

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7521

Because of Tawana's arrival, the originally quiet White Horse Island suddenly became lively.

Even at the hottest time of the day, the hotel guests were unwilling to stay in their rooms and came out to stroll around like teens, just to have a chance to meet Tawana.

What is even more incredible is that many speedboats of unknown origin suddenly appeared around Baima Island, both large and small. These speedboats kept circling around Baima Island, and some even wanted to enter the bay to land on the island. Baima Island quickly dispatched security guards and housekeepers, and drove several speedboats and yachts on the island to block the entrance to the bay.

When Tavana arrived on the island in the morning, many tourists had already posted the information about her arrival on the Internet. Maldives has hundreds of holiday islands, and tens of thousands or even hundreds of thousands of tourists from all over the world have come here. These people have a certain purchasing power. When they heard that Tavana was in the Maldives, on Cheval Blanc, many people wanted to go to Cheval Blanc to check it out, and even wanted to try to see Tavana herself.

Even if you can't see Tawana in person, it would be worth the trip if you can take some close-up photos of White Horse Island and post them on WeChat Moments or Instagram.

The entire Baima Island is an island reef. The main body of the island reef is C-shaped. Outside the C is a circle of very shallow reef area, which is suitable for snorkeling. However, because the reefs are sharp and too shallow from the water surface, ships cannot come in. In the middle of the C-shape of the entire island reef, there is a channel several meters deep that can accommodate small and medium-sized ships.

Baima Island reacted quickly, with several ships blocking the C-shaped opening, so the yachts could only circle in the outer deep sea area.

The roar of the engine was very loud, making Charlie a little irritated. He finally came out to spend a vacation, but ended up having a good sleep. It was only the next day, and the place was already like a vegetable market.

Because Tawana suddenly came to the island, Claire's mood became much more depressed. She was unwilling to leave the room and go to the restaurant for lunch unless it was necessary, for fear of meeting Tawana.

Fortunately, Tawana didn't want to be surrounded by a group of people wherever she went, so she had the staff deliver her lunch to the water villa to avoid contact with the public.

charlie and Tawana didn't meet Tawana in the restaurant, but they met hunter Hamid and his two wives.

After they met, the two chatted for a while at the door. hunter Hamid told charlie: "Brother, after attending the party tonight, I will go back to Syria early tomorrow morning. We two brothers finally meet each other. Do you want to have a drink together?"

charlie smiled and said, "I won't attend the party. If you want to have a drink, let's go to the beach bar after the party tonight."

"That's fine!" hunter Hamid said with a smile, "If you don't come to the party, I'll contact you after the party."

As he said that, he suddenly smiled mysteriously and asked charlie: "Brother, do you have plans to have a baby when you take your wife on vacation this time?"

"What plan?" charlie was a little stunned for a moment and didn't figure out the meaning of this sentence.

hunter Hamid smiled, gestured at his bulging belly, raised his eyebrows and said, "Make a baby, let your wife get pregnant and give birth to a child! I am afraid that no one will inherit my small family business. My brother, you have a big family and a big business. If you don't give birth to ten or eight sons, I am afraid that they will not be able to inherit it!"

"Oh, that's what you mean, brother." charlie came back to his senses and smiled awkwardly, "There are too many things to do right now. We are still in the start-up stage. We have no plans to have children for the time being. Let's talk about it later."

hunter Hamid nodded, gave a thumbs up and praised: "Brother, your overall view is indeed much better than mine."

Then, hunter Hamid sighed with an embarrassed expression: "This is a typical case of lust after food and clothing. I am too optimistic."

hunter Hamid was embarrassed, and charlie was also a little embarrassed.

Many things were inconvenient to talk about, so he stopped talking and patted hunter Hamid on the shoulder: "Brother, go back and work hard. If you have any questions, contact me as soon as possible. I will do my best to help."

"Okay!" hunter Hamid nodded with emotion and said, "Thank you, brother!"

charlie and Claire didn't plan to go to the party in the evening.

Elaine and Jacob were both very interested. After finding out a lot of details, they decided to go there early to join in the fun.

Bernard Arno really wanted to take this opportunity to take advantage of Tawanna's influence for free, so he extended a cordial invitation, hoping that Tawanna could sing a few songs for everyone at the party tonight.

In order to create a high-end atmosphere for guests, the Seaview Bar has a full set of performance equipment. There is also a live band playing on weekdays. If Tawanna can sing a few of her famous songs here, not only will the guests be very happy, but more importantly, when the video is posted online, it will definitely attract the attention and praise of netizens all over the world. In this way, the popularity of White Horse Island will be spread all at once.

Moreover, the White Horse Hotel is not the only one. It has its own directly-operated stores in many resorts around the world. As long as Tawanna sings a few songs here and makes the video go viral on the Internet, the White Horse Hotel can gain at least one billion exposures. Millions of dollars in marketing costs may not necessarily produce such an effect.

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7522

When Bernard Arno told Tawanna this idea on the phone, Tawanna looked disgusted.

She said to her parents, "This Bernard Arnault doesn't look like the richest man in the world. He's always thinking about saving money and getting things for free. Now he wants me to sing a few songs at the party. Normally, for such an occasion, I would have to pay at least a few million dollars for the appearance fee, right? He's so rich, but he never mentioned the fee."

Tawanna's mother smiled and said, "Honey, remember, the richer a person is, the more calculating they are. It's not that he is reluctant to spend the money, but he thinks it's best not to spend it if possible."

After that, she reminded him, "If you really don't want to agree, just find a reason to reject him. You can say that you are not feeling well recently or your throat is not feeling well. I believe he won't keep chasing you."

Tawanna nodded: "Then I'll tell him later that he had 20 concerts in a row recently and that he needs to rest because he overexerted his voice."

Tawanna's father said, "I think we should just do him a favor and let him sing a few songs at the party."

“That won’t work.” Tawanna’s mother said dissatisfiedly, “Can’t you see that Bernard Elno just wants to take advantage? Since we landed on the island, he hasn’t even said a word about covering all our expenses on the island. He didn’t even ask for an appearance fee when he invited my daughter to the party. Now he even wants my daughter to sing. Why should we go along with him?”

Tawanna’s father smiled and said, “You can’t look at the problem so one-sidedly. Just seeing that singing doesn’t pay off, it’s true that he’s taking advantage, but have you ever thought about it? If this matter is exposed online, and the video of my daughter singing at the party is uploaded to major platforms, it will also be a very good publicity opportunity for my daughter!”

“These days, when big stars do down-to-earth things, ordinary people are like gods descending from heaven, and it makes people particularly moved. If a top singer like my daughter walks into a bar on vacation and sings a few songs for the bar’s customers for free, I don’t know how many people will go crazy for her if I post it online!”

“Moreover, we are interacting closely with guests in the bar of the White Horse Hotel. The White Horse Hotel’s official group will definitely seize this opportunity and invest a lot of money to seek exposure in entertainment media around the world. At that time, they will spend money to help them and us promote together.”

“Also, although Bernard Arno is very stingy, he is the boss of so many luxury brands after all. There will definitely be a lot of cooperation opportunities in the future. Although he is stingy in private, his public cooperation is in accordance with normal procedures. His group will definitely not give less money, so what if we just treat it as a favor to him? For us, all the cost is nothing more than our daughter singing a few songs.”

“We promised Bernard Elno that it might seem altruistic, but it is actually selfish. In today’s business market, altruism is often a better form of selfishness.”

Tawanna and her mother fell silent at the same time.

If you think about it carefully, Dad’s analysis just now is actually very reasonable and objective.

Sometimes you really don’t want others to take advantage of you, but if you think about it carefully, if there is an opportunity for win-win cooperation, it is also a good choice.

Although he got a few of his songs for free, he also took this opportunity to promote the more down-to-earth side of a star.

So Tawanna nodded and said, “In that case, I will agree to sing a few songs at the party tonight.”

Tawanna’s mother told her: “Baby, listen to me. We will only sing three songs at most!”

Tawana didn't know why she thought of Charlie again, so she said, "Sing four songs. I want to add someone else's song."

"Huh?" Tawana's mother asked in confusion, "I can understand you singing four songs, but why do you have to add other people's songs? Isn't it good to sing four of your own songs?"

Tawana said absentmindedly: "I want to sing Gu Qiuyi's "Assassin", I like that song very much..."

Tawana felt that if her singing at the party tonight would make the entertainment headlines, then she must seize this opportunity to express her feelings to Charlie from a distance, and Charlie would definitely see it.

Tawana's mother did not have the concept of altruism. She felt that her daughter was at a disadvantage when she thought about her daughter singing other people's songs in public, so she advised her earnestly: "Honey, it doesn't matter if you want to sing a few songs, but it's best not to sing other people's songs. Why bother making wedding clothes for others?"

Tawana shook her head and said firmly, "Mom, don't persuade me about this. If I can only sing one song, I also want to sing Gu Qiuyi's "Assassin."

Tawana's mother looked helpless, but seeing her firm attitude, she could only nod and say, "Okay, it's up to you."

In the evening, the sky gradually darkens.

The guests who got the news had already surrounded the Seaview Bar, and everyone was waiting for Tawana to appear.

Tawana changed into a satin embroidered cheongsam, carefully combed her hair into a Chinese hairpin, and looked at herself in the mirror for a long time, feeling particularly satisfied.

Bernard Arno and his wife also arrived at the door of Tawana's villa. They brought a fleet of golf carts and prepared to go to the bar with Tawana.

At the same time, in the sea one hundred kilometers away, several black speedboats were speeding at high speed. Each speedboat was equipped with six super-powerful marine engines and was moving at an extremely fast speed.

On these speedboats, there were at least forty masked men in black, armed with guns. They were crouching and checking their weapons and equipment in the open cabins.

And the direction they were driving at high speed was the White Horse Island where charlie was!

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7523

In the Seaview Bar on White Horse Island, every guest was looking forward to Tawana's arrival.

The hotel prepared cocktails for all the guests, and the atmosphere was very lively as everyone drank while waiting for Tawana.

Many guests were holding cell phones with the recording function turned on, and their cell phone cameras were all pointed towards the entrance of the bar, for fear of missing the moment when Tawanna appeared.

At this time, members of the bar's resident band came on stage one after another. Several brown-skinned Filipino musicians stepped onto the small stage in the center of the bar, picked up their instruments, and prepared to perform.

No one paid too much attention to the band members because most of the guests had been to the bar before today and enjoyed the resident performances at the bar in the evening.

However, what no one expected was that after these musicians came on stage, they actually played the prelude to Tawanna's "Love Story".

This song is Tawanna's famous song and also her most well-known song. Fans who like her are naturally very familiar with the prelude melody.

No one expected that the resident musician would play Tawanna's famous song. They thought it was the band's attempt to liven up the atmosphere.

However, after the prelude, Tawana's singing voice suddenly came from the scene.

Everyone was a little stunned for a moment. If it was the resident band covering Tawanna's song, the sound couldn't be so similar.

Moreover, the female singer of the band was holding a hand bell and swaying happily to the rhythm, but she was not singing at all. So where did the singing come from?

Is it a CD played live?

But this doesn't make sense. After all, these musicians are performing live. It's impossible to simply play Tawanna's singing on a CD, right?

Just when everyone was confused, a tall, beautiful woman with blonde hair and blue eyes, wearing a Chinese cheongsam, suddenly walked out from the passage behind the small stage reserved for musicians to go on stage.

This beautiful girl was walking out with a microphone in her hand, singing a song.

Someone at the scene immediately recognized the woman, and she exclaimed: “Ah! It’s Tawanna! It’s really Tawanna!”

There was an immediate burst of shrill exclamations all around, and everyone who knew how to sing this song couldn’t help but jump and scream on the spot while singing along with Tawanna. The atmosphere on the scene suddenly became lively!

Not to mention the young people who like Tawana, even Ma Lan was jumping and dancing with excitement. She couldn’t sing Tawana’s songs, but she still held up her phone to shoot the video of him singing there, and then quickly lowered her head to edit her circle of friends, and added text: “It will be the top white horse island in the Maldives. The hotel specially invited the international superstar Tawana to perform on stage for us high-end guests! Others spend a lot of money chasing Tawana to watch concerts, but we have Tawana running directly to sing for us. This treatment is simply amazing!”

Before going on stage, Tawana had imagined ten thousand possible public opinions, but she had never thought that there would be someone like Ma Lan, who would describe her as an innocent person who came to Baima Island specifically to sing for them.

charlie was browsing his phone in the hotel room when he accidentally saw Ma Lan’s circle of friends. He was speechless. His mother-in-law was indeed extraordinary. She would do everything she could to flatter herself, even at the cost of insulting others in order to elevate herself.

She actually described a top international superstar like Tawanna as a bar singer, which shows how strong her skills are.

Claire also saw her mother’s circle of friends. Unlike charlie, charlie only found it interesting, but she felt a little ashamed, especially since charlie could also see his mother’s circle of friends, the feeling of shame was even stronger.

The two soon received a push notification from the short video platform: “Top singer Tawana Sweet is on vacation in the Maldives and singing live in a bar! Come and watch the live broadcast!”

charlie was confused, how come the live broadcast started so quickly?

So I subconsciously turned off the sound on my phone and clicked in to watch, and found that it was a live audience member who was broadcasting live on his phone. Millions of people soon flooded into the live broadcast room, and all kinds of barrage comments were scrolling across the screen at a rapid speed.

Claire seemed to be interested in the live broadcast as well, so she reached for the Bluetooth headset and put it on. Charlie had a keen hearing and from the faint sound coming out of her headset, he judged that she was indeed watching the live broadcast.

Inside the bar at this time.

After Tawana finished singing “Love Story”, there was applause, cheers, screams and whistles from the audience.

Each of the guests was extremely excited. They never dreamed that at today’s party they would not only get to see Tawanna in person, but they would even be able to hear her singing live, and at such a close distance. Even if they stood in the first row at a concert, they could not get such a close distance or receive such good treatment.

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7524

After Tawana finished her song, she smiled and said while holding the microphone: “Hello everyone, I am Tawana Sweet. I am very happy to be here with you to attend this party. I would also like to thank the White Horse Group and Mr. Bernard Arnault for the invitation. I hope you can spend an unforgettable night with me on this beautiful tropical island!”

The fans at the scene went completely crazy.

At this time, Bernard Elno and his wife also stepped onto the small stage with a microphone and said with a smile: “Miss Sweet is indeed the most popular female singer in the world. The charm of her live singing is so fascinating that even my old bones can’t help but sway to the rhythm. I would like to ask all the guests present, do you still want to continue to listen to Miss Sweet’s moving voice?”

“think!”

The guests in the bar cheered.

Tawana smiled and said, “Everyone should know that I held 20 concerts in China some time ago. The reason why I came to White Horse Island is because I wanted to take this opportunity to rest and relax. Mr. Bernard Erno happened to be here too. At his invitation, I attended this party. Since everyone still wants to hear me sing, I will sing a few more songs. However, the song I am going to sing next is not my own song, but the song of Miss Stefanie sun, who I collaborated with at a concert in China some time ago. I was very obsessed with her song “Assassin” for a while, and I hope everyone will like it!”

At this time, the audience cheered, but Claire's face turned pale.

Although the volume of the Bluetooth headset was very low, it seemed to be right next to Charlie's ear. When he heard that Tawana was going to sing "Assassin", he was also embarrassed and fidgeted, so he said to Claire: "Wife, I'm going to sit on the recliner outside for a while."

Claire nodded somewhat unnaturally: "Oh, okay..."

Coming to the terrace behind the villa, in the sky without light pollution, the Milky Way is like scattered beads, and countless stars are dazzling, together rendering a deep and majestic deep space beauty.

Charlie lay on the recliner, looking up at the clear Milky Way in the sky. He couldn't help but recall the two times he was fascinated by the starry sky, both times with Lin Wan'er. One time was when he was looking for the place where the mother of Pu'er tea had grown by the Dianchi Lake, and the other time was when he was in Northern Europe, seeing the polar night sky with Lin Wan'er, dotted with stars and various handprints formed by the mysterious aurora.

But until now, he no longer dared to use that damn hand seal. He thought it was a magical hand seal that could produce spiritual energy. Later he found out that the spiritual energy produced by the hand seal was not of any use to him, and it would also drain all the spiritual energy in his body.

As he sighed with emotion, he couldn't help but stare at the starry sky in a daze.

He thought of Lin Wan'er. In that era without much light pollution, this girl looked up at the starry sky for three or four hundred years. Behind this, there must have been a hundred years of loneliness that could not be described in words.

Just as he was distracted for a moment, he suddenly heard the sound of a speedboat engine coming from far away, and the sound of the boat hitting the sea.

This made him alert all of a sudden.

He had seen many yachts and seaplanes in the Maldives. During the day, there were even dozens or even hundreds of them circling around the White Horse Island. However, in his memory, those were all yachts, luxuriously decorated, but not very powerful.

However, now the sound of engines coming from a very far distance was extremely fast and powerful, as if dozens of engines were running frantically, and it felt like they were speeding towards White Horse Island at an extremely fast speed.

He had only seen speedboats of this specification in coastal cities. They were speedboats specially used for smuggling, commonly known as "Da Fei".

The reason why the big aircraft needs extremely strong power is that it needs to maintain an extremely high speed even when fully loaded. As long as it can outrun the anti-smuggling ship and not disintegrate, the faster the better, and there is no upper limit to the speed.

Therefore, this type of ship will be equipped with large-displacement, high-horsepower engines, and it is common for a ship to have six engines.

But the Maldives is a tourist island country, and the nearest continent is India. Who would be so blind as to travel six or seven hundred kilometers by sea to smuggle things out from India?

Besides, what does India have that is worth smuggling to the Maldives? Except for the inhabited islands, the average consumption level of all hotels in the Maldives is higher than that of Europe and the United States. They need luxury goods from Europe, drinking water from Fiji, and top ingredients from all over the world. It is impossible for them to need Indian products.

Therefore, Charlie could be sure that these speedboats were definitely not engaged in smuggling.

So, what are so many speedboats doing at such high speeds coming to Kep Island?

Although Charlie couldn't guess the other party's specific purpose, he was certain that the other party must have bad intentions.

He frowned slightly and thought to himself, "If they are here with bad intentions, then who are they targeting? Bernard Elno? It's possible. After all, he was once the richest man in the world. If we kidnap him, we will definitely not make a lot of money. And Tawanna, this woman is not easy to deal with either. Back in Japan, so many assassins wanted to kill her. Maybe these people today are also targeting her!"

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7525

At this time, four speedboats were running at high speed on the dark sea.

The lights of Baima Island are like a beacon guiding the direction on the sea, attracting the speedboat to rush straight towards it.

These masked men in black, armed with live ammunition, were quite similar to the men in black who assassinated An's family in New York. All of them wore the same uniform, had the same equipment, and were highly organized and disciplined. Except for the driver of the speedboat, everyone else squatted in the cabin with their heads down in the same posture, one hand tightly holding the handrail, the other hand tightly holding the assault rifle, and their eyes fixed on the front.

About a mile away from the entrance to the C-shaped bay of Baima Island, a man in black said through the intercom in one of the speedboats: "All ships slow down and turn off the engines!"

The four speedboats immediately cut off the throttles and the speed dropped immediately.

As the engine was shut down, the men in black immediately took out a carbon fiber oar from under their feet, and then everyone began rowing in the same frequency and rhythm on both sides of the boat.

Although the boat was moving at a very slow speed, there was no sound of the engine at all, and the sound of the oars sliding in the sea water was completely drowned out by the sound of the waves.

The staff on duty on the island could not hear any sound or see any light. The four speedboats were like ghosts on the sea, quietly approaching Baima Island.

However, I had no idea what these forty men in black were capable of. They had already been controlled by Charlie.

At this moment Charlie suddenly felt that these men in black were extremely well-trained and might be the assassins of Po Qing Society.

But he also felt that there was no reason for the assassins to come to this place.

If these assassins were coming for him, it would mean that his identity and whereabouts had been exposed. But if Sara knew his identity, she would not have sent only assassins to assassinate him. She would definitely send one of the three elders, or even all three elders together.

So where did these men in black come from?

While hesitating, four speedboats had already quietly entered the bay.

During the day, there were ships from Baima Island blocking the entrance and exit, but after nightfall, those ships that came to join in the fun returned one after another, and the ships from Baima Island also withdrew to the dock.

After the four speedboats came in, the leader said on the intercom: "Most people on the island are having a party tonight, and our target must be there. After we land on the island, the first thing we have to do is to kill all the staff near the dock. The second thing is to completely surround the Seaview Bar where the party is being held and control everyone inside. Don't let anyone escape. After the target is eliminated, follow my command and evacuate quickly. Do you understand?"

The men in black immediately responded in unison on the intercom: "Understood!"

The men in black were very close to Charlie at this time. They were at the entrance of the C-shape. The sea villa where Charlie was located, commonly known as the water house, was at the bottom of the C-shape, extending into the sea through two plank roads.

The public areas and office areas of Baima Island are mainly concentrated in the central part of the island, while above the island are tropical rainforest-style beach villas, commonly known as sand houses.

Charlie heard the conversation between the men in black very clearly. What he could not have imagined was that these men in black all spoke fluent Chinese.

At this time, the leader of the men in black was still arranging tasks. He said in a cold voice, "After we surround the Seaview Bar, Team One and Team Two will be responsible for the outer perimeter security, Team Three will be responsible for a carpet search within 300 meters of the Seaview Bar. All living people within the search range will be killed, leaving no one alive. Team Four, follow me to the inside of the bar. Do you understand?"

"clear!"

Everyone responded in unison again.

Then, a voice came over the intercom: "Sir, should we search and clear the guest rooms on the island?"

"No need."

The leader of the men in black said coldly, "We are going to do something big this time that will shock the world, so we will not cut off the power supply or destroy the communication on the island this time. Once I enter the bar, the tourists or staff in the bar may ask for help from the outside world through their mobile phones. The Maldives army is more than 100 kilometers away from here. It will take about half an hour to forty minutes for them to gather urgently and take a helicopter to rush over. This time is enough for us to complete the mission and evacuate calmly, but it is not enough for us to clear the island and leave the guest rooms. However, if anyone comes to die, as long as they appear in our range, we will kill them as soon as possible!"

"clear!"

When Charlie heard this, he thought to himself, could it be that these people are terrorists?

But he changed his mind and felt that something was wrong.

The vast majority of terrorists are informal armed personnel, including fanatics, gangsters, cultists, etc. Although these people are cruel and ruthless, they have no organizational discipline and do not possess real modern militaristic qualities. They are best at shooting blindly with AKs, and it is effortless for them to deal with civilians. However, if their combat effectiveness is measured by the standards of soldiers, they are not even as good as the ordinary army of third world countries.

These men in black are different. They are soldiers trained using the standard modern military system. Even if they are not special forces of the regular army, they are at least mercenaries who are not inferior to special forces of the regular army. Moreover, they are well-trained. A golden phoenix cannot fly out of a chicken coop. Such high-level soldiers can never be trained by terrorist organizations.

When charlie heard these men in black say they would skip the guest room area, he felt relieved, as it seemed unnecessary to wade into this mess. But after thinking about it carefully, he felt that he had to ignore the matter. His unlucky father-in-law and mother-in-law were still at the party, and there was no way they could come out for a vacation. He had originally planned to sleep there for only four nights, but ended up having to let them stay here and sleep forever.

So he hurried back to the room and said to Claire: "Wife, are you tired? Do you want to take a rest first?"

"Not tired." Claire was watching the live broadcast, took off one earphone, and said to charlie: "Why, are you tired?"

charlie didn't have time to play dumb with her, so he simply walked up to her and said gently: "Wife, you are tired, it is better to go to bed early."

After saying that, he patted Claire's shoulder, and a stream of spiritual energy passed into her body through the palm of his hand. Claire felt very sleepy, so sleepy that she couldn't even open her eyes.

She said dazedly: "What's going on... I suddenly feel very sleepy..."

charlie quickly supported her into the bedroom and whispered in her ear, "You must have not recovered from the long journey. Take a nap and have a good rest. You will be refreshed when you wake up."

Having said that, he put Claire on the bed.

Claire was so sleepy that her mind was already a mess. She said in a daze, "I'm really too sleepy. I'll go to sleep first. You should also go to bed early..."

Before Claire could finish his words, he fell on the bed and passed out.

Seeing that she was sleeping soundly, Charlie immediately turned off all the lights in the room and rushed out the door.

At this time, the four speedboats full of the men in black had quietly docked at the pier!

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7527

The people partying in the sea view bar had no idea that the crisis was approaching.

The first person to be killed was an island security guard on duty near the pier. Since the Maldives are all independent islands and the tourists are generally wealthy, there are basically no security problems and no dangers. The security guards are also very lax and have no weapons at all.

After the men in black landed on the island, the security guards were shot to pieces by assault rifles with silencers before they could even react.

Afterwards, these people formed a very professional formation and divided into three groups at the dock, with one team on the left and right wings, and two teams in the middle.

At this time, most people on the island were in the bar. There were some employees on duty in the administrative building, and some employees on leave were resting, but they didn't pay any attention to the situation outside.

Outside the Seaview Bar, there were about a dozen bodyguards, half of whom were Bernard Erno's bodyguards and the other half were Tawanna's bodyguards.

Among these bodyguards, some are martial artists, and some are battle-hardened mercenaries, but they all have one obvious thing in common: they have long been away from actual combat.

Rich people have top-notch security configurations on a daily basis, and bodyguards are often the last link in security, so even if there is some trouble, it usually doesn't require bodyguards to be deployed.

On the contrary, because these bodyguards follow the rich and enjoy the good life, not only do they become inflated and slow in reaction, but even their actual combat capabilities have greatly declined.

So these people guarding the door didn't notice anything unusual at all.

However, in high-end games, the window left for the opponent is often only a moment. If you seize it, you still have a chance to survive. If you fail to seize it, you will die.

While the bodyguards were still chatting and laughing with each other, the men in black were getting closer and closer to them, so close that they were within the range of their assault rifles.

At this time, the men in black in the middle stopped approaching, and the enemies on the left and right wings continued to outflank. After reaching the designated shooting position, the men in black on both wings suddenly opened fire!

The reason why the left and right wings opened fire was because they were worried that if they opened fire from the front, the bullets would penetrate the target and continue to shoot into the bar. The bar was surrounded by glass windows, and once the windows were shattered, it would inevitably attract the attention of the people inside.

However, firing from the left and right wings completely avoided this risk. Their bullets penetrated the bodyguards in an instant. Because the bullets came from both sides, the people in the bar still didn't notice anything when the bodyguards fell to the ground.

At the same time, charlie did not rush to the bar immediately. Instead, based on the communication knowledge that Lang Hongjun had taught him, he used his spiritual energy to cut off the power supply of the signal tower on the island.

Maldives is an archipelago country. The distance between each island and the capital varies. Most of the islands are self-sufficient. For example, electricity is generated by diesel and photovoltaic power generation, combined with energy storage equipment, so there is no need to lay cables from the capital. The entire Maldives has no fresh water resources, so the fresh water of the islands here relies on seawater desalination technology. In fact, the capital itself is like a township and has no ability to supply water and electricity to the surrounding islands.

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7528

As for communications and networks, high-end islands like Baima Island have their own set of satellite base stations that can provide communications and network services for the entire island.

If you want to isolate this island from the outside world, the easiest way is to directly cut off the power supply to the base station here.

charlie has different motives from these men in black. The men in black want to create a big incident, and big incidents are what give him the most headaches.

Given the geographical location and features of Baima Island, if the situation gets out of hand, the government will have to send troops over. Such a large-scale armed attack will inevitably make international news, and by then neither he nor his family will be able to escape.

Even if he could run away, the government would know that there was one less person on the island once they checked the entry and exit information and the landing information. According to the normal procedure for missing foreign tourists, they would definitely notify the embassy, and the matter would become serious at that time.

Therefore, before intervening, Charlie must ensure that any information on the island will not be leaked.

After making sure there were no operator signals or wifi signals on the island, Charlie immediately ran to the bar.

Outside the bar, after quietly dealing with all the bodyguards, the leading man in black said coldly: "Control the bar as planned. Team 4, follow me in!"

The captain of the fourth team immediately asked him: "Boss, can we fire indiscriminately after entering?"

"Of course not!" The leading man in black shouted, "There are many important people here tonight, even my favorite female singer Tawanna is here. If we kill them all directly, it will be a big loss!"

After that, he sneered and continued, "Tonight, we have a chance to kill four birds with one stone, but the premise is that we must control the rhythm and the scene! After we go in, we must control everyone inside immediately. If you encounter resistance that poses a fatal threat, you can shoot to kill the threat. Other than that, no one is allowed to fire at the people inside without my order. Do you understand?!"

"Clear!"

The men in black nodded immediately.

At this moment in the bar, Tawanna finished singing the last song.

The atmosphere in the bar was great. Because everyone had a few drinks, they were more relaxed than usual. Many people were already dancing with their glasses in hand. Even Jacob and Elaine joined a few foreign couples in twisting their legs a few times, looking very happy.

Tawanna knew that her impromptu little performance had become very popular on the Internet, and she was very happy to think that Charlie would definitely have heard about it.

Not to mention Bernard Arnault, who got a free ride from Tawanna's performance and greatly increased the popularity of the White Horse Hotel.

Just when everyone was immersed in this happy night, someone suddenly said, “Oh, why is the network down? I’m still live streaming! There are more than 100,000 viewers watching!”

Others who were live streaming also saw the prompt on their phones and exclaimed: “There is really no WiFi network! Even the operator’s communication network is gone!”

Bernard Elno heard the noise around him and hurriedly picked up his phone to check. He found that there was indeed no signal. He immediately asked the general manager of White Horse Island beside him angrily: “What’s going on? Why is the Internet suddenly disconnected at this time?! Do you know how many people are watching everyone’s live broadcast online?!”

The general manager was also sweating with nervousness, and quickly said: “Mr. Erno, please wait a moment, I will ask them to confirm it, there may be some problem with the equipment, I will ask the engineering staff to repair it as quickly as possible!”

Bernard Elno snorted coldly: “Hurry up! If you delay too long, you can resign!”

The general manager nodded in panic and was about to go out. Just as he was about to go out, a group of men in black suddenly filed in!

The leading man in black fired at the chandelier above his head with an assault rifle. All kinds of fragments fell to the ground with a crackling sound, scaring all the guests so much that they screamed and ran away in panic.

At this time, the man in black fired again with his gun and said in a cold voice: “Everyone, raise your hands and squat immediately, otherwise, I will kill you without mercy!”

At this moment, the bar was in chaos.

Everyone who had been drinking, listening to songs and dancing just now, now screamed in fright.

But despite their fear, these people did not dare to disobey the black-clad militants, so they raised their hands and squatted on the ground.

Bernard Arno was extremely terrified, and his first instinctive reaction was to think that these people must be here to kidnap him.

After all, he is a well-known wealthy man on the Forbes rich list.

Tawana was also extremely terrified. She also felt that these people were targeting her. After all, the same thing had just happened in Japan not long ago.

The man in black walked up to Bernard Eln, and plucked the old man out of the crowd like a rabbit, sneering, “Mr. Eln, you look much younger in person than on TV.”

Bernard Eln said nervously, “Who are you? What do you want to do here?”

“What?” The man in black laughed grimly and said, “Of course we are here to seek wealth, and we also want to make some big moves to let the world know of our existence and our abilities.”

After that, he raised his eyebrows and smiled at Bernard Eln: “Come on, Mr. Eln, pick up your phone and call the highest-ranking official you know in the Maldives to tell them the situation here and ask them to send elite troops to rescue you.”

“Oh, by the way, I almost forgot. The Maldives don’t have any elite soldiers. They are just some third-rate soldiers with poor training and poor equipment.”

Bernard Eln was extremely nervous and said timidly: “Don’t worry, I will definitely not report this matter to anyone secretly! If you want money, all the cash on White Horse Island can be given to you. If this money is not enough, give me a bank account number and I can ask my assistant to transfer it to you as soon as possible. As long as you don’t hurt us, everything will be fine!”

The black-clothed man’s expression suddenly became extremely ferocious. He raised his hand and slapped him, causing blood to bleed from the corner of his mouth. He cursed angrily, “You f*cking thought I was kidding you? I told you to call me and you did. If you say one more word of nonsense, I’ll break both of your legs!”

Only then did Bernard Eln realize that the other party actually wanted him to call for help.

So he asked tentatively: “I have the contact information of their Minister of Defense. Can I call him directly?”

Bernard Eln took out his cell phone and was about to make a call when he suddenly saw the no signal service sign in the upper right corner. He said with a sad face, “I’m sorry, there was a problem with our network just now. The entire network and the Internet are disconnected. Now we can’t contact the outside world.”

The man in black was furious when he heard this. He raised his hand and slapped Bernard Eln again. He knocked out two of his back teeth and angrily cursed, “Are you kidding me? Such a big island, and there is no Internet?”

“It’s true...” Bernard Elnó was slapped twice in a row, feeling extremely wronged and frightened.

He could only choke up and say: “Originally our network and communications were fine, but somehow it suddenly went offline. I said I wanted someone to check what happened, and then you came in...”

The man in black also took out his mobile phone at this time, looked down and saw that there was indeed no signal, and he was immediately furious.

What he wants to do today is to create a global event in order to achieve his multiple goals.

But now the network is disconnected and all plans are affected.

Furious, he grabbed Bernard Elnó’s collar and said with bloodshot eyes: “I don’t care what method you use, you must inform the Maldivian authorities, otherwise I will kill you!”

After that, he looked at the frightened Tawana in the crowd and said coldly: “Ms. Sweet, you are a top international star. Do you have any way to contact the Maldivian officials?”

Tawana shook her head like a rattle and blurted out: “I... This is my first time in the Maldives, and I didn’t inform them officially in advance...”

“Oh shit!”

The leader of the men in black picked up a pistol and shot Bernard Elnó in the right knee. The bullet instantly shattered his kneecap, and bone fragments and a large amount of blood and flesh spurted out.

Bernard Elnó fell to the ground with a bang, rolled on the ground in pain, and screamed like a pig being slaughtered.

The man in black pointed a gun at him and said, “Baima Island is your island. You will be responsible for any problems that arise on Baima Island! I don’t care what method you use, but you must find a way to restore the network for me!”

Bernard Erno endured the severe pain and asked the manager: “Hurry up and find a way to notify the technicians to inspect the equipment to see if there is any problem with the equipment!”

The man in black said to several of his men, “Take that man with you. If anyone tries to play tricks, shoot him on the spot!”

“Okay!” Several people nodded heavily immediately and pulled the terrified manager out.

At this time, the leader of the men in black walked onto the stage where Tawana had just performed, holding the microphone and smiling, “Don’t be afraid, everyone. Let me introduce myself to you. My name is Wan Tianxiao, and I’m a member of the famous mercenary organization Wanlong Hall. As long as you cooperate with us, I won’t hurt any of you. But if any of you dare to play tricks on me, I will definitely shoot him in the head!”

“Ten Thousand Dragons Palace?!”

Many people in the crowd were stunned.

This naturally includes hunter Hamid.

hunter Hamid’s first thought was to quickly reveal his identity and tell Wan Tianxiao from the Wanlong Palace that he had a very good relationship with their boss Wan Pojun.

But the next second, he suddenly realized something was wrong.

He didn’t know what style the previous Wanlong Hall was, and he didn’t know whether it would carry out similar terrorist attacks.

However, after being conquered by charlie, the Wanlong Palace would never do such a thing. What’s more, charlie himself was on the island. Let alone Wan Tianxiao, even if Wan Pojun came, he would not dare to act rashly.

This means that the man in front of him who calls himself Wantianxiao is not from Wanlong Palace at all!

Then why did he pretend to be from the Wanlong Palace? !

hunter Hamid’s brain worked quickly, and he suddenly remembered that this group of people had gone against their usual behavior and wanted to inform the Maldivian authorities and make a big deal out of it.

In this case, they must be trying to find a terrorist attack that would shock the world and discredit Wanlong Palace!

At this time, the leader of the men in black who called himself Wantianxiao looked around the frightened crowd and saw hunter Hamid next to the two pregnant women.

His pupils shrank slightly, and then he turned his head to look at others calmly.

In fact, hunter Hamid is his real target tonight!
