyguards with her when she goes out?”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7518

The first lady looked at the second lady and said, “What the commander said makes sense. We have all seen each other, and we just took a few photos. That’s enough.”

The Second Madam was silent for a moment, then nodded slightly with a little grievance in her heart: “Okay then.”

hunter Hamid breathed a sigh of relief and immediately took out his cell phone to make a call, instructing the other party: “I will book the earliest flight back today. Please help me contact the management of Baima Island and prepare a seaplane to take us to the airport.”

The person on the other end of the phone said respectfully: “Okay Commander, I’ll arrange it right away!”

hunter Hamid hung up the phone and said, "I'll say hello to Brother wade from yesterday, and then we'll leave directly."

The two ladies nodded and agreed.

At this time, a staff member came to the crowd and announced loudly: "Ladies and gentlemen, I want to announce a good news to everyone. Tonight, our group president Mr. Bernard Elnu and his wife have invited Miss Tawana Sweet to attend the party tonight. Now we sincerely invite all residents to participate. Every resident is eligible. The party will be held at our sea view bar on the beach at 8 o'clock in the evening. Everyone is welcome to come!"

"Huh? Really?! We can attend the party with Tawanna?!"

There were bursts of excited exclamations from the crowd, and even screams from a few ladies.

Even hunter Hamid's two wives were so excited that they held each other's hands and jumped and screamed.

The eldest lady, who was trying to persuade the second lady just now, now hugged hunter Hamid's arm and begged, "Commander, let's go tomorrow, okay? We have to attend the party tonight no matter what!"

The second lady also said, "Yes, Commander! We have no other requests, we just want to see Tawanna up close. It would be even better if we could take a photo with her!"

hunter Hamid said depressedly: "I just asked someone to arrange for a flight ticket...you all heard the phone call..."

The eldest lady pleaded, "Can we leave tomorrow, Commander? Commander..."

The second lady also hurried forward: "Yes, Commander, can you stay one more day? Just one day!"

Seeing the two pregnant women's pleading eyes, hunter Hamid's heart softened and he said helplessly: "Then let's make a deal in advance and stay one more day! I'll have someone book a flight ticket for tomorrow morning. By then, even if Tawana wants to hold a concert on the island, you must go back with me!"

The two ladies smiled at each other. It was already very rare for a top star like Tawana to come out on vacation and give the boss of the group a face to attend the party. How could she hold a concert on the island? This was simply a fantasy.

So both of them agreed without hesitation.

hunter Hamid had no choice but to call his subordinates again and said, “Don’t book the flight. Book one for tomorrow morning.”

The person on the other end of the phone asked in surprise: “Commander, are you going to postpone Mom? I just booked a flight for today.”

“Yes.” hunter Hamid sighed and said, “There’s a big star coming to the island. He’s going to have a party with the group’s boss tonight. The two ladies want to stay one more day to chase their idol. Please help me book the tickets for tomorrow. Also, gather all the officers. No matter what they are doing, they must rush back to the base tomorrow. I have an important strategic meeting to hold and no one can be absent!”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7519

When charlie, Claire, Elaine and Jacob came to the French restaurant on the island for breakfast, several butlers waiting there reminded every guest who came in and said, “Dear sirs and madams, there is a free party at the sea view restaurant of the hotel tonight. You and your family are welcome to attend. Our group president, Mr. Bernard Elno and his wife, have invited the famous singer Tawanna Sweet to attend the party.”

Elaine on the side exclaimed: “Oh, that Tawana is really here?”

Housekeeper Honey nodded and said, “Yes, Ms. Elaine, Miss Sweet has already landed on the island this morning. If you are her fan, you must come to the party in the evening. Then you will have the opportunity to take a photo with her and ask for her autograph.”

Elaine snorted with a haughty look on her face, patted charlie beside her and said proudly: “That Tawana came to China to hold so many concerts some time ago. My son-in-law is the Feng Shui director she specially invited. You go back and tell her that Master Wade is also on the island this year, and ask her to come and visit when she is free.”

Hani was stunned and asked in surprise: “Ms. Elaine...is everything you said true?!”

“Of course!” Elaine said very proudly: “My son-in-law is not someone that anyone can invite. Last time I went to be her Feng Shui director, it was because of her sincere attitude that I gave her face.”

Claire said awkwardly at this time: “Mom, please stop talking nonsense outside. It will be bad if it gets out.”

Elaine was not convinced: “Look at what you said, how could I be talking nonsense? Which word I said is not the actual situation?”

Claire said with a rare gloomy face: “Mom, even if it is the actual situation, there is no need to publicize it everywhere, right? Can’t we keep a low profile? We are just here for a vacation and will be back in a few days.”

Elaine saw Claire’s unhappy expression. Her daughter seemed to rarely express her dissatisfaction so directly. She didn’t know how she had offended her. Isn’t it her nature to like showing off? She has been like this for so many years. She should have been used to it by now.

However, although Elaine was usually strong, Claire was really unhappy, and she didn’t dare to continue to offend, so she said to the housekeeper Hani: “What I just told you must be kept low-key and confidential, don’t let outsiders know.”

Hani smiled and nodded: “Don’t worry, Ms. Elaine, I won’t tell anyone.”

Elaine turned around and took Avella willson’s arm, and said in a flattering way: “Claire, let’s go to the party together tonight. Mom has never seen such a big star.”

Claire didn’t know why, but the image of Tawana kissing the masked warrior passionately on the stage kept coming to his mind. He felt a little uncomfortable, so he said, “Mom, if you are interested, come by yourself. I want to rest and be quiet at night.”

Elaine was a little embarrassed, and looked at Jacob again, and said in a commanding tone: “Then you come with me tonight, but you are not allowed to have any problems!”

Jacob smiled and said, “What can I do? I have to join in the fun.”

After that, he asked charlie again: “Good son-in-law, do you want to come over tonight?”

charlie waved his hand and said, “I’m in the room with Claire, so I won’t join in the fun.”

Claire looked at charlie and asked, “Miss Sweet is your client. We happen to be on the same island this time. Would it be inappropriate if we don’t meet?”

charlie said indifferently: “What’s inappropriate about this? It was originally a temporary cooperation. When the cooperation is over, we will no longer have any cooperative relationship.”

Claire nodded slightly. Judging from charlie’s attitude, he didn’t seem to have any extra feelings for Tawana, which made her feel a little more comfortable.

At this time, Tawana didn’t know that charlie, whom she had been thinking about, was on the island.

As she had been on the plane for a long time, she had no appetite to come out for breakfast, so she lay on the terrace of the villa to bask in the sun and enjoy the scenery.

This time she rented a total of four water villas, two for her accompanying bodyguards, another for her parents, and the last one for herself.

Her parents kept asking her why she didn't ask Trevor to come along.

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7520

After all, in her parents' eyes, the two had always had a good relationship, and Trevor was also Tawanna's longest-time boyfriend. The family felt that the two had a great chance of getting married, but they didn't go on vacation together, which made them a little worried.

Tawanna told them that Trevor had missed a lot of training some time ago and was making up for it recently.

Although Tawanna really wanted to break up with Trevor formally, after thinking it over, she still couldn't make up her mind.

It's not because she still can't bear to let go of Trevor, but mainly because the two have been together for too long and know a lot of each other's so-called negative information. Trevor also knows very well that she is in love with Charlie. Without mentioning the breakup, the two can still keep their relationship tacitly, but once the breakup is mentioned, it is equivalent to completely tearing their faces apart.

Moreover, so many fans around the world have already accepted their relationship and feel that after countless love experiences, Tawanna has finally met the right person. If she suddenly breaks up at this time, she will definitely be questioned by fans. If Trevor adds fuel to the fire, he will likely be caught in a situation of being trapped both internally and externally.

However, humans are complex animals.

Once you no longer love the other person, this kind of reluctantly maintained relationship will make you more and more disgusted. This feeling is like the greasy smell left on your hands after eating fried chicken. You completely ignore it when eating, but instead feel that it tastes particularly good. But after you have finished eating, are full, or even have had enough, when you look at the greasy smell on your hands, you will feel an indescribable nausea and disgust in your heart.

Just when she was feeling bored, the doorbell suddenly rang.

She arrived at the door and saw through the peephole that the person who rang the doorbell was the famous luxury tycoon Bernard Arnault and his wife.

Tawanna opened the door and said with a smile, "Mr. and Mrs. Elna, long time no see!"

Bernard Elno said with a smile: “Tavanna, I didn’t expect you to come all the way to the Maldives for vacation. If you had told me earlier, I could have had the entire island cleared out for you.”

Bernard Elno’s wife complained in her heart, thinking: “Do you believe what you said? I didn’t even want to clear the island when I came here, so how could I clear the island for Tawanna? Tawanna is not a fool.”

Tawanna is certainly not a fool, but she is not smart either.

She had not thought of this, and said respectfully, “Mr. Elno, you are so polite. Your island has been famous for a long time. I have wanted to come and experience it for a long time. I am embarrassed to bother you with such a small matter. I just didn’t expect that you would be here. It’s such a coincidence.”

Bernard Erno laughed and said, “As the Chinese often say, meeting is fate. We are destined to meet. We must drink a few more glasses at the party tonight. What do the Chinese say? When you meet a bosom friend, a thousand glasses of wine are not enough.”

Tawana asked in surprise: “Mr. Elno seems to be very interested in Chinese culture?”

Bernard Elno’s wife complained, “He went to China on a business trip before, and he felt much better after the trip. He said that he learned how to cultivate his mind and character in China, and since then he has become very interested in Chinese history.”

Tawana exclaimed, “Oh, what a coincidence! I’ve been particularly fascinated by Chinese culture recently. I brought a silk embroidered cheongsam with me for this vacation. I really like it.”

Bernard Erno laughed and said, “Haha, great minds think alike. Miss Sweet might as well wear a cheongsam to the party tonight. It is said that one third of the guests on the island are from China.”

Tawana thought, since one third of the guests on the island were Chinese, the news that she went to the island and wore a cheongsam to attend the party would definitely spread to the Chinese Internet soon. Not only would the Chinese netizens have a better impression of her, but if Charlie heard it, he would definitely understand her feelings!

So, she agreed without hesitation: “No problem! I will wear the cheongsam to the party tonight!”
