

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7546

So, the whole world paid attention.

Bernard Erno also appeared in the live broadcast. He and Tawana took photos of all the unconscious guests and said to the camera: “The reason why Miss Sweet and I are awake is because they gave us the antidote and wanted to squeeze more benefits from us...”

The subsequent plot was just as charlie Wade had planned.

After Ma Kui had finished reloading the guns of all his dead men, he came to the camera and said loudly: “Hello everyone, my Chinese name is Ma Kui, and my English name is Jack Ma. I am an Australian of Chinese and Japanese descent. Ten years ago, I joined the world’s largest mercenary organization, the American Blackwater Company, and have been carrying out missions in the southern hemisphere in recent years...”

In the video, Ma Kui recounted the specific circumstances of the incident in detail.

In order to enhance his credibility, Ma Kui followed charlie Wade’s instructions and not only described all the details of his time at Blackwater, but also took out his mobile phone to show his information on Blackwater’s internal APP and the details of this mission.

At the same time, he also said that the real reason why he came to the Maldives to carry out the terrorist attack was to assassinate a warlord of the opposition, and then create a terrorist attack and put the blame on Blackwater’s biggest competitor, Wanlong Hall.

After learning about this, the shareholders of Blackwater almost went crazy. They never expected that the carefully selected Ma Kui would betray them without mercy and almost push them into the abyss of no return!

They are capable of doing a lot of dirty things, but the premise is that they must never be leaked in this lifetime.

Originally they thought that the plan was flawless, but they never expected that Bernard Elno and Tawanna, two internationally renowned figures, were also on White Horse Island.

What was even more unexpected was that for the sake of money, Ma Kui actually betrayed the organization and even killed many of his own men.

Then, after Ma Kui confessed in front of the camera, he pretended to take out a “potion” and asked people to let all the unconscious people smell it. The magic of this potion was that after the unconscious people smelled it, they began to slowly open their eyes.

In fact, the potion had no effect at all. It was just that Charlie Wade followed Ma Kui's rhythm and woke everyone up from coma at the right time.

For these people, it was like a wonderful dream. When they opened their eyes, the suspended memories immediately came to their minds, and everyone remembered the scene before they fell unconscious and when the terrorists came in.

Elaine was so scared that she blurted out, "Please all the heroes let me, an old woman, go. I'm old and I've never had a good life. This is my first time in the Maldives. I can't lose my life here!"

Magui hurriedly said to her, "Ma'am, please don't get me wrong. I was planning a terrorist attack just now, but when you were unconscious just now, I had already reached an agreement with Mr. Bernard Elno. He will give me a generous reward that is enough for me to live a life without worries, and I will also swear allegiance to him. Except for the few loyal subordinates around me, all the other Blackwater mercenaries I brought with me have been killed by me. In other words, you are all safe now!"

Elaine asked him in disbelief: "What do you mean? You won't kill us anymore?!"

Magui nodded heavily: "No, I won't kill him. I have chosen to be loyal to Mr. Dori Bernard Elno for my whole life. From now on, you can rest assured because you are completely safe!"

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7547

Ma Kui's answer made all the Chinese people and foreigners who could understand Chinese cheer.

They were confused as they didn't understand, so the people next to them hurriedly explained to them.

Soon, everyone knew the good news. They all felt like they had survived a disaster, cheered excitedly, and some even hugged their loved ones and cried.

Elaine and Jacob were both so excited that they were in tears. They hugged each other tightly and cried uncontrollably.

Meanwhile, the entire Internet has exploded.

Tawana mercilessly broadcast the entire situation live, with at least hundreds of millions of people around the world watching in real time. The Maldives top leaders were also furious and immediately dispatched more than half of the country's troops to Kepulauan.

You have to know that the Maldives army has only about 3,000 people in total. Excluding the officers and logistics, there are probably less than 2,000 people who are truly combat-capable.

The Maldivian military's only mobile ships have a maximum displacement of just over 100 tons, and most of them are second-hand equipment from neighboring countries. The air force has only two or three foreign-aided helicopters with poor maneuverability, so the first batch of dozens of marines were immediately dispatched to White Horse Island to control the situation.

At the same time, the top management also called Bernard Elno personally, asking him about the specific situation of White Horse Island with great concern.

After Bernard Arnault informed the other party that the situation was under control, the other party told him that the army had already set out.

Then, Magui put on a show in public, holding a submachine gun and saying to Bernard Elno: "Mr. Elno, we have received your cryptocurrency. Thank you for your generosity. We will evacuate first!"

After saying that, he winked at several of his surviving men, and they quickly followed him, walking towards the gate with guns in hand.

Ma Kui looked around and said to all the tourists in the bar, "The Maldivian military can arrive in 40 minutes if they are fast. I don't know if my men outside are dead or not. I advise you not to move around casually and wait for the Maldivian military to arrive."

After saying this, without waiting for anyone's response, he turned around and walked out with his men.

Because he was the highest commander of Blackwater Company who carried out this terrorist attack, he had seriously violated the laws of the Maldives. If he stayed here, the Maldivian military would definitely arrest them as soon as they arrived.

Therefore, the plan that Charlie planned for them was that after Ma Kui openly betrayed Blackwater, he would immediately take his people and evacuate in the speedboat they came in. He would arrange for a merchant ship escorted by the Wanlong Palace to pick them up on the high seas.

Given the level of the Maldivian Navy, none of their ships could catch up with the speedboat that Ma Kui and his men drove when they arrived.

Moreover, Charlie was not worried that Ma Kui would get out of control. After he exposed Blackwater, with his personal abilities, he had no place to stay in the world. Hamid was his only choice.

If he dared to escape, he would not only offend Blackwater, but also offend himself, and then he would have an even harder time moving forward.

Magui himself knew very well that at this time, what else could he do? He should just go to Syria honestly. Following Hamid could help him eliminate potential traitors within the country. If he could make some military achievements, he might have a chance to make a name for himself in the future. It would be much better than living on the run for the rest of his life.

So he took everyone back to the dock, and after destroying the other speedboats, they drove the last speedboat away from White Horse Island.

The people in the bar were afraid to go out.

They didn't know what was going on outside. They only knew that Ma Kui said that there might still be terrorists who were not dead yet. If they were targeted and shot to death, they would not even have a chance to cry.

So, everyone stayed in the bar obediently, while Tawanna continued to broadcast live, denouncing Blackwater's actions in the live broadcast.

Blackwater's reputation has plummeted to the bottom, and many netizens have even called on the United States to define it as a terrorist organization and launched a petition on the White House website.

Half an hour later, as the sound of the helicopter got closer, the Maldivian Marines finally arrived at Kep Island.

When Tawana heard the sound of the helicopter, she immediately came to the window and broadcast live on her mobile phone. The senior officers of the Maldives Marine Corps were watching the live broadcast in the capital Male. When they saw Tawana pointed the camera at the military helicopter, they immediately notified the commander on the scene: "Tawana Sweet is broadcasting live, let our soldiers rappel down!"

His original intention was to let the Marines rappel down to show off. After all, when special forces and Marines were performing emergency missions, they would rappel directly from helicopters. It was very handsome and cool, and it would give the Maldivian military some face. After all, it was already embarrassing to let people come in to carry out terrorist attacks this time. It would be nice if their performance in the later stage could save some face.

But the commander said awkwardly: "Sir, our soldiers haven't practiced rappelling for a long time. I still suggest not taking risks and letting the helicopter land smoothly on flat terrain!"

The top brass angrily rebuked them: “For such an urgent mission, of course we have to act more urgent. How will it look if we land slowly and are seen by netizens all over the world? You must give our army face!”

The commander was also embarrassed and said helplessly, “Sir, a few years ago, the Indian military performed a rappelling show. They wanted to save face at that time, but one soldier fell down while rappelling and injured two comrades below. The Indian army was embarrassed in front of the whole world. Our soldiers don’t even have as much daily training as the Indian army. If we fail to show off at this time, we will probably be laughed at and ridiculed by people all over the world!”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7548

The top brass angrily rebuked: “We asked you to defend our country, yet you neglected your training. I will investigate this matter thoroughly and give you the most severe punishment!”

The commander said depressedly: “Sir, I have already applied for relevant budgets, including but not limited to the purchase of new helicopters and increased helicopter training funds, but it has not been approved! Our helicopters lack even basic maintenance, how can we afford to do rappelling training?”

The senior executive was also a little impatient and said irritably: “Okay, I’ll find a way to deal with this matter. In this case, don’t use the rope rappel, just find a suitable landing place!”

Everyone in the bar, as well as netizens around the world who were watching Tawanna’s live broadcast, were waiting to see the soldiers’ helicopter descend. Unexpectedly, the helicopter hovered for a long time and finally chose a flat open area to slowly land.

This slow behavior made netizens all over the world very dissatisfied, and the even more bizarre thing was yet to come. When these soldiers saw the corpses with bullet heads shot all over the ground, many soldiers even held their legs and vomited.

Fortunately, Tawana’s camera could only blurry capture the body on the ground, but could not capture the tragic condition of the body. Otherwise, the live video streaming platform would probably have blurred the image.

The commander, while resisting the urge to vomit, led the soldiers who could barely hold on to the bar. As soon as he entered the door, he immediately said: “All terrorists, raise your hands and surrender immediately, otherwise we will shoot directly!”

Bernard Elna stepped forward and said with disdain: “The living terrorists have already left. I don’t know if you can catch up with them.”

“What? Gone?!” The commander suddenly became anxious and blurted out: “Why did you let him go?! Why didn’t you leave them behind?!”

Bernard Elno pointed at his nose and asked with wide eyes: “You ask me? If I had that ability, what would I need you for? I might as well form an army to protect you!”

The commander was a little embarrassed for a moment. He touched his nose and quickly asked, “How are the people at the scene? Is anyone injured?”

“No.” Bernard Elno said unhappily, “I really don’t know what your army is doing. You didn’t even know about so many militants sneaking in. It’s really too much!”

As he spoke, he wanted to flatter himself, so he said in a cold voice: “Thanks to my use of money at the critical moment to disintegrate these terrorists, otherwise, Miss Sweet, I, and so many guests of White Horse Island would probably have turned into cold corpses!”

For Bernard Arnault, once the money is spent, the goal is to maximize the benefits.

Although he did not really give Ma Kui 100 million US dollars, he gave White Horse Island to Charlie, and also bought JD Island from the Dubai Consortium and gave it to Charlie. With all the losses and expenses, more than 1 billion US dollars was gone.

However, Charlie was kind enough to give him a chance to be a hero this time, and a French hero who saved hundreds of people and the superstar Tawanna Sweet.

As long as I seize this opportunity, the benefits it will bring to me will definitely be much greater than the loss of tens of billions of dollars, so from now on, I must always mention this achievement.

The commander was also embarrassed and could only flatter: “Mr. Elno, today is indeed thanks to you. Don’t worry, we will definitely strengthen national defense and security in the future and will not let this happen again!”

Bernard Elno accidentally noticed that Tawanna had pointed the live broadcast camera on her phone at him, so he immediately cleared his throat and said loudly: “These are all our distinguished guests from White Horse Island. I am willing to spend as much money as possible for them, and I don’t feel bad about spending it. It’s just that my bodyguards and Miss Sweet’s bodyguards were killed in this attack. It’s my biggest regret that I couldn’t save them!”

After that, he accused: “The main reason is that you are really terrible. You know, there are so many tourists from all over the world coming to you for vacation and consumption. Ensuring everyone’s safety is your most basic responsibility. I hope you can take it seriously from now on!”

The commander nodded immediately and said, “Mr. Elno, you are right to criticize me. I will report this to the top leaders and apply for an increase in national defense funding to ensure the safety of all tourists.”

Bernard Elno waved his hand and said, “How about this. After this matter is dealt with, I will donate 50 million US dollars to your defense department to strengthen your maritime defense capabilities. I hope this incident will never happen again!”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7549

Bernard Arno was as stingy as Grandet.

However, he is not stingy with himself, but with others.

Not only should you earn the money you should earn, but you should also earn as much as possible. It is wishful thinking to expect him to spend money for no reason.

The reason why he suddenly decided to donate 50 million U.S. dollars to the Maldives military today was because Tawana was broadcasting live around the world at this moment, and he just happened to take advantage of this opportunity and found the highlight of his life.

Bernard Arnault, who was limping, was standing in front of the Maldivian military commander with his crippled leg. The blood on his trouser leg had seeped out and dried and solidified, giving a feeling of being physically disabled but mentally strong.

The French people, in particular, admired him very much when they saw this scene. They felt that Bernard Arno at this moment was quite like the short Napoleon in his youth, as if Napoleon was possessed.

At this moment, Bernard Arnaud truly became a contemporary national hero of the French, making the French people feel proud.

The reason why the French people are so excited about this matter is mainly that in recent years, the Gallic rooster's international influence has become increasingly weak, and there are few things or things that it can show off in the international arena.

In the 2022 World Cup, Mbappe brought the expectations of the entire Gaul village and made it all the way to the finals, but the Gallic rooster was defeated by Argentina in the finals and finally won the runner-up.

In 2004, the Gallic rooster hosted the Olympics in a complete mess because of its stinginess, which made the already declining Olympics even worse.

In recent years, there has been very little positive news about the Gallic rooster internationally.

But today is different. Today, a new hero was born in France, a disabled but strong-willed tycoon who saved hundreds of people from the terrorist attack of Blackwater. Most importantly, he saved the pop queen Tawanna Sweet. For this contribution, it is not an exaggeration to erect a statue for him next to the Eiffel Tower.

At this time, Tawanna thought about it, took the phone to Elno, and said with concern: “Mr. Elno, your leg was shot, let them send you to Male for treatment!”

As she spoke, she also pointed the camera at Erno’s stump.

Bernard Elno was so excited that he almost cried. He thought, “F*ck, someone finally mentioned my injury. I was beaten by the gangsters. This is also a credit! If you didn’t notice it, how embarrassing it would be for me to say it myself? It has to be Tawanna, so smart!”

He suppressed his inner excitement, waved his hands, and said righteously: “My injury is nothing, it doesn’t matter, my safety is not important, the main thing is to ensure the safety of all tourists.”

Tawanna thought to herself, you old man are addicted to pretending. If it weren’t for Mr. Wade, I wouldn’t give you the opportunity to show off.

The Maldivian commander said quickly: “Don’t worry, Mr. Elno, we are here to take over the security work here. Our navy is also on the way and should be here in more than an hour. By then, the entire White Horse Island will be on high alert. Don’t worry, take our helicopter back to Male for treatment!”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7550

Bernard Elno shook his head again: “It doesn’t matter. I’ll just ask the medical staff on the island to give me some simple treatment. Once everything is settled, I’ll go back to France.”

In fact, what he was thinking was, I am worried about your helicopter and your medical level, so it would be most reliable to go back to France or transfer doctors from France as soon as possible.

The commander of the Maldives did not know Bernard Elno well enough. He did not know that he was just showing off. He thought that he was a man of high moral character and great love. He was moved and said, “Mr. Elno, I admire your character and actions very much! On behalf of myself and the entire Maldives, I would like to thank you for all your efforts and contributions. I believe that our government will definitely award you the highest medal of honor!”

Bernard Arno smiled and nodded, saying seriously: “Don’t thank me, this is what I should do. After all, I am not only a French citizen, but also an international investor in the Maldives. I will naturally spare no effort to help the Maldives and protect the tourists of the Maldives. As for the medal, I personally think it is just an empty title. It is better not to waste people’s money and time.”

Although Bernard Elno had no interest in medals for a tiny country like the Maldives, after all, it was being broadcast live around the world, and any icing on the cake, no matter how little, was a good thing, so he gladly accepted it.

However, he also knew that the other party was just a military commander, and he might not have the power to fulfill such a thing even if he said it, so being polite on the surface was a way of showing his grace.

Afterwards, the Maldivian Marines began to take inventory of the scene. Some people were responsible for registering the information of tourists on the scene, while others were asked to go out and deal with the bodies that had been shot in the head.

The combat capability and psychological quality of the Maldives army are far behind those of the militias of major countries, not to mention the regular army.

This country has not seen any serious wars in recent decades. The last war was when an opposition group hired 80 Sri Lankan mercenaries to land in Male and launch a rebellion.

Even though there were only eighty mercenaries, they made the Maldivian President unable to cope. Finally, he asked India for help. India sent more than a thousand paratroopers to calm the situation.

An army that couldn’t even defeat eighty mercenaries was naturally overwhelmed when faced with dozens of corpses with brains spilling out. These soldiers were almost vomiting while barely gathering the corpses together and covering them with the linens on the island.

In the bar, the Maldivian soldiers, with the help of the translator, registered the information of tourists one by one. When it came to Elaine, Elaine reported her name and nationality, and then asked the other party: “Hey, I say, we encountered danger on your territory and almost lost our lives. Aren’t you going to give us some compensation or something?”

The soldier shook his head and said through the translator: “I’m sorry, we are only responsible for registering information, we don’t know about compensation.”

Elaine was a little annoyed and said, “Then let your person in charge come over and talk. We spent so much money to come here, and we haven’t enjoyed it much yet, and we almost died here. You have to compensate us no matter what you say!”
