

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7541

At this moment, Tawana was completely in love with charlie in front of her!

Even though she is almost the most successful female singer in the world, she also admires strong men in her heart. It's just that there are no men around her who are worthy of her admiration. charlie is the only one.

It is precisely because of this that she has completely let herself go at this moment. Her life was saved twice by charlie, so it is worth it to offend anyone for him.

At this moment, she thought to herself, "What the hell is Blackwater?"

"If you make me angry, I will write a song to diss them!"

"Oh no!"

"I can release an album to diss them! The album title is "I Was Almost Assassinated by Blackwater"!"

"By then, I won't be making money from this album anymore. I'll license it to music platforms around the world for free distribution!"

"If for no other reason, just to show charlie my attitude, even if he asked me to carry a gun and go to the Blackwater Company's headquarters to get killed, I would be willing to do it!"

Seeing how cooperative Tawana was, charlie nodded with satisfaction. Although this American woman was wild, she had always been surrounded by many scandals and had a rich love history. Normally, such a person should not value feelings so much, so charlie was not sure whether she was willing to cooperate with him.

But now it seems that this American woman still has some loyalty.

So he immediately ordered: "When the network is restored later, I will wake up everyone on the scene. They must remember everything before they fell into a coma, so when they ask, Mr. Elno and Miss Sweet will tell them:"

"First, they fell into a coma because Magui and his men threw drugs into the bar that could cause people to fall into a coma;"

“Second, the reason you two are not unconscious is because Ma Kui fed you the antidote in order to extract more benefits from you;”

When charlie said this, hunter Hamid beside him quickly asked: “Brother wade, what about me? How can I explain that I am not unconscious?”

charlie rolled his eyes at him and said, “I didn’t mention your name, which means you don’t need to explain. Just pretend to be like everyone else, just waking up from a coma!”

“Yeah, yeah, yeah!” hunter Hamid laughed at himself awkwardly, “Look at my brain, it’s far inferior to yours, Brother wade! Keep going, keep going!”

charlie nodded and continued to say to Tawana and Bernard Elnor: “Third, why didn’t the terrorists kill everyone, but cooperated with you two? Mr. Bernard Elnor will explain it. It was you who promised Magui 100 million US dollars that made him betray.”

Bernard Elnor immediately said: “No problem, Mr. Wade, leave it to me!”

charlie looked at Tawana again: “Ms. Sweet, you have to live broadcast the whole process on your personal social platform later. You have to let the whole world know that this man named Magui brought Blackwater mercenaries to White Horse Island to carry out terrorist attacks. Fortunately, Mr. Bernard Elnor launched a money offensive to save everyone’s lives.”

Tawana nodded heavily: “Okay Mr. Wade, I will definitely do as you say!”

Ma Kui asked nervously: “Mr. Wade, if that happens, I will be wanted worldwide. How can I save my life then?”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7542

charlie pointed at hunter Hamid and said to him: “From now on, you will take your brothers and join Commander hunter Hamid’s army. You will serve Commander hunter Hamid in the Middle East under an assumed name. I will send someone to take your family to the Middle East, and you can reunite there when the time comes.”

charlie originally thought of letting Ma Kui join the Wanlong Palace and serve as cannon fodder for the Wanlong Palace.

But on second thought, no.

This grandson is going to be notorious soon. If we keep him in Wanlong Palace, if the news leaks out, the reputation of Wanlong Palace will definitely be affected.

But hunter Hamid is different.

This old guy is a member of the opposition, so it's not surprising that he does anything, let alone recruiting a few mercenaries to carry out terrorist attacks?

Moreover, these people can also put some trouble on the current leaders of the opposition. After tonight, they will definitely become notorious. By then, the public pressure will be very great. Even if they can be thick-skinned and not make any explanation, their future situation will be very embarrassing. If Magui joins hunter Hamid's team, it will only make them feel more uncomfortable.

When Ma Kui heard this, he initially felt a little resistant deep down.

As a senior mercenary of Blackwater, he knew very well that the opposition factions were a mob, and letting himself mix with them was like throwing a lion into the sewer to hang out with rats.

But he changed his mind and thought that he was lucky to be alive after this incident. He was disgraced and would be discovered or even assassinated no matter where he hid.

If you hide in hunter Hamid's cave in the mountains, I can't say anything else, but it is definitely safe. You don't have to worry every day or run around.

So from this perspective, it is a good choice.

However, he still wanted to gain a little benefit for himself, so he tried to ask: "Mr. Wade, can you help me introduce myself to the Wanlong Hall? I heard that most of the people in the Wanlong Hall are of Chinese descent, and I am half Chinese. When I get to the Wanlong Hall, I will work hard and make amends!"

charlie said coldly: "I advise you not to think too much! The entire Wanlong Palace is loyal to me alone. How can I allow someone like you to destroy the reputation of Wanlong Palace?"

Ma Kui was shocked. He didn't expect that the Wanlong Palace actually belonged to charlie!

So he immediately said respectfully: "Don't worry, Mr. Wade, I will work hard for Commander hunter Hamid until my death!"

charlie hummed, turned his head and looked at Bernard Elna, and sighed: "Mr. Elna, look how much I take care of you. Once this incident is exposed tonight, you will be completely famous all over the world. The whole world will regard you as a hero. Your family and your brand will be crazily sought after. Not only will your social status rise rapidly, but the group's sales will also explode. You are so lucky this time!"

Bernard Arnault also figured out the reason behind this. Saving hundreds of lives is a meritorious deed that could even have France and the Maldives write books about him.

Moreover, among the people he saved was the international superstar Tawanna. How great a contribution was this? Wouldn't her fans worship him like a god?

By then, the group's luxury goods will probably usher in a crazy sales wave, and the allocation amount will at least double!

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7543

When he thought of this, the corners of his mouth unconsciously lifted up to both sides, and the curved arc was even harder to suppress than the recoil of an AK47 firing continuously.

So, he said happily: "Mr. Wade, your plan is really great! I will definitely cooperate with you to the fullest!"

charlie said: "You old man are now taking advantage of me. I saved your life and gave you such a big benefit. Shouldn't you show some appreciation?"

"To show your appreciation?"

Bernard Elno's heart skipped a beat. Although he guessed charlie's motive, he still asked nervously, "How do you want me to express it?"

charlie said: "You decide for yourself."

Bernard Elno suddenly began to worry, thinking to himself: "charlie asked me to figure it out myself, what should I do? You can't ask me to give him 10 billion or 800 million US dollars as a thank you fee? He has made so much money from selling me the rejuvenation pill, how can I have so much money to give him?"

He thought for a moment, "After this incident is exposed, the future of Baima Island will probably be very bleak. After all, dozens of people died on this island. Which guest wouldn't think twice before coming?"

So, he made up his mind, gritted his teeth secretly, and said to charlie: "Mr. Wade, our group invested 700 million US dollars and spent several years to build the White Horse Island. It has just been put into use not long ago. Since you and your family like to come to the Maldives for vacation, I might as well give this island to you! As a small token of my appreciation!"

After saying that, he was afraid that charlie would feel that it was not enough, so he quickly added: "Don't worry, I have signed a 99-year lease for this island with the Maldives. I will pay you the rent for 99 years in one lump sum, and invest another 100 million US dollars in Baima Island as a future maintenance and upgrade fund to ensure that you and your family can enjoy the best vacation experience here anytime, anywhere. What do you think?”

charlie snorted and laughed twice, and asked him: “Mr. Elna, you are really generous. An island where dozens of people died and will soon be famous all over the world because of terrorist attacks. You gave it to me. Is this considered recycling waste?”

Bernard Arno was suddenly embarrassed.

charlie’s words hit the nail on the head. Even though a total of 700 million US dollars were invested in this island, most of the 700 million US dollars could not be taken away.

For example, when they were reclaiming land and expanding the island’s area, not a penny of the money could be taken away.

As for all the hardware facilities on this island, although a lot of money was spent, there is really no way to recover their value if you want to recycle them. Because if those hardware are dismantled from the Maldives and then recycled, the business logic is almost as absurd as spending a hundred dollars to make a counterfeit dollar.

Therefore, as long as what happened on Baima Island today gets out, Baima Island will almost lose its economic value.

Even if the prices are slashed to attract tourists who don’t mind these things to come to the island, profitability will be greatly reduced.

So it’s almost like a piece of waste.

Giving this thing to charlie seems to be quite valuable, but charlie is smart and can see through the water in it at a glance.

So, Bernard Elna gritted his teeth and said quickly: “By the way, Mr. Wade, there is another seven-star island in the Maldives, which is the JD Island of the Dubai Consortium. How about I buy that island personally and give it to you!”

JD Island, owned by the Dubai consortium, has recently been seeking to be sold. It ranks among the top three in the Maldives and is worth more than 500 million US dollars.

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7544

However, the international high-end tourism market has been somewhat sluggish in the past two years, and JD Island’s revenue capacity has declined, so the Dubai consortium plans to sell the island and withdraw.

When the market is depressed, most people want to withdraw. There are not many people who are able and willing to take over JD Island. Bernard Arnault can be said to be the only one.

He had previously had a brief communication with the Dubai consortium, whose psychological price was about 600 million US dollars, and he felt that it could be acquired for about 500 million US dollars. Since Charlie had seen through his little trick, he might as well buy JD Island and give it to him.

So, while Charlie didn't answer, he continued to add: "Mr. Wade, I'll just give you both JD Island and Baima Island! If you think Baima Island is not suitable for living, you can also use it for the soldiers of Wanlong Hall to spend their vacation. They are all well-trained mercenaries, and they shouldn't care if some people died on this island, right?"

Charlie couldn't help but raise his eyebrows and smiled: "Hey, Mr. Elno, don't say it, don't say it, your attitude now is much more sincere than that profiteer face just now."

Bernard Elno smiled politely and said, "I'm sorry, Mr. Wade, I didn't think it through just now and made you laugh. Although today's incident will have a great impact on the reputation of White Horse Island, it should not have a big impact on the entire Maldives. After all, this incident is an exception, and it is an exception planned by Blackwater Company, so JD Island's future business will not be greatly affected. If you want to make money with this island, you can directly entrust it to others and earn a very generous rent every year. If you think this island is not bad, you can keep it as a vacation resort for you and your family."

After that, he continued, "The overall hardware of Baima Island is still very good. This incident will be more or less unlucky, but I believe that the experienced soldiers of Wanlong Palace will not care. Don't worry, I will be responsible for the subsequent maintenance of this island."

At this moment, Bernard Elno no longer dared to have any hope in his heart.

The money that should be spent must be spent in order to have an effect.

I want to please Charlie, this is just a small token of my appreciation, and I will definitely have to continue to show my kindness to him in the future, so that I can maintain a relatively good relationship with him, and lay a good foundation for myself to continue to obtain the Rejuvenation Pill in the future.

Charlie also said very straightforwardly: "Since you are so thoughtful, I will definitely not let you down. Let's do as you say. However, you don't have to transfer the ownership of these two islands to me. Just put them in your name and you can hold them on my behalf."

"No problem!" Bernard Arno patted his chest and said, "Don't worry about this. Another advantage of registering it under my name and letting me hold it on your behalf is that my money can be transferred to these two islands through my group at any time to ensure the daily operation and maintenance of these two islands!”

charlie nodded: “Just tell me when you’re done with this matter.”

Bernard Elno said repeatedly: “No problem, leave it to me! Oh, by the way, Mr. Wade, what will be done with JD Island after it is purchased? Will it be entrusted or continue to operate?”

charlie waved his hand: “Just close down the business, lay off all the staff on the island, give them double compensation and severance pay, you pay for this money, after everyone is laid off, I will send a group of soldiers from the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall regularly, some disguised as staff, some disguised as tourists, this way, we will directly form an internal closed loop on the road.”

Bernard Elno couldn’t help but praise: “Oh, Mr. Wade, you are so resourceful! This internal closed-loop method not only makes JD Island look like it is still operating normally, but also allows our soldiers from the Wanlong Palace to take turns to come and rest. Once you and your family come, they can also ensure the safety of the island. It really kills two birds with one stone!”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7545

charlie Wade did not take the two islands in Maldives seriously.

If he wanted such islands, he could just take out a little money from his bank account and buy a bunch of them.

However, the island given by Bernard Elno has many advantages compared to the island he bought himself, the biggest advantage being the hidden ownership.

Bernard Arno himself is an entrepreneur specializing in high-end luxury brands. No matter how many high-end luxury resort islands he owns, it will not attract the attention of interested people.

In this day and age, the two main methods for investigating a person’s assets are ownership and financial transactions.

Just like some people will register their company and house under other people’s names, but the company’s profits, the rent of the property, or the sales proceeds when it is sold will eventually return to themselves.

In this way, the chain cannot be guaranteed to be clean.

As for the two islands, the property rights are under the name of Bernard Elno. After all external business is stopped, they will not generate any income. Instead, they will require capital investment. The funds will come from Bernard Elno, so he does not have to worry about being discovered.

As for property rights, he had nothing to worry about. From today on, Bernard Elno would listen to him. It was just two islands, and he would not play tricks on him over it.

After everything was arranged, Charlie Wade said to them, "Ma Kui, take your people to re-shoot the bodies outside. The plan will begin soon."

Ma Kui nodded heavily, not daring to hesitate, and said quickly: "I'll do it right away!"

Charlie Wade looked at Bernard Elno and Tawana again and said, "Mr. Elno, Miss Sweet, please handle the rest according to my previous request. I should have stayed in the water villa with my wife tonight and slept without knowing anything about what happened here."

Bernard Elno said respectfully: "Okay, Mr. Wade, don't worry, I will inform the Maldivian authorities and try not to disturb you and your wife."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "You must give full play to your identity as the boss of Baima Island and your subjective initiative. After the incident is exposed, the whole world will be closely watching Baima Island's every move, and you must immediately control the situation after the incident becomes a big deal. No matter what method you use, remember not to let the Maldives authorities conduct too much in-depth investigation, so that outsiders will think that you want to make a big deal out of a small matter."

Bernard Elno nodded and said, "Don't worry, Mr. Wade, I will know how to handle the situation properly."

Soon, Bernard Elno instructed the employees who had already gone to sleep after get off work to repair the power supply of the communication equipment.

During this period, netizens around the world who were watching the live broadcast of the Tawana Bar concert found that all related live broadcasts were terminated at the same time. They all thought that there must be some problem with the communication on the Maldives island.

However, they didn't expect that instead of waiting for the live broadcast of those viewers to resume, they had to wait for Tawanna's personal broadcast.

After Tawana started live streaming on her account on the short video platform, fans flocked to her live streaming room.

But no one expected that during the live broadcast, Tawana cried and said: “Just now a group of terrorists landed on White Horse Island. They drugged all the guests in the bar and took them hostage. If it weren’t for Mr. Bernard Erno, I’m afraid I would be dead!”

In an instant, it seemed as if a major earthquake had taken place on Internet social media all over the world.

If these words had not come from Tawana herself, no one would have dared to imagine that such a world-class and popular female singer would have suffered a terrorist attack in a resort like the Maldives.
