

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7556

Although Jacob felt that Elaine's request was quite shameless, he agreed to her without any hesitation at this moment.

The last time he went to Dubai was indeed the darkest moment of his life. If for no other reason than to break this nightmare with his own hands, he would go to Dubai again and experience the decadence and glamour with his whole body.

So, he said to Elaine: "Maldives is not far from Dubai. Why don't we let the two children return to Aurous Hill after the trip to Maldives is over, and we can fly directly from Maldives to Dubai."

"Sure!" Elaine said with a smile, "Your idea is good, let's do it. Go back and have a rest, and tell Claire tomorrow when you get up!"

That night, many people around the world stayed awake all night.

But Claire slept very soundly, and did not open his eyes until the next morning.

At this time, the entire White Horse Island had returned to calm. All the bodies had been taken away, the blood left at the scene had been cleaned up, the tourists were well comforted, and even Bernard Arno used the pain pump brought by the French doctor overnight.

His knees were medically beyond the possibility of recovery, but fortunately, the technology of artificial knee replacement was already very mature. The French doctors planned to let him go back for treatment, but Bernard Arno insisted on staying on the island for a few more days, at least until charlie left.

Today happens to be the Chinese New Year's Eve. Bernard Arno specially asked the staff on the island to decorate the entire island in Chinese style. He also purchased a large number of fireworks and is having them airlifted over, intending to hold a sea fireworks festival for all the tourists on the island tonight.

After getting up, Claire had no idea what happened last night.

Seeing that charlie had not gotten up yet, she simply washed up, made herself a cup of coffee with the capsule coffee machine in the hotel room, and then went to the terrace facing the sea with the coffee in one hand and her mobile phone in the other.

During this period of time, she has been hiding a lot of things in her heart, and all kinds of pressure made her breathless. This scene of sitting alone on the beach can make her feel rare peace of mind.

However, this calm did not last long.

Because she looked down at her phone, she was immediately startled by the various push notifications on the screen!

《Breaking news: Maldives White Horse Island suffered a terrorist attack last night! 》

Tawanna Sweet's Thrilling Adventures Live Broadcast

Tawanna Sweet: The White Horse Horror: An Unexpected Terror Attack

“Blackwater planned a terrorist attack, and the former world's richest man used money to save hundreds of lives”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7557

Claire was stunned. Wasn't Tawanna attending a party at the Seaview Bar last night? Her parents also went, but she and charlie didn't go. Later, she felt sleepy and slept until now. She slept very soundly.

Could it be that a terrorist attack occurred on this island while I was sleeping soundly? !

Claire couldn't believe it and quickly clicked on the news one by one.

There was a video news that used the footage of Tawanna's live broadcast. When she saw her parents squatting on the ground with their heads in their hands during the live broadcast, she realized that this incident was actually true!

She quickly read many related reports. It was said that the American Blackwater Company launched this terrorist attack by pretending to be mercenaries of Wanlong Palace in order to assassinate a competitor.

Moreover, the original goal of these people was to kill all the guests attending the party in the bar and create a major case that shocked the world, but they did not expect that Bernard Arnault, the former richest man in the world, bribed the people of Blackwater with hundreds of millions of US dollars, letting them kill each other and resolve the crisis.

Claire suddenly felt extremely fortunate to have Bernard Elno, otherwise, his parents might have met with an accident!

However, after these conditioned reflex-like conventional thoughts appeared, an idea unconsciously arose in Claire's mind.

If such a big thing really happened on the island, charlie could not have been unaware of it. After all, he had seen the extraordinary abilities of Master Jingqing that day, and Master Jingqing had also said that with his strength, he could not compare with charlie at all.

Well, given charlie's style, he shouldn't have stood idly by last night.

Could it be that the reason why everything went smoothly last night was all due to charlie?

She quickly recalled that she had been watching Tawana's live broadcast last night. After seeing her singing "Assassin", she suddenly became very sleepy and has slept until now.

After looking through the relevant news reports last night, it seems that the gangsters appeared when Tawanna was singing in the bar, which is highly consistent with the time when she was asleep.

It seems that the reason why I fell into a deep sleep must have something to do with charlie.

While she was thinking actively, charlie opened the door, walked out of the room, stood on the terrace, stretched, and said with a smile: "Wife, you got up so early today!"

Claire put away his thoughts, nodded and said: "I went to bed early yesterday, so I got up early today."

After she finished speaking, she looked at charlie and said with a puzzled look on her face: "Why did I fall asleep so early yesterday? I remember that I was still watching the live broadcast at that time, and I fell asleep in a daze."

charlie smiled casually and said, "It may be because I have been too tired these two days. I finally relax and I feel tired easily."

Claire asked him again: "Then when did you sleep?"

charlie smiled and said, "If you sleep, I will sleep too, what's wrong?"

Claire shook the phone in his hand and said, "I saw on the news that there was a terrorist attack on the island last night. It was quite serious. I even saw my parents in the relevant video."

charlie pretended to be surprised and said, "Is this true?! There was a terrorist attack on the island?! Are mom and dad okay?"

“It’s okay.” Claire admired charlie’s acting skills and murmured, “The news said that Bernard Elno paid the terrorists to save everyone. There were no casualties on the island yesterday. I was thinking of going to see my parents and ask about their situation.”

charlie could only continue to act: “I didn’t expect the Maldives to be so dangerous! Let’s go to my parents’ room and ask them what’s going on.”

Claire nodded, and left the water villa with charlie and went to the next door.

After knocking on the door for a long time, Jacob opened the door while rubbing his eyes. Seeing that it was charlie and Claire, he yawned and said, “Hey, Claire, charlie, why are you two here so early?”

Claire asked hurriedly: “Dad, I saw on the news that there was a terrorist attack last night. Are you and Mom okay?”

“It’s okay.” Jacob waved his hand nonchalantly: “Not only are your mother and I fine, but it’s a blessing in disguise. We each get $100,000 in mental damages!”

After that, he said with regret, “It’s a pity that you two were not here yesterday. If you were here, you two could have received 100,000 each.”

Claire said quickly: “What’s going on? Tell me quickly.”

Jacob invited the two of them in and described the terrifying moment of last night in an exaggerated way.

When Claire heard that he and Elaine had also been inexplicably unconscious in the bar for a while, he realized that it was not Bernard Elno’s money offensive that saved them last night, but charlie who came forward to save them.

She couldn’t help but look at charlie, only to see that charlie was listening to the story intently, as if he was very interested in what happened last night.

She couldn’t help but sigh in her heart. Her marriage with charlie was full of all kinds of lies. Even though he was a hero and saved her parents, he still had to act in front of her. This feeling really made her feel helpless.

At this time, Viola Ma heard the noise and came out of the bedroom. Seeing charlie and Claire, she said excitedly: “My daughter, my good son-in-law, our trip to the Maldives is really worth it. We don’t spend a penny, and we can earn a lot when we leave!”

Jacob laughed and said, “I’ve told them both.”

As he spoke, Jacob looked at charlie and Claire again and said, “By the way, charlie, Claire, we have discussed it and plan to go to Dubai to play for a few days before returning. If you have anything to do, just go back to Aurous Hill first and don't have to accompany us."

Claire knew that it was not their style for their parents to return to Aurous Hill with peace of mind after receiving the compensation of 200,000 US dollars this time, so he nodded and said, "Then you can plan your own itinerary."

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7559

At this moment, the doorbell suddenly rang outside the door. Jacob got up and opened the door, and saw the housekeeper Hani standing outside the door. He said respectfully: "Hello, Mr. willson, I'm sorry to bother you. I came here so early because I have three things to tell you."

Jacob nodded: "Go ahead, Honey."

Hani said, "The first thing is that the staff of the Chinese Embassy contacted us. They want us to convey to all Chinese guests that if you want to leave the island early and need the embassy's help, they can arrange flights to help Chinese guests return home. However, this is entirely voluntary. If you and your family are willing to continue to stay on Baima Island, they will not interfere."

Jacob said: "The embassy is quick enough, but we won't bother anymore. Let's wait until the day we check out before leaving. What about the second thing?"

Hani said, "The second thing is that our group president, Mr. Bernard Elno, knows that tonight is the Chinese New Year's Eve, so he has specially prepared a New Year's Eve dinner at the Asian Style Restaurant. At 5 o'clock in the afternoon, please go there with your family and other Chinese guests on the island to celebrate the New Year. Mr. Elno will also attend in person, and we will also broadcast the Chinese Spring Festival Gala on site at that time."

Jacob smiled and said, "The service on your island is quite considerate. By the way, why do we start eating the New Year's Eve dinner at five o'clock?"

Hani said: "There is a three-hour time difference between here and China. When it is five o'clock in the afternoon, it is already eight o'clock in the evening in China, and the Spring Festival Gala should have started."

"Oh, I see!" Jacob said with a smile, "Okay, we'll be there on time. By the way, can you help me ask when your boss will pay the compensation he promised?"

Hani said hurriedly, "Mr. willson, this is the third thing I came to see you about. Please provide us with your and your family's bank account information. Our group's finance department will remit the money to you today. In addition, Mr. Wade and Ms. willson can also get the same compensation. Our boss said that all guests on the island will be treated equally, and each person will receive $100,000!”
